Mentoring 4 Kids
Inspire Empower Enrich

The Judith & Jack Rosenberg Mentoring 4 Kids program at Alpert Jewish Family & Children's Service has helped dozens of families since its inception in 1998. M4K works to achieve a healthy future for children ages 6-14 who are being raised in single-parent homes. This free program pairs children with same gender adult volunteer mentors who provide unconditional friendship and support by participating in fun, community activities as they build a lifetime friendship.

Call Karen Cohen to learn about becoming a volunteer or how an M4K mentor can help your child who has lost a significant role-model.

GOD NEVER GIVES UP ON US

by Rabbi Alon Levkovitz

In the 1930's Dr. Guttmann was considered the top neurosurgeon in Germany. With the arrival of the Nazis into power, Guttmann, like all Jewish doctors, was banned from practicing medicine professionally. In 1939 the Council for Assisting Refugee Academics (CARA) helped him to escape to England and in 1943 the British government asked him to establish the National Spinal Injuries Centre at Stoke Mandeville Hospital in Buckinghamshire.

The movie "The Best of Men" that focuses on Dr. Guttmann's early career, shows how at that time of his arrival in England, it was assumed that paraplegics would never be able to live any kind of normal life. The best that could be done for them was to keep them sedated by high doses of drugs, and left hospitalized and bed-ridden until they died.

However, Dr. Guttmann believed that despite their severe disabilities they each had a life ahead of them, and with faith and hard work, they Yiddish phrase "Man plans and God laughs." Guttmann himself, who was tormented by the life he left behind in Germany, and especially his family and friends who were murdered by the Nazis, had to come to terms with his new life, and that was what he taught his patients. From lying in bed all day long he forced them to move to wheelchairs, then to compete with each other and the staff (whom he also placed in wheelchairs) until the idea of international games for disabled athletes came to fruition.

Rabbi Jonathan Sacks was once asked what question he would ask God when he gets to heaven, to which the rabbi responded, "How come you have never given up on us, why, with all our sins, flaws and rebellions you still believe in us?" Like Dr. Guttmann's paraplegics we are spiritually and morally wounded. We look back at the past and realize how big the discrepancy is between our dreams and our reality. The good Doctor, without sugarcoating the truth, demanded excruciating work, and expected his patients to tolerate agonizing pain, yet he never lost faith in them and their ability to build wonderful lives for themselves.

On Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur, as we reflect on our life we should never forget that God, no matter what we did or didn't do—never gives up on us, even if we've lost faith in ourselves.

Shanah Tovah,
Rabbi Alon Levkovitz

The Summer Olympics Games are over, but as it has been the case since 1960, a couple of weeks after the closing ceremony, the Paralympics Games begin. I don't know how much interest these games draw today, but growing up in Israel in the 1970's and 80's I followed them with much interest, as did much of the country. The 1973 and 1982 wars left many young, strong and determined soldiers disabled. The Israeli Paralympic teams were full of these amazing individuals who both inspired us and made us proud with the medals they won for the country.

On Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur, as we reflect on our life we should never forget that God, no matter what we did or didn't do—never gives up on us, even if we've lost faith in ourselves.

While the official Paralympics Games started in Rome in 1960, the first organized athletic day for disabled athletes that coincided with the Olympic Games took place during the 1948 Summer Olympics in London. Dr. Ludwig Guttmann of Stoke Mandeville Hospital hosted a sports competition for British World War II veteran patients with spinal cord injuries. The first games were called the 1948 International Wheelchair Games, also known as the Stoke Mandeville Games, and have been the precursors of the Paralympic Games.

could leave their beds, build families, have jobs, and find happiness. It was a physically and emotionally painful process, for everyone involved, as Dr. Guttmann and his team reduced the veterans' painkillers, made them sit up, and brought in a trainer to make them exercise. The other doctors and the nurses thought that his treatment was out of line, and often the soldiers refused to go on, complaining that the life as they knew it was over. The plans and aspirations they had for the future were all but gone. His response could have been summed up by the

Chidush Capital Campaign Committee Update

The one Article you should not read (yet)!

(Ok, if you insist on reading things you shouldn't ...)

The reason you aren't supposed to read this article is that this is supposed to be the High Holy Days-focused Scribe—with articles about the High Holy Days not the Chidush Capital Campaign.

But it's been a while since we gave you an update on the Capital Campaign and we were too excited about Chidush to wait until November. So forgive us. We will atone. See—now the article has a High Holy Days theme.

By now, every member of the Temple should know what's happening. You should have seen multiple updates in the Scribe, should have received a letter or two or three. Maybe received a phone call or two or three. Maybe even had someone buy you a cup of coffee. Maybe you've been to Temple this summer and noticed how we—umm, well, how can we put this gently—utterly destroyed it.

The reason was that this summer the Temple underwent a major renovation project. All in all, the project has been going quite well. The purpose is to improve the layout and capabilities of the facility in order to better align with the current needs of our members and to make the Temple a whole lot nicer and preserve our warm and welcoming atmosphere. Here are some of the improvements the Temple project was able to accomplish:

- Create a more intimate and pleasing spiritual setting; bringing the people in the sanctuary closer to the Rabbi and Cantor, Ark, Torah and the Service.
- Add a state-of-the art sound and visual aid system.
- Add a third social hall section, allowing for 50% more simultaneous programming and education related activities and 20% expanded seating for High Holy Days.
- Convert the Lobby into a welcome center.
- Add a crying room for viewing Services with young children and cranky adults.
- Enhance the support areas: offices, kitchen, receiving and storage.
- Expand the Youth lounge.

To support this effort, we kicked off a Capital Campaign last spring. The goal was to raise all of the money needed to complete the project without the need for additional borrowing. A very good Capital Campaign Committee did a great job helping the Temple raise $2.5 million, approximately 85% of the total needed. That is pretty good. Actually, it is very good. So good that we decided to give you a break and take the summer off.

Now the summer is over and soon we will get back into our Chidush Capital Campaign drive. The effort up to now has been a success. But as anyone running a marathon would know (who are we trying to kid) make that “anyone trying to eat an extra-large pizza by themselves” would know—it's the last 15% that is the hardest to finish.

A substantial percentage of the Temple's members have already pledged and secured dedication namings. Some have not. But do not worry. There are more opportunities to participate. And participation is really important. Back when we constructed the Temple building—almost all of our families participated in the effort. Their names are on the dedication boards in the Lobby. Chidush is another great opportunity to be recognized for supporting the Temple. There is something uniquely fulfilling about walking into Temple on High Holy Days or during a Bar or Bat Mitzvah Service and pointing to your name on a dedication Board. It's a good way to impress your out of town friends and family—especially that big-shot brother-in-law who likes to brag about all of those imaginary “Temples up North” he built.

In any case, please stay tuned: there will be more information and updates coming in November. For now we want to leave you and your families with a heartfelt L' Shanah Tovah and best wishes for a happy and a healthy new year.

Jackie Halderman and Hal Baseman

A MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

by Carol Carswell

The High Holy Days are here and it is a wonderful time of year. We began with Selichot. For those who attended the dinner prepared by Chef Eric, wasn't it great? The Service was beautiful, as always.

The construction is far from over, however, the Sanctuary is beautiful. Just imagine what everything will look like when it is complete. There are still many opportunities for dedications. Call the office if you are interested.

Once again we will be having the food drive on Yom Kippur to benefit Alpert Jewish Family and Children's Services. Each year the amount of food we have collected has grown. Let's keep that up. Bags will be given out on Rosh Hashanah. The Yom Kippur pledge request is one of the few times we ask for your voluntary financial support. Please provide your generous support so that we may continue doing all the activities and programming for Temple Beth Am and the Jewish community.

If you haven't been to one of Cantor Jessica's meditations (the next ones are on October 14 & 28), you should try it. It is a wonderful way to leave the cares of the week behind you and get into the spirit and serenity of Shabbat.

Once again, we had a speaker from the League of Women Voters. She explained, in plain language, the amendments that will be on the ballot. Prior to the speaker a breakfast was served by the Men's Club.

Our Board members names are always listed in the Scribe. We value your input so talk to us anytime. If you have comments or questions, you can call me at 561-236-3022 or email me at carolcarswell509@comcast.net.

L'Shanah Tovah. Happy and Healthy 5777. Looking forward to greeting all of you during the High Holy Days.

B'Shalom,
Carol Carswell

FALL PROGRAMMING AT TBA

by Carol Sleeper, Director of Engagement, Programming and New Membership

Throughout the year we plan for all of the different events that happen at Temple Beth Am. Even during the renovation, we discussed and designed programs to be held in rooms that weren't even built yet. While I am sure I will see a lot of familiar faces during the High Holy Days, I hope that this year we will also see some of you at many of the diverse programs that we have planned for this year.

We hope to have lots of volunteers from the Temple and The One School to help out on Sunday, October 16th as Paul Steidle and his crew put up the Sukkah again this year. At the same time as they will be working on the structure in the front of the building, there will be a garden clean up going on in the back. Both of these volunteer opportunities begin at 8:00am so there's lots to do even before religious school starts. Please contact Paul Steidle at paulsteidle@comcast.net if you can help put up the Sukkah and please contact Kerrie Rhoades at kerrie.rhoades@gmail.com if you want to assist with the garden cleanup.

Starting in October, on the third Friday of the month, we'll have an earlier Service starting at 6pm which will be followed by a congregational Shabbat Dinner. This month's dinner is on October 21. The cost of the dinners is $18 per person and children under 12 will be no cost. RSVPs are required so that Chef Eric can prepare the delicious Shabbat meal and we can make sure that we can accommodate everyone. See details on page 18 in this Scribe.

Also, once a month, young families from Temple Beth Am and The One School will be getting together for a monthly Wacky Wednesday playdate out on The One School playground. It's a chance for families with children up to 8 years of age to get together, socialize and bond with their school and Temple friends. There will be food, drink and plenty of fun. Check the Temple calendar for Wacky Wednesday playdates!

One more thing, we've teased you a little bit but now it's time to send your checks in to join us as Temple Beth Am goes to the Maltz Theatre to see The Producers on Saturday, January 28, 2017 at 8:00pm. Tickets are $40 per person and are limited. Your check will reserve your spot and since they are limited it will be on a first come basis. Unfortunately, we will not be able to save a spot for you without payment (see page 13 in this Scribe). And that's just a few of the things coming up at Temple Beth Am after the High Holy Days! Whew, there's even more coming up but I'll let you know about them next month. See you at the Temple!

From my family to yours, wishing you and your family L'Shanah Tovah.

Carol Sleeper

L'SHANAH TOVAH—HAPPY NEW YEAR!

by Melanie Goldsobel, Director of Administration and Accounting

Shalom! I'm going to start first with business: As the High Holy Days are literally right around the corner, a couple of last minute things... Tickets for the High Holy Days have already been mailed to all members who have re-committed membership to Temple Beth Am for fiscal year 2016-2017. If you have not received your tickets yet, please call the Synagogue office as soon as possible to give us your membership pledge and we will have your tickets at the door.

Now putting membership business aside: All of us in the office are so excited to see all of you at the High Holy Days and to spend the New Year with you! We have so many exciting programs this year such as a Movie Festival, Bagels and...Special Shabbats, Guest Speakers, Challah Baking and so much more. We can't wait to share them with you.

And lastly...

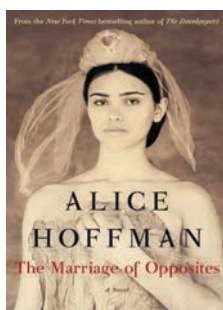

On Rosh Hashanah it is written...
On Yom Kippur it is sealed. May it be written and may it be sealed that you have a new year that brings fulfillment and happiness, peace and prosperity – all of life's very best things. Have a Happy, Healthy New Year!

L'shanah Tovah,
Melanie Goldsobel

JOIN THE TBA BOOK CLUB

The Book Club will meet next on Monday, November 7 at 10:30am at the Temple. We will be discussing

THE MARRIAGE OF OPPOSITES

by Alice Hoffman

A forbidden love story set on the tropical island of St. Thomas about the extraordinary woman who gave birth to painter Camille Pissarro—the Father of Impressionism. Growing up on idyllic St. Thomas in the early 1800s, Rachel dreams of life in faraway Paris. Rachel's mother, a pillar of their small refugee community of Jews who escaped the Inquisition, has never forgiven her daughter for being a difficult girl who refuses to live by the rules. Growing up, Rachel's salvation is their maid Adelle's belief in her strengths, and her deep, life-long friendship with Jestine, Adelle's daughter. But Rachel's life is not her own. She is married off to a widower with three children to save her father's business. When her husband dies suddenly and his handsome, much younger nephew, Frédéric, arrives from France to settle the estate, Rachel seizes her own life story, beginning a defiant, passionate love affair that sparks a scandal that affects all of her family, including her favorite son, who will become one of the greatest artists of France.

As is our usual routine, we will be meeting for lunch following our book discussion. This time we will meet at Carmine's: 4575 Military Road, on the east side of Military, North of Donald Ross Road.

Please RSVP to Edie Wolf at ediewolf@gmail.com or 443-223-9729 and let me know if you will attend the Book Club discussion AND whether you will attend the lunch at Carmine's. Looking forward to seeing you all there. New members are always welcome.

For Temple Beth Am families new to Florida (and for those who are not new!) I am happy to provide some unconventional definitions and extra guidance for Hurricane Watch Season:

- Invest 1-99... No, this is not a Nasdaq stock
 - Tropical Wave... When the former Alaska governor stands atop the Jupiter Lighthouse and sends signals to Cape Verde
 - Tropical Depression... Something akin to your own emotional state, but less predictable
 - Tropical Storm Watch... DO NOT fall for the frozen food sales at your Publix
 - Tropical Storm Warning... Time to take that fake duck out of your pool
 - Tropical Storm... Don't worry, DWTS will be available On Demand when your power returns
- I suppose I should warn you -- NOAA knows nothing about these descriptions from your Sister. My personal favorite is "I don't care what the forecast is; don't hoard the Parmalat!"

MEN'S CLUB SCRIBBLES

by Bruce Cohen, Men's Club President

MEN'S CLUB UPDATE: PROGRAMS FOR EVERYONE

The Men's Club of Temple Beth Am has been busy organizing and helping out with several activities around the Temple. In September we held our breakfast with a speaker from The League of Women Voters that discussed the Florida Constitutional Amendments. This non partisan discussion gave great insight into the meaning and intention of the proposed amendments. We had a wonderful breakfast of bagels and lox with all the fixings and delicious egg salad and more. I want to especially thank Mary Elias for being in charge of the kitchen and preparing such a wonderful breakfast, as well as all the Men's Club members for pitching in and making it such a success.

We had planned to have an adult Shofar making program in September but had to postpone it. Rabbi Alon suggested that we move the program until next May so we will have time to find an instructor to show us how to make shofars specifically for adults. Following the program Rabbi and Brett will then be able to teach the proper way to blow Shofars for the High Holy Days.

Our Veteran's Day Celebration will be held at Temple Beth Am on Sunday, November 13th. There will be a breakfast followed by a speaker. Bruce Starr will be chairing this Patriotic event. Everyone is welcome to the program. There will be a $12 charge for breakfast, but the presentation is free to all. Contact brucestarr412@gmail.com for more information and to RSVP.

Men's Club Dinner

We will be holding our Dinner Club on Tuesday, October 25th, at 6pm at Tiramisu Ristorante Italiano in Tequesta. Harvey Silverman has arranged with Lucca, owner of Tiramisu for their Sunset Menu (details on following page). Harvey tells us the food is great and the portions are generous. The cost will be $24.95 per person.

Please email Harvey to reserve your table at harvey2020@gmail.com.

Elections for Men's Club officers took place at our September 14th meeting. I would like to congratulate the following elected officers of the Men's Club Executive Committee for 2016-2018:

David Elias
Herb Gildenhorn
Bob Hochman
Mel Wolfe
Harvey Silverman
Jack Tenenbaum
Bruce Cohen

The next Men's Club meeting will be held on Wednesday, October 19th at 6:30pm. Please join us then.

I look forward to seeing you throughout High Holy Days and wish the best to all.

Chag Sameach,
Bruce Cohen

BAT MITZVAH OF LINDSAY COPPLE

With great love, incredible pride, joy and excitement we are thrilled to announce that our daughter, Lindsay Rachel, will be called to the Torah as a Bat Mitzvah on October 8, 2016.

Lindsay is an 8th grade Honor Roll Student at the Arthur I. Meyer Jewish Academy where she has attended school since kindergarten. She is also a 6 year camper at her beloved Camp Barney Medintz in Cleveland, Georgia which has become her second home and second family.

Lindsay is a conscientious and hardworking student, a competitive travel club volleyball player and a talented aspiring young writer but most importantly, she is a wonderful, funny, loving, kind, caring, supportive daughter, sister and friend who is as beautiful on the inside as she is on the outside. We could not be more proud of the young woman she is becoming and we are so joyful to celebrate this milestone in her honor.

Lindsay has chosen JARC, the Jewish Association for Residential Care in Boca Raton, Florida as her Mitzvah project. The JARC is an amazing organization that enriches the lives of extraordinary people with developmental disabilities by providing them with opportunities for vocational training, employment, social events and independent living. Lindsay is collecting new/gently used G and PG rated DVDs and new/gently used games for the residents at JARC.

She is also sponsoring a Bingo/Pizza Party at JARC on September 25, 2016 where she and her friends will enjoy a fun filled afternoon socializing with the residents. All donations of new/gently used DVDs and games can be delivered to the Mandel JCC in Palm Beach Gardens.

Lindsay would like to thank all of her teachers at the Meyer Academy and her friends and counselors at Camp Barney Medintz for helping to instill in her great pride and appreciation for her Jewish heritage and traditions and a love and understanding of the importance of the state of Israel for the Jewish people.

She and we, her family, would also like to express our heartfelt gratitude and appreciation to Rabbinic Intern Brett, Cantor Jessica and Rabbi Alon for all of their time and attention in preparing Lindsay for this special occasion.

Along with Lindsay's sister and brother, Sydney and Dylan, we want to congratulate Lindsay on this amazing accomplishment. We cannot wait to celebrate!

BAT MITZVAH OF ZOE DENMARK

It is with great joy, a love unmatched and an unmatched honor to invite our community to join us as our daughter, Zoe Samantha is called to the Torah as a Bat Mitzvah on Saturday, October 15, 2016.

Zoe is an eighth grade honor roll student at the Arthur I. Meyer Jewish Academy, which she has attended since Kindergarten. When she isn't studying, you will often find Zoe spending time with her family, zooming around on her hover board, swimming, watching YouTube, or shopping at the mall with her friends.

Zoe's tremendous heart for all creatures big and small, her love of the beach and the ocean led her to her Mitzvah project. Zoe has chosen to support the Loggerhead Marineline Center (LMC), one of Florida's most unique, non-profit, cultural destinations focused on ocean and sea turtle conservation. Zoe designed custom silicone bracelets to sell and is donating all the proceeds to the LMC.

The bracelet shows support for the Marineline Center and to help build awareness. To date, Zoe has raised more than $700 for the Loggerhead Marineline Center. To learn more about LMC, and the wonderful work they do, visit their site at <http://www.marineline.org>

Zoe began her temple life with her baby naming ceremony in December of 2004 when she was only four months old, and TBA was still in a trailer. We were honored to have Cantor Jessica be present for her first lifecycle event. We are amazed at how the community and congregation has grown and changed through the years. Zoe's Jewish education started in the Mommy-and-Me program, in the amazing Temple Preschool and, in 2008, she graduated from the Shining Stars class.

We are grateful to the TBA Preschool and Paula Deakter (The One School) for giving Zoe her start in Judaism. But, throughout Zoe's journey and growth, sometimes it comes full circle. We feel especially grateful that Cantor Jessica is once again part of our congregation and has been working closely with Zoe to help prepare her for this, her becoming a Bat Mitzvah. We also want to thank Zoe's teachers at the Meyer Academy for their dedication to Zoe's Jewish education and for their help preparing Zoe for this special day in her life.

As we prepare for her moment, we would like to offer a special thank you to Rabbi Alon, Cantor Jessica and Rabbinic Intern Brett Tancer for all of their assistance in preparing Zoe for this step on her path. We thank you for being part of Zoe's—and our family's—journey to reach this milestone.

While oftentimes quiet and introspective, Zoe is blossoming as a young adult. Her boundless energy and free spirit have served her well and, we know she is well on her way to leading a life filled with Judaism, love, joy, and many achievements.

Zoe, we love you and we are so proud of the amazing young woman you are becoming and we are looking forward to watching you grow.

BAT MITZVAH OF AVIVA SENZON

It is with tremendous pride we announce our daughter Aviva Brook Senzon will be called to the Torah on October 22, 2016 as a Bat Mitzvah. Aviva is a Hebrew name meaning spring. She truly embodies her name as she enlivens everything around her.

Aviva stands out literally with her height but also for her ever present smile and calm demeanor. She excels in all things music, and is even a self-taught piano player. You can often find her playing the bassoon in her school band or singing in her school chorus or at a Maltz Theatre musical production. When not humming a tune at home, she participates in many hobbies like dancing, cooking, traveling, and laughing. Aviva is also an honor roll student at Independence Middle School.

Aviva has been raising money for Boston's Children's Pediatric Pain Rehabilitation Center as her mitzvah project. She has been making beautiful handmade necklaces and will donate the money she raises to the center.

We would like to thank all of her religious school teachers, Temple staff, Rabbi Alon, Cantor Jessica and Rabbinic Intern Brett for teaching Aviva and helping her embrace her Jewish heritage.

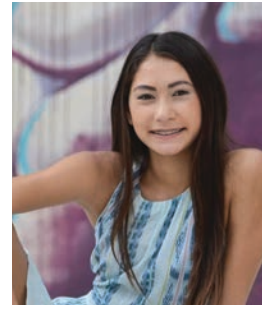

Along with her siblings, Makena and Trevor, and her grandparents we are extremely proud of Aviva for all of her accomplishments and reaching this exciting milestone in her life. We are all excited to hear her melodic voice as she reads verses from the Torah.

It's been a joyous ride watching Aviva as she grows into a mature, optimistic, compassionate, talented young woman. We look forward to many more adventures, travels and laughter together.

Marci and Craig Senzon

BAT MITZVAH OF JADE LICHTENSTEIN

With great love and joy, we are excited to celebrate a special moment in our lives, as our daughter, Jade Alexa, becomes a Bat Mitzvah on October 29.

Jade is an honor student at Jupiter Middle School, where she studies writing and debate. In her spare time, Jade enjoys running, baking, dancing, and taking care of our family pets.

Nicknamed "the animal whisperer," by her family, Jade has started a small pet sitting business, which has allowed her to sharpen her entrepreneurial skills. She also keeps her family and friends entertained with her famous one-liner personality!

Due to Jade's lifelong dance education, she has witnessed contemporaries suffer from various body image issues and eating disorders. Affected greatly by their struggle, she has chosen to do her mitzvah work with The Alliance for Eating Disorders Awareness in West Palm Beach.

Her mission is to educate guidance counselors, educators, clinicians and doctors on how to accurately assess for these serious mental health issues, in which currently approximately 32.5 million Americans suffer—25 percent being males! Please watch out for more upcoming information regarding her "Friendraiser" to benefit this worthy organization. The Friendraiser is set for Thursday, October 27 at Fonda Lee Beauty Bar.

We are so proud of her kindness towards others and her care for every living being. We are very grateful to Rabbi Alon, Cantor Jessica, Rabbinic Intern Brett, her Hebrew school teachers and Temple Beth Am staff for their dedication to her Jewish education.

IMPORTANT UPCOMING DATES

Monday, October 3: Rosh Hashanah NO SCHOOL
Tuesday, October 4: VPK Begins

Wednesday, October 12: Yom Kippur NO SCHOOL
Monday, October 17: Sukkot NO SCHOOL
Wednesday, October 19: Sukkot in the Garden Family Program 5:00pm
Monday, October 24: Sh'mini Atzeret NO SCHOOL
November 4: Kids Shabbat Noah's Ark

On Yom Kippur, we go through a process called "Teshuva," which in the most literal terms means "Return." Teshuva involves four steps:

Regret — acknowledging that a mistake was made and feeling regret at having squandered some of our potential.

Cessation — talk is cheap, but stopping the harmful action shows a true commitment to change.

Confession — to make it more real, we admit our mistake verbally and ask forgiveness from anyone we may have harmed.

Resolution — we make a firm commitment not to repeat the same harmful action in the future.

How can we teach our children what it means to have character?

We want our children to react calmly to life's twists and turns. So many parents complain that their children cannot deal with even the smallest disappointments. They speak about kids who erupt in anger when the carpool is late for pick-up or supper is not ready on time and they are 'starving.' These are the little moments through which we may teach our children to remain composed while they confront their aggravation. Reacting calmly, working through the situation methodically and not losing it emotionally, despite being frustrated, empowers a child to lead with his or her mind and not just his emotions.

The gift of anticipation

Many of us have fond memories of taking our film to be developed; anxiously waiting for the allotted day and eagerly sorting through the package of photos. Some have childhood memories of collections — coins, dolls, stamps, stickers or trading cards. Each time a new piece was acquired, there was a feeling of thrill. Shopping trips meant waiting our turn, and knowing that when the next salesperson would be free we would be helped. I recall checking the mail each day, waiting for friends from overseas to respond to my letters, and when I finally spotted the familiar writing, I would rip the envelope open and hungrily read their words.

Our culture has trained us and our children to live in a world of instant gratification. In a split second, pictures appear on our cameras. Food is zapped in the microwave. E-mails and text messages appear instantly. We buy online, our children scroll through shopping sites with ease. There is no learning to anticipate our turn, and too many parents make collecting impossible when they cave in every time their children whine that they want, 'more now!'

Our easy, hassle-free lifestyle has robbed our children of the gift of anticipation. Waiting for a moment to happen or anticipating a desired object makes us appreciate our gifts so much more. We value what we have because we have invested our time and energy. When we are given things automatically, we lose the preciousness and stop cherishing our blessings.

The gift of humility

There is another character trait that has remained out of reach as we try to make life easier for our children and that is the feeling of humility. When kids are not given the opportunity to see that others come first, they grow arrogant. Waiting means that we open our eyes and see that this world does not only revolve around us. There are many types of people with whom we share the universe; all kinds of children and families. No one's time is more precious. Thinking that I must always be number one enables a child to speak and act with disdain for others.

As we greet the new year, let's help our children learn to confront the ups and downs with a more positive spirit, and allow them to learn that patience, anticipation and humility make this world a better place in which we may all live.

THE ONE SCHOOL PTO

by Kerrie Rhoades, President

Given the fast-paced, uber-connected world we live in these days, making new friends, building new connections, or even maintaining relationships can feel like a daunting challenge. We understand how difficult it can be to take time out of your already busy lives to try to coordinate something as simple as a playdate for your child(ren) but more importantly for yourself! One of our primary goals this year is to create a STRONGER One School at Temple Beth Am parent-teacher community. We understand that in order to build a stronger community you need to provide opportunities for people to come together and we're doing just that! Thanks to the Aronson family's generosity and willingness to open their home to us, our PTO successfully launched our first Mom's Night Out to kickoff the 2016-2017 school year! To continue our efforts to create more opportunities for families to connect we're partnering with Temple Beth Am to provide monthly Wacky Wednesday Playdates at The One School playground. In lieu of our next Wacky Wednesday playdate, we will be celebrating Sukkot in the Garden on Wednesday, October 19th at 5:00pm. Additionally, Natalie Montijo and Yael Lawrence hosted the first Mama Vent Sesh—a facilitated Moms Support Group featuring wine, snacks & stimulating conversation. For more information about Mama Vent Sesh, please contact Natalie Montijo, MSW, MPH at njmontijo@gmail.com. Stay tuned—We're percolating more ways to come together. We'd LOVE to hear your ideas too! If you have ideas for additional ways to connect, please contact Katrina Aronson at katrina.aronson@gmail.com.

Our Adopt-A-Class program was a huge success—ALL of our classes were adopted! Thank you to all of the families that adopted a class this year and to Stacey LaPlaca for overseeing the program. If you're still interested in adopting your child's class, Adopt-A-Class forms are located in the preschool office.

Our first garden clean-up was a HUGE success—It's absolutely beautiful!! Thank you to our teachers and families who helped—Mike Friedman, Carri & Brian Lager, Ashley Douglass, Maggie Orosz, Stacey LaPlaca, Alison & Jonathan Steiner, Amanda Parisi, Dakota & Thomas Russell, Michelle Eisler, Deanna Katz, Natalie & Harvey Montijo and Paula & Mike Deakter.

Our Next Garden Clean-up is Sunday, October 16th at 8:00am to prepare for our Sukkot in the Garden Program Wednesday, October 19th at 5:00pm.

Our bake sales continue to be a huge success—Thank you Samantha Gestal, Natalie Montijo, and Naama Laviv for ensuring we all get to enjoy our bake sale treats! Our next bake sale is Friday, October 28th from 12:00 - 3:00pm in the preschool lobby. Our first Scholastic Book Fair of the year takes place Friday, October 28th - Friday, November 4th. We will launch our book fair with a Books & Baked Goods event Friday, October 28th from 12:00 - 3:00pm and officially kick off our book fair with a Pajama Books & Breakfast kick-off event Monday, October 31st at 7:45am. Our book fair will be open for Religious School Sunday, October 30th from 9:00am - 12:00pm.

We are excited to announce that we are partnering with the Mandel JCC in Palm Beach Gardens and Temple Beth David this holiday season to hold our Annual Holiday Boutique Fundraiser. PLEASE SAVE THE DATE: Our Annual Holiday Boutique will kick off with a Sip & Shop event Thursday, November 17th from 5:00-8:00pm and will continue the following day, Friday, November 18th from 8:30am-4:00pm at the Mandell JCC in Palm Beach Gardens. The Holiday Boutique is a great fundraiser for our preschool and a wonderful shopping event that can help jump-start your holiday shopping. PLEASE come to show your support for our preschool and wonderful local vendors! If you are interested in being a vendor at this event, please contact Lissa Schwab at LissaS@JCCOnline.com. Thank you Lissa Schwab for all of your hard work and effort to organize this amazing event.

We look forward to continuing to participate with all of the congregants and families to ensure a wonderful year for our children.

HAMAKOM NEWS

by Alissa Frankel, Director of Education

Sukkot, celebrated only five days after Yom Kippur, is often ignored from holiday fatigue. And Simchat Torah, celebrated at the end of Sukkot (7 days later) is really a "but wait don't forget about..." Holiday!

Sukkot and Simchat Torah are two of my favorite holidays, even if they are the step children of the Jewish fall holidays.

When I was growing up I loved decorating the sukkah after religious school with plastic fruit and stringing popcorn. I especially liked Simchat Torah because it was the only holiday where I was allowed to wear jeans to Services! And after all that dressing up for the High Holy Days, it was a nice change of pace! I also loved being able to watch the Torah being unwrapped around the entire sanctuary, and parading around with plastic flags.

Fast forward to adulthood, I can bring the joy these holidays brought to me to our families at Temple Beth Am. To celebrate Sukkot we are hosting a week long Fall Festival with events to fit everyone's interests and for Simchat Torah we are bringing the circus to town! Join us for these festive holidays and events throughout October!

YOUTH GROUP

How to Balance Your Busy Lifestyle by Amanda Feld

Over the past few months, I have grown accustomed to my new Youth Director position here at Temple Beth Am. With Alissa Frankel on maternity leave, the Temple under construction, religious school beginning, and my high school youth group starting their high demand school curriculums, I found myself wearing many hats. The most important aspect of my position, I have noticed, is learning how to work with everybody's hectic schedules in order to fulfill what I need to accomplish.

Learning about the amount of school work, extracurricular activities, volunteer hours, college resumes, and pressure these children have is astronomical. Not only do they struggle to find time for their friends and family, but time for themselves.

"According to a survey by StrategyOne, 89% of Americans say that work/life balance is a problem."

.....

I wanted to share a few suggestions I have been researching that will help balance a 24 hour day for school aged children as well as busy adults who have a lot on their minds and agendas:

1. Organize and maintain a calendar/agenda: Keeping all of your appointments, meetings, events, and due dates all in one place can help visualize your time frame and offer some clarity in that racing mind of yours! Mark down an hour or two a week to sit down, focus and accomplish what you need to. Checking them off your list will feel great!

2. Get some exercise: While it might not make sense to add yet another activity onto your busy schedule, getting your body active helps reduce stress, increases your health, and makes you feel accomplished. (I usually bring my work with me on the treadmill so I can finish two things at once!)

3. Turn the TV off at dinner: Everyone needs to eat! Designate a specific time to actually sit down and eat dinner WITHOUT ELECTRONICS. Sharing exciting stories and talking about your day will automatically create family time that is imperative in order to maintain open and meaningful relationships throughout the entire family. Who knows, you might even help each other organize your schedules!

4. Prioritize: What are the most important activities you need to accomplish? What can you get done tomorrow? It is OK if you don't finish everything in one day! Remind yourself that you can only do so much in a 24 hour period. Warning: This does not mean you can procrastinate and save everything until the last minute! Do a little at a time; use that calendar you made in step 1 to finish projects so you can attend that wonderful dinner with your friends at the end of the week.

5. Give yourself an extra 5 minutes in the shower: This might sound silly, but spending an extra 5 minutes simply standing under the running water can help clear your head, answer a challenging question, or just give yourself time to BREATHE. That extra 5 minutes might just save you!

6. Attend Shabbat Services: Giving yourself time to reflect on your past week can help prepare you for the week to come and attending Shabbat Services is the perfect way to do that! Songs and prayers are a great way to help you relax and welcome peace into your busy life! (Check the TBA calendar for times!)

I hope these suggestions help your busy lives feel a little less stressful! I know they help me!

Our goal is to help you pursue yours.
It's that simple.

The things that are important to you are what really matter. That's why we'll take the time to understand life priorities like your family, your work, your hopes and dreams. Then we can help you get ready for the future with a financial strategy that's just for you.
