RELATING TO GOD

by Rabbi Alon Levkovitz

Once in a while, a young student makes a statement that is supposed to leave me trembling, “I don’t believe in God,” they say, waiting for my response. Normally, they are surprised, if not disappointed with my nonchalant reaction. “Tell me more,” I encourage them. Most of the time they jump straight to the real purpose of the conversation, explaining their irrefutable deduction that since they believe that God does not exist, they should be allowed to drop out of Religious School and stop their B’nei Mitzvah lessons. Their disappointment with me grows even deeper when I inform them that one can be a perfectly good Jew without believing in God; hence, Bar/Bat Mitzvah is on. The other group of kids are happy to stay in Religious School but inform me that now, at the advanced age of 11, their knowledge of science and their perfection of rational thinking negates the obscure and unprovable concept of God. These conversations are fascinating and bring me great joy, but at the end I realize that it is not God who my young friends reject, but their oversimplistic idea of God. Their grandmother was sick, they asked God to make her better, but she died. Or they prayed to God for the top-of-the-line laptop for Hanukkah and got instead last year’s model (which their parents wrongly assumed would not be a noticeable difference). They are ready for and deserve a more complex view of God, to which we try to introduce them.

The children’s newly found atheism is not a problem, and perhaps even a healthy stage, in their spiritual growth. But I know too many adults, bright and well-educated, who are stuck in the same 11-year-old theology of the kind of “If there were a God, we wouldn’t have had the pandemic.” As we grow and mature, our education, life experience, and the people around us affect our view of most issues. But for some reason, when it comes to God, many are satisfied with the most elementary concept.

I am not planning in this short article to thoroughly deal with this important issue. Instead, as we approach the month of Elul and become more introspective in preparation for the High Holy Days, I would like to introduce you to a quote from Abraham Joshua Heschel that suggests a thoughtful and profound way with which we can relate to God as adults.

“In every man’s life there are moments when there is a lifting of the veil at the horizon of the known, opening a sight of the eternal. Each of us has at least once...experienced the momentous reality of God....But such experiences...are rare events. To some people they are like shooting stars, passing and unremembered. In others they kindle a light that is never quenched. The remembrance of that experience and the loyalty to the response of that moment are the forces that sustain our faith. In this sense, faith is faithfulness, loyalty to an event, loyalty to our response.”

After reading Heschel’s assertion (most of us need to read it more than once), I invite you to take some time and reflect on occasions that you “experienced the momentous reality of God.” If you feel comfortable, I would encourage you to share your experience with me as well.

Rabbi Alon Levkovitz

A MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

by Lindsay Hirsch

In Jewish religious thought, every human being has two inclinations or instincts, one pulling upwards, the other downwards. These are the 'good inclination'—yetzer ha-tov—and the 'evil inclination'—yetzer ha-ra. It's not a foreign concept to have the good with the bad. There is an innate tension where we are conflicted and have to make a choice where to land on decisions as well as our personal views about the world around us. In the past year, I have made many decisions about Temple Beth Am. So, entering my second year as the President of Temple Beth Am, where are we going to be? I am grounded in the fact that there is so much good ahead of us. We were built on a strong foundation surrounded by passionate members, leaders, professionals, and clergy.

We are heading toward my favorite time in the Jewish year. We focus on the sweetness ahead and renewal for ourselves and our community. Let's face it—we can all use some renewal in some shape or form. I hope that as we move into a new year as a community, we all make the choice to pull ourselves and our Temple Beth Am family upwards. Think about what that means for you and how it can be enhanced in the year ahead. Do Shabbat Services bring sweetness into your week or does volunteering monthly make your TBA community uniquely special for you? Regardless of your answer, I hope you will think about what is special for you that ties you to the congregation. You make up an important piece of the TBA story. As we prepare to think about what the next Jewish year will hold for each of us, the real work for Temple Beth Am and for each of us, comes in the process of becoming the kind of responsible Jewish person that our community esteems.

Lindsay Hirsch

SISTERHOOD SCOOP

by Lois Remick

What a surreal experience. For over a year, many of us welcomed Shabbat sitting in our homes and watching the Service on Livestream or Facebook. How many of us became more observant of Shabbat because the Service was delivered into our homes? Something to ponder. While in-person Shabbat Services have been an option for months (with RSVP and at limited capacity), you now no longer need to RSVP for Shabbat! See the Temple website or Tuesday e-blast for updated Shabbat Service safety guidelines. We look forward to seeing you soon!

We also look forward to seeing you at our August Lunch Out on Tuesday, August 17 at 12:00pm at Teapots and Treasures, located at Loggerhead Plaza, 14137 U.S. Hwy 1, in Juno Beach. Make your reservation by calling Carole Levine at 561.339.3909 or emailing her at jptrcaro@comcast.net. Now, while you are looking at your calendar to pen in the date of the August lunch, here are the specifics of the September Lunch Out: Tuesday, September 21 at 12:00pm at Frigates Waterfront Bar and Grill, 400 U.S. Hwy 1, North Palm Beach. Both lunches start at 12:00pm and usually last about an hour and a half (just in case you have any late afternoon medical or other appointments).

Sisterhood is presenting a fun Zoom event on Monday, August 16, at 7:00pm. "If Knishes Could Talk" is a fun look at how New Yorkers acquired their special language traits. The participation link will be posted prior to the event by your hostess for the evening, Marcy Brody (see page 7 for details).

Here are some reminders regarding Sisterhood membership and Sisterhood projects. Please send in your membership information and dues in the envelope addressed to TBA. If you did not receive a mailing with Sisterhood membership renewal information, please contact Renee Weisman at 914.474.8585, or reneelke@aim.com.

With the High Holy Days approaching at the beginning of September, Sisterhood would be happy to help you honor your loved ones by contributing to the High Holy Days Flower Fund that will grace the Temple's Bima. Suggested donation is $75. Please contact Eileen Ogrin at 304.444.9668 or eileenogrin@gmail.com. Your flowers not only will be a delight to the eyes, but will help Sisterhood's contributions to our Temple's programs (see page 15 for form).

Let's talk about Tzedakah cans!

What an easy way to help our Temple children attend camps steeped in Jewish life. Put your loose change into your Tzedakah can daily and watch how fast it fills up. Then bring it to the Temple (please call the Temple office ahead of time to let them know when you'll be dropping by), and our Treasurer, Carole Levine, will put that money into the Camp Fund...and it is all because of your generosity. Thank you.

One last reminder about our Walk on the Beach on the fourth Tuesday of the month. We hope to see you on Tuesday, August 24 at 8:00am in front of the Lazy Loggerhead Cafe in Carlin Park, Jupiter. Going to brunch after the walk is an option for attendees. Wear your water shoes because we walk where the water and the sand meet. Wear a hat and bring water. Please contact Lois Remick at 561.601.0275 or lorem55400@gmail.com to join the group in August, or with questions.

Have a happy and healthy remainder of the summer!

Carole Levine, Steffi Boyland, Ena Gotkin, and Sue Freedland

Carol Carswell, Gladys Gottlieb, Gali Levkovitz, Rena Mittenberg, Sharon Levine, and Louise Maurer

MEN'S CLUB HAPPENINGS

by Jack Tenenbaum

Now that we have completed the fiscal year, it is a time to reflect on our accomplishments for 2020-2021.

As conditions allowed, we moved from Zoom and Livestream to in-person attendance at our events, requesting that those attending have completed the COVID vaccination protocol.

- In November of 2020, we held our well-attended Veterans' Day event featuring Navy Seal Team Member Hector Delgado.
- We sponsored a Speakers Series with presentations open to the entire congregation, bi-monthly. Congregant members Jeff Klatzko, Seth Honowitz and Ilan Kaufer participated in this series as speakers.
- We initiated a very successful Men's Club Members Social Hour, via Zoom, semi-monthly during the winter and spring. It is on hiatus for the summer.
- In April, the Men's Club, in collaboration with NEXT GENERATIONS, sponsored the annual Holocaust Memorial Program via Livestream and on Facebook on the impact of the Holocaust on 2nd and 3rd generations.

- In May, we held our first in-person Membership Meeting in over a year at Carmine's Restaurant. Elections for three (3) Board members were held. The members of the Board of Directors of the Men's Club, effective July 1, 2021 are: Jack Tenenbaum, President; Barry Ogrin, Vice President; Bob Hochman, Secretary; Harvey Silverman, Treasurer; John Weisman; Mel Wolfe; and Scott Reber.
- In May, the Men's Club sponsored a picnic at the large pavilion in Ocean Cay Park which 55 people attended.
- In June, we restarted our monthly Summer Dining events, open to the entire Congregation, at outdoor venues and requested that only fully vaccinated persons attend. June's event was at The Cooper Restaurant.
- The July 28 at 5:00pm event is a picnic at Carlin Park.

- This month's venue is Portobello Cucina on Wednesday, August 25 at 5:30pm (see below for details).

In addition, the Men's Club:

- Assisted TBA financially by donating needed kitchen equipment (a new ice machine).
- Sponsored a Livestreamed Jewish music concert featuring the Pink Slip Duo, free to the congregation.
- Provided financial support for a program to feed those in need.
- Produced a Holocaust memorial program of significance.
- Continues to fund (in partnership with Sisterhood) the gift of the Tanakh, the Jewish Bible, to our B'nei Mitzvah children.

Despite the pandemic, the Men's Club provided a full program to entertain, inform, and provide social interaction for the Men's Club members and for the congregation. We are now in the process of planning next fiscal year's schedule of events. Please send any suggestions you may have to tbamensclub2@gmail.com.

"SUMMER DINNER OUT" Wednesday, August 25 at 5:30pm

Sponsored by TBA Men's Club and open to the entire congregation.

Please RSVP to tbamensclub2@gmail.com by August 22 so we can reserve a seat for you. Separate checks; pay only for what you order. Men's Club requests that only fully vaccinated persons attend.

Portobello Cucina Italiana is located at 351 US Highway 1 in Jupiter.

HAMAKOM HAPPENINGS

by Alissa Frankel, Education Director

This is a year full of transition and possibilities. As many of our children head back into the classroom or into new schools, and parents go back into the office, there will be more than the usual transitions as this school year begins.

Every fall, parents are tasked with managing the already stressful beginning to the school year—clothes shopping, school supplies, choosing extracurriculars, and of course you can't forget to register your children for Religious School!

This year, more than in years past, both parents and children have experienced greater levels of anxiety and stress. As parents, we play an influential role in helping our children cope by encouraging a positive back-to-school transition to reduce our children's worries.

Personally, my daughter Eliana is starting Kindergarten in the fall, so we are both amidst a huge transition with a lot of anxiety surrounding her going to a new school (and Religious School for the first time!) and her first time being at school where I am not all day! However, we are both very excited for our new routine to start.

Transitions are inevitable and not always easy. Here are some suggestions I find helpful and may help you as well as we begin to adjust our routines from summer vacation to the school year:

Have open and honest discussions about what to expect and check in at the end of each day. At dinner we like to ask "Hey, hey what do you say, what's something good that happened today?" and for older kids, you can do high/lows or the joys and oys of the day.

Focus on things going well. It is important to acknowledge children's worries and anxieties, but parents should also motivate their children to focus on the things they might be looking forward to. Children are likely excited to see friends, peers, or teachers in person.

Build a predictable routine.

Usually, things we can control make us feel safe because they are predictable, while things that are out of our control can make us feel anxious because they are unpredictable. Consider letting your child assist in planning a shared activity like making breakfast or going to the park.

We are excited to welcome everyone back to HaMakom. I am looking forward to having our community together again. This year we will be back in person with specific guidelines being announced before school begins. Join us Sunday, August 15 anytime between 9:30am and 11:00am to register, nosh, and socialize. Our first day of school will be on Sunday, August 22. Looking forward to seeing everyone back again soon!

MITZVAH OF THE MONTH

The Jewish Volunteer Center (JVC) is proud to partner once again with the Education Foundation of Palm Beach County to ensure students in Palm Beach County Title 1 schools have the tools they need when they go back to school. You can help us achieve our goal of donating school supplies and books so that these future leaders can return to school in the fall—prepared and with dignity. Thank you for making sure students are set up for success.

How to participate: Order from Red Apple's Amazon Wish List, and the supplies will be sent directly to its warehouse. (<https://amzn.to/36vFuQn>)

YOUTH GROUP NEWS

by Elana Beame, Youth Engagement Director

As summer comes to a close, the memories our children have made will stick with them for a lifetime.

Whether they stayed local or ventured to a sleep-away camp, engagement was an important factor this summer. I sent mail and stickers to over 20 of our HaMakom students attending sleep-away camps (and even got a few responses back!).

For three amazing weeks, our incoming 1st-6th grade students participated in the inaugural summer of HaMakom Summer Camp. Campers were able to spend the summer together at TBA continuing to build relationships with each other and with TBA staff. Every week, campers participated in science experiments, sports with Amazing Athletes, improv games with Art Stage, challah baking with Gali, and Shabbat with Miss Marcy. Other highlights included mitzvah projects, tie-dye, clay art, cake decorating, and life-sized board games.

I am looking forward to another amazing year of youth group activities and events with all of our students.

Save the date for the first events of the year:

Cochavim (Tuesday, September 14)

JAMTY JR/JAMTY (Sunday, August 29)

COLLEGE CONNECTION

We need your college student's address!

The College Connection program gives Temple Beth Am the opportunity to send out holiday surprise packages throughout the year to our college students. This is a wonderful way to let them know that their family and congregation are thinking of them and allows the students to maintain a strong connection to their Judaism. If you would like to participate, please email Elana Beame at ebeame@templebetham.com for more information.

THE ONE SCHOOL NEWS FOR AUGUST

by Patty McCaulley, Early Childhood Director

In February of this year, the children had the unique opportunity to visit with “Avi the Ambulance” before he went on an exciting adventure and was transported via boat to Israel! Avi the Ambulance was a gift to Magen David Adom, Israel’s national emergency pre-hospital medical and blood services, from the Lynn family, which includes our congregants and One School parents Jessica and Britain Jorgensen. We are so proud of them for this amazing act of generosity! Children decorated Avi with handmade cards and drawings, which were sent with the ambulance overseas. Here are a couple of photos we were recently sent of the ambulance at its new home in Safed, Israel!

BOOK CLUB

by Edie Wolf

In July, we had a wonderful discussion about The Four Winds by Kristin Hannah, a novel that focuses on characters struggling to survive during the Dust Bowl.

We will meet next via Zoom on Monday, August 2 at 10:30am when we will discuss LIFE IN A JAR: THE IRENA SENDLER PROJECT by Jack Mayer.

During World War II, Irena Sendler, a Polish Catholic social worker, organized a rescue network of fellow social workers to save 2,500 Jewish children from certain death in the Warsaw ghetto. Incredibly, after the war her heroism, like that of many others, was suppressed by communist Poland and remained virtually unknown for 60 years. Unknown, that is, until three high school girls from an economically depressed, rural school district in southeast Kansas stumbled upon a tantalizing reference to Sendler's rescues, which they fashioned into a history project, a play they called Life in a Jar. Their innocent drama was first seen in Kansas, then the Midwest, then New York, Los Angeles, Montreal, and finally Poland, where they elevated Irena Sendler to a national hero, championing her legacy of tolerance and respect for all people. Life in a Jar: The Irena Sendler Project is a Holocaust history and more. It is the inspirational story of Protestant students from Kansas, each carrying her own painful burden, each called in her own complex way to the history of a Catholic woman who knocked on Jewish doors in the Warsaw ghetto and, in Sendler's own words, "tried to talk the mothers out of their children." Inspired by Irena Sendler, they are living examples of the power of one person to change the world and models for young people everywhere.

I will send an email with the Zoom invitation a few days before the Book Club meeting. Please contact me at ediewolf@gmail.com or 443.223.9729 if you need any information.

— YIZKOR BOOK REMEMBRANCE FORM —

During the High Holy Days, and especially at the Yizkor Service on Yom Kippur, we remember family and friends who have passed away. It is customary to make a contribution to tzedakah in honor of those for whom we say Yizkor. ## How can you honor your deceased loved one?

By placing your loved one's name on the Memorial Board in the Memorial Hallway entering the Sanctuary.

When you do this, a light on their plaque will be lit on their Yahrzeit (anniversary of their death) and their name will be included in the Shabbat announcements. Their light will also be lit on Yom Kippur and their name will always be included in the Yizkor Book during the High Holy Days.

Even when you are gone, your loved one will not be forgotten. Plaques are $500.

Call the Temple at 561.747.1109 to place your order.

WE LOOK FORWARD TO SEEING YOU IN PERSON AGAIN SOON!

Updated Safety Protocols

Reservations are no longer required to attend Shabbat Services, capacity restrictions have been lifted, and attendees are able to choose their own seats. Masks are optional for fully vaccinated persons; those who are unvaccinated must continue to wear a mask while in the Temple. Please be considerate of others in attendance and maintain a distance of two seats between separate parties. An indoor, distanced oneg has resumed after Services. Services will, of course, also continue to be livestreamed.

Our building is open to congregants on a by-appointment basis and we will soon resume in-person programming. We look forward to sharing those dates with you in coordination with the leaders of those groups.

Be on the lookout for more info in the weekly e-blasts!
