AS SIMPLE AS GOOD VERSUS BAD?

by Rabbi Alon Levkovitz

At one point I had to make peace with the realization that while my to-read list is constantly expanding, my reading time is shrinking. The summer is the only time when the pile of books (in my case a virtual one since I use a Kindle) is declining. Normally, when I finish a book I immediately start a new one, but occasionally it feels wrong if not disrespectful. Some books require a day or two to take in, and to use their wisdom to reflect on my own life. With those kind of books, the act of reading is like the data collection phase that awaits the analysis and contemplation at the end.

This summer it was Little Fires Everywhere by Celeste Ng. The book provided me with deep insights into the issues of parenthood, social class, race, art, and the struggle of choosing the proper life's path. But what affected me the most was the realization that none of the main characters are either good or bad. They were all lying, manipulating, betraying friends, and reneging on promises while always motivated by the sincere conviction to do the right thing. And yet I found myself strongly associating with some of them, easily explaining away their immoral acts, while hating others, rendering their licentious behavior as pure evil. They were often facing the struggle we are all familiar with of choosing not between right and wrong but between two rights. Nonetheless, I created in my head two teams, mine was good and should be forgiven for their faults, and the others, of course, were incapable of doing good.

I fell even deeper into the hole of moral discomfort when I realized that if I had been in the situations described in the book, most likely I would have acted like the characters I disliked and not like those I favored.

This message is immensely important today when our discourse has become so black and white, binary, clearly divided between good and evil, us and them, Trump and Obama, Fox News and MSNBC, that we so often miss out on a large spectrum of colors and shades.

"One had followed the rules, and one had not. But the problem with rules was that they implied a right way and a wrong way to do things. When, in fact, most of the time they were simply ways, none of them quite wrong or quite right, and nothing to tell you for sure what side of the line you stood on."

As readers of the Torah we are used to taking sides. We side with Jacob and not with Esau because we are on his team. He is our patriarch, and the one whose name was changed to Israel, the name of our people and our state. But it is important for the Torah to tell us that it was Jacob who deceived his blind father, Isaac, and stole from his brother, while Esau was the most loving and loyal son. This complexity characterizes most conflicts in our bible, Isaac and Ishmael, Sarah and Hagar, David and Saul, because even God is criticized by Abraham, Moses and many others for being wrong.

"In Pauline and Mal's house, nothing was simple. In her parents' house, things had been good or bad, right or wrong, useful or wasteful. There had been nothing in between. Here, she found, everything had nuance; everything had an unrevealed side or unexplored depths. Everything was worth looking at more closely."

This is exactly what we should start doing with the approach of the High Holy Days, looking at everything, ourselves and the world around us, more closely, and even better, more compassionately.

A MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

by Bruce Cohen

Last year when Rabbi and Gali announced the Temple trip to Israel, I jumped at the chance. I had been leery of going on group trips in the past, but knowing Rabbi and Gali would be a large part of leading the tour, and that the guides they chose would be among the best, I knew we were in good hands.

For me, our tour of Israel really started at an overlook of Jerusalem. Just a couple hours before we met our tour guide Lana, we had learned about some of the history of Israel on our bus from Ben Gurion Airport to our hotel to pick up others who flew in earlier. At this overlook we could see a large portion of Jerusalem, directly across was the oldest Jewish Cemetery, to the left was the Old City, and to the right was the West Bank, which is attached to the eastern portion of the city just miles away from where we were starting the tour. The next thing I remember was walking through the old city to the Western Wall, which I have heard about and have seen pictures of all my life. Then, I realized that I really was in the homeland of our people and was a little overcome by all of this, since I had waited 58 years to finally make this trip. For the next few days we toured the Old City, various local markets, and listened to scholar Paul Liptz of Tel Aviv University and the Hebrew Union College. I remember thinking the hour-and-a-half talk could have gone on for hours because he was such a wonderful educator. We toured the Western Wall Tunnels and got to see Leah's Balcony, where women can pray at the most holy place, which was dedicated by Temple members Leah and Ed Frankel. We spent about three hours at the Yad Vashem World Holocaust Remembrance Center led by our tour guide on this sobering walk through our people's worst times. Though I had been to the Holocaust Museum in Washington, I will admit I was quite shaken by Yad Vashem and how well things were explained in words, pictures, and artifacts.

On the day we went to Masada, we had the option to leave at a reasonable hour and take the cable car, or leave at 3:45am to walk up the snake trails to the top. I chose the early option, and along with our group, we made our way up. We then swam in the Dead Sea (floated, really).

We started each morning with the most amazing buffet breakfasts with what seemed to be over a hundred foods and ate our way through Israel with some of the most amazing cuisine.

Earlier in the year, Temple Beth Am members Michael and Kathy Azeez brought speakers in from an organization called Yemin Orde, with which they are involved in Israel. Many of you attended this lecture at the synagogue. We were lucky enough to have the opportunity to visit their Youth Village, one of Israel's most innovative educational institutions, specializing in integrating new immigrant youth into Israeli society. This was really one of the highlights of our trips.

We toured the rest of the country to the North where we saw in Upper Galilee how close Israel is to Syria and Lebanon. Tzfat, Acre, Caesarea, Tel Aviv, an archeological dig in caves, the historic bullet factory, I could go on for hours about everything we saw and did, but you can ask anyone in the group and we will tell you.

I left Israel with a better understanding of the history of our people, and a love of the country, yearning to come back soon. I want to thank Rabbi Alon and Gali for organizing the trip and making it such a wonderful experience. When you travel with such a great group of people on such an impactful trip, and share the Israel experience together, I think you develop a special bond. To all the people I traveled with, and the new friendships I made during the two weeks, I send a heartfelt thank you, and highly recommend this trip to anyone considering visiting Israel.

SISTERHOOD SCOOP

by Lois Remick

You just might want to continue your July 4th Independence celebration to August 2. While we celebrate our country's independence from England on July 4, that date was just one significant date during that famous revolutionary summer. A resolution for Independence was made by Virginia delegate Richard Henry Lee (yes, a later relative of his would be the Confederate General Robert E. Lee) in June 1776, and unanimously accepted on July 2. That resolution was then adopted by the Second Continental Congress on July 4, and a final draft of the Declaration of Independence was sent to a local printer, John Dunlop. Broad­sides were printed as well as an embossed copy of the Declaration. At that point, only John Hancock's name as a delegate and President of the Continental Congress was on the copy. It was not until August 2, 1776, that a majority of the delegates from the 13 newly proclaimed states, signed the Declaration.

The original handwritten Declaration of Independence adopted on July 4 is lost to history, perhaps unceremoniously, thrown away by the printer once printed. It is the embossed printed copy that was signed on August 2. (The remaining signers put their signatures to the document soon after.) It is this document that you will see in the National Archives. Now you have the rest of the story.

So...having read this, you are partially ready to join in our Dinner and Trivia Night on Monday, August 13 at Burger Bar in Donald Ross Village. (See below for details.)

Thank you Gali for inviting the Sisterhood for lunch in your home on July 24. What an amazing day; from the wonderful array of homemade dishes, to the fun of chatting with so many interesting people. Many thanks from your Sisterhood.

Time for another Third Tuesday Lunch at Le Metro on Tuesday, August 21. Le Metro is on Main Street in Abacoa Center, Jupiter. Please RSVP to Carole Levine, jptrcaro@comcast.net or 561.339.3909. If you are celebrating a birthday in August, please make sure you tell Carole, as your lunch at Le Metro will be your birthday gift.

At Rosh Hashanah 2017, we gave congregants Tzedakah cans with the hope they would fill them with coins and return to the Temple. As we are now approaching another High Holy Days period, we ask that you return those cans so that we are able to add those funds to our camp sponsorships for TBA children. During the summer of 2018, Sisterhood was able to provide scholarships to all families that applied. That means that more TBA children had the wonderful educational and religious opportunity of Jewish overnight camp. The coins from your Tzedakah cans help to make this possible, so please bring back the can, full.

Speaking of Rosh Hashanah, Sisterhood needs volunteers to give out Tzedakah cans and grocery bags for the food drive. We will need your help at the conclusion of the Erev Rosh Hashanah Service and then again at the conclusion of the Rosh Hashanah morning Service. Please contact Maril Levy at 561.249.6046 or maril@family-levy.com.

Sisterhood membership renewal is off to a great start with 50% of our total 2017-2018 membership renewing in just the month of June! Let's get the other 50% and more prior to the September Scribe and Rosh Hashanah. We thank Shelly Kissil, Sue Freedland, Maril Levy, Debbie Baseman, Carole Meshil, and Lois Remick for pitching in and getting the June Sisterhood Membership forms out in the mail.

Doing anything at 1:00pm on Tuesday, August 7? If not, come join us at our Monthly Board Meeting at TBA. Looking forward to seeing you there and at our other events.

BURGER BAR

TRIVIA NIGHT

Time to put all that knowledge you've acquired through the years to work! Join Sisterhood and Men's Club for dinner and trivia at Burger Bar on Monday, August 13. Dinner is at 5:15pm and Burger Bar Trivia Night starts at 6:00pm. There is no charge to play trivia and everyone pays for their own meal.

Bring your spouse, friends, and family for an evening of fun. Get friends together and participate as a team for trivia where winners get prizes from the restaurant. That night is 1/2 price tequila night. The first 22 people who RSVP will be able to be seated in the private room we reserved. RSVP to Carole Levine at jptrcaro@comcast.net or 561.339.3909.

MEN'S CLUB HAPPENINGS

by Harvey Silverman and Mel Wolfe

With the High Holy Days and Year 5779 fast approaching, on behalf of the Men's Club, we wish you L'shanah Tovah and a good year of peace and contentment.

The 2018-2019 season will be a particularly exciting year for our Men's Club. Significant changes in how we serve TBA are in the works and we hope to involve many more of our members in managing and servicing our activities during the year.

Men's Club's primary objective is to promote Jewish interest, brotherhood, and commitment among TBA members and to support and assist TBA when needed. You saw our members cooking for the TBA July 6 barbecue, and will see us helping to build the Sukkah for Sukkot, helping to staff the Purim Carnival, assisting with the annual Yom HaAtzmaut Service and picnic at the beach, assisting with food preparation for Shabbat dinners, assisting with the Annual TBA Open House in August, assisting with the end-of-year celebration for The One School, and the TBA Annual Meeting. Whatever funds we raise are directed to Temple support.

Please mark your calendars for Monday, August 13, at Burger Bar for light dinner (see page 6 for details) followed by trivia night and the Tuesday, August 28 dinner out at Le Metro in Downtown Abacoa at 6:30pm. RSVP by August 27 to Harvey at tbamensclub2@gmail.com. Order off the menu or the early bird and pay only for what you order.

In addition, this fall we are planning a Sunday, September 30 NFL Game Day Tailgate Party; on October 21, the League of Women Voters will be addressing our Sunday Breakfast discussing the important issues on the November ballot; on October 27, our Annual Saturday evening dinner at Brio's is set to go; November 11 will be our Annual Veterans Day Recognition Breakfast with an exciting guest speaker; and on December 2, we head to Hardrock Stadium to see the Miami Dolphins play the Buffalo Bills.

We hope to see many more members step forward this year and volunteer to assist TBA and Men's Club in meeting their goals. Volunteer opportunities are available with managing the kitchen/food preparation for our events, coordinating our calendar with the TBA calendar, coordinating with TBA when Men's Club assistance is needed for TBA events, and managing some of our already scheduled events.

YANKEES AT MARLINS

SOCIAL ACTION

at St. George's Soup Kitchen by John Baldwin

As we reach the dog days of our very hot South Florida summer, it is important for us to remember the folks in our community who are not as fortunate as us. One way we do that is our monthly food service at St. George's Soup Kitchen in Rivera Beach. The gratitude and appreciation we get for our simple act of kindness to those in need is the best.

Please consider joining us in our monthly mission to remember our neighbors with a good meal and a friendly smile. We need just 10-12 volunteers each month to serve dinners. We provide meals on the 3rd Monday of each month, from 5:00pm–6:30pm. Just 90 minutes of your time to make a real difference. And remember, any high school students looking to get some community service time, you won't find a more rewarding way to get them.

We're also looking for a few volunteers to help with the food preparation. Obviously, it is extremely important to get help here as we have nothing to serve without the prior preparation. Please contact Rich Remick at 561.389.9396 if you would like to lend an important helping hand. If you can't volunteer your time, we are always in need of donations of boxes of penne pasta. Please drop them off at the Temple.

I'd like to acknowledge and thank the wonderful volunteers we had in May. Special thanks to our young volunteers Andi Schapiro (a regular!!) and my daughter, Hannah, who just graduated from UF and will be attending Veterinary School at University of Illinois in the Fall.

Rich Remick	Stacy Reich	Eric Weiner	Cheryl Baldwin	Hannah Baldwin
Andi Schapiro	Lee Schapiro	Janet Dwork	Audrey Ades	Howard Fox

For June, we had several young members of the Temple lending a helpful hand as well. It's wonderful to encourage our children to give back to the community and show their gratitude for all the riches in their lives. A special thanks to our terrific young volunteers in June: Adam, Jacob, Jordan, and Shayna!

Cheryl Baldwin	Jennifer Burjan	Adam Burjan	Jacob Burjan	Howard Fox	Audrey Ades
Jerry Rosman	Laurel Teitelbaum	Jordan Teitelbaum	Shayna Teitelbaum	Stacy Reich	Rich Remick

Your gift of time and kindness lifted the spirits of those in the community who need it the most. Your camaraderie also was a blessing to all of us who joined you in that service.

Finally, as was mentioned in the last Scribe, I'll be taking over as volunteer coordinator from Lauren Weinstein. We all owe Lauren huge thanks for championing our efforts with such grace and fellowship. She will be missed as our leader but will remain a volunteer in the future. We appreciate you, Lauren!

Please contact me, John Baldwin (john@responsegenius.com), if you have any interest in joining us in the coming months. We welcome you all. Our next Soup Kitchen will be on Monday, August 20 starting at 5:00pm at St. George's Center, 21 W. 22nd St., Riviera Beach.

HEDY'S FOLLY: THE LIFE AND BREAKTHROUGH INVENTIONS OF HEDY LAMARR, THE MOST BEAUTIFUL WOMAN IN THE WORLD by Richard Rhodes —

Beginning at a Hollywood dinner table, Hedy's Folly tells a wild story of innovation that culminates in U.S. patent number 2,292,387 for a "secret communication system." Along the way Rhodes weaves together Hollywood's golden era, the history of Vienna, 1920s Paris, weapons design, music, a tutorial on patent law, and a brief treatise on transmission technology.

Narrated with the rigor and charisma we've come to expect of Rhodes, it is a remarkable narrative adventure about spread-spectrum radio's genesis and unlikely amateur inventors collaborating to change the world.

YOUTH GROUP NEWS

by Elana Beame, Youth Engagement Director

Shalom, TBA Community!

My name is Elana Beame, and I am thrilled to be joining Temple Beth Am as the Youth Engagement Director. I will be overseeing our three youth groups: Cochavim (3rd-5th grades), JAMTY Jr. (6th-8th grades), and JAMTY (9th-12th grades).

I grew up in Boca Raton, Florida. Judaism has always run through my veins. I was very active in my home synagogue growing up, Congregation B'nai Israel. I served as a Madricha (teaching assistant) in the classrooms for five years. I was also active in youth group from elementary school through high school and served on the high school youth group board for three years, holding various positions.

I moved to Fort Myers, Florida to attend college at Florida Gulf Coast University (Go Eagles!). FGCU was amazing, but I was missing the constant in my life of belonging to a synagogue. So I found the local Reform temple, Temple Beth El, and immersed myself. I taught in the religious school, ran an art program, and I served as their Youth Advisor. In addition, I was FGCU's Hillel President for three years. I graduated from FGCU with a double degree in Forensic Studies and Criminal Justice.

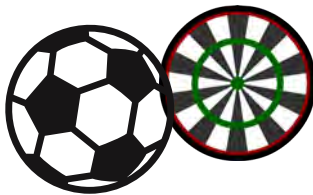

This past year, I worked at the American Hebrew Academy in Greensboro, North Carolina. AHA is the only international Jewish college prep boarding school in the world. I had the pleasure of working as a Student Life Associate. I lived in the dorm as the Residential Assistant to 20 teenagers from countries like Brazil, Mexico, Ukraine, and the United States. From them, I learned more about the Jewish world and the Jewish culture. I planned programs and events, led and participated in Shabbat and holiday services, and even took a beginning Hebrew course with some of the students.

I am so thrilled to bring my skills and enthusiasm back to the East coast of Florida and to Temple Beth Am. I have already started planning for this upcoming year and have started meeting with some of the youth and their families. If you are around this summer, feel free to stop by the office and say hi! I hope to meet each and every one of you very soon! Working at Temple Beth Am is a new chapter of my life and I cannot wait to engage everyone in meaningful, positive, and fun Jewish programming.

Save the date! There will be a meet and greet with me on August 25. Time and location will be sent out later this month. And check out our opening events for the year below! The full calendar will be sent out within the next couple of weeks.

See you soon. My office phone number is 561.747.1109 x229 and my cell is 561.901.7477 if you'd like to get in touch.

THE ONE SCHOOL NEWS FOR AUGUST

by Patty McCaulley, Early Childhood Director

Ready to Learn at School: Family Fun Facts and Setting Up Routines

Summer camps, vacations, and laidback lifestyles may have thrown a curve ball to our school habits, but finding ways to return to more solid, everyday routines doesn't have to be a daunting task for parents or children.

In Hebrew, the word for family is Mishpacha. The value of family support highly influences a child's positive day at school. The following fun family facts are from the Harvard Family Research Project.

Did you know?

- Children who eat dinner around the table with their families do better in school.
- Children who take family trips do better in school. Simple, free trips to the park, beach, or library are as good as expensive trips away from home.
- Children who are read to frequently read earlier and better.
- Children who see their parents read regularly are likely to read more themselves.

- Spending 30 minutes of quality time a day with your child can help them to achieve better success or grades at school.

You may also like to consider the routines below to make your child feel more...

- Relaxed. Music can help your child avoid the morning rush. Play music that is soothing and familiar to your child. Ask him/her to accomplish a morning task(s) by the time playing time is over.
- Energized. The morning struggle is not a time to skip a good breakfast. Healthy breakfast choices increase concentration levels.
- Connected. Talking about the school day lets your child know you care. Ask your child to share a good thing that happened during the day. Also, ask specific questions, such as "What colors did you like in your art or play activities?"
- Prepared. Being prepared for the next school day is less stressful for everyone in the family and a positive start to the day.

- Rested. A set bedtime helps children fall asleep more quickly. Bedtime routines 15 minutes prior to bedtime to read, chat, and/or make up stories is a wonderful family bonding time to end a day.

We should also remember that a feeling of spirituality provides a calming and stress-free environment for families at home and at school. The celebration of Shabbat on a weekly basis reminds our children that there is an appropriate time to slow our lives down and to rest our bodies and our minds. It is our weekly day of rest, a reminder that after having created the world, God rested and looked around to see how good it was. For us, it is also a time for our One Schoolers to feel the spirit of their school environment and to know that it is good.

For me, the routine that will make my day a positive one is to greet many of you each morning upon your arrival at The One School!

YOUR AD HERE

TEMPLE BETH AM

All of us together.

How can you honor your deceased loved one?

By placing your loved one's name on the Memorial Board in the Memorial Hallway entering the Sanctuary.

When you do this, a light on their plaque will be lit on their Yahrzeit (anniversary of their death) and their name will be read from the Bima.

Their light will also be lit on Yom Kippur and their name will always be included in the Yizkor Book during the High Holy Days.

Even when you are gone, your loved one will not be forgotten. Plaques are $500.

Call the Temple office at 561.747.1109
