PUBLICIZING THE MIRACLE

by Rabbi Alon Levkovitz

It's a wonderful feeling running around Jupiter, seeing inflatable dreidels, electric menorahs, and other Jewish symbols on people's front yards. In a way, it serves the same purpose as lighting Hanukkah candles—publicizing the miracle. Even though Hanukkah is not a biblical festival, the rabbis treated it with the utmost importance. In a situation when a person has a limited amount of money and has to decide between buying wine for Kiddush or buying Hanukkah candles, the Talmud rules, "Kindling the Hanukkah light is preferable, since its purpose is publicizing the miracle."

Therefore, kindling the menorah inside the house, where it is not visible by those outside, does not fulfill the mitzvah (except in the case of danger). The rule is that the lights must be noticeable from the public way and therefore the menorah should be kindled either at the outer doorway of one's home or, if the home fronts onto a courtyard, then at the entrance to the courtyard. Someone who lives on an upper floor is expected to kindle the lights in a window adjacent to the public way. The purpose of the lights is to make a public statement.

It is interesting that the emphasis of Hanukkah is on our homes and its relation to the outside community. Purim, the other festival emphasizing a miracle, belongs at the synagogue where we read the megillah, and Passover is celebrated at home and is not open to the street. The reason that Hanukkah is celebrated at the home and open for all to see is that we want to broadcast the light of the Hanukkah miracle out to the world as a statement of strength, bravery, and faith in the way the Maccabees bravely stood up for the Jewish people even as ancient tyrants tried to stomp us out.

Moreover, we are taught that Jews need to publicize the miracle of Hanukkah to non-Jews. Since the Greeks' intentions were to remove the study of the Torah and to not allow Jews to perform their commandments, we need to publicize the miracle of Hanukkah to non-Jews as well in order to show the world that God saved us, and we would not succumb to others who are trying to prevent us from practicing our religion.

This year, with the increase of anti-semitism, we must live the wisdom of broadcasting the miracle. We must remind our neighbors, our society, and most of all, our fellow Jews, that we are proud being Jewish and committed to what it stands for: a vision of a world where all people can live in peace, where no one power seeks to oppress, terrorize, or persecute another. The Hanukkah lights (and the inflatable Jewish symbols) make the world notice that the miracle of overcoming hatred, bigotry, and oppression can happen when we openly celebrate our faith. When we light Hanukkah candles, we are following in the footsteps of the Maccabees, proclaiming to the entire world that we are proud Jews committed to God, our community, and our faith, and no tyrant or bully can prevent us from doing so.

Rabbi Alon Levkovitz

Temple Beth Am's clergy, Board, and staff wish you and your family a very Happy Hanukkah and holiday season!

★ CAN YOU SERVE ON THE NOMINATING COMMITTEE? ★

It's time for us to start thinking about future leaders for our congregation to serve on our Board of Directors. But first, we need to form a Nominating Committee to FIND those future leaders. As the immediate past-president, I will be chairing this year's Nominating Committee. The by-laws require that we have 3 congregants and 2 Board members serve on this committee. I need your help. This committee serves for a limited amount of time between January and March, and then you're done!

If you are interested in serving on this very important committee, please contact Bruce Cohen at 561.262.5598 or bcohen561@gmail.com by 12/31.

Are you ready to step up and lead? Do you want to serve on our Board of Directors?

What are the qualifications for being a Board Member?

You need to be a member in good standing of Temple Beth Am.

What are the duties?

Attend monthly meetings, usher at Temple programs and Services, work on a committee, vote on issues relating to governance of the Temple, help set strategies for the success of TBA and its future.

What is the election process?

1. Let us know that you want to be considered to be on the Board of Directors.
2. Attend a 30-minute, confidential Nominating Committee interview.
3. If selected by the Nominating Committee and the Board, be balloted to the Congregation at the Annual Meeting.
4. Get elected, put on your official Board name tag, and start all that leading.

If you want to be considered for nomination to the Board (or if you have any questions about the Board qualifications, duties, or nominating process), please contact Bruce Cohen at 561.262.5598 or bcohen561@gmail.com. Interviews will likely begin after the first of the year and close at the end of January. B'Shalom and thank you.

MEN'S CLUB HAPPENINGS

by Jack Tenenbaum

On November 4, Men's Club sponsored a BBQ picnic, open to all members of the congregation. About 60 people attended and enjoyed the food and the company. Thanks to Bob Hochman, Barry Ogrin, Mel Wolfe, John Weisman, Scott Reber, Jim Banic, and everyone who helped put this event together and made it a success.

The Men's Club also sponsored the Veterans Day Musical Shabbat Service on Friday, November 12. It was an informative and unique musical service. We briefly told the story of the Richie Boys, a disproportionally Jewish intelligence unit that greatly assisted the allies in winning World War II. Our thanks to Rabbi Alon for suggesting this event and to both him and Cantorial Soloist Marcy Morris for conducting the Service.

On December 8 at 6:30pm, the Men's Club will hold its monthly meeting, at the Temple, in person. This meeting will feature free pizza for all attendees.

As we get further into 2022, we hope to gather together in person for our events. We, as a Temple organization, must follow CDC guidelines. These change with the incidence and prevalence rates for the virus. Let's hope they change enough that we can get back together soon.

Contact us via tbamensclub2@gmail.com to join, provide comments or suggestions.

THE VALUE IN VALUES

by Alissa Frankel, Education Director

I had the most incredible opportunity to go to my first in-person conference in two years. Thirty-two of my peers from around the world (from the West Coast to Israel to Bulgaria!) joined together in Miami for the Institute for Experiential Jewish Education M2 Senior Educator Cohort 5. This was the first of three week-long experiences together. From the moment we got there, we were immersed in incredible scenery and sessions filled with engaging content and meaningful discussions.

One of the sessions that will stick with me for a long time was on the first day where we worked through finding peace from the past year and a half. Using the story of Noach and a miniature suitcase, the themes of the story were woven throughout the different components packed in our suitcase. In the middle, they introduced their value cards, allowing us to choose values that both became present for us during the pandemic and one that became less of a priority. Using window markers, we wrote these values on the windows facing the ocean. It ended with us creating and defining what Manoach means to us—when you can find enough space to rest your feet and stand still. It can be a physical or an emotional one. It has elements of feeling grounded, hopeful, comfortable, and at peace. It was such a thoughtful and defining exploration acknowledging what we have been through and coming out stronger together.

The Senior Educator Cohort is broken down into three major components. First, the seminars where we learn the philosophy and implementation of experiential education (for example, this first week focused on infusing Jewish values into memorable and engaging experiences that impact the formation of Jewish identity). Second, there's a year-long mentor relationship that offers long-term investment that focuses on professional and personal knowledge, identity, and context of bringing to life what we learn during the conferences. Lastly, there is the Ani Ma'amin Project—my year-long capstone project that focuses on a deep problem I see in Jewish Education and how I can work towards contributing to what truly matters to me and I can contribute to Jewish life.

I am so honored to have been accepted to be a part of this elite group of educators and look forward to everything I am going to learn and bring back to our community as I continue through this journey.

YOUTH GROUP NEWS

by Elana Beame, Youth Engagement Director

Can you believe it's already time to start thinking about summer camp options? The URJ has so many wonderful sleepaway camp options for our youth to choose from based on their interests and skill sets.

Some of the more commonly attended camps for our region are:

- Camp Coleman (Georgia)
- 6 Points Sports Academy (North Carolina)
- 6 Points Creative Arts Academy (Pennsylvania)
- 6 Points Sci-Tech (Massachusetts)

The programs at each camp endeavor to enrich and transform lives by strengthening Jewish identity, teaching Jewish knowledge, instilling Jewish values, exploring campers' connection to Israel, and cultivating lifelong friendships—all informed and inspired by the traditions and values of living Reform Judaism.

My sister and I were campers at Camp Coleman back in 2006 and 2007. My parents worked at Camp Coleman (many years ago). I worked at 6 Points Sports Academy in 2017. My sister was an inaugural camper at 6 Points Sports Academy as well. You could say that the Beame family is a big supporter of the sleepaway camp experience!

THE ONE SCHOOL HONORS VETERANS

Toddlers may not understand the role of our United States military; however, they do understand sharing kindness and saying thank you. In honor of our veterans, the children in the Chicks class made special cards thanking them for their service and wishing them a Happy Thanksgiving. They also provided meals for eight veteran families in need by using their donated Tzedakah money. Toddler teacher Deanna Katz collaborated with the Palm Beach Veterans Administration not only to provide a contribution from The One School but to also model patriotism to her young students.

Bar Mitzvah of Benji Rosenberg (December 4, 2021)

With pride, love, and happiness, we announce the Bar Mitzvah of our son, Benjamin Max Rosenberg, on December 4, 2021. Benji's journey at Temple Beth Am began 11 years ago at the preschool in the Ducklings class. Benji is a 7th grade honor student in the Engineering program at Jupiter Middle School. Benji is known for his kindness, contagious smile, and positive approach to life.

His many passions include Camp Blue Star, competitive soccer, skiing, gaming, sporting events, and adventures in travel. Benji is passionate about fighting hunger and has chosen the "Kind Kitchen" as his local mitzvah project to deliver meals to members of our community for the holidays. Benji has sadly experienced antisemitism at school and on social media. He is committed to empowering and educating himself and others to stand up to hate.

A special thank you to Rabbi Alon Levkovitz and Cantorial Soloist Marcy Morris for their help and guidance on this special journey on becoming a Bar Mitzvah. We are so grateful for our TBA community over the years.

With much love and gratitude, Andrea, Brett & Nate Rosenberg

Bar Mitzvah of Gilad Jacob (December 5, 2021)

With great joy, we announce that our son, Gilad Jacob, will become a Bar Mitzvah on December 5, 2021 at Temple Beth Am. Gili has empathy, a sparkle, and a kind heart that draws people to love him. His passion for everything he does has helped make him the wonderful human he is today. There is one sentence that defines him: "Never give up."

Gili is an excellent student, thoughtful, creative, friendly, and enjoys being a member of the Thespian Club, Musical Theater, and Chorus. He loves making memories with our family.

More than one million Jewish children died in the Holocaust. Gilad honors one of these children by sharing this day with him through his project, "I'll remember you."

We are so proud of the man he is becoming and the sacred traditions he helps keep alive.

We wish to thank everyone at Temple Beth Am—the staff and Rabbi Alon Levkovitz. We share appreciation for Cantorial Soloist Marcy Morris and Ronit Meron. Your guidance and unconditional support in preparing Gili have blessed our family during this journey.

Thanks to the streaming option, we can share this simcha with our dear ones around the world.

Naomi & Albert Jacob

Bar Mitzvah and Bat Mitzvah Announcements

Bar Mitzvah of Zachary Goldvasser (December 11, 2021)

With great love and happiness, we announce that our son, Zachary Ian Goldvasser, will be called to the Torah to become a Bar Mitzvah on December 11, 2021 at Temple Beth Am.

Zachary is a 7th grade student at Meyer Prep. Zachary's favorite pastime is spending time with his friends, whether playing sports together, video games, or just hanging out. He is also an avid tennis player and, in addition, plays both flag football and soccer for Meyer Prep. Zach is also the Vice President of Meyer Prep's Student Government. In addition to his daily activities, Zachary loves spending time with his family and cavapoo, Stanley. This is also Zach's 6th consecutive summer at Blue Star Camps in North Carolina (his favorite summer home).

A special thank you to Rabbi Alon Levkovitz and Cantorial Soloist Marcy Morris, whose teaching and guidance made studying for this milestone meaningful and fun.

BOOK CLUB

by Edie Wolf

Our Book Club continues to meet via Zoom, after a vote of the members to continue in this format for the next few meetings. Our most recent meeting was on Monday, November 8 when we discussed The Beauty Queen of Jerusalem by Sarit Yishai-Levy. We had a large attendance and a great discussion.

Our next meeting will be on Monday, December 13 at 10:30am when we will discuss THE VANISHING HALF by Brit Bennett:

The Vignes twin sisters will always be identical. But after growing up together in a small, southern black community and running away at age sixteen, it's not just the shape of their daily lives that is different as adults, it's everything: their families, their communities, their racial identities. Many years later, one sister lives with her black daughter in the same southern town she once tried to escape. The other secretly passes for white, and her white husband knows nothing of her past. Still, even separated by so many miles and just as many lies, the fates of the twins remain intertwined. What will happen to the next generation, when their own daughters' storylines intersect? Weaving together multiple strands and generations of this family, from the Deep South to California, from the 1950s to the 1990s, Brit Bennett produces a story that is at once a riveting, emotional family story and a brilliant exploration of the American history of passing.

As usual, I will send the Zoom link a few days before our meeting. Please contact me at ediewolf@gmail.com or 443.223.9729 if you need any information.

An Update on Temple Beth Am's COVID Protocols

Dear Temple Beth Am Community,

We are thrilled to announce that, on the recommendation of our COVID Safety Taskforce, Temple Beth Am no longer mandates masks at adult programs, including Shabbat Services and adult education classes.

According to current CDC guidelines, Palm Beach County has met the threshold for not requiring vaccinated individuals to wear masks indoors due to lower transmission and positivity rates.

Unvaccinated persons should still wear masks inside, and everyone is asked to self-distance. This policy update is for adult programming only—the current policies of our preschool and religious school remain in place. While we are excited to finally be in this moment, please remember that if at any time the situation changes, out of safety for our community we will follow CDC guidelines and reinstate the mask mandate if it becomes necessary.

Many of you have been waiting for this day, and we hope that if you haven't been back to Services yet, you will join us soon. We look forward to seeing your whole faces, filling the sanctuary with the sound of everyone singing together, and catching up with friends over a delicious oneg.

Baruch atah, Adonai Eloheinu, Melech haolam, shehecheyanu, v'kiy'manu, v'higiyanu laz'man hazeh.

Blessed are You, Adonai our God, Sovereign of all, who has kept us alive, sustained us, and brought us to this season.

Sincerely,
Lindsay Hirsch (President)
Alon Levkovitz (Rabbi)
Danna Cohen (Executive Director)

Thinking About Your End-of-Year Giving

Once you reach age 72 (70½ if you turned 70½ before January 1, 2020), you are required to take annual Required Minimum Distributions (RMDs) from your retirement accounts. The IRA Charitable Rollover Law allows individuals 70½ or older to give up to $100,000 directly from their IRA to qualified charities without paying federal income tax on the distribution.

If you wish to make a gift to benefit Temple Beth Am, talk to your financial advisor about making a qualified charitable distribution (QCD) before December 31.

It's Time to Order Your 2022 Mah Jongg Card... and Temple Beth Am Sisterhood Can Help!

The 2022 cards will be issued at the end of March or the beginning of April, from the National Mah Jongg League.

Simply complete the form below, and return it to TBA Sisterhood, 2250 Central Blvd., Jupiter, FL 33458, Attn: Dotty Wisch, by February 2, 2022 with your check (payable to TBA Sisterhood). There is no fee for ordering through Sisterhood and your card will be mailed directly to you. How easy is that?

Questions? Please contact Dotty: 561.328.3000 or dottywisch@icloud.com.
