DISAGREEMENTS VS. DEALBREAKERS

by Rabbi Alon Levkovitz

It is not unusual for me to work together with people with whom I disagree on a variety of issues in order to promote a common goal. I learned long ago that if I'm looking for political candidates, organizations, or movements that perfectly reflect my opinions and beliefs, I would never be able to vote, write a check, or participate in any political, social, religious, or charitable event. I normally live by the principle that if we agree on 75 percent of the issues, then we can work together.

So why was it that, when I read in The New York Times that, "Smaller Crowds Turn Out for Third Annual Women's March Events", I wasn't really unhappy? Why don't I support The Women's March when, in fact, I agree with most of what it stands for, from abolishing gender inequity to promoting anti-discrimination protections for lesbian, gay, bisexual, and transgender Americans?

When it comes to any kind of relationship, we need to be able to distinguish between disagreements and dealbreakers. We can work out disagreements, or respectfully agree to disagree, but sometimes we must choose to step away from the relationship. And this, for me, is the case of The Women's March.

Linda Sarsour, co-chair of the Women's March, tweeted that "Nothing is creepier than Zionism", echoing the groundless and vicious view equating Zionism to racism. This opinion is not simply a criticism of Israel, which is legitimate, but a clear anti-Zionist sentiment with which I cannot find any common ground.

Tamika Mallory, another co-chair of The March, posted a photo on Instagram of herself and Louis Farrakhan, one of the biggest anti-semites and homophobes in our country, calling him the "GOAT" which stands for "Greatest Of All Time". Not just Jews, but anyone who cares for truth and justice, must disassociate themselves from any organization headed by a person who is an admirer of a man who calls us "Satanic Jews", and blames us for having "infected the whole world with poison and deceit." He goes as far as calling Jews "termites", a term taken from Nazi propaganda.

I'm writing these words on Martin Luther King Day, as I'm reminded of the overwhelming support the American-Jewish community gave to the Civil Rights Movement. Our commitment to being champions of social justice has not diminished since the 1960s. But when organizations like The Women's March demand of us to strip ourselves of our Jewish identity and denounce our love for Israel, we ought to sever the relationships with them and find other venues to fight for the same values we've maintained for over three millennia.

Rabbi Alon Levkovitz

A MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

by Bruce Cohen

For Temple leaders, the word “retention” is always something we are interested in learning more about, both within our synagogue, and for Judaism as a whole. I was reading about the different movements within the Jewish community and realized a common theme amongst them all seems to be conservation—conservation of the values and traditions that comprise Judaism and carried it through countless generations. Now, what conservation means specifically to each of us can be different. We all practice Judaism in our own ways. Some of us keep kosher, some don't. Some attend Shabbat regularly, some of us go only at High Holy Days. Some of us were brought up in a conservative or orthodox home, and others were brought up Jewish, but with very little Judaism as part of day-to-day lives. I fall into that latter category. But while I may not have gone to Shabbat Services and I didn't have my Bar Mitzvah until I was in my 50s, my parents somehow instilled Judaism in me. I am the first to admit I am no expert when it comes to all our traditions and the stories of the Torah, and I don't know why we do a lot of the things that we do—I'm ok with that. That is my Judaism. And I, in turn, do my best to pass along my Judaism to my children. And it's not just about “being Jewish”, but “doing Jewish”.

Many parts of Judaism and how we practice it have remained the same over hundreds, sometimes thousands of years. Other aspects have changed and kept up with the times. That's what I think we do so well here at Temple Beth Am. We strike a balance between maintaining the traditions that are important and relevant, and have sustained us, with a sensible acceptance of the day and age we are in. We are open to and respectful of each person's Judaism. We offer tons of ways to become active, to learn more, to celebrate together, and this togetherness is what has provided the foundation that has allowed Judaism to continue for longer than so many other civilizations. But as we move into a brave new future with so much access to...well...everything, along with this togetherness, we also have to rely on our own personal practices to sustain us and to pass down to those who will follow us.

In my case I believe my children already know more about, and feel a stronger connection to, Judaism than I did for most of my life. My Judaism was always there, but it wasn't until coming to this Temple that it grew into something much bigger than it had been. I had always “been” Jewish, but now I am also “doing” Jewish. To me, that means always striving for the balance between conservation of the ancient traditions that have carried us through so much, and the modern aspects that keep us up to date with our present and will prepare us for our future.

The Good News About Bad Behavior...

Why Kids Are Less Disciplined Than Ever & What to Do About It with Katherine Reynolds Lewis, Award-Winning Author & Certified Parent Educator

— Monday, February 25, 2019 at 9:15am —

Are we crazy, or is kids' behavior really worse now than ever before? Join Katherine as she discusses her observations on why children are less disciplined than ever & how modern parenting methods have quietly undermined children's ability to self-regulate. She will describe a new theory of discipline, "The Apprenticeship Model" that could reverse the trend.

SISTERHOOD SCOOP

by Lois Remick

Black History Month has been celebrated in the USA since 1976 when President Gerald Ford officially recognized the month of February for the public to “use the opportunity to honor the too-often neglected accomplishments of black Americans in every area of endeavor throughout our history.” But, did you know the rest of the story?

Back in 1915, a noted Harvard-trained historian, Carter Woodson, and a prominent minister founded the Association of the Study of Negro Life and History. It was this association that sponsored a National Negro History Week in 1926. They chose the second week in February to celebrate, as it coincided with the birthdays of Abraham Lincoln and Frederick Douglass. For those of you who did not read Narrative of the Life of Frederick Douglass, an American Slave in high school, Frederick Douglass was the author and a well-known abolitionist of his time. Due to the Civil Rights Movement of the 1960s and 1970s, and the results of legislation and Supreme Court rulings on equality, it seemed only appropriate to expand that one-week celebration to a month-long celebration in order to better understand the contributions of African-Americans in every aspect of our American landscape.

Speaking of celebrations, we hope all who attended our January Paid-Up Membership Luncheon enjoyed the terrific food and great sounds of our entertainer, Sharon Wallace.

We thank all those who helped in making this year's luncheon memorable and for those women who would like to become members of the Sisterhood, please do, as we accept new members throughout the year. For more information, contact Maril Levy at 561.249.6046 or maril@family-levy.com.

Get ready for two months of fun venues for our Third Tuesday Lunch Out. Our February 19 lunch at noon will be at the Yard House at Downtown at the Gardens. The March 19 venue will be at Café Chardonnay in the Gardens Shopping Plaza at PGA Blvd. and Military Trail. Please RSVP to Carole Levine, 561.339.3909 or jptrcaro@comcast.net.

Coming up is the TBA Purim Carnival on Sunday, March 3. Your Sisterhood has donated the funds to support a petting zoo, which is always a fun attraction for this event. Because Sisterhood supports the Carnival, we need our members to help with as little as an hour or two in the ticket booths or at other carnival sites. Please call Maril Levy at 561.249.6046, or maril@family-levy.com to help with this event.

Mark your calendar for Friday night, March 8, to attend our annual Sisterhood Shabbat. While last year's Sisterhood Shabbat brought so many praises from attendees, this year's service and celebration oneg will equal, if not top, that of 2018. Bring your family and friends and join us for this annual treat.

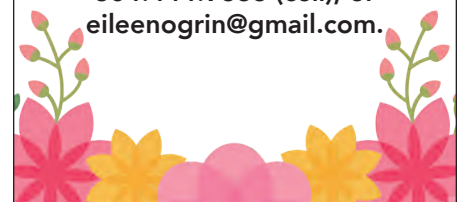

Our Sisterhood Board welcomes three new members who will take over Board responsibilities as of March 1, 2019. Renee Weisman will hold the portfolio of membership database and send you e-blasts. Eileen Ogrin will be our Flower Fund Chair and will be the liaison for any TBA member needing to order flowers for the Bima. Barbara Rosman will take charge of our June annual membership mailing. We welcome these talented women to the Board.

BIMA FLOWERS ORDERING INFO

Sisterhood continues to be your in-house service for ordering beautiful flowers to grace our Bima.

Ordering flowers is as simple as contacting our new Flower Fund Chair, Eileen Ogrin. Eileen will take your order for flowers to celebrate your simcha, whether it be a birthday, anniversary, baby naming, celebrating a new job, or retirement from an old job. Flowers are a wonderful way for grandparents to kvell about a grandchild's accomplishment or welcome a new grandchild.

Sisterhood accepts Visa and MasterCard, so your celebration is just a phone call or email away. Contact Eileen at 561.295.5750 (home), 304.444.9668 (cell), or eileenogrin@gmail.com.

MEN'S CLUB HAPPENINGS

by Harvey Silverman

Sunday morning, January 13 at 9:30am, we hosted a breakfast with over 100 attendees, featuring Hector Picard, well-known bilateral arm amputee. The event, later featured on WPTV News, was highly acclaimed by the attendees, and was immediately followed by Hector speaking to 100 TBA Religious School students, who were thrilled with his presentation and Q&A session.

Mark Slifkin was instrumental in bringing this event to TBA.

THANK YOU MARK and THANK YOU to all our volunteers who made this happen: Mel Wolfe, Barry Ogrin, Joe Meshil, Jerry & Barbara Rosman, Phyllis Frydman, Debra Slifkin, Nanci & Bob Hochman, and Richie Golub. Special thanks to TBA staff (and especially Carolyn Tierney) for their assistance.

Last, but certainly not least, we thank our sponsors: DogHouse MultiSport, Beyond Bikes, Synergy Health & Wellness, Nutrition World, Keyes Coverage, First Citizens Bank, Wahoo Triathlon Club, Arline & Mark Slifkin, Linda & Mel Wolfe.

Our 2019 "Save Around Palm Beach" Coupon Books are sold out, with a particular thank you to Jo & Don Klein and the residents of Ballenisses, who again put us "over the top".

Our next big event is the Annual Progressive Dinner on February 9 beginning at 6:00pm at TBA for cocktails and hors d'oeuvres followed by dinner at the homes of our host congregants, with the evening ending at TBA for dessert and coffee. Cost is $25 per person. Please RSVP by February 3 to Mary Elias at 561.676.2494. See page 19 for more details.

We are all looking forward to our April 5 Men's Club Shabbat, which will feature an "authentic" Shabbat Dinner prepared by Men's Club members followed by Friday evening Services with participation by Men's Club.

Our always-popular monthly off-season dinners are scheduled to begin in May and run through October. Keep a look out for specifics in future issues of The Scribe.

We have already begun planning our schedule of events for next season Fiscal Year 2020. More information will be forthcoming over the next several months.

Finally, Men's Club can always use and we always graciously welcome volunteers to assist with activities and events. Just contact us at tbamensclub2@gmail.com or advise any Men's Club officer.

Men's Club members Mel Wolfe, Barry Ogrin, Jerry Rosman, Harvey Silverman, and Jack Tenenbaum help prepare breakfast for the Sports Program on January 13.

YOUTH GROUP NEWS

by Elana Beame, Youth Engagement Director

My JAMTY Experience by Ava Dinow

One cloudy and normal Sunday in September, two of my friends from school had asked me to go ice skating with them and the rest of their temple's youth group. I agreed, and I'm glad I did, because that day was so amazing! Skating, new friends, ice cream—what's not to like about all of that? Little did I know that this cloudy and normal Sunday in September would completely transform my life forever. Now, I know that last sentence sounds like a quote from a dramatic soap opera or an awful chick flick, but nonetheless, for me it's entirely true. Becoming involved with JAMTY and Temple Beth Am has really been one of the best experiences of my entire life. Going to NFTY events, lounge nights, and just being more active in general has really opened my eyes to everything I have been missing out on.

Some of my favorite events with my JAMTY friends are the NFTY-STR regional events. So far, I have attended two, and I know I will be returning for many years to come. At first this experience was a little intimidating for me. Hundreds of loud, excited, Jewish teens running around, chanting, and stomping their feet in unison can be a little scary for a newcomer like I was. But after that first night's Siyyum (closing circle), holding hands with my newfound lifelong friends, singing songs of joy and freedom, and closing my eyes to take in the sounds and positive energy, I realized in that moment there was no place I would rather be.

For me, the best part about JAMTY and the events are the friendships and community that comes with it. Everyone is so friendly and kind, and really makes you feel like you have known them for years, even if you just met five minutes ago. Even though I am brand new to the TBA community, I was completely welcomed with open arms, and have made friendships that I know will last me for many years to come. Becoming a member of JAMTY has really been an impacting choice for me, affecting my morals, friendships, and goals in the best way possible. For anyone in the Jewish community, I strongly recommend becoming involved in the Temple in any way you can. Take it from me, it will be totally worth it.

HAMAKOM HAPPENINGS

by Alissa Frankel, Education Director

We believe that every child who wants to experience Jewish overnight camp should be able to have the opportunity. The Sisterhood Youth Scholarship Fund provides funds to help our TBA kids attend Jewish camps and other Jewish events, programs, and activities. Confidential applications are taken by, and scholarship money is distributed by, TBA's Director of Education, Alissa Frankel (561.747.1109 or afrankel@templebetham.com). Don't forget to ask the camp directly what scholarships are available and if they offer matching scholarships to the Synagogues!

MITZVAH OF THE MONTH: FRIENDS OF YEMIN ORDE

Yemin Orde is a youth village near Haifa in Israel. It provides a home, school, and safe haven to hundreds of at-risk immigrant youth from around the world. Donations collected during the month of February will go directly to help purchase new books, tables, chairs, and lamps for The Village's library, which recently burned down.

HOW YOU CAN PARTICIPATE:

If you'd like to contribute, you can drop cash in the donation box in the lobby or you can donate directly through the Yemin Orde website at www.yeminorde.org.

THE ONE SCHOOL NEWS FOR FEBRUARY

by Paula Deakter, Judaic Consultant for The One School

Kindness is defined as the quality of being friendly, generous, and considerate. Affection, gentleness, warmth, concern, and care are words that are associated with kindness. Being kind often requires courage and strength. Kindness is an interpersonal skill. There are different ways to practice kindness. One way to be kind is to open your eyes and be active when you see people in need. Do you notice when someone could use a helping hand? A sense of community is created when people are kind to those in need.

On December 14, we painted kindness rocks for our garden before Kids' Shabbat. Our children explored kind words with their parents, and chose a specific word for their rock. These rocks were placed in our garden. This is an ongoing project that our children at The One School will complete throughout the year.

This experience was the beginning of exploring Jewish values: kindness to others, welcoming guests, and understanding how we can take care of our world.

Again this year, we are proud to receive a grant funded by the Friedman Commission for Jewish Education for use in The One School. To help our children to study the Jewish value of welcoming guests, Hachnasat Orchim, (hospitality of guests), Lorraine Arcus, Jewish curriculum specialist, worked with our children on January 23 to act out the story in Genesis 18:1-15. Just as Abraham and Sarah welcomed strangers into their tent, so do we welcome guests to our community.

As part of our grant, we practice service learning. Service learning is defined as a teaching and learning strategy that includes the elements of learner involvement in identifying a community need and involving the community. The nurturance of caring relations in children and adults is an important goal of The One School.

Each year we invite guests to be part of our Thanksgiving celebration. We have now extended this wonderful one-time event into a continuation of service learning by inviting our friends for follow-up visits and to raise money for their classrooms and playground as well.

Again, our friends from the Bentley Child Development Center and Safe Haven Community Resource Center will spend a morning with our children to learn about taking care of our world. Lessons will be centered around nature, trees, and ways to take care of our earth. We are also donating books about these values, with follow-up activities they can do at their school. We will enjoy a lunch together to further our friendships and to fully understand ways to welcome our guests. We are looking for volunteers to be part of this learning experience. We need help with lunch, as well as serving and talking to the children.

The One School at Temple Beth Am Service Program is funded by a grant provided by the Friedman Commission for Jewish Education (CJE) for use by synagogues and Jewish schools in the Palm Beaches. For information on how your synagogue or school can also benefit, please contact Lynne Lieberman, Senior Director at l.lieberman@cjepb.org or 561.209.2606.

A MESSAGE FROM THE ONE SCHOOL PTO

by Ariel Dlugasch, PTO Secretary

Come one, come all and get your masks ready because The One School's Annual Night Out Gala is right around the corner! On March 9, 2019 from 6:30pm-11:00pm in Temple Beth Am's Social Halls, we will enjoy live music from The Culture, great food, plentiful drinks, and more! Keep an eye out for your invitation.

This is The One School's largest fundraising event of the year and brings together hundreds of individuals connected to our community, Temple, and The One School. All funds raised during this event directly support playground and classroom updates, the school garden, community events, programs for the students such as My Gym, High Tech High Touch, and more.

In order to continue to support these initiatives, the PTO hopes to raise over $30,000 dollars this year.

This year's honoree is Naama Laviv. Naama has been a wonderful asset to the PTO for several years. She is a loved and respected member of the Temple and a dedicated Religious School teacher. Please join us in celebrating her!

Tickets are $100 if you purchase them before February 15 and can be reserved by sending back the RSVP in your invitation. After February 15, tickets will be $125. If you do not receive your invitation, contact our Gala Chair, Ashley Costa, at TheOneSchoolGala@gmail.com. Additionally, tickets will be on sale at The One School's open house on Sunday, January 27 from 3:00pm-5:00pm and the Bake Sale on Friday, February 1. You can also email Ashley at the address above to purchase tickets.

We need your help to make this event a success! Please consider volunteering or sponsoring the gala. We hope to see you all there!

Pajamas & Prayers Kids' Shabbat

Friday, February 22, 2019 at 5:30pm

Put on your favorite comfy pajamas and bring your favorite bedtime toy as we learn about why it is important to say prayers before we lay down to sleep at night and how we can make it an integral part of our nightly bedtime ritual.

We'll have an informal Shabbat dinner, story time with Rabbi Alon, a sing-a-long with Mr. Brett and Ms. Marcy, make-and-take crafts and of course, milk and cookies too!

Cost is $10 per family of 4 and must be paid in advance. To help us plan for food/supplies, RSVP IS REQUIRED by February 19! Please submit payment with this form to the school office.

Bar Mitzvah and Bat Mitzvah Announcements

Bar Mitzvah of Justin Wurtenberger (February 23, 2019)

With pride, love, and happiness, we announce the Bar Mitzvah of our son, Justin. Justin is a 7th grade student in the finance program at Duncan Middle School. In Justin's free time you can find him on the golf course, hanging out with his friends and brother Cooper, or cheering on the Miami Dolphins, Miami Heat, Miami Marlins, Florida Panthers, and his beloved Florida Gators. He is also the chairman of his fantasy football league.

Although it feels like he was just born, on December 31, 2018 Justin read from the Torah at the Western Wall in Jerusalem. He wore his Poppy Herb's Tallis and celebrated this milestone on his Papa Sy's birthday—the great-grandfather for whom he's named. Words cannot express the overwhelming joy we felt watching him become a Bar Mitzvah in Israel. The trip to Israel solidified Justin's Jewish roots. It taught him about the history, strength, struggles, and triumphs of his ancestors and led him to become a hummus connoisseur.

We would like to thank Rabbi Alon Levkovitz, Cantorial Soloist Marcy Morris, Rabbinic Intern Brett Tancer, and all the amazing Temple Beth Am teachers and staff for preparing Justin for this special day.

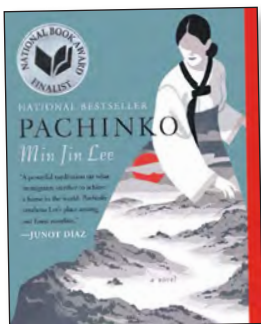

Justin, our hearts are so full of love and pride, they can barely be contained in our chests. We love you and the wonderful person you are. We look forward to continuing to watch you evolve into the man you will become.

BOOK CLUB

by Edie Wolf

Thanks to all who attended the January Book Club meeting, we had an interesting and heartfelt discussion of The Devil in Jerusalem by Naomi Ragen. Our next meeting will be on Monday, February 4 at 10:30am at the Temple. We will discuss:

PACHINKO by Min Jin Lee — In the early 1900s, teenaged Sunja, the adored daughter of a crippled fisherman, falls for a wealthy stranger at the seashore near her home in Korea. He promises her the world, but when she discovers she is pregnant – and that her lover is married – she refuses to be bought. Instead, she accepts an offer of marriage from a gentle, sickly minister passing through on his way to Japan. But her decision to abandon her home, and to reject her son's powerful father, sets off a dramatic saga that will echo down through the generations. Richly told and profoundly moving, Pachinko is a story of love, sacrifice, ambition, and loyalty. From bustling street markets to the halls of Japan's finest universities to the pachinko parlors of the criminal underworld, Lee's complex and passionate characters—strong, stubborn women, devoted sisters and sons, fathers shaken by moral crisis—survive and thrive against the indifferent arc of history.

We will meet afterwards for lunch at Waterway Cafe, 2300 PGA Blvd, Palm Beach Gardens. Please let me know if you are coming to the book discussion and whether you are joining us for lunch. (ediewolf@gmail.com or 443.223.9729)

SOCIAL ACTION

at St. George's Soup Kitchen by John Baldwin

The Temple Beth Am volunteer crew put together a VERY special event at St. George's on Christmas Eve. It is a night where we shine, exchanging our monthly evening with another group that might find that evening hard to man.

Rich Remick and the gang prepared an outstanding meal of grilled chicken with gravy, mashed potatoes with gravy, string beans and carrots, rolls with butter, and holiday cookies. It was a break from our normal pasta meal. And while our normal penne dinner is delicious, the holidays deserved a special treat.

On top of the great meal, the team also collected donations of toiletries and distributed them to all our beautiful guests who wanted and needed them.

Due to family obligations, I was personally unavailable to attend. However, I did receive plenty of feedback from several members of our team. By all accounts it was a success. We gave our neighbors a cheerful place to go and a wonderful meal on a night that can be so hard for those who might have fallen on harder times. We let them all know they are not forgotten. A great thanks to all our volunteers, those who donated toiletries, and the ongoing support of every member of TBA.

We had so many great team volunteers that delivered a special Christmas Eve "event". What a testament to our entire team's willingness to give back. If I missed any of your names or failed to mention those volunteers for whom there wasn't room, I apologize in advance.

Our awesome Temple Beth Am volunteer group for December were:

Servers at St. George: Harriet Vogel, Fred & Frankie Lissauer, David Friedman, Asher, Keren & Lisa Blatt, Audrey Ades, Howard Fox, Rocky Fox, Joe Isenstein, Alan & Toby Morganstein, Karen Hirsch, Steve Seltzer, and Melissa Mulvaney.

Food Prep at Temple Beth Am: Bruce & Lorin Starr, Stephen Daniel, Lanelle & Talia Meidan, and Richard Remick.

Toiletry Gift Prep: Marcy, Hallie & Mia Isdamer, and Alan & Toby Morganstein.

Special thanks to the following folks and their families for generously donating the toiletries we offered that evening. Thank you to Jennifer Burjan, Neil Katz, Krista Alterman, Deborah Weinstein, Harriet Vogel, and all her wonderful friends and neighbors at Harbor Ridge Yacht & Country Club in Palm City. None of you asked for recognition for your giving, but I wanted to acknowledge you all publicly.

Any others who also donated without my knowledge, I express my heart-felt gratitude as well.

Our next Soup Kitchen will be Monday, February 18th starting at 5:00pm at St. George's Center, 21 W. 22nd St., Riviera Beach. Presidents Day!

I hope we'll continue to have new members of Temple Beth Am join us in the coming months. I promise you'll get great satisfaction from helping families and individuals who need a good meal and a caring smile.

We look to have 10+ volunteers each month to serve dinners, but the more the merrier. Temple Beth Am provides meals on the 3rd Monday of each month, 5:00pm – 6:30pm.

Contact me, John Baldwin (john@responsegenius.com) if you have any interest in joining us in the coming months. We'd love to be with you side-by-side providing our ongoing service and giving to the community.

PLAYING GOD

Thursday, January 31, 2019 at 6:30pm

Ken Feinberg has an impossible task: putting a dollar value on tragedy. The story of the attorney responsible for compensating the victims of Agent Orange, the BP oil spill, Sandy Hook, and 9/11, this film is about the "cruel justice" of a modern day King Solomon.

We are proud to present exclusive screenings of new and recent independent films showcasing notable Jewish stories. Open to everyone, $10 per person includes pizza and refreshments. RSVP to the Temple office at 561.747.1109 or tba@templebetham.com.

Ten Paths to God

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 7, 2019 AT 7:00PM (PART 7)
AND THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 21, 2019 AT 7:00PM (PART 8)

Based on the teaching of Rabbi Lord Jonathan Sacks, and led by Rabbi Alon, this 10-part series seeks to answer the three fundamental questions every reflective human being will ask at some point in his or her life:
Who am I? Why am I here? How then shall I live?

Free and open to everyone. Each session is a self-contained unit exploring a different pathway to God. Contact the Temple office for more info.

Shabbat Guest Speaker
TOVA MIRVIS, Author of
The Book of Separation

Join us for a speaking engagement during Service by TOVA MIRVIS, author of *The Book of Separation

From the author of the National Bestseller, The Ladies Auxiliary, comes the autobiographical story of a woman who leaves her faith and her marriage and sets out to navigate a new world. The Book of Separation is a memoir about what it means to decide to heed your inner compass at long last—to free the part of yourself that has been suppressed, even if it means walking away from the only life you've ever known.

Ms. Mirvis will be available after the Service for questions and will be signing books at the oneg.

Book discussion led by TBA staff will be on Friday, February 22, 2019 at 6:30pm.
The Book of Separation is available for purchase at the Temple office for $20.

Men's Club Sports Breakfast with Hector Picard

(Recap by Mark Slifkin)

On Sunday, January 13, TBA Men's Club hosted Hector Picard, a bilateral arm amputee who spoke at TBA about his journey and inspiring true life story overcoming adversity (something we Jews have been doing for over 3,000 years). Hector has competed in over 200 tri-events including 5 Ironman races (including Hawaii in 2016).

The day started with a brisk 24-mile bike ride (or 32-mile for the group from Boynton Beach) at 7:00am. Hector then delivered a fantastic inspirational speech to over 100 TBA members, guests, and cyclists from the area. Afterward, he gave a different presentation to 100 TBA Religious School 3rd-7th graders who were captivated by his story, which included an anti-bullying discussion.

A special thank you to Hector and the DogHouse MultiSport Training and Cycling Center for pulling all this together. WPTV News did an interview and posted a short video of the event on YouTube. This video is posted on the Temple Facebook page for anyone who would like to watch it.

THANK YOU TO OUR EVENT SPONSORS: DogHouse MultiSport (Boca Raton), Beyond Bikes (Stuart), Synergy Health & Wellness (Jupiter), Nutrition World (Palm Beach Gardens), Keyes Coverage (Tamarac), First Citizens Bank (Tequesta), Wahoo Triathlon Club (Palm Beach County), Arline & Mark Slifkin, and Linda & Mel Wolfe.

Committee: Mark Slifkin (Chair), Mel Wolfe, Barry Ogrin, Joe Meshil, Phyllis Frydman, Debra Slifkin, Carolyn Tierney, and Jerry Rosman. Food prep and support: Bob & Nanci Hochman, Jack Tenenbaum, Mel Wolfe, Joe Meshil, Harvey Silverman, Barry Ogrin, Jerry & Barbara Rosman, Richie Golub, and Phyllis Frydman.
