THE EXODUS & PURIM: SIMILAR STORIES?

by Rabbi Alon Levkovitz

At the end of the month we will be celebrating Purim. The source for the festival of Purim is the Book of Esther. But this book, which is often referred to as a scroll, or in Hebrew, megillah, almost didn't make it to become part of the Hebrew bible. In the long and arduous process of canonization (deciding which books should be considered holy and become part of the bible), many ancient rabbis rendered the Book of Esther unfit, and there are some good arguments for that.

To start, God, who is mentioned in the bible thousands of times is not mentioned in the Book of Esther even once. Furthermore, the historicity of the book is problematic. Even if we associate King Ahasuerus with the known Persian king, Xerxes, we still have no reference to Haman, Mordechai, Vashti, or even Esther. Xerxes' wife, in Persian sources, was Amestris. Most importantly is that the Jewish characters in the book don't live Jewishly. Esther and Mordechai are named after pagan deities (Ishtar and Marduk). And, until the end, Esther hides her Jewishness even from her husband, the king. Mordechai encouraged her to compete to become part of the king's harem, not a typical dream of Jewish parents, and she married outside of her faith.

So why was the megillah included in the Bible at the end?

Since Purim is early this year, I happened to read the Book of Esther while I was reading the story of the Exodus, which is part of the regular Torah cycle. Reading the two unrelated stories together revealed many similarities:

In both stories, the Jews are in exile and their existence is threatened. The Pharaoh wanted to kill their children and Ahasuerus, influenced by Haman, had a day on the calendar for their extermination.

The savior of the Jews spent part of his and her life in the royal palace—Moses was raised by the Pharaoh's daughter and Esther married the king. Both cared little about their people until they witness the mortal danger of their predicament. Moses saw the suffering that resulted from slavery and Esther learned about the fatal destiny of her people.

In both stories, women play a major role, a rarity in the bible, and they are smart, brave, and never miss an opportunity to save lives—the midwives in Egypt who refused to kill the Jewish males, Pharaoh's daughter who saved Moses' life as did his mother and sister, and we meet Ahasuerus' first wife, Vashti, who chose to be dethroned rather than lose her dignity, and of course, Esther, who risked her life to save the Jews.

Both stories have inspired generations of Jews all over the world to keep going during pogroms and cruel acts of anti-semitism. Just as the Jews in Egypt were liberated and the Jews of Persia saved, so will they be. But still, why do we need the story of the Jews of Persia that describes a reality that is so far from what Judaism is supposed to be?

These two stories present different models of Jewish communities that existed in the past as well as in our days. The Exodus story describes people who tried to behave according to the laws God has given them. God was a visible part of their lives. They isolated themselves from the neighboring nations and wanted to leave the Egyptian exile and go back to their ancestral land. In the Book of Esther we see an almost opposite model. The Jews of Persia chose to stay in exile, they became part of the general society, and God was a matter of faith, not a constant presence. Many Jews who lived during the period of the canonization of the bible, under Greek and Roman control, felt much closer to the Jews of Persia than to the Jews of Egypt. When they needed inspiration and hope, the model of the Exodus was too foreign to them, but the fact that God saved the Jews of Persia, who were much closer to them in practice, indicated to them that God will not abandon them. The rabbis who made the final decision to include the Book of Esther in the bible perhaps did not approve of its form of Judaism, but nevertheless accepted it as a reality for their time and for the future.

BOARD MEMBER SPOTLIGHT

An Interview with Andrea Rosenberg

Andrea & Brett Rosenberg with sons Nate & Benji

For those that haven't met you, what is your background?

I grew up in North Miami, Florida and went to college at Boston University. I earned my masters in Speech-Language Pathology at Nova Southeastern University. I met my husband Brett Rosenberg on JDate in 2001. We moved to Jupiter in 2004 to open his practice, Microscopic Endodontics. We have been at TBA since 2006 when Nate (14) started at the preschool. It's been incredible to watch our boys grow up from preschool to Religious School at TBA. Benji (12) will become a Bar Mitzvah in December 2021 at TBA. We celebrated Nate's Bar Mitzvah in Israel in 2019, so we are excited to share this milestone with our community. It was the first trip to Israel for all of us and it was definitely a life-changing experience. We all fell in love with the culture, history, and, of course, food. It strengthened our personal and spiritual connection to Judaism and has motivated us all to get more involved in our community.

Unfortunately, just after Nate's Bar Mitzvah, he experienced anti-semitism first-hand at school. Our family is committed to the important mission to stand up to hate, educate, connect, and tikkun olam.

I also serve on the Jewish Volunteer Center Committee and the Jewish Community Relations Council at the Jewish Federation of Palm Beach County. In 2019, I founded a social group for tweens/teens called We Squad. Our mission is to support social-emotional growth and foster meaningful connections with their peers through sports and community service projects.

In my free time, I could be found on a tennis court playing competitive tennis. I am happiest in nature, whether it's swimming with sharks or hiking in the mountains of Utah. My family loves adventures in travel, but we also love our time at home on the couch cheering on the Miami Heat and Miami Dolphins with our dogs, Kona and Abby.

You are the newest member of the Board of Directors, but a long-time member. What made you want to take an active leadership role?

Temple Beth Am has felt like a second home for the last 12+ years. My boys, now 14 and 12, both started in the gradual separation program at 18 months and graduated from Shining Stars. Before COVID, I would visit The One School preschool several times a week as a pediatric speech-language pathologist. It really was my favorite time of the week and I loved seeing my Temple Beth Am family. Although I couldn't be there in person this last year, my love and bond with Temple Beth Am actually grew stronger. During a challenging time for many of us, they brought love, light, peace, healing, positivity, and respite into our homes each week with the virtual Friday evening Shabbat Service. I can honestly say that Rabbi Alon's sermons, Marcy's angelic voice, Rabbi Brett's positivity, and my Riverbend walks have been a huge support and comfort to me during the pandemic. One of the positives of 2020 for me was participating in the Mandel Leadership Institute, led by Lindsay Hirsch. I am grateful for her as a leader, mentor, and friend. So, when our fearless leader invited me to join the TBA board, it was a no brainer. It is an honor to serve and I look forward to giving back to a community that has given me and my family so much.

What is your favorite thing about Temple Beth Am?

My favorite thing about Temple Beth Am is the people—the focus is on community, connection, and caring for each other. I am grateful for the friendships and meaningful relationships that began at Temple Beth Am. I look forward to the day when we can all gather again for Shabbat, celebrations, and connect side-by-side.

SISTERHOOD SCOOP

by Lois Remick

"I sustain myself with the love of family." — Maya Angelou

February, the month that celebrates love, needs our attention. We need celebrations in our lives more than we ever knew prior to this past year. Let us celebrate the families we have created from birth, and those families we have chosen to create.

Sisterhood celebrated its members by donating Chai ($18) for each of its members to our Temple. In the past (and hopefully again in 2022) we have had an annual luncheon to celebrate our members. In place of this year's luncheon, your Sisterhood Board has made a gift to the Temple in your name. A check for $2,260 was presented to Temple Beth Am's President, Lindsay Hirsch, by Sisterhood.

As another special treat for our members, Sarah Aroeste presented a concert on the evening of January 10. Members and guests listened to Ladino music and were given an understanding of the history and cultural background of this beautiful music. Thank you, Sarah, for sharing your talent with us.

Please schedule yourself for another night of important information.

On Tuesday, February 9 at 7:00pm via Zoom, Clinical Nutritionist Debra Delson will discuss "Are Supplements Really Necessary?" in our diets. With so many stores dedicated to selling supplements, finding out about their value for our health is a necessity. (see page 6)

Debra will return again on March 9 at 7:00pm for another Zoom presentation, this time entitled "Proper Diets for Women As We Age for Optimizing Our Health."

The Zoom address for both presentations will be sent to you in Renee Weisman's Sisterhood email.

Presidents' Weekend will conclude with a trip to the kitchen of our very own chef extraordinaire, Gali Levkovitz. On Monday, February 22, at 7:00pm via Zoom, Gali will prepare one of her delectable creations and, as before, we will send you the recipe and ingredients should you wish to create this in your own kitchen.

The Zoom address for attending will be sent by Renee Weisman in her Sisterhood email, so please save the address when sent. (see page 7)

Speaking of Renee's emails to Sisterhood members, (we are thankful that Renee is continuing this valuable service to our membership), it has come to our attention that the email may be landing in your "Promotions" box rather than in your Gmail inbox. This might also be occurring with the Constant Contact emails sent out from our Temple.

If you are experiencing this problem, follow these steps to make sure the emails land in your inbox:

1. Open "Promotions" tab in Gmail
2. Left-click and hold on the desired brand's promotional email you want to receive regularly in your inbox
3. Drag and drop the mail on the primary tab of your Gmail, you will see a pop up window
4. Click Yes on the above pop up to get all your future emails from your favorite brands directly in your inbox (or, you can do what I do to get excellent tech help... I call my teenage granddaughter)

We are looking forward to seeing you on the Zoom offerings for February.

SISTERHOOD COFFEE & CONVERSATION

Mondays, 7:00pm–8:00pm • Thursdays, 10:30am–11:30am

Monday February dates: 2/1, 2/8, and 2/15 (no meeting on 2/22, see page 7 for details)

MEN'S CLUB HAPPENINGS

by Jack Tenenbaum

Finally, we are beginning to see the light at the end of the COVID pandemic tunnel. Let's hope it is not the light of a freight train heading toward us. Here in Florida, the vaccine is being rolled out, with a number of issues and controversies, but being rolled out none the less. We hope that within a few months, we will be able to hold in-person events for those who have received the vaccine.

In January, as part of our continuing Speaker Series, to which the entire congregation is invited, Seth Honowitz spoke about the real estate market in South Florida, specifically the Jupiter area. It was an extremely informative and interesting presentation followed by a question-and-answer period. This month, on February 10, at 7:00pm, our speaker will be Ilan Kaufer, the Vice Mayor of Jupiter, who will speak on changes and plans for Jupiter. (see page 7) Please watch the weekly email from the Temple for the link to participate in this event.

We continue to hold our Men's Club Social Hour every other week. The dates for February's social hours are February 3 at 7:00pm and February 17 at 7:00pm. This is an informal discussion of whatever topics members wish to discuss.

On March 21 at 7:00pm, the Men's Club is sponsoring a concert by the Pink Slip Duo which will be Jewish Music through the Ages. This concert will be livestreamed from TBA and open to all members of the Temple at no cost. We also hope to have limited seating at the Temple, as is done for Friday night Services. Please save the date. This will be a very informative and entertaining event.

In April, we will have our annual Yom HaShoah program. More about that in next month's issue of The Scribe. However, if you have not previously provided the names of relatives who perished or survived the Holocaust, please send them to me so they can be remembered as part of the program. Please include names, cities and any other information you have.

Please feel free to call me at 240.687.4734 or email TBAmentclub2@gmail.com with any questions, suggestions, or comments.

MY BIG BREAK

by Elana Beame, Youth Engagement Director

When I was younger and in religious school, there was a big event that everyone looked forward to their 6th grade year...THE PURIM SPIEL!

Every year, the 6th grade class got to put on a huge production for the entire school and community. The spiel was always a different theme and was normally based on a popular movie from that year. The excitement of finding out the theme was enough to drive anyone to want to participate.

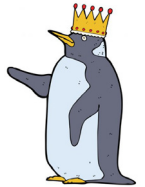

After years of looking up to the 6th grade classes before me and the jealousy of the amazing themes and costumes, it was finally my year to shine! I auditioned to be Queen Esther... and I got the part! It was like all of my dreams were coming true! And then we found out the theme...

HAPPY FEET?!

It was my big theater debut and they had me dressed up like a penguin! They put us all in these oversized, painted, pillow cases. I was so bummed. I wanted to look and feel like a queen. One of the factors that brought us all closer together as a class was our secret disgust with the costumes. Eventually it became one massive joke and we all just laughed about it nonstop!

I was the best Queen Esther I could be! I rocked that pillowcase! Oh, and did I mention it was a musical?

EXPLORING SCIENCE

The domain of science involves content, knowledge about how the world works and processes, and the use of scientific inquiry to build this understanding. In Ms. Debbie's PK3 classroom setting, science is thoughtfully displayed inviting varied hands-on learning experiences. She provides an engaging science environment which fosters observation, analytical thinking, and conversations about their discoveries.

Our Tu B'shevat curriculum includes the study of trees and how vital they are in our world. We celebrate the life and provisions of trees, as well as the beauty of God's creation. We also enjoy singing and having birthday parties for trees at The One School.

SOCIAL ACTION

by Audrey Ades

As many of you know, Temple Beth Am has participated in the tikkun olam activity of serving a hot meal to guests at St. George's Soup Kitchen in Riviera Beach once a month for many years. But when COVID-19 hit and St. George closed to volunteers, we had to rethink our strategy for getting food to hungry people.

Since April 2020, TBA members, joined by other Jupiter residents, have provided dinner bags for 120 people on a weekly basis. To date, we have prepared and donated over 9,600 sandwiches and 4,800 bags of chips, boxes of juice, pieces of fresh fruit, and homemade cookies. Temple Beth Am has committed to continuing this project until St. George can return to pre-pandemic operations.

If you'd like to join our community of helpers, please contact Audrey Ades at 617.306.4151 for details.

Bar Mitzvah and Bat Mitzvah Announcements

Bar Mitzvah of Brayden Charney (February 13, 2021)

With much love, excitement, and joy we announce the Bar Mitzvah of Brayden Michael Charney on Saturday, February 13, 2021 at Temple Beth Am.

Brayden is a 7th grade student at Meyer Preparatory Academy. He is a fun loving, kind, basketball-obsessed teenager who we are so proud to call our own. Brayden has worked incredibly hard to continue on with his Hebrew studies with diligence and meaningful intent. He stands in the footsteps of those who came before him and announced prior to his studies that he would like to honor their memory as he, too, becomes a Bar Mitzvah. We are full of gratitude that, even during these difficult times, we have so much to be thankful for and can still celebrate virtually together.

We would like to thank Rabbi Alon Levkovitz, Cantorial Soloist Marcy Morris, Rabbi Brett Tancer, Temple Beth Am staff, and Meyer Preparatory Academy staff for all their many hours of guidance and support that goes into making this day possible.

With love and gratitude, Jayme & Jon Charney

Bat Mitzvah of Luci Resnick (February 20, 2021)

It is with a very full heart that we are proud to announce the Bat Mitzvah of Luci Resnick on February 20, 2021 at Temple Beth Am.

Luci is in 7th grade at BAK Middle School of The Arts, where her creative spirit thrives. She is studying communications, which encompasses her love of writing and graphic design. When not focusing on schoolwork, Luci enjoys dangling from aerial silks, inventing art projects, and power-watching Netflix while Facetimeing with friends. Her quiet determination shines through to all who know her, and you can always count on Luci for help and a great laugh.

Luci has a profound respect for mankind and animals, and has empathy for all. She loves her cats, Little and Cassie, and has been begging for a fluffy dog, but for now excels in school and works diligently on all that she is involved in.

We would like to thank Rabbi Alon Levkovitz, Rabbi Brett Tancer, and Cantorial Soloist Marcy Morris for preparing Luci for this special moment in her life.

With so much joy and love, Jamie, Seth & Zac Resnick

Bar Mitzvah and Bat Mitzvah Announcements

Bat Mitzvah of Olivia Kahn (February 27, 2021)

We beam with pride in announcing our daughter, Olivia Rose Kahn, will be called to the Torah as a Bat Mitzvah on February 27, 2021 at Temple Beth Am.

Olivia is a 7th grade Communications major at BAK Middle School of the Arts, where she excels under the guidance of incredible teachers, has made lifelong friends, and proudly serves on the yearbook staff. Olivia has a competitive spirit and enjoys running in 5Ks and dancing with her team, The Elite Stars. She also enjoys baking for our family.

Olivia wants everyone to be safe from COVID-19. For her mitzvah project, she is making supply bags to give to others who may not have ready access to needed items.

We would like to thank everyone who has supported Olivia with her Jewish education, including Rabbis Alon Levkovitz and Brett Tancer, Cantorial Soloist Marcy Morris, and all of Olivia's Religious School, Hebrew school, and Skype tutors.

Allison & David Kahn

BOOK CLUB

by Edie Wolf

The Book Club met via Zoom on Monday, January 4, and we discussed The Silent Patient by Alex Michaelides. The book was positively viewed and we were all surprised by the twist at the end.

Our next meeting (also via Zoom) will be on Monday, February 1 at 10:30am. Our next selection is LEARNING TO SEE: A NOVEL OF DOROTHEA LANGE, THE WOMAN WHO REVEALED THE REAL AMERICA by Elise Hooper.

In 1918, a fearless 22-year old arrives in bohemian San Francisco from the Northeast, determined to make her own way as an independent woman. Renaming herself Dorothea Lange she is soon the celebrated owner of the city's most prestigious and stylish portrait studio and wife of the talented but volatile painter, Maynard Dixon.

By the early 1930s, as America's economy collapses, her marriage flounders and Dorothea must find ways to support her two young sons. Determined to expose the horrific conditions of the nation's poor, she takes to the road with her camera, creating images that inspire, reform, and define the era. And when the United States enters World War II, Dorothea chooses to confront another injustice—the incarceration of thousands of innocent Japanese Americans.

At a time when women were supposed to keep the home fires burning, Dorothea Lange, creator of the most iconic photographs of the 20th century, dares to be different.

But her choices came at a steep price...

Please note that I will send out the Zoom link a week before the meeting. Please contact me at ediewolf@gmail.com or 443.223.9729 with questions or concerns.
