In This Issue...

Spring is in the air, and with it some of my favorite holidays: Purim and Passover. I've always loved Purim, so imagine my surprise the first time I came to Temple Beth Am and found it wasn't a big deal or that some people thought it was a holiday for kids only! Don't get me wrong, the costumes and carnival are fantastic for families and one of the most fun afternoons of the year at TBA, but the rest of the holiday is practically designed for the 21+ crowd. A holiday where we receive baskets of treats from our friends, read a hilarious Jewish satire, and fulfill a mitzvah by drinking until we forget Haman's name...what's not to love? Join us on Tuesday, March 7 at 6:00pm for our Purim Celebration!

Barely a month later and it's time for TBA's annual First Night Passover Seder. This season, we're also going out on the town with a trip to Roger Dean Stadium in Abacoa for the Marlins vs. Team Israel game, hosting a brand new class on the psychology of hate, and unveiling a new location for Yom HaAtzmaut at the beach that will have all the same beautiful nature, scenery, and barbecue without the difficulty of crossing the highway or walking across the sand! Mark your calendars, Israel only turns 75 once!

A MESSAGE FROM RABBI ALON

THE FUTURE OF JUDAISM

Finally, some good news. According to a new study published by the American Jewish Population Project (AJPP) at Brandeis University, the Jewish population in the United States was almost 8 million in 2020—up from 5.5 million in the 90s.

I am so used to articles filled with doom and gloom regarding the future of American Jewry that I was skeptical at first about the report. But I shouldn't have been. While one can find signs of decline in the vitality of some Jewish institutions as well as participation in public Jewish life, there are indeed many positive signs to offset the negative trends; for example, the growing number of Jews who study Judaism, and those who identify with Israel (more than a million young Americans have participated in Birthright).

On May 5, 1964, Look Magazine, which at the time was the number two weekly magazine in America behind Life Magazine, ran a cover story titled “The Vanishing American Jew”. The article explained why in all certainty there would no longer be any Jews in the United States in the 21st century. The article detailed four main points:

- New studies reveal loss of Jewish identity amid soaring rate of intermarriage.
- Judaism may be losing 70 percent of children born to mixed couples.
- Because of low birthrates, Jews are “scarcely reproducing themselves.”
- Jews may fade from 2.9% to 1.6% of the U.S. population by the year 2000.

The article was right about the rate of intermarriage, but it was wrong about its future ramifications. In the 1990s, only 26% of children of interfaith marriages identified themselves as Jews. But the course has sharply reversed, as today 70% of those children receive Jewish education and identify themselves as Jews.

Despite the good news, I would encourage us to wait with the champagne. It is true that the Jewish people continue to thrive, while Look Magazine disappeared in 1971, but there is a lot of work to be done. One of the problems, according to Dr. Saxe, the head of the Jewish Population Project, is that “plenty of Jews aren't part of the community and have little knowledge about Judaism.” We all know he is right. They say they are Jewish, they feel Jewish, they are proud of being Jewish (even in light of the growing antisemitism, or for some, I believe, as a reaction to it), but still...something is missing.

We can wait for the large Jewish organizations to solve those problems, and many of them work hard at doing so. But we also must ask ourselves, in any of our capacities as parents, grandparents, members of Jewish organizations, and Jews who care...what can we do? I always believed, and still do, that most Jews want to strengthen their Jewish connections and expand their Jewish knowledge, and will do so if it is accessible. Judaism begins at home, and one doesn't need to follow all 613 commandments to raise a Jewish family. And it continues with the community. Now more than ever before, in addition to synagogues and JCCs, there are dozens of Jewish organizations small and large, in person and online, cultural and religious, that can become a home to any Jewish person. I pray that the next survey will not only show that our numbers grew, but also the depth and meaningfulness of our Jewish identity.

BOURBON BREAD PUDDING

FROM GALI LEVKOVITZ
(served at the Brisket-Off)

Ingredients

For the Bread Pudding

½ cup dried cherries
½ cup bourbon
6 cups cubed stale bread (challah, brioche)
2 cups milk
4 large eggs
1 cup (207g) sugar
2 tbsp butter, melted
1½ tsp vanilla extract
1 tsp ground cardamom
½ tsp nutmeg

For the Bourbon Sauce

½ cup butter
¾ cup granulated sugar
¼ cup milk
¼ cup heavy cream
¼ cup good quality bourbon

Directions

1. Let the dried cherries soak in the bourbon for at least 1 hour.
2. Preheat oven to 350°F.
3. Grease an 8"×8" casserole dish and set aside.
4. Cut bread into 1-inch chunks and spread evenly in the bottom of the casserole dish.
5. In a large bowl, whisk together the milk, eggs, sugar, butter, vanilla extract, cardamom, and nutmeg. Pour the mixture evenly over the bread, getting all the bread wet from the mixture.
6. Let the bread sit for 30 minutes to soak up the milk and egg mixture.
7. Mix the cherries and bourbon into the bread pudding mix. Try to "bury" the cherries, so they are not exposed on the top, to avoid burning them.
8. Bake for 50-55 minutes. It should be jiggly, but set.
9. While the bread pudding cooks, make the Bourbon sauce.
10. Bourbon Sauce: Combine the butter, sugar, milk, and heavy cream in a small saucepan. Cook over medium-high heat until all the sugar is dissolved. Slowly add in the bourbon. Remove from heat. Let the sauce sit for 15 minutes to thicken, then pour on the bread pudding.

A Message from THE ONE SCHOOL PTO

We have many fun events coming up! We are super excited to honor all of our wonderful teachers at the Annual Gala on April 1. This is our biggest fundraiser of the year to help pay for our necessary playground updates as well as the programs the PTO funds during the school year, such as Amazing Athletes.

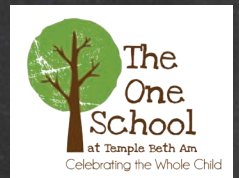

We've sold many tickets already! The Gala is at Temple Beth Am from 6:00pm-9:00pm. Each ticket is $100 and the deadline to purchase tickets is March 10. You can buy your tickets directly on the GiveGrove website, <https://givegrove.com/tos2023/tickets/>. We would love to see all of you there for a fun night out with parents and The One School faculty!

Mark your calendars for our next Wacky Wednesday on Wednesday, March 15 at 5:30pm. It's $10 per family and you can sign up directly on the PTO website, <https://www.theoneschoolpto.com>. We always have a great time eating pizza, dessert, and of course playing on the playground.

The next Book Fair will take place on Friday, April 21-Friday, April 28. We had such a successful Book Fair last time that each teacher was able to receive two free books for their classroom. That's because of you!

Our last Bake Sale of the school year will be on Friday, April 28. Let's make this our best one yet! We appreciate all baker volunteers as well as parents that help on the day of the bake sale.

We look forward to seeing you all at the upcoming events!

Temple Beth Am offers overnight summer camp, youth group events, and retreat scholarships. These scholarship funds are to provide funds to help our Temple Beth Am students to attend Jewish camps and other Jewish events throughout the year. In addition, the Sisterhood Youth Scholarship Fund provides funds to help our 6th-12th grade TBA kids attend overnight Jewish programs and activities. Please contact Alissa Frankel at 561.747.1109 or at afrankel@templebetham.com for more details or to request an application.

ADDITIONAL CAMP SCHOLARSHIP OPPORTUNITIES

Jewish Federation of Palm Beach County offers scholarships, grants, and incentives for families who demonstrate financial need, as well as financial support for Jewish students who demonstrate academic excellence and community involvement.

For more information, visit jewishpb.org/fed/index.php/scholarships/

March/April Mitzvah Opportunities

Sunday, March 5 from 9:30am-3:00pm: Blood Drive for Amy's Army Florida

Did you know that in the United States, only 5% of the population that's eligible to donate blood actually does so? And that 1 in 7 hospital patients needs blood? You can make a difference! The Big Red Bus will be stationed in our parking lot on March 5. All donors receive a $20 e-gift card, a t-shirt, and a wellness checkup. Please consider donating blood and giving someone the gift of life.

Sunday, March 12 from 9:00am-12:00pm: Gleaning for CROS Ministries

Gleaning is a program of CROS Ministries, in partnership with the Palm Beach County Food Bank and other food distribution agencies that allows produce that is below market grade, but equally nutritious, to be harvested and distributed to the food insecure of Palm Beach and Martin Counties instead of being plowed back into the soil. Our annual gleaning trip will be in Boynton Beach (exact location TBD). Please contact Alissa at afrankel@templebetham.com to register.

Sunday, April 16: Good Deeds Day

Let's join together to make a difference in our community as part of Good Deeds Day, a global day of volunteerism. You have the power to create positive change in our community and in our world. Since 2007, Good Deeds Day has united millions of volunteers from 108 countries for service opportunities that benefit people and the planet. Spend the day doing mitzvot (good deeds) and helping others. Watch your e-mail for a listing of specific events organized by the Jewish Volunteer Center of the Jewish Federation of Palm Beach County.

A Note About St. George from Rich Remick

August of 2022 was the restart of the St. George feeding the homeless program, and thank you to the following group of volunteers for their help in preparing the food and delivering to Victory City Church, the current program location: Audrey Ades, Jim Banic, Marcy Brody, Lisa Blatt, Keren Blatt, Asher Blatt, Carol Carswell, Mindy Cox, Bob Feller, Karen Feller, Howard Fox, David Friedman, Marcy Isdamer, Joe Isenstein, Fred Lissauer, Jody Minde, Suzi Redlin, Mickey Schmitt, Alissa Weisberg, Donna Wexler, Dotty Wisch, Alec Wisch.

To those of you that have donated boxes of penne pasta, we thank you and ask that those donations continue as we will need more for future deliveries. Thank you also to those who have made cash donations to Temple Beth Am in the name of St. George to continue funding this program.

To sign up to help cook in the Temple Beth Am kitchen, please contact Audrey Ades at audade@yahoo.com or Rich Remick at remtamb554@gmail.com.
