POLAND AND THE HOLOCAUST

by Rabbi Alon Levkovitz

On February 6 of this year, Poland's president signed legislation making it a crime to suggest that Poland bore any responsibility for atrocities committed by Nazi Germany. The law threatens up to three years imprisonment for anyone who "publicly and untruthfully assigns responsibility or co-responsibility to the Polish Nation or the Polish State for Nazi crimes."

Growing up in Israel in the 1970s, not only were my own grandparents Holocaust survivors, but so were many of my friends' parents and grandparents. Some hardly ever talked about their horrific experiences, and some cherished any opportunity to tell their stories. It is not that any of them who are still alive would have cared much, but under the new Polish law most of them would have been subjected to incarceration in a Polish prison should they ever go and visit. "The Poles were worse than the Nazis" was a common phrase uttered by the former Polish Jews. One of the only times I can remember my grandfather being short with me was when I asked him to teach me some words in Polish. "I swore to never say another word in Polish," he said and changed the subject. The irony is that neither he, nor anyone else I knew, had such a deep level of resentment toward the Germans. Of course, they knew that it was the Germans who murdered their families and destroyed their community. But it seemed that their deep sense of betrayal by the Poles was stronger than their hatred of the Germans.

This is the place to note that there are more Poles on the list of the Righteous Amongst the Nations (non-Jews who risked their lives during the Holocaust to save Jews) than any other nationality. We also have to remember that over 2 million Poles were killed during the war (not including the 3 million Polish Jews). But still, it's impossible to deny that many Poles collaborated with the Nazis because of greed, religion, or self-preservation.

Even prior to World War II, anti-Semitism was a prevalent factor in Polish society, and the government took steps to exclude Jews from key sectors of public life. On the eve of the Holocaust, Polish Jews made up 10 percent of the population (one-third of the residents of the capital city of Warsaw). Some Polish politicians were bothered by what they saw as vast Jewish influence, and pressed for a mass emigration of Poland's Jewish population.

It is true that all the Death Camps on Polish land were built and operated by the Germans, but we also know that as the Germans implemented killing on an immense scale, they drew upon Polish police forces and railroad personnel for logistical support and to guard the ghettos.

The Polish Blue Police enforced German anti-Jewish policies such as restrictions on the use of public transportation and curfews, as well as the devastating and bloody liquidation of ghettos in occupied Poland from 1942-1943. There are endless stories of Poles who often helped in the identification and exposure of Jews in hiding. Many Jews who were able to obtain false documents were subjected to systematic blackmail by their Polish neighbors who stripped them of their last possession and forced them to flee for their lives.

There are also well-documented incidents where locals carried out violent riots and murdered their Jewish neighbors. The most infamous episode is the massacre in the town of Jedwabne in the summer of 1941 when hundreds of Jews were burned alive by their Polish neighbors.

My goal in writing this article is not to cause any of you to hate the Poles, but rather to illustrate how important it is to have an honest discussion of the past, and not to bury it under cowardly laws. Poland, which is located between Germany and Russia, had more than its fair share of suffering, and despite that, some Poles sacrificed their lives to save Jews. But unless we learn the entire story's history, good and evil, we will never be able to learn from it and are therefore bound to repeat it.

CONTINUE THE PURIM CELEBRATION WITH TEMPLE BETH AM!

Thank you to everyone who joined us for our Purim Spiel and Carnival on February 25! We still have more celebrating to do! On Friday, March 2, at 9:00am, The One School will hold a Purim Parade and Shabbat Celebration. Later that day, the fun begins at 6:30pm (we'll supply the drinks) followed by Shabbat Service including our Purim Celebration and Megillah Reading. Dress in costume—or wear a crazy hat or mask—and bring a box of penne pasta to be used as a grogger and donated later.

A MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

by Bruce Cohen

On March 11 we will begin our annual Spring Drive to help raise funds to allow us to continue all the programs and activities at the Temple. This year we are asking you to reach even deeper into your pockets to donate to Temple Beth Am for additional security. Our plan isn't finalized as of yet, but you will be seeing upgraded security at the Temple, and know that other actions will be occurring behind the scenes as well. It is important that everyone feels safe while attending Temple Beth Am and we are striving for the best security. I want to thank Temple Board of Directors Orin Shakerdige and Jason Rogers for co-chairing this important committee. When your fellow Temple Beth Am member calls you to speak about the Spring Drive, please listen to our appeal and please contribute.

The first night of Passover is Friday March 30 and Rabbi Alon, Brett, and Marcy will be leading our Seder. Our first night Passover Seder will include all the food, wine, and again this year, I will be making the chopped liver to go along with the program that our Clergy has put together. Please see the form on page 19 and make your reservation today. Remember, there is a limited amount of space and the event will be limited to the first 250 paid reservations received.

Thank you and Happy Passover,

Bruce Cohen

THE TBA SPRING DRIVE IS COMING!

Fellow congregants, Temple Beth Am asks for donations only three times per fiscal year: the VFC/Membership Drive, during the High Holy Days, and the Spring Drive.

Many of you may be unfamiliar with the Spring Drive, as it's been over three years since the last one...so why now you ask?

1. We need continued support for the variety of programs that we offer to our diverse membership. Have you seen the Temple's monthly calendar? There is virtually an activity every single day of every month, from Services to Adult Education to holiday celebrations (and many days have even more than one event!).
2. We need support for our beautifully renovated synagogue. We continue to take steps to beautify our synagogue and the surrounding property.

You can expect to receive a phone call from us or other members of our Temple family in early March. If we miss you, we'll leave a message—please listen to it! It is important for us to get 100% participation so we can continue to offer all of our programs and beam with pride when entering our House of Worship. Help us celebrate Kulanu: All of Us Together.

SISTERHOOD SCOOP

by Lois Remick

February is Black History Month, March is Women's History Month, June is Dairy Month, and each disease has their own month to raise awareness. As a former history teacher, now a tutor, I fully support the need for public awareness for all of these. However, wouldn't it be grand to have a "Wonders of Nature Day"? Picture it—people out walking, talking, enjoying the sounds, smells, and sights of nature. Really looking at the birds, ducks, and other animals in their environment and wondering about their behaviors. Everybody feeling the breezes and wondering about the clouds. Stores and restaurants would be closed. (They do this on Christmas so it can be done.) All parks would have free entry and all labor unions would stress that their members are off from work to enjoy this day of awareness. Ok, so I may be optimistic about the unions participating, but I believe we need to appreciate nature in order to preserve it.

Speaking about appreciation, we thank all those who stayed to clean up after our fabulous Annual Paid Up Membership Luncheon. Once again, Chef Eric provided a culinary festival of flavors. If you did not attend, please put next year's annual luncheon on your calendar.

Our March program and lunch will be on Tuesday, March 20. Lunch will be at Le Metro on Main Street in Abacoa, Jupiter, at 11:45am. Our Zentangle program will be at TBA at 2:00pm. Zentangle is an art form that is both relaxing and easy for the layman. Lesley Miller, a certified Zentangle teacher, will be our presenter. Due to the needs of both the restaurant and the presentation, we are limited to 20 members for each. As I write this, there are still seats available so please RSVP to Carole Levine at 561.339.3909 or email her at jptrcaro@comcast.net to make a reservation. Reservations for all our events are necessary.

All members are invited to our March Board Meeting on Tuesday, March 6 and April Board Meeting on Tuesday, April 3, both at 1:00pm in one of the TBA Social Halls.

On April 10 at 10:30am, Sisterhood will be attending the Isabelle de Borchgrave exhibition, "Fashioning Art from Paper" at the Society of the Four Arts in Palm Beach. There is a $5 fee as this is an audio guided tour. Please call Carole Levine to make a reservation. (Carole's email and number are listed above.)

Our April Third Tuesday Lunch on April 17 will be at Miller's Ale House, 126 Center Street, Jupiter. Please RSVP to Carole Levine at jptrcaro@comcast.net or 561.339.3909. If you have never been to Miller's Ale House, take it from me: It is a fun place.

Third Tuesday Lunch continues through the late spring and summer months, so if you have not attended as yet, plan to come out and meet your sisters for lunch.

If you know and like a restaurant that could accommodate 20 (or more) women, please call Carole with the name. She will call the manager and make inquiries as to whether they would accommodate us with separate checks.

See you at our open board meeting on March 6.

Please Note This New Policy: While Sisterhood's Board strives to schedule events that are NOT limited in the number of attendees, Sisterhood members' reservations will be taken prior to the RSVP end date. If there are slots available after the RSVP end date, guests of Sisterhood members will be warmly welcomed.

Did you know that as a member of Temple Beth Am you have a name tag?

We'd love for you to wear it whenever you come to Temple— be it for Services, classes, or meetings. They are in the drawers under our Holocaust Torah displayed in the Cohn Family Welcome Center.

MEN'S CLUB HAPPENINGS

by Harvey Silverman

We are all excited about our Mystery Progressive Dinner coming up at 6:00pm on March 17, managed by David and Mary Elias. David and Mary have been running this very successful event for many years, although they had to skip last year when they were "cycling" through New Zealand. For those of us who volunteered to host a dinner and for those of us who attended those dinners, we know what a "fun" event this is with the opportunity to meet new friends and reconnect with friends of many years. We have 8 "host" homes this year and will "draw straws" at TBA during the Cocktail Hour before the event to determine to whose home the guests are assigned. See details below to sign up for this exciting event.

Did you ever think about blowing the Shofar on the High Holy Days? This is your chance. TBA has purchased 15 Shofars from Israel and, on Sunday, April 22 at 10:00am, we plan to hold a "kickoff" class on the history and meaning of the Shofar. The plan is for Men's Club, in coordination with Rabbi Alon and Rabbinic Intern Brett, to instruct our Shofar "Volunteers" on how to blow the Shofar in concert around the Congregation for the High Holy Days.

We need up to 15 volunteers to attend the class, learn about the Shofar, and how to make the Shofar "sing". Women and men – this is a gender neutral opportunity.

Temple will furnish a Shofar for your exclusive use. Should you desire to have your own Shofar, they will be available for purchase at a nominal price.

If you are interested in this opportunity please call or e-mail me at 561.758.1293 or TBAMENSCLUB2@gmail.com.

Thanks to everyone who attended our February Book Club. We had a wide-ranging and interesting discussion of Ayelet Tsabari's The Best Place on Earth.

Please join us for our next book club discussion on Monday, March 5 at 10:30am at the Temple. We will discuss:

THE ORPHAN'S TALE by Pam Jenoff

Sixteen-year-old Noa has been cast out in disgrace after becoming pregnant by a Nazi soldier and being forced to give up her baby. She lives above a small rail station, which she cleans in order to earn her keep... When Noa discovers a boxcar containing dozens of Jewish infants bound for a concentration camp, she is reminded of the child that was taken from her. And in a moment that will change the course of her life, she snatches one of the babies and flees into the snowy night. Noa finds refuge with a German circus, but she must learn the flying trapeze act so she can blend in undetected, spurning the resentment of the lead aerialist, Astrid. At first rivals, Noa and Astrid soon forge a powerful bond. But as the facade that protects them proves increasingly tenuous, Noa and Astrid must decide whether their friendship is enough to save one another—or if the secrets that burn between them will destroy everything.

As usual, for those who wish to join us, we will meet for lunch after the meeting, this time at the Juno Beach Café, 13967 US Highway 1, Juno Beach.

Please let me know if you will join us for the discussion and/or for lunch (ediewolf@gmail.com or 443.223.9729).

Looking forward to another interesting discussion.

2017-2018 Parent Education Series at The Temple Beth Am Mishpacha/Family Center

RECAP: Taking Care of Yourself While Taking Care of Your Children

Led by Dr. Carri Lager, Licensed Clinical Psychologist

Thank you so much to Dr. Carri Lager for presenting a motivating Parent Education Workshop on February 5 on Taking Care of Yourself While Taking Care of Your Children. Dr. Lager began by asking all the attendees “What is your happy place & what is your passion?” A common theme in the responses focused on the idea of freedom...or lack thereof as a parent. Our children view us as superheroes, however it is unrealistic to expect parents to truly “do it all”. Parenting can often enhance stressful situations and the question we have to ask ourselves is how do we cope & manage this stress? Dr. Lager touched on the warning signs of parent burnout (a state of chronic stress that can lead to physical exhaustion, cynicism, detachment or feelings of ineffectiveness & lack of appreciation) & other common psychological issues that parents face, stressing that the stress we embody is contagious with other members in our family.

“Selfish isn’t a dirty word”, but how often do you actually put your own needs first? Can you truly take care of others if you don’t take care of yourself? Dr. Lager presented techniques to enhance parental self-care, which can aid in the connection between parent and child. Concepts discussed included: Being mindful in the moment and present without judgement; Taking time to breathe and engage your relaxation response (even if only for a minute or two); Making our own sleep, nutrition, and exercise a priority (as we do for our children); Setting realistic expectations for ourselves and what we expect from our little ones.

THE ONE SCHOOL NEWS FOR MARCH

by Paula Deakter, Early Childhood Director

As Jewish early childhood educators, part of our mandate is to teach Jewish values in a developmentally appropriate way. We are blessed with the opportunity to have an impact on children at a very young age. Service learning fits comfortably.

EMPOWERING PROCESS service-learning is defined as a teaching and learning strategy that includes the elements of learner involvement in identifying a community need and involving the community. The nurturance of caring relations in children and adults is an important goal of early childhood professionals.

At The One School, we work using this approach to understand and follow Jewish ethical values.

Every year at The One School, children from Children's Outreach, Inc. are invited to share in our Thanksgiving program and luncheon, sponsored by the Temple, as well as our PTO. We send our guests home with gifts for the children and for their teachers. We also share in a Thanksgiving sing-a-long, where each of our classes and guests sing uplifting Thanksgiving songs. We would like to extend this wonderful one-time event into a continuation of service learning by inviting our friends for subsequent visits and to raise some money for their classrooms and playground as well.

To help our children to study the Jewish value of welcoming guests, or Hachnasat Orchim, (hospitality of guests), Lorraine Arcus, Jewish curriculum specialist, worked with our children to act out the story in Genesis 18:1-15. (See photos on next page) Just as Abraham and Sarah welcomed strangers into their tent, so do we welcome guests to our school community.

On March 7, we will bring our friends from Children's Outreach, Inc. to celebrate and learn with us. As we have an organic garden on our campus, we would like to share our proceeds by making a meal from the garden for our guests. With the help of our children, we would like our guests to visit the garden and see what we grow. We will plant with our guests and read stories about the importance of trees. We will also donate books and games for their classroom, some new and some gently used from our families. Parents, teachers, and children will be involved in this event.

The culmination of this will involve our Shining Stars. We will host a tricycle-athon to raise money for some equipment for their playground. The plan is for our families to sponsor our children as they ride on the playground. For each lap, they will earn money. All classes in the school will participate in this fundraising event in different ways. The school and PTO will match funds to help buy the equipment for our friends.

Teaching Jewish Values Through Early Childhood Books

The Little Red Hen and the Passover Matzah, written by Leslie Kimmelman and illustrated by Paul Meisel.

The story of The Little Red Hen and the Passover Matzah focuses on the following values: Arevut, responsibility to others, Hachnasat Orchim, welcoming guests, celebrating Pesach (Passover), and eating matzah (unleavened bread).

Our children can continue the understanding of community service by enjoying a book teaching important Jewish values encompassed within the celebration of Passover.

Summary of the Book

The Little Red Hen asks her friends to help her make matzah for the upcoming holiday. The animals had excuses why they could not help. Though the other animals in the book were not acting in a caring manner through much of the story, the Little Red Hen continues to do her work, and in the end, the others learned from all that she modeled. They learned that as members of a community, we are each responsible for the welfare of other community members.

When we welcome guests and practice the Jewish value of Hachnasat Orchim, we go beyond opening a door and saying, "Shalom." We share whole-heartedly. Our ancestors, Abraham and Sarah, modeled this when they kept their tent flaps open and greeted visitors with joy. Though the Little Red Hen struggles with how to greet those who were not helpful to her, in the end she chooses to act in a way that reflects her caring values.

Jews throughout the world celebrate Passover each spring, often inviting family and friends of different faiths and traditions to join them. We are once again reminded of our responsibility to our community and the concept of welcoming guests.

The One School at Temple Beth Am's Hachnasat Orchim Program is funded by a grant provided by the Friedman Commission for Jewish Education (CJE) for use by synagogues and Jewish schools in the Palm Beaches. For information on how your synagogue or school can also benefit, please contact Lynne Lieberman, Senior Director at l.lieberman@cjepb.org or 561.209.2606.

THE ONE SCHOOL NEWS FOR MARCH

by Paula Deakter, Early Childhood Director

Lorraine Arcus, Jewish curriculum specialist, and our children acting out Genesis 18:1-15 in the Mishpacha Family Center and learning the Jewish value of welcoming guests (Hachnasat Orchim). The children enjoyed being able to participate by dressing in costume for the lesson, which was in preparation for our March 7 Children's Outreach program, where The One School will welcome our guests with a visit to our garden, where we will plant and then make a meal using our organic produce.

Shema at Bedtime

Friday, March 9, 2018 at 5:30pm

We'll have an informal Shabbat dinner, story time with Rabbi Alon, a sing-a-long with Mr. Brett and Ms. Marcy, make and take crafts and of course, have milk and cookies too!

Cost is $10 per family of 4 and must be paid in advance.

Bar Mitzvah and Bat Mitzvah Announcements

Bar Mitzvah of Zach Lobel (March 3, 2018)

It is with great joy and pleasure that I announce the Bar Mitzvah of my son, Zachary Lobel, on March 3, 2018 at Temple Beth Am.

Zachary is a seventh grade honor roll student at Jupiter Middle School of Technology where he is enrolled in the choice program with a double major in pre-medicine and engineering.

Zachary is a Heat fan and loves to play basketball. He draws and builds in his free time and loves to read and go fishing. Zachary is also a volunteer at El Sol, Tequesta Recreation Dept., and Jupiter Tequesta Athletic Association.

Zachary is a wonderful big brother, son, grandson, and friend and enjoys summers at LBI with his cousins. Zachary is kind, compassionate, and accepting of others.

Zachary is grateful for the guidance and help he received from Rabbi Alon and Brett Tancer as he prepared for this special day.

Lauren Lobel

Bar Mitzvah of David Levinson (March 24, 2018)

We are proud of David for becoming a Bar Mitzvah and truly honored to be the parents of such an outstanding young man. David has excelled at academics and sports - there are few things that do not seem to come easy for him. With this success one might expect that arrogance or a sense of entitlement might have developed but the opposite could not be more true. David always thinks of others first and shows a level of empathy and a kindness that few people ever develop.

He is a loving and caring brother to Eli and Ilana who are 7 and 8, spending an extraordinary amount of time playing with them as he enters his teen years. We know that his grandmothers, Marsha and Estelle, are equally proud of him for the person he is becoming.

David loves to play football for the Jupiter Mustangs, is the goalie for the Jupiter Middle School lacrosse team and also plays travel lacrosse. He is a straight A student at school and a member of the Debate Club. When not studying, playing sports or running around the house with his brother and sister, he is usually "plugged in" be it on the Xbox, the computer or on his phone watching videos, listening to music or texting with his friends.

We are so appreciative of the support of Brett, Rabbi Alon, Cantor Jessica, Carol Sleeper, Nada-Ann Shade Imbriale and the office staff for helping David reach this milestone and making this an almost stress-free experience for our family.

Bar Mitzvah and Bat Mitzvah Announcements

Bar Mitzvah of Mason Glusman (March 24, 2018)

Mason Emanuel Glusman is proud to be called to the Torah for his Bar Mitzvah on March 24th, 2018. He is thankful to have had the support and lessons from the Temple in his preparation.

Special THANK YOU to Rabbi Alon & Mr. Brett especially, as well as the rest of the Temple family who helped him along as we celebrate this mitzvah!

Mason is a proud young Jewish man, mindful of the importance of this milestone. He understands that generations before him had to persevere and overcome great adversity so young Jewish boys and girls could have the opportunity to become a Bar and Bat Mitzvah as they transition into adult Jewish life.

With a genuine love for LIFE and PEOPLE, Mason has created a project called Peanut Butter and LOVE. This started some time ago when Mason found it very sad that there are people without shelter, food and care. So, he started taking food to random various locations in South Florida to help feed those who do not have the means to enjoy something as simple as a peanut butter sandwich. He is also joined often in his efforts by his brothers Judah and Remy, who are so excited to see him on the Bimah reading from the Torah!!

They, along with the balance of our family, are so proud to celebrate with him as we welcome him into our community as a Bar Mitzvah!
