THEY ASKED ME, “WHAT DID I LEARN?”

by Rabbi Brett Tancer

I was recently asked if I'd be willing to go into one of our Religious School classes to answer a series of questions. I received a list of what they were going to ask a little bit ahead of time and quickly read through them. It seems they had a whole lot of questions about becoming a rabbi and what I had to do in order to receive my “smicha”, or as we would say in English, what I had to do in order to be ordained.

I arrived in the classroom where I was given a seat of honor in the circle (the seat in question was built for people under the age of four, and so I sat down in a tiny chair and began the process of trying to answer the questions the kids had for me). We went around the circle and each child posed a different question. I have to admit, some of the questions were easier than others. They asked questions about how long I was in school for and whether I liked the people in my class. One question in particular stayed with me though; “What did you learn in school?” I gave them a few different answers all about the different types of classes that I took and the various subjects that we covered. I think they just assumed it was one long class, something like Rabbi 101. Many of them were a bit surprised when I began rattling off a long list of subjects, none of which had Rabbi in the title. We talked about classes on the Bible and classes that dealt with liturgy, etc. I have to admit though, the question really stuck with me. I looked back over the last five plus years and the 90-100 some odd classes that I took and I really began to ask myself, “What did I learn in school?”

It's a somewhat funny thing trying to boil down all of that material into something tangible that I can explain and point to, and while I looked back and did a mental inventory, class by class, subject by subject, and reflected on the takeaways from each one, that question still burned inside of me. The reality is that so much of what I learned isn't something that I can pinpoint; a lot of it is something that can only be felt. Sure, I learned facts and languages and the traditional Halacha or laws that govern daily life, but I also learned how to listen and how to be there for people during their good times and bad. I spent hours listening to people speak about their lives, their troubles, their pain, and I learned how to be present without inserting myself or my narrative or story into what they were sharing. It's not an easy thing to take the “I” out of a conversation. So often when we talk to each other, we can't help but share our own experiences with them in return. “Something happened to you? You'll never believe what happened to me!” It takes a lot of practice to censor oneself and to just be present.

Another big takeaway for me was that spirituality and prayer is kind of like studying music. Growing up I remember hearing on a regular basis that the way to get to Carnegie Hall is ... practice, practice, practice. I'm not sure that I ever would have compared personal spiritual practice to learning an instrument, but the reality is, they aren't so dissimilar. Both require time, effort, and dedication, both are a little bit scary to start, and both do in fact require practice. Although there's no Carnegie Hall equivalent for an individual's prayer and spiritual life, the end result can be incredibly rewarding.

At the end of the day, what I learned in school could fill months worth of articles, but I think for this month at least, the answer to the question I was asked, if it was posed to me again, would probably go something like this: “The Jewish tradition dates back thousands of years and contains wisdom and depth on more subjects than I can count. For us today, life moves at such a fast pace and we often forget that there are thousands of years worth of teachings that can inspire and guide us even in this modern world of ours. The ‘thing’ I learned in school was how to navigate those teachings and not only help people to find the relevancy but also, I hope, how to teach and demonstrate how we can incorporate those Jewish nuggets of wisdom into our daily lives.”

A MESSAGE FROM THE TREASURER

by Orin Shakerdge

Fellow congregants, Temple Beth Am asks for donations three times per year: VFC/Membership Drive, High Holy Days, and the Spring Drive. Last year's Spring Drive campaign was instrumental in raising funds to enhance Temple security and if you have been to our Temple recently, the result of your donations should be evident.

We will be launching our Spring Drive campaign again next month and are counting on your support.

First, we need support for the variety of programs that are offered to our diverse membership. Have you looked at the monthly calendar that Temple Beth Am sends out in each issue of The Scribe? There is virtually an activity every day of every month. Second, we need support for our beautifully renovated synagogue. We continue to take steps to beautify our synagogue and the surrounding property.

You can expect to receive a pledge form in the mail from the Temple in March. If you get a message from us, please listen to it! It is so important that everyone participates so we can continue to offer all our programs and beam with pride when entering our House of Worship. Let's celebrate Kulanu – All of Us Together.

THE ONE SCHOOL NEWS FOR MARCH

by Paula Deakter, Young Family Program Coordinator

A Love Party for the Bentley School!

Our friends at the Bentley's Child Development Center happily greeted us at their school in Rivera Beach on February 10. This is our sister school that we invite each year to celebrate Thanksgiving at The One School. The One School, the PTO, and mothers of our students have generously donated items for the school over the past six years.

Marcy Morris, Natalie Montijo, and Paula Deakter had a love party for the children last month. Marcy led a singalong for the children, Paula read a love story, and Natalie brought crafts and treats for an early Valentine's celebration. We continue to develop a relationship with this special school that provides so much for the children in this area. LaJuanda and her husband run the 40-children center, and provide all day care for the children and their siblings.

We look forward to inviting our friends again for a trike-a-thon in the spring to raise money for the school! All donations are welcome!

The One School Garden Party

Friday, April 3 at 5:30pm

Cost is $18 per family and must be paid in advance. To help us plan for food/supplies, RSVP IS REQUIRED by March 30! Please submit payment with this form to the school office.

BOOK CLUB

by Edie Wolf

At our latest Book Club meeting, we had our usual lively and interesting discussion of Beneath a Scarlet Sky by Mark Sullivan. Our next meeting of the season will be on Monday, March 2 at 10:30am at the Temple. We will discuss BECOMING by Michelle Obama.

*In her memoir, a work of deep reflection and mesmerizing storytelling, Michelle Obama invites readers into her world, chronicling the experiences that have shaped her—from her childhood on the South Side of Chicago to her years as an executive balancing the demands of motherhood and work, to her time spent at the world's most famous address. With unerring honesty and lively wit, she describes her triumphs and her disappointments, both public and private, telling her full story as she has lived it—in her own words and on her own terms. Warm, wise, and revelatory, Becoming is the deeply personal reckoning of a* woman of soul and substance who has steadily defied expectations—and whose story inspires us to do the same.

As usual, we will meet after the discussion for lunch and will go to Shipwreck, 1511 North Old Dixie Highway, Jupiter. Please let me know if you are coming to the book discussion and whether you are joining us for lunch (ediewolf@gmail.com or 443.223.9729).

Also, please email me or bring to Book Club no more than three suggestions for us to read for next season. I will compile the list and then we'll vote for our favorites.

Bar Mitzvah and Bat Mitzvah Announcements

Bar Mitzvah of Jacob Ross (March 7, 2020)

We are so proud and excited to celebrate our son, Jacob Linder Ross, as he becomes a Bar Mitzvah on March 7, 2020 at Temple Beth Am.

Jacob is a 7th grader at the Pine School, where he is involved in student council and more recently, Model UN. When Jacob is not in class, he enjoys playing soccer and hanging out with his friends at Pine. He also loves skiing and playing tennis, which he has done for as long as he can remember. Jacob has been an animal lover his whole life, and has been pet-sitting for neighbors since he was 8. His mitzvah project is collecting supplies and money for Furry Friends. Furry Friends has had a special place in his heart since fostering kittens and adopting a cat two years ago.

We would like to thank Rabbi Brett Tancer, Cantorial Soloist Marcy Morris, and Rabbi Alon Levkovitz for helping to prepare Jacob for his special day.

SOCIAL ACTION

at St. George's Soup Kitchen by John Baldwin

"Every man must decide whether he will walk in the light of creative altruism or in the darkness of destructive selfishness."

A beautiful quote commemorating our last service on Martin Luther King, Jr. Day. We had a great crew of volunteers and an even better turn-out of guests that truly appreciate our meals.

Thank you to all Temple Beth Am members for your ongoing support. Once again, we provided close to 200 full meals. All the meals were prepared with special care in our own Temple's kitchen through the generosity of time and resources provided by TBA members.

Doing the prep work, working the kitchen, and serving the meals in January were Richard Remick, Jerry Rosman, Joe Isenstein, Denny O'Brien, Frank Seidman, Marcy Brody, Jim Banic, David Snider, Jennifer Epstein, Wayne Epstein, David Friedman, Al Morganstein, Mike Deakter, Fred Lissauer, Frankie Lissauer, Marsha Levinson, and Cheryl Baldwin.

Please remember that your generous contributions of penne pasta are welcomed and appreciated. It's the staple of our meals. Just bring the boxes to Temple Beth Am and we'll make sure to transform them to a wonderful, hot meal.

Our next Soup Kitchen service will be Monday, March 16, starting at 5:00pm at St. George's Center, 21 W. 22nd St., Riviera Beach.

If you or anyone in your family are interested in joining our volunteer team, we'd love to have you with us. In particular, we encourage any school-aged Temple members (13+ years) who are looking for volunteer hours to join this rewarding work (2 full hours credited!). We like to have around 12-16 volunteers each month to serve dinners, so please email me, John Baldwin (john@responsegenius.com), to get on the monthly volunteer group list.

Temple Beth Am provides meals every third Monday of the month, 5:00pm–6:30pm.
