TEMPLE BETH AM

All of us together.

May-July 2023 • Iyar-Av 5783
Published Bi-Monthly • Volume 8, Issue 4

In This Issue...

When meeting with potential members I often get asked how many of our members are snowbirds, and whether we are a seasonal congregation. I answer honestly—we have snowbirds, but we are a thriving full-time congregation with a robust calendar of programs all year long. This summer is no exception. While school may be out, Temple is in session with a special early Service and Shabbat dinner series, holiday celebrations, and the return of our pool party. Our auxiliaries kick off their summer programs and our daytime activities including Book Club, Canasta, and Yoga continue all summer long!

Speaking of summer, our new fiscal year begins on July 1. Please keep an eye out on your mailbox for your Voluntary Financial Commitment (VFC) card and return it promptly to keep your membership in good standing. And on May 30, please join us for our annual meeting. We need an IN-PERSON quorum to vote on bylaw changes and can't do it without you. I hope to see you there!

SPRINGTIME FUN

A MESSAGE FROM RABBI ALON

FREEING THE CAPTIVE

Many of us still remember the Seruvniks, the Russian Jews who lived in the former Soviet Union and were not allowed to practice their Judaism. At best, they had to hide their Jewish identity from colleagues and neighbors. At worst, they were denied jobs, harassed, and even put in jail for years on end, just because they were Jews.

In 1979, two young Seruvniks were able to flee Russia after rumors that the government was planning to exile all Jews to Siberia. Ella was 22 when she fled the Soviet Union using Israeli documents. She left Russia with her mother, a Ukrainian nurse and a Holocaust survivor who often talked about the survivors of extermination camps she treated at a Polish military hospital at the end of World War II. Ella met Mikhail, who also fled the Soviet Union, in Detroit then moved to New Jersey where they pursued their American dream.

How incredibly cruel, unjust, and ironic it is that Ella and Mikhail's oldest child, 31-year-old Evan Gershkovich, is now imprisoned in the same country that his parents fled from and is held in the same prison (Moscow's notorious Lefortovo) that held many rabbis and refuseniks like Natan Sharansky. Evan is the Wall Street Journal reporter who was arrested on March 29, 2023, while on assignment and brought to Moscow to face trial. Russia's Federal Security Service (FSB) has falsely claimed that Evan was collecting state secrets about the military industrial complex. Evan, the Wall Street Journal, and the United States government have categorically denied these claims, and he's therefore considered "wrongly accused", which makes him a political prisoner. Evan is facing 20 years in prison.

In Judaism, the mitzvah of Pidyon Shvuyim, freeing the Jewish captives, is extremely important. In his book, Mishne Torah, Rabbi Moses Maimonides, the great rabbi, doctor, and Jewish scholar, declares that "... there is no mitzvah greater than the redeeming of captives." He goes so far as to say that the mitzvah of freeing the captives is more important than the mitzvot of feeding and clothing the poor. Reasons for the importance of this mitzvah are rooted in Jewish history when Jews were not protected under common laws and were subjected to the cruel whims of captors and kidnappers. In fact, when someone's life is on the line, we are commanded to do all that we can to redeem that person and save them from captivity.

I am telling you all this because I want you to be informed and pay attention to this case and to our religious obligation to bring a fellow Jew home. I want to encourage you to keep Evan Gershkovich in your hearts and in your prayers. This is a case where money and connections may not help, but if you are so inclined, the Wall Street Journal has put out ideas of how to raise awareness on social media. Evan was taken by the Russian authorities a couple of days before we sat at the Passover Seder. The exodus out of slavery in Egypt is the greatest Jewish story of escaping captivity. I pray that this was the last holiday he was not able to be with his family, and that his story will end with a miraculous flee out of Russia, like his parents before him.

PASSOVER WRAP-UP

On Wednesday, April 5, Temple Beth Am held its annual First Night Seder, with over 150 people of all ages in attendance. It was a wonderful evening of gathering, singing, commemorating, celebrating, and of course eating. We are grateful to everyone who attended and participated, to our clergy for leading a beautiful seder, to the TBA professionals behind the scenes, and to all the volunteers and sponsors without whom this memorable evening would not have been possible.

A special thank you to the following sponsors who helped underwrite the costs of the evening: Barry Cohn, Marjorie & Steve Nagrotsky, Alec & Dotty Wisch, Patrick Nicholas, and Bettina & Greg Weiss. And to our volunteers for all the shopping, chopping, peeling, cooking, arranging, and setting up: Gali Levkovitz, Yoni Levkovitz, Bruce Cohen, Maureen Cohen, Maddie Cohen, Laura Nolan, Carole Meshil, Sandy Goldberg, Dotty Wisch, Alec Wisch, Stefanie Markson, Tammy Webber, Sharon Holinstat, Leona Holland, and Eli Sandquist. Thank you to all of you, your contributions made the evening all the more special and brought to life the meaning of community.

MEN'S CLUB HAPPENINGS

As we “wind down” our activities for the upcoming summer season, we can honestly say this has been a most productive year for your TBA Men's Club. In March, we cooked and served a record number of hamburgers, hot dogs, and veggie burgers for the annual Temple Purim Carnival. We also held a Men's Club membership luncheon that was well attended on Monday, April 17 at the TBA small chapel, we sponsored a speaker for the Yom Hashoah Service on Friday, April 21, and on Saturday, April 22, we hosted a successful dinner at the Bistro Restaurant in Jupiter for 30+ members and spouses. In addition, we cooked hamburgers and hot dogs for the annual Yom HaAtzmaut celebration and dinner on Friday, April 28.

Upcoming events during the summer consist of our ever-popular monthly dinners which we will be announcing soon, starting at the end of May. Your Men's Club remains active during the summer months, beginning the planning process for the fall of 2023 into the spring of 2024.

During the month of May, we start the process of electing officers and board members for the upcoming fiscal 2023-2024 year. If you would like to join us and get more involved with a great group of active Men's Club members, please let us know by sending us an email at tbamensclub2@gmail.com.

I would be remiss in not thanking this year's TBA Men's Club Board: Rick Levine, Harvey Silverman, Mel Wolfe, Jerry Rosman, Steve Nichols, and Scott Ackerman. These gentlemen worked tirelessly to make certain all our events were managed properly.

We wish all of you a relaxing, healthy, and productive summer.

Thanks to our Men's Club volunteers who cooked burgers and hot dogs at the Annual Purim Carnival!
