THE FIRST “NEW HEROIC JEW”?

by Rabbi Alon Levkovitz

For most Jews outside Israel, May 19 of this year will be just an ordinary day. In Israel, on the other hand, many, especially children, will celebrate the semi-holiday of Lag Ba'Omer. This holiday has neither special liturgy, nor religious rituals, yet tens of thousands of bonfires will be kindled all around the country in celebration of the heroic victory of Simon Bar Kochba over the Roman Empire. Besides the obvious environmental ramifications, and the stench of burned wood that lingers for days, there is another big problem with this holiday—Bar Kochba and his Jewish army not only didn't win their rebellion, but their rebellion led to the end of the Jewish community in Judea.

Sixty years after the Great Rebellion against the Romans, which resulted in the destruction of the Temple in Jerusalem (70 C.E.), the Jews faced a new devastating predicament that included a prohibition on circumcision and a plan to rebuild Jerusalem as a Pagan Roman city on the ruins of the holy Temple. A charismatic leader by the name of Simeon bar Kosevah (who later will be called Bar Kochba, the son of the star) led a revolt against the Romans. Initially, things worked out well. He took advantage of the topography with which he and his men were familiar and, using guerilla war tactics, caused great losses to the Romans. His success even caused some religious leaders like Rabbi Akiva to announce that he was the Messiah.

Hadrian, the Roman emperor, sent additional legions to crush the resistance, and after three and a half years, the Romans won. About 580,000 Jews were killed, 950 communities were destroyed, many were sold as slaves (there were so many Jewish slaves that their price was lower than that of a horse) and the Jewish community in Judea almost disappeared.

Bar Kochbah failed miserably, so why is he celebrated today as a hero?

In the 19th century, the Zionist movement was on the lookout for heroic Jews who didn't look like the typical shtetl man. They rejected the Talmudic Jew, yeshiva bucher, style, for the image of the new Jew that toils the land of Israel and redeems it for his people. They tried to avoid the history of Jews as victims, forever moved and abused by pogroms, and instill a “stronger” more inspiring image. As Max Nordau put it, “Clear Heads, Solid Stomachs, and Hard Muscles.” If one conveniently ignores the end of the revolt, Bar Kochbah fitted the bill, and he (along with Judah Maccabee) became the symbols of the new heroic Jew, used as inspiration for the new Zionist Jews. A song that Levin Kipnis wrote in 1929, and is still familiar today to every child in Israel, demonstrates the successful rebranding of Bar Kochba.

There was a man in Israel,
Whose name was Bar Kohkba.
He was young and tall,
And his eyes shone.

He was a hero,
He called for liberty,
The whole nation loved him,
This was a hero!

In this case, as in many others, a good song and a revised story are more powerful than historical facts.

A MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

by Lindsay Hirsch, President

Shavuot is the holiday that has long been identified with the giving of the Torah on Mount Sinai. Shavuot isn't a holiday that has made it onto secular calendars or one that most would identify as important off the bat. Some of you may have never even celebrated it in the past or recent years. Let me remind you... it's the one with all the dairy. I bet you are now remembering the cheesecakes, blintzes, and cheese boards that make those of us who are lactose-intolerant wince, and those of us who aren't smile from ear to ear. The significance of the holiday for Judaism is namely the entering into a covenant between God and Israel, and remembering our loved ones who have passed away during Yizkor.

My family always celebrated Shavuot. Well, they loved to gather for a good brunch! Shavuot gave us an opportunity and some time to talk about the generations before us. As a child we weren't the most observant family, but we were cultural and traditional in our celebrations.

Traditionally, much of the observance of the holiday centers on the synagogue and its rituals. So, this year, it makes sense for us to celebrate Shavuot in conjunction with the Temple Beth Am Annual Meeting on June 5 (see page 9 for details). Rabbi Alon, Danna, and I couldn't think of a more ideal manner in which we can come together as a community and celebrate all of our successes as a congregation this past year. I hope you will consider coming in person to hear first-hand our year in review, see friends, meet and elect Board members, learn about what is on the horizon for our next fiscal year, and, of course, have brunch.

There has been so much happening in our society, locally and globally, that coming together in a meaningful way demonstrates that we are one congregation, united with one another, and that as congregants we all believe in the values of Temple Beth Am. As a congregational community, we represent that our philosophy is of one heart. Our TBA family's heart is big enough to embrace all who need a place to welcome them into a community.

I hope you will be a part of this year's Annual Meeting. Be a part of the covenant we are going to make with one another for the year ahead.

MEN'S CLUB HAPPENINGS

by Barry Ogrin and Harvey Silverman

The Men's Club hosted a free lox and bagel breakfast on Sunday morning, April 10 at Ocean Cay Park near the beach. The weather was spectacular, and we had a wonderful turnout of around 55 people.

Also in April, we had our first in-person (non-Zoom) Membership Meeting since January 2020 at the Temple! Sandwiches were served for all those attending. The nominating committee presented a "slate" with two new board member recommendations for the upcoming 2022-2023 season. The members present at this meeting unanimously voted to accept this slate of officers. We welcome our new board members Dr. Rick Levine and Scott Ackerman to our Men's Club "family". We also want to recognize Bob Hochman and Scott Reber, who opted not to be candidates for re-election. Thank you for your years of service to our Men's Club.

On Friday night, April 29, the Men's Club in conjunction with NEXT GENERATIONS will be sponsoring speaker Gerard Lob at the Friday night Service to commemorate Yom Hashoah. Mr. Lob's talk will be about countries that were willing participants in the Holocaust and its relevance to what is happening in the world today. Be sure to join us on April 29 at 7:00pm. This topic is vitally important for all Jews, considering current world events.

In early May, your Men's Club will be assisting the Temple in preparing food for the Yom HaAtzmaut Service at the beach on Friday, May 6. We will be looking for volunteers to help with this.

Also in May, we will begin a series of monthly summer dinners held outdoors at area restaurants. Our first dinner, hosted by Harvey and Rita Silverman, will take place at Portobello Cucina Italiana on May 24 at 5:30pm.

We continue to sponsor events and programs as circumstances allow. If you would like to join us, have suggestions for programs or events, or have comments to share with us, please contact us at tbamensclub2@gmail.com.

HAMAKOM HAPPENINGS

by Alissa Frankel, Education Director

This year has been a year to not be forgotten. We celebrated the Jewish holidays throughout the year beginning with our High Holy Day Experience leading to a Yom Kippur Escape Room then we had Sukkot Fall Fest and unrolled the Torah for Simchat Torah followed by Out of the Blox for Hanukkah, and we just finished our year with our Passover program. These holiday experiences are design for HaMakom youth to celebrate Jewish holidays together as a community to have lasting positive memories.

Our 6th grade student's hosted their annual Tzedakah Fair for the whole school. Each year student's are able to work in groups to choose an organization that's important to them. They prepare short presentations highlighting their organizations mission and collect Tzedakah to be donated to their cause. This year the organizations the student's chose were Cancer Commons, Little Smiles, Gorilla Fund, St. Jude, Seedlings Braille Books for Children, and African Wildlife Foundation. Also coming up is our annual 5th grade living museum. Each student chooses someone they consider a Jewish hero and comes alive as student's dress the part of their chosen person. Here is a sampling of a few of the living museum exhibits.

For myself, participating in the year-long M² Senior Educator Cohort and the Jewish Education Project's Innovation Lab, I have gained so much perspective on how to bring alive Jewish education for our students. It has not only been a wonderful year of learning and growing for the students but for myself as well. I look forward to bringing my expanded knowledge and skills to HaMakom to enhance the experiences of our youth.

I hope everyone has a wonderful summer!

WANTED: CAMP ADDRESSES!

YOUTH GROUP NEWS

by Elana Beame, Youth Engagement Director

To all of the Amazing Families, Teens, and Children that I've had the opportunity to work with:

Over my four years at Temple Beth Am, I have engaged over 200 students between youth groups, Camp Days, volunteering, Tuesday Night for Teens, and the College Connection Program. Being here has helped me realize that I love working in the Jewish world and I want to continue to grow into a strong Jewish Educator. I love the idea that I can help mold and expand someone else's Jewish identity. I am eager to experience more and welcome the challenge of working with our Jewish youth and inspiring them to grow into young Jewish adults.

With this in mind, I am privileged to have been accepted to Hebrew Union College – Jewish Institute of Religion (HUC-JIR) for a two-year program in Los Angeles, California, to pursue my master's degree in Jewish Education and Leadership. By pursuing a master's degree I aspire to create a more pronounced path to achieve my goals and aspirations, ultimately setting myself up to achieve great future success.

And so, it is with a heavy heart that I am announcing that my last day at Temple Beth Am will be May 31. I will leave here knowing that I have given my all to our youth here at TBA and they gave it right back to me! I have such fond memories of my time and interactions with all of you that I will keep in my heart for years to come! Thank you all for welcoming me into the TBA community and I look forward to staying up to date with everyone!

THE ONE SCHOOL NEWS FOR MAY

by Patty McCaulley, Early Childhood Director

Passover at The One School is always a joyful time of year. The children learn the story of Passover through many active activities such as role playing, artistic displays, cooking, singing, and making child-friendly Haggadah.

Such activities supported the children's understanding of the Seders that the PK3 and PK4 children experienced in their classrooms. The One School teachers provided marvelous Passover activities and beautiful Seders.

Bar Mitzvah of Aden Goldman (May 28, 2022)

We are so proud and blessed to announce the Bar Mitzvah of our son, Aden V. Goldman, at Temple Beth Am on May 28, 2022.

Aden is currently a seventh grade honor roll student at Independence Middle School where he excels in science, math, and civics. He is a member of the Singing Eagles chorus group, which has been awarded straight superiors in MPA.

Aden is an avid traveler who enjoys experiencing a multitude of various cultures. He has traveled to places like Spain, Maldives, India, Thailand, Canada, and Israel. He loves talking politics and enjoys various sports such as tennis, golf, basketball, football, swimming, skiing, and fishing. His favorite pasttime is relaxing at the beach in this beautiful Florida weather. Most importantly, he loves spending his time with family, including his big brother Ari, and of course our dog, Aspen.

Aden's ambitions include getting involved in business and politics and making a difference in the world.

A very special thank you to Rabbi Alon Levkovitz, Cantorial Soloist Marcy Morris, Elena Levy, and Ms. Ronit Meirom. We cannot thank you enough for mentoring Aden and laying out a path for his journey.

Bar Mitzvah and Bat Mitzvah Announcements

Bat Mitzvah of Ella Ergas (May 28, 2022)

With all our love, joy, and pride, we announce that our daughter, Ella Ergas, will be called to the Torah as a Bat Mitzvah on May 28, 2022 at Temple Beth Am.

Ella is a seventh grader in the Pre-Teacher Academy at Independence Middle School. She is a hardworking student who has earned a position on honor roll each quarter at IMS. Ella enjoys hanging out with her friends, playing soccer, and spending time with her family.

Ella's favorite activity is going to the beach. If you ask her what she wants to do on the weekend, she will most likely say go to the beach. She loves to boogie board, paddle board, and go surfing. Ella's mitzvah project evolved from her love for the ocean and animals. She raised money throughout this year to benefit sea turtle research, rehabilitation, and education at Loggerhead Marinelife Center. Ever since Ella was a young girl, she has always enjoyed seeing all the sea turtles get rehabilitated from an injury and then released into the ocean. Ella hopes to continue to help these sea turtles with her mitzvah project.

We want to thank Rabbi Alon Levkovitz, Cantorial Soloist Marcy Morris, and the Temple Beth Am teachers and staff for preparing Ella over these past months and throughout the years for her special day.

BOOK CLUB

by Edie Wolf

At our last meeting, we had a great discussion of A Pigeon and a Boy by Meir Shalev. Thanks for all of your contributions to the discussion.

Our next meeting (via Zoom) will be on Monday, May 2 at 10:30am. We will discuss THE PERSONAL LIBRARIAN by Marie Benedict and Victoria Christopher Murray:

A remarkable novel about J. P. Morgan's personal librarian, Belle da Costa Greene, the Black American woman who was forced to hide her true identity and pass as white in order to leave a lasting legacy that enriched our nation.

In her twenties, Belle da Costa Greene is hired by J. P. Morgan to curate a collection of rare manuscripts, books, and artwork for his newly built Pierpont Morgan Library. Belle becomes a fixture in New York City society and one of the most powerful people in the art and book world, known for her impeccable taste and shrewd negotiating for critical works as she helps create a world-class collection.

But Belle has a secret, one she must protect at all costs. She was born not Belle da Costa Greene but Belle Marion Greener. She is the daughter of Richard Greener, the first Black graduate of Harvard and a well-known advocate for equality. Belle's complexion isn't dark because of her alleged Portuguese heritage that lets her pass as white—her complexion is dark because she is African American.

I will send everyone a link for the Zoom meeting a few days before the Book Club. Please contact me at ediewolf@gmail.com or 443.223.9729 with questions or concerns.
