IN HONOR OF THANKSGIVING

by Rabbi Alon Levkovitz

To take a brief break from the poisonous dose of divisiveness and controversy that has become the norm in our contemporary society and infuses our lives with anger and frustration, I decided, in honor of Thanksgiving, to write about a subject that transcends controversy—gratitude. Who in their right mind can say anything negative about appreciation and thankfulness? Well, more than I could have imagined.

Apparently, people oppose the concept of Thanksgiving for religious, political, and psychological reasons. I was not convinced by any of their arguments, but during my reading on the subject I discovered the incredible story of Blamesgiving and thought that you might want to share it with your friends and family during Thanksgiving.

In 1931, 200 atheists gathered in a hall near Grace Church, in New York City, for what they proclaimed to be the First Annual Blamesgiving Service. A protest sermon explained the purpose of Blamesgiving: "While others are expressing their gratefulness for the good things of the past year, there can be no harm in making a similar list of things that were not so good." It was organized as a mockery of a church service, with an "opening prayer of protest," a "scripture reading," and then the singing of a "hymn" called "The Modern Doxology." Some choice verses:

Blame God from whom all cyclones blow.

Blame him when rivers overflow, Blame him who swirls down house and steeple,

Who sinks the ship and drowns the people.

Blame God when fell tornadoes spread

Disaster, leaving maimed and dead; When dread volcanoes vomit death, Destroying towns with liquid breath.

While the practice of Blamesgiving didn't survive beyond its inaugural year, its spirit, unfortunately, is still prevalent among us. To offset the bitterness that stems from it, I would like to offer a poem by the Irish poet John O'Donohue who, despite his short life, left us with a treasure of blessings. This poem below was taken from his book "To Bless the Space Between Us".

On Waking by John O'Donohue

I give thanks for arriving
Safely in a new dawn,
For the gift of eyes
To see the world,
The gift of mind
To feel at home
In my life,
The waves of possibility
Breaking on the shore of dawn,
The harvest of the past
That awaits my hunger,
And all the furtherings
This new day will bring.

My family and I wish you and yours a very happy Thanksgiving full of gratefulness and appreciation.

Rabbi Alon Levkovitz

A MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

by Bruce Cohen

This year's High Holy Day Services were the best I can remember.

Rabbi Alon, Brett, and Marcy have made Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur so meaningful and I would like to thank you for everything you do to make them so. As a congregant (before I became Temple president), I had no idea how much went into preparing for the High Holy Days. Hundreds of hours are spent developing, planning, coordinating, and rehearsing—all before we even begin the actual Service.

Thank you to our incredible staff and Board of Directors. Debbie Baseman, your countless hours spent organizing and planning each year has been amazing. Debbie, it seems, virtually lives at the Temple before and during the High Holy Days to make sure they go off without a hitch. She does so much behind the scenes, and yet, when things always seem to go so smoothly, it can be easy to take it for granted. So I want to say a big thank you to Debbie and let her know that her work does not go unappreciated.

This year, Board Member Mark Golzbein organized our ushers and made sure they were well-trained, including new security training this year, which meant extra hours learning our new procedures. To our volunteers, I want to say thank you as well. Without your involvement, things would not run so smoothly.

To those of you who have taken the time to share your comments, I want you to know that we truly do appreciate your input.

If you missed any of our Services or would like to go back and experience any part of them again, go to www.templebetham.com and click on Worship/Livestream to watch the archived videos. And if you didn't have the opportunity to see my High Holy Day appeal, feel free to watch that there as well. We do rely on your financial support, particularly at this time of the year. If you haven't yet made a High Holy Days pledge, you can use the form below or feel free to call the Temple office at 561.747.1109.

HIGH HOLY DAYS WRAP UP

by Debbie Baseman

L'Shanah Tovah to my Temple family. Temple Beth Am began this new year, 5780 on the Jewish calendar, with a bang. Our High Holy Days Services were OUTSTANDING! We are blessed to have such a great clergy team leading us. I can't say enough about how wonderful Rabbi Alon Levkovitz, (soon-to-be rabbi) Brett Tancer, and our cantorial soloist Marcy Morris are. The months and months of preparation they put into these Services are very obvious by the final results we all experienced. Thank you Rabbi Alon, Brett, and Marcy for your beautiful and inspirational High Holy Days Services. The sermons you delivered, the music you sang, the hours spent preparing the slides (with the entire prayer book, making it easier to follow the Service), along with the way you work together on the bimah, makes our High Holy Days the best they can be. Thank you also to Ben Krieger & Ava Diamond for the beautiful duet you sang on Yom Kippur and to Nate Goldin who blew the Shofar.

There are many other people who volunteer their time behind the scenes to help with all the moving parts. The ushers and greeters are an integral part of making things run smoothly. I would like to thank those who came early, stayed late, and worked throughout the Services: Hal Baseman, Carol Carswell, Bruce Cohen, Danna Cohen, Phyllis Cohen, Mary Elias, Bob & Karen Feller, Melanie Friedman, Jackie Halderman, Lindsay Hirsch, Bob & Nanci Hochman, Sharon Holinstat, Carole Levine, Liz Levine, Marsha Levinson, Susan Marzina, Jody Minde, Iva Morris, Richard Remick, Jerry & Barbara Rosman, Peter Sandquist, Joetta Schneider, Orin Shakerdge, Marc Siegel, Jack Tenenbaum, and Harvey White. And a very special thank you to Mark Golzbein who organized the ushers and worked the High Holy Days from beginning to end.

Thank you Gali Levkovitz! Gali made sure that ALL who worked, including the musicians, sound technician, clergy, staff, and volunteers (and that's a lot of people) were able to enjoy a holiday meal with their Temple family. This was MUCH appreciated!

Thank you Mark Slifkin for the work you have done behind the scenes to ensure that our security is second to none. Thank you Darrin & Stephanie Mains for keeping the parking lot safe and organized.

Thank you Elana Beame for running the Food Drive along with our Youth Group. Thank you Debby Baker for your help and guidance. Thank you Ben Levkovitz for your leadership with the volunteers who worked collecting the food and getting it into the truck: Naomi Cohn, Nathan Goldin, Ephram Jacob, Yoni Levkovitz, Talia Meidan, and Justin Siegel. Thank you Gali Levkovitz, Marcy Isdaner & Ben Levkovitz for transporting the food to the Alpert Jewish Family Service. (See page 10 for photos.)

Thank you Sisterhood for supplying the gifts of honey and a shofar to all of the children after the Children's Service and the Family Service on Rosh Hashanah. Thank you Eileen Ogrin for taking care of getting the flowers for the bimah.

Thank you to the entire staff at Temple Beth Am who worked above and beyond, every day, to help make TBA the best it can be. Thank you to Margot Hauser who loves the craziness that we go through leading up to the High Holy Days and who I love working with; Carolyn Tierney for her marketing & communication skills; Meredith Goodman for keeping the money straight; Danna Cohen for her behind the scenes, break-the-fast, and front desk help; Alissa Frankel & Elana Beame for all the shopping that needed to be done and for the children's programming during Rosh Hashanah & Yom Kippur; and Paula Deakter for her guidance during the Children's Service.

And thank you Alex DeLeon,
Alfredo Montes, Vincent & Maria
DeLeon, and Rich Remick for doing all the building preparations leading up to, throughout, and after the High Holy Days. The way they turn a building around is unbelievable!

And one last special, personal, thank you to my wonderful husband, Hal Baseman. Without his support, I would not be able to do what I do for the High Holy Days. I thank God every day that I have him by my side. I love you, Hal.

As I have always said, for many years, at the end of this article: It takes the hands of many people to "run the show" and I know I must be forgetting someone! Please forgive me if I failed to mention you by name, but know that your help was greatly appreciated.

DETAILS TO COME IN THE DECEMBER ISSUE OF THE SCRIBE

SISTERHOOD SCOOP

by Maril Levy

I began writing this column just a few days after Yom Kippur, still feeling so moved by the liturgy, music, sermons, shofar sounds, and the special warmth of High Holy Days Services at TBA. Livestream video allowed many of us who were unable to be physically present to attend as well. Thank you Rabbi Alon, Brett Tancer, and Marcy Morris for leading us in worship and Debbie Baseman whose talent and efforts always make the High Holy Days at TBA run smoothly.

On Tuesday, October 15, 20 Sisters enjoyed a guided walking tour of Worth Avenue in Palm Beach, led by historian and raconteur Rick Rose, who shared the interesting history of that famous street. Our delicious lunch out after the tour was in a private room at Ta-boo, on Worth Avenue. Thank you Sharon Rosen, for scheduling this very special tour, and thank you Carole Levine, for handling all the RSVPs and lunch arrangements. This was a truly fabulous outing!

Looking back at our September tour of the Jupiter Inlet Lighthouse and Museum, I want to brag about some of your Sisters, who actually climbed all 105 spiral steps to the top of the Lighthouse. Congrats to Hinda Morgan, Eileen Ogrin, Joan Weinberger, and me! We did it!

Sisterhood has arranged two exciting educational programs for this month and next. See below for details.

Our Third Tuesday of the Month Lunch Out will be at Old Florida Bar and Grill, 250 W. Indiantown Road in Jupiter, on November 19 at noon. Simply order whatever you'd like from the menu, separate checks (so you pay only for what you order), and eat and schmooze with your Sisters! This is a wonderful way to meet new friends and to catch up with old ones. RSVP to Carole Levine (561.339.3909 or juptrcaro@comcast. net) so she can give the restaurant an accurate headcount. And, let Carole know if November is your birthday month. If it is, your lunch is Sisterhood's treat!

On Tuesday, December 17, our Lunch Out will follow a private tour of the Ann Norton Sculpture Garden in West Palm Beach. Our tour will run from 11:00am-12:30pm, and we hope to be able to have lunch in the café on their grounds. More info will follow in the December issue of The Scribe.

Your Sisterhood Board has been busy finalizing the details of our annual Paid-Up Sisterhood Membership Luncheon. This catered event will be held at TBA on Sunday, January 12, from 1:00pm to 3:00pm. We've made some fun changes, but you can still count on receiving your 2020 member's only Sisterhood Directory, voting for your new Sisterhood Board, and taking a chance on winning the 50/50. This event is free for our members; $25 for guests. Save the date! Your postcard invitation will arrive in the mail in mid-December.

Two important reminders: If you RSVPed to a Sisterhood event, but find at the last minute that you can't attend, please phone Carole Levine to let her know we should not wait for you. And, if you hope to join a carpool for an event, please let Carole know as you RSVP. It's impossible for her to arrange carpools at the very last minute. Thanks for your understanding and cooperation.

On behalf of your Sisterhood Board, I wish you and yours a very happy Thanksgiving. Let us appreciate and give thanks for our abundant blessings. We hope you enjoy the warmth of family and friends, delicious dinner and desserts, and some great football too!

Upcoming Educational Programs

Monday, November 11, at 1:30pm— Dr. Marni Nicholas, MD will give an informative talk about Women's Health, including choosing a PCP, diet and exercise, sleep problems, and a Q&A. Open to all TBA women and their guests.

Wednesday, December 4, at 7:00pm—Renee Weisman will give a presentation titled Great Minds Do Not Think Alike about the differences in how men's and women's brains work. Renee, an author and educator, retired from IBM as a Distinguished Engineer and Director of Engineering. This special adult education event is open to all TBA adults.

RSVP to Carole Levine so we can correctly arrange for seating and light refreshments (561.339.3909 or jptrcaro@comcast.net).

We are excited to announce our Men's Club Meeting Speaker
Series. As part of our new meeting process, we have instituted several new looks. One is our Speakers Series featuring TBA Men's Club members discussing subjects of interest to our members immediately following the brief business portion of our regular monthly meetings.

Our Speaker Series began on October 16, 2019 with attorney Elliot Hochman discussing "Estate Planning in the Real World".

The next speaker is on Wednesday, December 11, 2019. Dr. David Rosenberg will discuss "4 Keys to Maximizing Quality of Life As We Age".

Congregant Dr. David Rosenberg received his MD from the University of Miami and has been a member of the American Board of Family Medicine since 1991. He operates Jupiter Concierge Family Practice, PA, is an Attending Physician at Jupiter Medical Center and Palm Beach Gardens Medical Center, a volunteer physician at My Clinic in Jupiter, and was Director of Carelink Community Free Health Clinic from 2002-2011. Dr. Rosenberg has given community lectures on general nutrition, antiaging, doctors ordering unnecessary tests, and being a better patient. This will provide valuable insight and information to all who attend.

The next two speakers are scheduled for Wednesday, February 12, 2020 (Temple President Bruce Cohen discussing "CBD and Marijuana in Pain Management") and Monday, April 27, 2020 (TBA member Jeff Klatzko discussing "Long-Term Care Needs").

SOCIAL ACTION

at St. George's Soup Kitchen by John Baldwin

In September, we once again brought our care, dedication, smiles, and delicious meals to the less fortunate in our community. As always, it was received with much thanks and gratitude. Little do many of these folks know, that the real thanks and gratitude is ours for allowing us to share our riches, time, and love.

One of our loyal volunteers, Harriet Vogel, took some extra time with a few of our guests this month. One was so proud to tell her about all the books they had read. Another related how he had a home in Mirasol before falling upon hard times. Both are reminders of how fortunate we truly are and how our comfort and security should never be taken for granted. Thank you, Harriet, for taking the time to listen to their stories and sharing them with us.

Each month we acknowledge and share our appreciation to all Temple Beth Am members for your ongoing funding and support. We again provided close to 200 hot meals. The pasta and meatballs were prepared with special care in our own Temple's kitchen through the generosity of time and resources provided by TBA members.

Doing the prep work, working the kitchen, and serving the meals in September were:

Richard Remick
Jerry Rosman
Stacey Reich
Alissa Weisberg
Ruth Weisberg
David Snider
Harriet Vogel
Fred Lissauer
Frankie Lissauer
Jennifer Epstein
Wayne Epstein
Susan Jacob

As is my habit, I always like to particularly single out when one of our young members join in helping for the evening. Many thanks to Ruth Weisberg. You jumped right in, providing tremendous support and care. You should be extremely proud of yourself.

With all the beautiful giving of food by our members during the holiday season, please remember that we also appreciate your generous contributions of penne pasta for the St. George's meals. It is welcomed and appreciated. Just bring the boxes to Temple Beth Am and we'll make sure they are transformed into wonderful, hot meals.

Our next Soup Kitchen service will be Monday, November 18, starting at 5:00pm at St. George's Center, 21 W. 22nd St., Riviera Beach.

If you or anyone in your family are interested in joining our volunteer team, we'd love to have you with us. In particular, we encourage any school-aged Temple members (13+ years) who are looking for volunteer hours to join this rewarding work (2 full hours credited!).

We like to have around 12 volunteers each month to serve dinners, so please email me, John Baldwin (john@responsegenius. com), to get on the monthly volunteer group list.

Temple Beth Am provides meals every 3rd Monday of the month, 5:00pm-6:30pm.

Shanah Tovah to all.

Bar Mitzvah and Bat Mitzvah Announcements

Bar Mitzvah of Ari Goldman (November 2, 2019)

It is with so much pride and joy that we announce that our son, Ari Daniel Goldman, will be called to the Torah as a Bar Mitzvah at Temple Beth Am on November 2, 2019. During this year's winter break, Ari will have a second Bar Mitzvah in Israel. He will have an ultimate experience of his heritage and faith.

Ari is a 7th grader at Independence Middle School (IMS). He is in the top of his class and excels both academically and artistically. He has led many roles at Maltz Theatre and enjoys singing chorus as part of the IMS Boys Singing Eagles. Ari's other passions are travel, ski, golf, and of course, video games.

Ari has volunteered at Temple Beth Am packaging food for the food pantry, cleaning beaches, and raising money for pet shelters. Just recently, the Singing Eagles performed at a fundraiser for IMS at Barnes & Noble.

We want to thank Rabbi Alon Levkovitz, Rabbinic Intern Brett Tancer, and Cantorial Soloist Marcy Morris for encouraging and preparing Ari for his special passage.

Saluja & Alex Goldman

Bat Mitzvah of Hannah Shakerdge (November 23, 2019)

It is with much pride and joy that we announce the Bat Mitzvah of our daughter, Hannah Grace Shakerdge, on November 23, 2019 at Temple Beth Am. Hannah's journey at Temple Beth Am began 11 years ago at the Temple Beth Am Preschool where she was a member of Mrs. Heidi's Mommy & Me Class. While attending preschool and Religious School at Temple Beth Am, she has built some great friendships with her classmates. Hannah is currently a 7th grade honor student at Independence Middle School and a member of the Pre-Law Academy. She also attends the Florida School for Dance Education and Keep Flippin' Gymnastics. Hannah is the only girl among four children, so while she has often wished for a sister, she still tolerates (= loves) her brothers Jacob, Ari, and Jeremy. She also loves to read, which is why she chose to collect books for the Literacy Coalition of Palm Beach County for her Bat Mitzvah Project. If anyone wants to donate any books to the Literacy Coalition, please reach out to her and we will ensure it gets to the folks in our community who could benefit from them. Thank you to Rabbi Alon Levkovitz for leading Hannah's baby-naming ceremony over 12 years ago and to Rabbinic Intern Brett Tancer, and Cantorial Soloist Marcy Morris for helping Hannah with her Bat Mitzvah preparations. Lastly, a big thank you to all the Temple Beth Am teachers who have had such a positive impact on Hannah's life.

Bar Mitzvah and Bat Mitzvah Announcements

Sammi Axler

Sydney Axler

B'not Mitzvah of Sammi and Sydney Axler (November 16, 2019)

It is with great honor and excitement that we announce the B'not Mitzvah of our daughters, Samantha Danielle and Sydney Dylan, at Temple Beth Am on November 16, 2019.

Sammi is an 8th grade student at Bak Middle School of the Arts where she studies Communications. As part of the yearbook staff and Bak TV news team, she enjoys writing, interviewing, and capturing photos of student life, while consistently being an honor roll student.

Sammi's true passion is training and performing as an aerialist as part of the Cirque Prêt team at Florida Aerial Dance & Circus Arts in Palm City. You will find her flying 25 feet in the air from hanging silks, lyra, and trapeze at the gym and at local theatrical performances throughout Palm Beach and Martin Counties. She also looks forward every summer to spending a few weeks at Camp Pinnacle in North Carolina, where she has made some incredible friends and memories while rock climbing, white water rafting, and camping out in the Blue Ridge Mountains.

Sydney is a 6th grade student at Bak Middle School of the Arts where she studies Theatre. She has always excelled as an honor roll student, while devoting most of her free time to her love of performing. Sydney is at her happiest on stage and has performed in 10 musical theatre and play productions at the Performing Arts Academy of Jupiter and Maltz Jupiter Theatre.

When she is not in front of an audience, Sydney fills the house with singing, dancing, acting, and an overall enthusiasm for performing arts. As a member of the Junior International Thespian Society, she will proudly represent the Bak District Team at the District Festival this year. Sydney also enjoys outdoor adventures, from exploring national parks on our family vacations, to water ziplining, archery, paddle boarding, and climbing the sky park at Camp Pinnacle every summer.

We are so proud of our girls for their hard work, their daily passion, and their beautiful natures. For their Mitzvah project, Sammi and Sydney wanted to use their creativity to express their concern for underprivileged children right here in Palm Beach County. They spent countless hours creating custom gifts, which they named "Give a Smile Gift Bags," that included handcrafted bracelets, personalized messages, and a healthy snack. The gift bags were delivered to over 100 local children by the Homeless Coalition of Palm Beach County.

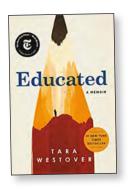

Sharing this important milestone has brought our daughters closer together and opened their minds to the importance of family, friends and community. Thank you to the Temple Beth Am family, especially Rabbi Alon Levkovitz, Cantorial Soloist Marcy Morris, and Terri Berryman for all of their help and guidance in preparing the girls for their special day!

BOOK CLUB

by Edie Wolf

I hope that you had a wonderful summer and read a lot of good books! Our first meeting of the new season is on Monday, November 4 at 10:30am at Temple Beth Am to discuss:

EDUCATED by Tara Westover—

Born to survivalists in the mountains of Idaho, Tara Westover was seventeen the first time she set foot in a classroom. Her family was so isolated from mainstream society that there was no one to ensure the children received an education, and no one to intervene when one of Tara's older brothers became violent. When another brother got himself into college, Tara decided to try a new kind of life. Her quest for knowledge transformed her, taking her over oceans and across continents, to Harvard and to Cambridge University. Only then would she wonder if she'd traveled too far, if there was still a way home.

Please join us following the book discussion for lunch at Seasons 52, 11611 Ellison Wilson Rd. in Palm Beach Gardens. I would appreciate it if you would let me know if you are coming to Book Club and/ or lunch so that we can set up for the appropriate number of attendees (ediewolf@gmail.com or 443.223.9729).

AN UPDATE ON SECURITY

by Mark Slifkin

The Security Committee thought that some congregants might be interested in this class. Read on for details!

By Howard Freedland, former TBA Vice President, Third Dan, Okinawan Shōrin-ryū Karate:

Over the past year, Temple Beth Am has taken many additional security precautions to keep members safe on our premises, but safety outside our walls is equally important. In the interest of promoting personal safety we are offering a month of Women's Self-Defense Seminars through Jupiter Traditional Martial Arts, which has been offering programs in the Jupiter community since 2007, and has trained thousands of people. This four-session series will take place Thursdays from 6:30pm–8:30pm and meet on January 9, 16, 23, and 30, covering a different topic each week and allowing time to practice the techniques taught. Topics will include:

- Proper use of verbal tactics.
- Awareness and appreciation of personal space (avoiding a conflict before it happens).
- How to use every day items that you carry in a purse for your safety.
- How to strike with hands, knees, and elbows—and get away!

 What to do if someone puts their hands on you, including grabs and chokes, and how to get off of the ground quickly.

Cost: $100 per person, paid in advance. Everyone welcome, but walk-ins not accepted. Checks can be made out to Howard Freedland, and mailed or dropped off to the Temple. For more information or to pay by Venmo, you can reach Howard at 561.889.2735.

Please note: A 10-person minimum is required to hold the class. The classes are physically demanding, but we do make adjustments for those who have limits to their mobility and/or abilities.

Girls in Trouble

Tuesday, November 19, 2019 at 12:00pm

We will follow Hagar and her son Ishmael into the wilderness, and keep Hagar company during her darkest moment, when it seems that Ishmael is about to die of thirst. We will then explore what can we learn from Hagar's response to Ishmael's suffering? And what can witnessing Hagar's suffering teach us about our own responses to suffering? Join us for an interactive dive into the biblical text, and an exploration of modern midrash through art and music.

Open to all. No RSVP required. For more info, contact Danna Cohen at dcohen@templebetham.com.

How can you honor your deceased loved one?

By placing your loved one's name on the Memorial Board in the Memorial Hallway entering the Sanctuary.

When you do this, a light on their plaque will be lit on their Yahrzeit (anniversary of their death) and their name will be included in the Shabbat announcements. Their light will also be lit on Yom Kippur and their name will always be included in the Yizkor Book during the High Holy Days.

Even when you are gone, your loved one will not be forgotten. Plaques are $500.

Call the Temple at 561.747.1109 to place your order.
