

In This Issue...

What's in this issue? What's not in this issue?! This is such an exciting time of year at Temple Beth Am! Everyone has rested (recovered?) from the High Holy Days, wrapped up their summer travels, and "season" in Florida is here! On these pages you will find a bevy of ways to get in on the action with Temple Beth Am. This month our Musical Shabbat series kicks off featuring a breathtaking array of talent from our Cantor as well as our guest musicians. Need even more Shabbat? Join us for Shabbat dinners, challah baking, Shabbat socials, Shabbat camping, and birthday toasts with the clergy across November and December.

Our adult programming season also kicks off with a brand new class from Rabbi Alon exploring the most intriguing stories in the Jewish cannon, the return of the Veteran's Day Breakfast sponsored by Men's Club, the opportunity to learn about Flappers, Fashion, and Fitzgerald with Sisterhood, and more volunteer opportunities than I can list here. Stay tuned for our winter issue where we'll be taking TBA out on the town with a number of chances to join us for some travel!

As always, if there is something you are interested in doing, learning, seeing, or being a part of and you don't see it listed on these pages, please reach out and let us know. We want to hear your ideas and are here to bring them life!

Interested in conversion, intro to Judaism, or Hebrew? Classes are forming this spring. Please contact us to be added to the list.

B'shalom.

A MESSAGE FROM RABBI ALON

THE IMPORTANCE OF HANUKKAH

Soon, the newspapers will publish Hanukkah-related articles. Many will claim to reveal the best latke recipe, and some will focus on the meaning of the festival. Among the latter, I have noticed in the past few years, most include a disclaimer such as, "Here is how notimportant Hanukkah is, from a religious standpoint, to Judaism." And go on to clarify, "as any rabbi would be quick to explain, Hanukkah is one of the least important occasions on the Hebrew calendar. Unlike major holidays such as Passover, Sukkot and the weekly Sabbath—all of which include extensive ritual requirements as well as prohibitions against work—Hanukkah is categorized as a minor festival whose only real decree is to light candles for eight nights. Everything else is custom or adaptation."

While the information in these articles is correct, Hanukkah, as a non-biblical festival, doesn't contain the Shabbat-like requirements. Nevertheless, in my opinion, it is an unfair overstatement to claim that in the 21st century it is not an important holiday. A 2018 survey found that two-thirds of American Jews view Hanukkah as "one of the three most important holidays." And 60% of American Jews, as well as 73% of Israeli Jews, light candles on each of the holiday's nights.

That brings up the question...by which criteria do we evaluate the importance of a holiday? If it is by the number of prohibitions and halachic requirements, Shavuot is much more important. But let's be honest, how many Jews even know when Shavuot is celebrated, let alone observe it?

The reality is that we have been celebrating holidays for more than three millennia. Some have been there from the inception of Judaism, and some were added later. And historically, even the most ancient ones went up and down in the ladder of importance depending on theological, geographical, and economic situations. Take Sukkot for example. It used to be the most important holiday. The bible often talks about it, while barely mentioning other Jewish holidays at all. At times, it's simply called Chag—holiday, or The Holiday, and even involved the largest number of animal sacrifices. Sukkot is still celebrated today, but coming only a few days after Yom Kippur (which rose to the top), is often treated more like an afterthought than the most important week on the Jewish calendar.

The 20th century pushed Hanukkah up on the festivals ranking. In Israel, we loved the association of the Maccabees with the Israeli army, who, despite being small in size, defeated its numerous Arab enemies. In the United States, the rabbis who were concerned about Jewish children feeling envious of their Christian neighbors elevated and reshaped Hanukkah so it could let kids indulge in a joyous occasion around the same time of year. The holiday's timing during the Christmas season offered a way for Jews to celebrate their own holiday along with the majority of Americans.

It's time to stop being apologetic about Hanukkah and to fully celebrate it with our family and friends.

Have a happy Hanukkah!

HIGH HOLY DAYS - NOTE OF APPRECIATION

Wow, it's hard to believe the High Holy Days have already come and gone and it is almost Hanukkah...but what a wonderful High Holy Days it was! For many people it was the first holidays back in person after a few years and it was heartwarming to see friends greeting friends, welcoming guests, and everyone celebrating and worshipping together during the beautiful Services led by Rabbi Alon and Cantor Marcy.

With the High Holy Days behind us, things are kicking into high gear at TBA, but I would be remiss if I first did not thank everyone who was part of putting on the High Holy Days. There were a lot of moving parts and it is truly a team effort.

Firstly, thank you to our ushers led by Mark Golzbein: Carol Carswell, Felicia Katz, Brenda Himelstein, Vanina Mays, Jody Minde, Carole Levine, Iva Morris, Bob and Karen Feller, Susan Marzina, Richard Remick, Barbara and Jerry Rosman, and Marsha Levinson, as well as our Board members who served as safety observers and greeters. How a person is greeted when they go somewhere sets the tone for their entire experience. Thank you for making everyone feel welcome, making sure they knew where to go, and answering countless questions.

Thank you to our volunteers, Mark Slifkin for security, Gali Levkovitz for Rosh Hashanah dinner and brunch, Bruce Cohen for the chopped liver, and Debbie Baseman for preparing appeal cards, going over supply inventories, setting up, and sharing the wealth of her decades of experience to ensure the holidays went smoothly.

To our musicians for sharing their gifts with us and enriching our Services: Gonzalo Gonzalez, Barbara Corcillo, Douglas Ferreira, Phill Fest, Neel Shukla, Sarah Stout, Sha Zhang, Chris Ramsey, Ruby Steigenga, and Jordan Weinbaum along with our media team, led by Jackie Goldwurm: Seth Slonin, Kirsten Ward, Ben and Yoni Levkovitz, Julian Bois, and Access Sound Inc.

Thank you to our Sisterhood for beautifying our bima with flowers throughout the High Holy Days and Nate Goldin for being the most impressive shofar blower around. Thank you to our teens who helped with the food drive by preparing and passing out bags for the food truck, sorting the donations, and loading the truck. Thank you to Marcy Isdaner for driving and to the Sisterhood members who handed out bags, shofars, and Tzedakah cans.

Thank you to the break-the-fast lifesavers (Iva Morris, Scott Perry, Harvey White, Yoni Levkovitz, and Alissa Frankel) who stepped in to prep the food when the hired help couldn't make it!

Thank you to the Temple Beth Am staff. Our custodians and facilities team have a herculean job this time of year. Thank you to Vicente and Maria along with support from Victor and Eddie under the leadership of Alex DeLeon for making sure everything on the property and in the building (and on the beach) is always set up, cleaned up, and looks perfect every time! To our office staff who handle all the logistics: Margot Hauser, Yessenia Manon, Carolyn Tierney, Meredith Goodman, and Alissa Frankel, thank you for the long hours and going the extra mile. To our teachers who forego their holidays to babysit, the PBC Sheriffs office for sending extra support, and Jupiter Police for taking such great care of us, as well as all our vendors. We are so appreciative of your service.

And finally thank you to our clergy who work for months to bring us Services that are meaningful, joyous, and deeply moving. I can think of no better way to start the new year!

I am sure I have forgotten someone; please know it is not intentional. So many of you contributed to this wonderful High Holy Days seasons and we are blessed and lucky to have you!

November/December Mitzvah Opportunities

Now-December 4: Back to Basics

The Back to Basics Angel Program provides nearly 10,000 needy elementary school students with the basic necessities of NEW sneakers, socks, underwear, and a wrapped toy each year during the holiday season. Temple Beth Am will be collecting items for 130 children this year.

HOW YOU CAN PARTICIPATE:

- 1) Select a Wish Card(s) with a child's name, age, and sizes on it from the display in the Temple Beth Am and The One School lobbies.
- 2) Wrap your gifts and tape the child's name to the outside of your gifts to show the child's information. (If you prefer to donate an Amazon or Walmart gift card, we will do the purchasing for you!)
- 3) Drop your wrapped gifts off at the Temple by Sunday, December 4.

Ongoing: St. George's Center

Temple Beth Am provides a hot meal monthly to 150 hungry guests at St. George. You can help by dropping off boxes of penne pasta at the Temple office, by making a financial donation to the TBA Caring Community fund, or by volunteering to help cook on the third Monday of every month. To sign up to help cook in the Temple Beth Am kitchen, please contact Audrey Ades at audade@yahoo.com or Rich Remick at remtamb554@gmail.com.

Volunteering with Temple Beth Am

Nominating Committee: Help elect future leaders to serve on TBA's Board of Directors by serving on the nominating committee. The bylaws require the committee be made up of three congregants and two board members, and that means we need you! This committee will meet beginning in January and conclude in March. If you are interested, please email the Temple office at tba@templebetham.com and a board member will contact you.

Board of Directors: Are you ready to step up and lead? Members in good standing are invited to apply to join the TBA Board of Directors for a two-year term. Board members work on issues related to governance of the Temple, help make strategic decisions for the future, serve as Temple ambassadors, and work to ensure the success of Temple Beth Am. Applicants will be interviewed by the Nominating Committee this winter, and balloted by the congregation at the Annual Meeting.

Facilities Committee: Help keep Temple Beth Am looking beautiful and functional by volunteering for TBA's newly re-formed facilities committee. The Facilities Committee helps make decisions about improvements to the property, landscaping, construction, vendors, and more, as well as partnering with the TBA staff to oversee maintenance of the building. For more information or to volunteer, contact the Temple office at tba@templebetham.com.

Let Temple Beth Am be part of your retirement strategy and tax savings.

Once you reach age 72 (70½ if you turned 70½ before January 1, 2020), you are required to take annual Required Minimum Distributions (RMDs) from your retirement accounts. The IRA Charitable Rollover Law allows individuals 70½ or older to give up to $100,000 directly from their IRA to qualified charities without paying federal income tax on the distribution.

If you wish to make a gift to benefit Temple Beth Am, talk to your financial advisor about making a qualified charitable distribution (QCD) before December 31.

Ready to give?

TEMPLE BETH AM CAPITAL CAMPAIGN

We still need to raise $500,000 to meet our goal! Donations made as part of our roof campaign are eligible for a three-year payment plan as well as a number of recognition levels.

HIGH HOLY DAYS APPEAL

Temple Beth Am asks congregants to give three times per year (VFC, High Holy Days, and Spring Drive) in order to fund our ongoing operations. This money is what allows us to bring you Services, classes, programs, events, holiday celebrations, community service, education, and much more. We strive for 100% participation in our High Holy Days Appeal. If you have not given yet to this year's appeal, please consider doing so. Your donation ensures that we can continue to thrive as a strong vibrant congregation while removing barriers to participation in Jewish life!

LOOKING FOR SOMETHING ELSE?

There are a number sponsorships available as well as dedication and naming opportunities.

Please contact us to meet about a personalized giving plan.

For details or more information about any of the above, please contact the Temple office or Danna Cohen directly at dcohen@templebetham.com.

If you haven't tried them before, you will definitely want to buy a box! They are delicious! In addition, our last Bake Sale of the year will be on Friday, December 16 from 2:50pm–5:00pm. The theme will be Winter Fun.

Before we know it, the Gala will be here! Our theme this year is Enchanted Forest and we will be honoring all of our wonderful TOS teachers on Saturday, April 1, 2023. Soon, we will start to collect items that can be used for our silent auction. Collecting items to be auctioned off during the Gala is a group effort so we appreciate all of you who are able to help! Please email us at PTO@templebetham.com with any questions.

Check the calendars on pages 10 and 11 for more events. Please make sure to join The One School at Temple Beth Am PTO Facebook group to stay up-to-date on PTO news and happenings. We hope everyone has a great Thanksgiving, a happy Hanukkah, and happy and healthy new year!

TOS is closed for Thanksgiving holiday Nov. 23–25 and for winter break Dec. 22–January 2.
