A DIFFERENT KIND OF HIGH HOLY DAYS

by Rabbi Alon Levkovitz

When people talk about their past High Holy Days experiences, they often tell stories about times when things did not work out as planned: The Cantor lost his voice, the air conditioning broke down, etc. In the history of TBA we had to cancel Yom Kippur Afternoon Service because of a hurricane; move services to the church when our building was not ready; a lightning storm during Rosh Hashanah Eve caused the lights to flicker, and these are only the stories that we can share publicly. When we look back at these occasions, we tend to forget the stress and disappointment we felt at that time. Our memory has a magical ability to convert them to nostalgic stories.

The upcoming High Holy Days will top all the previous memorable experiences as we will celebrate all the Holy Days at home, and our connection to the sanctuary and the clergy will be through a computer screen. The good news is that we are not surprised and we have the time to prepare. We hope that you will genuinely enjoy the experience as it takes place and not only years later.

In a previous message I explained how after the destruction of the Temple in Jerusalem, the central place of worship, the leaders of the Jewish community introduced the idea of mikdash me'at, a miniature sanctuary. They told their people that each one of them has the ability, as well as the authority, to transform any space, even a room in their homes, into a sacred space. The Passover Seder is the best example of shifting the festival from the Temple to the house. Luckily, our situation, some 2,000 years later, is better as we stay home but remain connected to our Temple.

We, the clergy, with tremendous support from the entire staff of TBA, are doing everything to make these Holy Days beautiful and meaningful. But to have the best High Holy Days experience at home, you need to make it a mikdash me'at, a sacred place. Here are some suggestions:

Choose your prayer space carefully. It can be the kitchen, the dining room, or just a little corner that you love. Walk around your home and the right space will find you.

Find meaningful objects to decorate your space for the Holy Days. On Rosh Hashanah include objects like candlesticks and kiddush cup, apples and honey, round Challah, a shofar. On Yom Kippur you can place cherished mementoes, family heirlooms, yahrzeit candles, and photos of loved ones to surround you.

Consider connecting your computer to a TV screen. It feels less like a work device, and the viewing quality will be much better.

Don't think of the service as if it is another boring Zoom meeting. You may close your email program, put your phone on 'do not disturb' and close other apps so you can be fully present during the service.

Wear clothing that makes you feel as if you are entering our synagogue. If you normally wear a Kippah or tallit they might help you feel more connected to a service.

May we all have a safe and healthy year. Shanah Tovah.

SISTERHOOD SCOOP

by Lois Remick

While September does bring really warm weather, (like we haven't had enough!), it also brings us a welcome hiatus from all of those unsolicited "vote for me" calls. If, however, you do get a ringy ding ding and you do not recognize the phone number, it may be a friendly call from one of Sisterhood's phone tree participants. Members of Sisterhood have been receiving these friendly calls since July. The call is refreshing as it is just one member asking another, "How are you?" Imagine that! An unsolicited call that does not ask you to try a service, donate to a cause, or buy something!

Speaking of our phone tree participants, we thank the following sisters for initiating this experience: Nina Nemerofsky, Robin Etchells, Phyllis Levin, Carole Levine, Marcy Brody, and Hinda Morgan.

We are hoping that you might help with this important outreach to our membership.

It is a very gratifying experience to "make someone's day," as one recipient termed it. You would be given the telephone numbers of members and you would decide what day you want to make your calls. To volunteer, please email Renee Weisman at sisterhoodoftemplebetham@gmail.com.

We hope that you were able to join Gali Levkovitz's Israeli cooking event on Zoom on Monday, August 17. Sisterhood is grateful to Gali for sharing her culinary expertise with our members and we hope you have tried her recipe in your homes. If a cooking event is something you would like to see again, please send an email to Toby Morganstein at tobymorganstein@gmail.com, with suggestions as to the type of cooking/baking that you would attend. We also encourage you to share family recipes as one of our Zoom guest presenters.

At the time of this writing, more than 80% of last year's membership has renewed. Carole Levine, our Treasurer, is kvelling because every membership means the more we are able to contribute to our Camp Scholarship program. Speaking of Sisterhood's commitment to offer scholarships to our Temple's youth to experience Camp Coleman, some of the money raised for that important initiative comes from your filled Tzedakah cans. You probably have cans brimming with coins ready to be returned to our Temple, and we're making it easy for you to return them during our High Holy Days drive-thru events (see page 9 for details). We thank you for your generosity.

Also, because of how this pandemic has hurt the livelihoods of some of our Temple's members, we have contributed to a fund to help them.

Two reminders: First, our Sisterhood Zoom chats are on Monday evenings at 7:00pm and on Thursday mornings at 10:30am. If you are interested in participating in the chat(s), contact Renee Weisman. And secondly, if you haven't sent in your Sisterhood membership dues, and/or need a form emailed to you, contact Renee, and she can send it to you. To reach Renee, email her at sisterhoodoftemplebetham@gmail.com.

Stay happy, stay healthy, and stay safe.

SISTERHOOD COFFEE & CONVERSATION

Mondays from 7:00pm–8:00pm • Thursdays from 10:30am–11:30am

Via Zoom. Contact Renee Weisman at sisterhoodoftemplebetham@gmail.com to be emailed the code to use to join the group.

Monday September dates: 9/14 and 9/21 (no meeting on 9/7 or 9/28)

Thursday September dates: 9/3, 9/10, 9/17, and 9/24

MEN'S CLUB HAPPENINGS

by Jack Tenenbaum

The High Holy Days are here again. Where did the year go? On behalf of the Men's Club, I wish you all L'Shanah Tovah, a happy, healthy, and prosperous New Year. May everyone's 5781 be a sweet year, and considerably better than 5780. As you all know, High Holy Days Services will be streamed live, with no congregants in attendance in the sanctuary. For many of us, this is very new and very different. It is not nearly as pleasant as attending Services in person, meeting with friends and family as we hope for a good year ahead. However, the situation dictates that we do it this way. This year we can paraphrase the ending of the Passover Seder and say, "Next year, back in the Temple."

In 1993, for those of us old enough to remember it, a movie titled Groundhog Day was released. It starred Bill Murray and Andie MacDowell. Bill Murray played a TV weatherman who goes on location to Punxsutawney, Pennsylvania to film the town's annual Groundhog Day weather prediction ceremony. However, he finds himself reliving the same day over and over again. We are all now Bill Murry's character. Many of us feel like we live the same day over and over and over...

This pandemic has many of us trapped in our own Groundhog Day movie, or that's what it certainly seems like. We are in an endless loop where one day is pretty much the same as the last, and probably the next. This is true for ourselves, our families, and our organizations, including the Temple and the Men's Club. And, we don't know when it will end. Despite this uncertainty as to when we can get back to some semblance of normalcy, and the ability to meet in person, the Men's Club is planning a full calendar of events for the remainder of 2020 and the Spring of 2021. This will allow us to hit the ground running when we are notified that it is safe to again congregate in groups of more than 10.

Our monthly membership meetings will continue on the second Wednesday of each month via Zoom until it is safe to meet in person. However, there is no membership meeting in September. Instead, on Wednesday, September 9 at 7:00pm, Jeff Klatzko will speak on long-term care planning.

This event will take place via Zoom, and is open to the entire congregation as part of the Men's Club Speaker Series. (see page 11 for details and RSVP info)

On October 1 at 7:00pm, we are starting a Men's Club Members Social Hour via Zoom on a weekly basis. The only topics that are banned are 1) genius children and/or grandchildren, 2) surgeries, ailments, and medications taken and their cost, and 3) partisan politics. This new social hour will give our members an opportunity to interact on a more personal basis. Watch the Men's Club emails for the Zoom link.

On Tuesday, October 13 at 7:00pm, the Men's Club, in partnership with Sisterhood, is sponsoring an election information session for the congregation featuring a speaker from the League of Women Voters (LWV) to discuss items on the November ballot. This session will not discuss or endorse any candidates for any office, only explain issues that will appear on the ballot. The LWV will set up the Zoom meeting and the Zoom link will be provided to the entire congregation as soon as it becomes available. (see page 11 for details)

Our October Season Kickoff Dinner at Brio at the Garden's Mall will take place on Saturday, October 17 with cocktails at 6:30pm and dinner at 7:00pm, if we are notified that it is safe, and if Brio is still in business. (see page 11 for details)

Sunday, November 15 at 9:30am, as part of the Speaker Series (via Zoom if required), open to the congregation, is our annual Veterans Day lox and bagel breakfast, featuring a guest speaker and program. If on Zoom, bring your own lox and bagels.

On Wednesday, December 9, if feasible, we are planning a membership meeting at a local restaurant.

Plans for 2021 are also taking shape, and we are exploring a number of options, including several events in partnership with TBA's Sisterhood.

We don't know when we can resume our normal activities, but we are ready to do so in order to serve our members and our congregation. We continue to do the best we can, given the circumstances.

YOUTH GROUP NEWS

by Elana Beame, Youth Engagement Director

Youth Groups play such an important part in shaping the Jewish identities of our children. By participating in a Jewish Youth Group, our youth will forge and build friendships, lifelong Reform Jewish identities, and leadership skills through community-building, worship, social action, and experiential youth-led Jewish educational programming.

With all the changes happening in our world to keep everyone healthy and safe, Youth Group makes the same changes.

Introducing Youth Group @ Home! In this new model, I will bring the fun of Youth Group activities right to your children.

Families can volunteer their front or backyard for a small gathering Youth Group event just for their child and their friends. In an effort to continue with small group sizes, I ask that you invite no more than 8 of your child's friends.

This is a new and versatile program and these events can be held any time in one-hour increments.

You can choose from the following activities or create your own!

- Corn Hole Tournament
- Relay Races
- Water Balloon Games
- Arts & Crafts
- Food Olympics

- Chalk Art
- Snowball Fights
- Scavenger Hunts
- Picnics
- Pool Party

If you are interested in hosting a Youth Group @ Home event or would like more information, please contact Elana Beame at ebeame@templebetham.com or 561.901.7477.

See flyer below for our upcoming virtual Youth Group events.

COLLEGE CONNECTION

We need your college student's address!

The College Connection program gives Temple Beth Am the opportunity to send out holiday surprise packages throughout the year to our college students. This is a wonderful way to let them know that their family and congregation are thinking of them and allows the students to maintain a strong connection to their Judaism. If you would like to participate, please email Elana Beame at ebeame@templebetham.com for more information.

HAMAKOM HAPPENINGS

by Alissa Frankel, Education Director

Every night I let my daughter pick out what books she would like to read, and she will often pick out PJ Library books. Lately, we have been reading the book, Bitter and Sweet, and this book really resonated with me how I have been feeling lately.

Throughout Judaism there are many wonderful ways to see that life holds some bitter and some sweet. For example, dipping apples into honey for a sweet new year. While we acknowledge that life is indeed filled with moments of both, it also teaches an abiding sense of hope—to celebrate the good and be part of creating the sweet.

In years past for Rosh Hashanah dinner, my family who is local gets together for a big meal. And no one gets turned away; if someone has a friend with nowhere to go, they join us too. We cook potluck style—everyone is in charge of a dish, usually the same one every year so we can trust the quality. So I could be bitter this year about not having everyone together under one roof, instead I am creating the sweet by inviting family and friends who are not just local anymore to join us for our traditions. We'll use technology to bring us all together to toast to a sweet new year, some I haven't enjoyed a holiday meal alongside since I lived in Baltimore 17 years ago.

One of the lines at the end of the book is “almost every change has some hard parts and some nice parts...definitely some bitter but even more sweet.” And this stuck out to me moving into this year because even though things aren't exactly like last year or how I would have ever planned, I look forward to creating new traditions and bringing back some of the old ones when it's safe to do so.

L'shanah Tovah!

BOOK CLUB

by Edie Wolf

Thanks to all who attended the Zoom Book Club to discuss Ask Again, Yes by Mary Beth Keane. We had a lively and stimulating discussion.

Our next meeting will be on Monday, September 14 at 10:30am. At that time we will discuss A WOMAN IS NO MAN by Etaf Rum.

In her debut novel Etaf Rum tells the story of three generations of Palestinian-American women struggling to express their individual desires within the confines of their Arab culture in the wake of shocking intimate violence in their community—a story of culture and honor, secrets and betrayals, love and violence. Set in an America at once foreign to many and staggeringly close at hand, A Woman Is No Man is an intimate glimpse into a controlling and closed cultural world, and a universal tale about family and the ways silence and shame can destroy those we have sworn to protect.

I will send the link to join the Zoom meeting a few days before the date. If you'd like to join the discussion, email me at ediewolf@gmail.com and I will send the link to you.

How can you honor your deceased loved one?

By placing your loved one's name on the Memorial Board in the Memorial Hallway entering the Sanctuary.

When you do this, a light on their plaque will be lit on their Yahrzeit (anniversary of their death) and their name will be included in the Shabbat announcements.

Their light will also be lit on Yom Kippur and their name will always be included in the Yizkor Book during the High Holy Days.

Even when you are gone, your loved one will not be forgotten.
Plaques are $500.

Call the Temple at 561.747.1109 to place your order.
