Yizkor - יזכור

We will observe Yizkor on the following holidays in 5783:

Shemini Atzeret/Simchat Torah October 17, 2022 at 9:00 am

Last Day of Passover April 12, 2023 at 9:00 am

Shavuot May 26, 2023 at 9:00 am

Jewish tradition teaches that between the living and the dead there is a window, not a wall. The culture of scientific materialism teaches that after death, the links between us and our loved ones who died are forever ended - a brick wall! But, like the rituals of Shiva, Kaddish, and Yahrzeit, Yizkor opens windows to loved ones who are no longer with us. Yizkor creates a sacred space and time, wherein we can open our hearts and minds to the possibility of a genuine interconnection with beloved family members and friends who have left behind the world of the living. Yizkor is a window. Within the wellsprings of our infinite souls we find the window of connection between the living and the dead. Prepare to open that window....

As you recite Yizkor prayers, let your senses and imagination serve as the vehicle of interconnection. For whom are you saying Yizkor today? Can you imagine their faces before your eyes? See their smiles; visualize how they might be standing if they were next to you. Do you recall the sound of their voices? Hear their words as you stand in prayer. Feel their presence right in this moment. In your mind, in your heart, allow a presence right in this moment. In your mind, in your heart, allow a conversation between you to unfold. What needs to be communicated this year? What's the message you need to hear today? What are the silent prayers of the heart? What remains unspoken? Speak. Listen. Take your time. There is no reason to hurry. This is a timeless moment. Let all the radiance of their love be with you right now.

Time Is A Prison That Pushes Us To Live Freely

In Rome, Italy you can find the grave of the great English Romantic Poet, John Keats. He died in Rome at the age of twenty-five. He was tormented with the idea that he would die without having achieved the fame that he felt was his destiny. So on his tombstone, you can read his epitaph:

This grave contains all that was Mortal, of a Young English Poet, Who,
on his Death Bed,
in the Bitterness of his Heart,
at the Malicious Power of his Enemies Desired
these Words to be engraven on his Tomb Stone
"Here lies One Whose Name was writ in Water"
Feb. 24th 1821

For most of his life he was consumed by death. At twenty-one he was already imagining what it would be like to lie in his grave. "If I do fall, at least I will be laid beneath the silence of a poplar shade. And over me the grass shall be smooth shaven; and there shall be kind memorial graven." He was terrified that his name would be "writ in water."

The son of a stable keeper, he lost his father in a riding accident when he was eight. He then nursed both his mother and younger brother when they died of tuberculosis. Consumed with mortality, he began to write. In the short span of five years, he produced many timeless poems including the astonishing, "Ode on a Grecian Urn" and "Ode to a Nightingale."

I would like to think that his fear of death and not being remembered somehow pushed him to produce. His anxious worry about not leaving a mark, somehow hard-pressed him to leave that very mark he feared would never be.

While death can terrify us, it pushes us to do, to become and to love. If we had a limitless amount of time, we would squander it. But knowing that we have limits and death has the final word, we work, build, have a family, love and laugh. It is for this reason I bring to mind the magnificent words of "Pirke Avot," the teaching of the sages; "The day is short, the work is great, the laborers are sluggish, but the reward is great and the Master of the house is insistent." Our ancestors well understood that this time is the only time we have and that we must use it wisely for we do not know when our end will come.

Let us use the time God has given us to love, laugh, create and build. Let us use this time of Yizkor to honor the lives of our parents, spouses and children and have them call out to us...."Do, what we cannot....build, though we cannot.....Live, though we cannot." Our lives mattered because we loved you. Make your life matter as well in the time that you have.

When we are dead let people weep and mourn for us, as we grieve now, but let it be because, as our lost loved ones touched us, we, too, will warm the lives of others with beauty and goodness. Let it not be said that life was good to us, but rather, that we were good to life.

Rabbi Gregory S. Marx
Yizkor 2022 - Tishrei 5783

Lighting the Path

“Lighting the path for all generations” is our congregational tagline. At first glance, I understood this to mean that our goal at Congregation Beth Or is to light the path for our generation and the ones to come after us. But there is more to be found in this beautiful phrase.

The light we create as a community is not like that of a flashlight, focused solely on the path ahead. Our light, rather, burns like the light of the Menorah. It gleams vibrantly in all directions - forwards and backwards alike. If we are to be the community that our tagline invites us to be, we must not only look forward. We must look to the path which we traveled to get here and remember the people who walked alongside us on our journey. Part of what makes our congregation so strong is that we light the path already traveled just as much as we illumine the path which is yet to display a single footprint.

It is such a powerful shift of perspective to remember that we are living the future that those listed in this Yizkor book imagined. They are the people who taught us, guided us, loved us, and sometimes made unimaginable sacrifices so that we could be right where we are. At Yizkor, we pause to recognize that we continue to bask in the light they lit for us.

In our prayer book it says, “Shine a new light upon Zion, that we all may swiftly merit its radiance.” So long as we work together to shine our light, those who came before us will never fade into the darkness. By gathering as a community and sharing our light here and now, we uphold the words of this prayer. This year, and every year, may the memories of those who have departed from this world inspire us to continue shining our light as bright as we can.

O My God
My soul's companion
My heart's precious friend
I turn to You.

I need to close out the noise
To rise above the noise
The noise that interrupts-
The noise that separates-
The noise that isolates.
I need to hear You again.

In the silence of my innermost being,
In the fragments of my yearned-for wholeness,
I hear whispers of Your presence -
Echoes of the past when You were with me
When I felt Your nearness
When together we walked -
When You held me close, embraced me in Your love Laughed with me in my joy.
I yearn to hear You again.
In your oneness, I find healing.
In the promise of Your love, I am soothed.
In Your wholeness, I too can become whole again.

Please listen to my call - help me find the words help me find the strength within help me shape my mouth, my voice, my heart so that I can direct my spirit and find You in prayer.

In words only my heart can speak
In songs only my soul can sing
Lifting my eyes and heart to You.

Adonai S'fatai Tiftach – open my lips, precious God,
so that I can speak with You again.

O God, You are my God;
at first light I seek You.

*My soul thirsts for You,
my flesh longs for You,
as in a dry and weary land,
where there is no water.*

So do I look for You in the sanctuary, to behold Your power and Your glory.
Your love is better than life;
my lips will extol You.

*And I will praise You with my life:
for You have been my help,
and in the shadow of Your wings
I sing for joy.*

Psalm 90

Adonai, through all generations, we have found our home in You
Before the mountains rose up, before the birth-pangs of the Earth
You alone have been with us, steadfast and constant for all time.
In the end You return us to dust, saying: “Come home now, daughters and sons of Adam and Eve — you are mortal.”
In Your sight a thousand years pass in an instant, like a fleeting watch in the night. But how brief the span of our lives!
Our years flow by in a dream; we sleep away our days.
In the morning we blossom in beauty; in the evening we wither.
Burnt like grass in the blasting heat of summer,
we perish like chaff on the wind.
A human life may be three score years and ten;
or four score years, for those who are blessed with strength.
So many days consumed by toil and troubles

then our time is cut short; and too soon we go into the dark.
So teach us to number our days,
that we may bring home a heart of wisdom.
Give us a sense of Your presence; nourish us with Your compassion.
Knowing Your love at the dawn of our life, let us live our days in contentment.
May our moments of joy surpass the times of struggle.
May we taste the sweetness of each precious day.
May the work of our hands bring fulfillment.

O God of life, amid the ceaseless tides of change which sweep away the generations, Your living spirit remains to comfort us and give us hope.
Around us is life and death, decay and renewal; the flowing rhythm that all things obey.

Our life is a dance to a song we cannot hear. Its melody courses through us for a little while, then seems to cease. Whence the melody, and whither does it go? In darkness as in light, we turn to You, God, the Source of life, the Answer to all its mysteries.

Can it be that we, Your children, are given over to destruction, when our few days on earth are done? Or do we live in ways we cannot know?

Only this have we been taught, and in this we put our trust: from You comes the spirit, and to You it must return. You are our dwelling-place in life and in death.

More we cannot say, for all else is hidden from our sight by an impenetrable veil. We thank You, then, for the life we have, and for the gifts that daily are our portion:

For health and healing, for labor and repose, for the ever-renewed beauty of earth and sky, for thoughts of truth and justice that move us to acts of goodness, and for the contemplation of Your eternal Presence, which fills us with the hope that what is good and lovely will not perish.

What are we, God? A breath, a passing shadow. Yet You have made us little less than divine.

יְיָ, מִה אֲדָם וַתִּדְעָהּוּ, בֶן-אָנוּשׁ וַתִּחַשְׁבֶּהוּ.
אֲדָם לַהֲבֵל דָּמָה, יָמָיו כְּצֶל עוֹבֵר.
בַּבֶּקֶר יִצְיָץ וְחָלַף, לָעֶרֶב יִמּוֹלֵל וַיִּבֶשׁ.
לְמִנּוֹת יָמֵינוּ בֶן הַיּוֹדֵעַ, וְנִבְא לְבַב חֲכָמָה.
שְׁמֹר-תָּם וְרָאֵה יִשְׂרָאֵל, כִּי אַחֲרִית לְאִישׁ שְׁלוֹם.
אַךְ אֱלֹהִים יִפְדֶּה נַפְשֵׁי מִיַּד שְׂאוּל, כִּי יִקְחֵנִי סָלָה.
כָּלֵה שְׂאֵרֵי וּלְבָבִי, צוּר לְבָבִי וְחִלְקֵי אֱלֹהִים לְעוֹלָם.

וְהָרוּחַ תָּשׁוּב אֶל הָאֱלֹהִים אֲשֶׁר נִתְּנָה.

Adonai, what are we that You have regard for us? What are we, that You are mindful of us?

We are like a breath; our days are like a passing shadow. We come and go like grass which in the morning shoots up, renewed, and in the evening fades and withers.

You cause us to revert to dust, saying: "Return, O mortal creatures!". Adonai, You have been our refuge in all generations.

Before the mountains were born, or earth and sky brought forth, from eternity to eternity You are God.

Even a thousand years in Your sight are only as yesterday when it is past, or as a watch in the night.

You sweep us away. We are like a dream at daybreak.

The span of our years is threescore and ten, or by reason of strength fourscore, but the best of those years know trouble and sorrow. They pass by speedily, and we fly away.

So teach us to number our days that we may acquire a heart of wisdom. Turn to us, O God! Show mercy to Your servants! Satisfy us at daybreak with Your steadfast love, that we may sing for joy all our days.

Let Your deeds be seen by Your servants, Your glory by their children. May Your favor, O God, be upon us. Establish the work of our hands, that it may long endure.

MAY THESE MOMENTS of meditation link me more strongly with my closest companion in life — my soulmate, my friend, my confidant, my helping hand, my listening heart, my compass, my shining light.

In spite of death, our deep bonds of love are strong.

May I always be worthy of that love.

May the memory of our companionship lead me out of loneliness; may it awaken in me gratitude for that which still endures.

And may you rest forever in dignity and peace.

IN MY DARKNESS, be a light to me.

In my loneliness help me to find a soul akin to my own.

Give me strength

to live with courage;

and give me courage

to draw blessing from life, even in the midst of suffering;

to hold fast against the storm,

and to smile at a loved one's glance.

For personal reflection . . .

For whom do I grieve

In my grief, what is it that I need?

What kinds of moments make me most aware of what I have lost?
Blessed are those who give meaning to our lives;
holy and precious is the example they leave behind.

We pray:
May our sorrows diminish as we recall their strength.
May their wisdom protect us and help us to live.
Let our grief be transformed into tenderness toward those who are still with us.

Let us now call to mind the great and good, through whom God has performed righteous deeds.

They were leaders of the people, helping many with understanding and insight.

Wise and eloquent in their teachings, they were just and loving in their deeds.

All these were honored in their generations. They were the glory of their times.

There are some who have left a name behind them, whose remembrance is like honey in the mouth.

People will declare their wisdom and tell of their goodness.

There are others who have left no memorial, whose names have vanished from mortal memory.

But the goodness of their lives has not been lost, and their work cannot be blotted out.

I think continually of those who were truly great,
Who from the womb, remembered the soul's history
Through endless corridors of light where the hours are suns, Endless and singing. Whose lovely ambition
Was that their lips, still touched with fire,
Should tell of the spirit clothed from head to foot in song,
And who hoarded from the spring branches
The desires falling across their bodies like blossoms.

What is precious is never to forget
The delight of the blood drawn from ageless springs
Breaking through rocks in worlds before our earth;
Never to deny its pleasure in the simple morning light,
Nor its grave evening demand for love;
Never to allow gradually the traffic to smother
With noise and fog the flowering of the spirit.

Near the snow, near the sun, in the highest fields,
See how these names are feted by the waving grass,
And by the streamers of white cloud,
And whispers of wind in the listening sky;
The names of those who in their lives fought for life,
Who wore at their hearts the fire's center.
Born of the sun they traveled a short while toward the sun,
And left the vivid air signed with their honor.

Psalm 23

מִזְמוֹר לְדָוִד. יְיָ רֹעִי, לֹא אֶחְסָר. בְּנֵיחוֹת דְּשָׁא יִרְבִּיצֵנִי, עַל מֵי

בְּשִׁמְן רֹאשִׁי פֹסֵי רְוָה. אֵךְ טוֹב וְחֶסֶד יִרְדְּפוּנִי כָּל יְמֵי חַיִּי, וְשִׁבְתִּי בְּבַיִת יְיָ לְאָרְךְ יָמִים.

The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want. He makes me lie down in green pastures, He leads me beside still waters. He restores my soul. He leads me in right paths for the sake of His name. Even when I walk in the valley of the shadow of death, I shall fear no evil, for You are with me; with rod and staff You comfort me. You have set a table before me in the presence of my enemies; You have anointed my head with oil, my cup overflows. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life, and I shall dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

O Lord of life, our times are in Your hand. One generation comes into the world to be blessed with days of peace and safety; another goes through the valley of the shadow enduring the cruelties of persecution and war. Heartbreaking have been the times that have fallen to our lot, O God. We have lived through years of tyranny and destruction; we are schooled in sorrow and acquainted with grief. We have seen the just defeated, the innocent driven from their homes, and the righteous suffer a martyrdom as merciless as any ages have witnessed.

At this hour of memorial we recall with grief all Your children who have perished through the cruelty of the oppressor, victims of demonic hates: the aged and young, the learned and unlettered--all driven in multitudes along the road of pain and pitiless death. Their very presence on earth was begrudged them, for they brought Your covenant of mercy and justice to the recollection of Your enemies; they perished because they were a symbol of Your eternal law; their death has brought darkness to the humansoul.

They lie in nameless graves, in far-off forests and lonely fields. And the substance of many was scattered by the winds to the earth's four corners. Yet they shall not be forgotten. We take them into our hearts and give them a place beside the cherished memories of our own loved ones. They now are ours.

We pray to You, O Source of mercy, that Your Torah, to which Your children bore witness in life and in death, may come to glow with a renewed light in the human soul; that, remembering them, we may sanctify Your name in all the world. Thus will their memory become an enduring blessing to all Your children.

We remember with sorrow those whom death has taken from our midst during the past year... Taking these dear ones into our hearts with all our beloved, we recall them now with reverence.

Silent Devotion

IN MEMORY OF MY FATHER

Your memory, my dear father, fills my soul at this solemn hour. It revives in me thoughts of the love and friendliness which you bestowed upon me. The thought of you inspires me to a life of virtue. Your image lives in my heart. May our merciful God reward you for the faithfulness and kindness you have shown me. May God grant you eternal peace. Amen.

IN MEMORY OF MY MOTHER

I remember you in this solemn hour, my dear mother. I remember the days when your tender love watched over me like a guardian angel. Although you are no longer with me, the bond which unites our souls can never be severed. May our merciful God reward you for the faithfulness and kindness you have shown me. May God grant you eternal peace. Amen.

IN MEMORY OF MY HUSBAND

I remember you in this solemn hour, my dear companion of my life. I remember the happy days we lived together; I remember your tender affection and love. Though death has taken you from me, your image still lives on in my heart and continues to be an inspiration to me. May God look upon you with compassion and grant you peace. Amen.

IN MEMORY OF MY WIFE

I remember you in this solemn hour, my dear companion of my life. Our days together filled with friendship and devotion sweetened my life. I treasure you in my heart forever. Though death has taken you from me, your image still lives in my heart and continues to be an inspiration to me. May God look upon you with compassion and grant you peace. Amen.

IN MEMORY OF MY CHILD

I remember you in this solemn hour, my beloved child. You were taken from me before your time, yet, your presence in my heart can never die. I shall always treasure the gifts of your spirit and the memories of our time together. May God be ever with you and may you always feel the strength of my love. Amen.

IN MEMORY OF MY BROTHER, MY SISTER OR MY FRIEND

I remember you in this solemn hour, my beloved brother (sister, friend). I remember the days when we lived together in happy companionship. Your loving friendship was my delight and support. Though you are no longer with me, your image abides with me. I think of you often and pray that your memory will always be a blessing to me. May God grant you the greatest gift of all, the gift of Shalom. Amen.

A SPECIAL PRAYER FOR THOSE NOT SAYING YIZKOR
FOR PARENTS

Almighty God, while those who have lost their parents and their dear ones call to mind those who have gone to their eternal rest, I at this solemn moment raise my eyes unto You, the Giver of Life, and from a grateful heart thank You for Your mercies in having preserved the life of my beloved father and mother.

May it be Your will, Adonai my God and the God of my ancestors, to bless them with health and strength, so that they may be with me for many years to come. Bless them even as they have blessed me, and guard them even as they have guarded me.

In return for all their affection and the sacrifices which they have made for me, may I bring them joy and lighten their cares. May it be my privilege to help them in every way that lies within my power; may I learn to understand and recognize the duty I owe unto them, that I may never have cause to reproach myself when it is too late.

Shield my home from all sorrow. May peace and harmony and Your spirit ever reign within its walls. Keep me true to You and to all with whom I come in contact so that I may do Your will with a perfect heart, my Creator in Heaven.

Amen.

In the rising of the sun and in its going down, we remember them.

In the blowing of the wind and in the chill of winter, we remember them.

In the opening of buds and in the rebirth of spring, we remember them.

In the blueness of the sky and in the warmth of summer, we remember them.

In the rustling of leaves and in the beauty of autumn, we remember them.

In the beginning of the year and when it ends, we remember them.

When we are weary and in need of strength, we remember them.

When we are lost and sick at heart, we remember them.

When we have joys we yearn to share, we remember them.

So long as we live, they too shall live, for they are now a part of us, as we remember them.

It is for us to remember the distance between life and death is as close as a kiss and all our memories are Your eternal light created before the sun and the moon and the stars.

And if we remember those who have given us life of the body or of the soul and if we let the memories of their strength flow through our veins and muscles and thoughts
we will have strength enough to inhabit this One moment.

All Rise

אֵל מָלֵא רַחֲמִים שׁוֹכֵן בְּמְרוֹמִים.
הַמָּצֵא מְנוּחָה נְכוֹנָה תַּחַת כַּנְּפֵי הַשְּׂכִינָה.
בְּמַעְלֹת קְדוּשִׁים וְטְהוּרִים כְּזוֹהַר הַרְקִיעַ מְזַהְרִים,
אֶת נְשָׁמוֹת יְקָרֵינוּ שֶׁהֲלָכוּ לְעוֹלָמָם.
אָנָּה בְּעַל הַרַחֲמִים, יִסְתַּיְרֵהֶם בְּסִתְרֵךְ כַּנְּפֵיךָ לְעוֹלָמִים.
וְיִצְרֹר בְּצְרוֹר הַחַיִּים אֶת נְשָׁמוֹתָם, יְיָ הוּא נִחְלָתָם, וְיִנְוְחוּ בְּשָׁלוֹם עַל מְשַׁכְּבָם.
וְנֹאמַר אָמֵן.

O God full of compassion, Eternal Spirit of the universe, grant perfect rest under the wings of Your Presence to our loved ones who have entered eternity. Master of Mercy, let them find refuge for ever in the shadow of Your wings, and let their souls be bound up in the bond of eternal life. The Eternal God is their inheritance. May they rest in peace, and let us say: Amen.

Do not come when I am dead
To sit beside a low green mound,
Or bring the first gay daffodils,
Because I love them so,
For I shall not be there.
You cannot find me there.
Where will I be?
I will be reflected from the bright eyes of little children;
In the smile of a bride and groom under the chupah;
In the flames of Shabbat candles;
In the joy of a family simchah.
I will warm your hands through the glow of the winter fire;
I will soothe you with the drop of rain on the roof;
I will speak to you out of the wisdom of our sages;
And make your heart leap with the rhythm of a horah;
I will flood your soul with the flaming radiance of the sunrise,
And bring you peace in the tender rose and gold of the after-sunset.
All these have made me happy.
They are a part of me;
I shall become a part of them.

The Ship

I am standing upon the seashore. A ship at my side spreads her white sails to the morning breeze and starts for the blue ocean.

She is an object of beauty and strength, and I stand and watch her until, at length, she is only a speck of white cloud just where the sea and sky meet and mingle with each other. Then someone at my side exclaims, "There, she is gone!"

Gone where? Gone from my sight, that is all. She is just as large in hull and mast and spar as she was when she left my side, and just as able to bear her load of living freight to the place of her destination.
 Her diminished size is in me, not in her.

And just at the moment when someone at my side says, "She's gone," there are other eyes watching for her coming and other voices ready to take up the glad shout, "There, she comes!"
 And that is dying.
