Each of Us Has a Name

Each of us has a name
give by God
and given by our parents
Each of us has a name
given by our stature and our smile and given by what we wear
Each of us has a name
given by the mountains and given by our walls
Each of us has a name
given by the stars
and given by our neighbors
Each of us has a name
given by our sins
and given by our longing
Each of us has a name
given by our enemies

Each of us has a name

Each of us has a name

Each of us has a name

Path of Fullness

The Holy one is my Guide;
my life is whole.
We journey together
over fertile hillsides and rest
beside nourishing springs.
This is my spirit
ever renewed,
for my Guide leads me
down paths of fullness.
Even when my steps lead into the kingdom of death
I do not fear
for I know you are with me.
Your presence your shelter
is a comfort to me.
With you I can set myself aright in the face of deepest sorrow;
and soon my joy is filled to overflowing
As I journey on,
nothing but kindness and love shall follow
until the day I finally return.
To my Source,
my destination.

Interpretation of Psalm 23 by Rabbi Brant Rosen
I Often Feel...

I often feel that death is not the enemy of life, but its friend; for it is the knowledge that our years are limited which makes them so precious. It is the truth that time is but lent to us which makes us, at our best, look upon our years as a trust handed into our temporary keeping.

We are like children privileged to spend a day in a great park filled with many gardens and playgrounds and azure-tinted lakes with white boats sailing upon the tranquil waves.

True, the day allotted to each of us is not the same in length, in light, in beauty. Some children of earth are privileged to spend a long and sunlit day in the garden of the earth. For others the day is shorter, cloudier, and dust descends more quickly as in a winter’s tale.

But whether our life is a long summery day or a short wintery afternoon, we know that inevitably there are storms and squalls, which overcast even the bluest heaven and there are sunlit rays which pierce the darkest autumn sky. The day that we are privileged to spend in the great park of life is not the same for all human beings; but there is enough beauty and joy and gaiety in the hours, if we will but treasure them.

Then for each of us the moment comes when the great nurse, death, takes us by the hand and quietly says, “It is time to go home. Night is coming. It is your bedtime, child of earth. Come; you’re tired. Lie down at last in the quiet nursery of nature and sleep. Sleep well. The day is gone. Stars shine in the canopy of eternity.”
Memorywork
In the rising of the sun and in its going down, we remember them.
In the blowing of the wind and in the chill of winter, we remember them.
In the opening of the buds and in the rebirth of spring, we remember them.
In the blueness of the sky and in the warmth of summer, we remember them.
In the rustling of leaves and in the beauty of autumn, we remember them.
In the beginning of the year and when it ends, we remember them.
When we are weary and in need of strength, we remember them.
When we are lost and sick at heart, we remember them.
When we have hoys we yearn to share, we remember them.
So long as we live, they too shall live, for they are now a part of us, as we remember them.

By Rabbis Jack Riemer and Sylvan D. Kamens

When Will I Be Myself Again
“When will I be myself again?”
Some Tuesday, perhaps,
In the late afternoon,
Sitting quietly with a cup of tea
And a cookie;
Or Wednesday, same time or later,
You will stir from a nap and see her;
You will pick up the phone to call her;
You will hear her voice – unexpected advice –
And maybe argue.
And you will not be frightened,
And you will not be sad,
And you will not be alone,
Not alone at all,
And your tears will warm you.
But not today,
And not tomorrow,
And not tomorrow’s tomorrow,
But some day,
Some Tuesday, late in the afternoon,
Sitting quietly with a cup of tea
And a cookie
And you will be yourself again.

Yizkor Reflections

May the memories of our loved ones inspire us to seek in our lives
Those qualities of mind and heart which we recall with special gratitude.

May we help to bring closer to fulfillment
Their highest ideals and noblest strivings

May the memories of our loved ones deepen our loyalty to that which cannot die - our faith, our love, and our devotion to our heritage.

As we ponder life’s transience and frailty, help us, O God, to use each precious moment wisely, to fill each day with all the compassion and kindness which You have placed within our reach.

Thus will the memories of our loved ones abide among us as a source of undying inspiration and enduring blessing.

Real Faith

Real Faith does not mean profession what we hold true in a ready-made formula... It means holding ourselves open to the unconditional mystery which we encounter in every sphere of our life and which cannot be comprised in any formula. It means that, from the very roots of our being, we should always be prepared to live with this mystery as one being lives with another. Real faith means the ability to endure life in the face of this mystery.

Honoring the Memory

The son of a rabbi mourned the loss of his beloved father. Day after day he went to the cemetery and prostrated himself on his father’s grave. One day as the son gave in to waves of sorrow, his father appeared to him in a vision and said:

My son, do you think that you honor my memory with your grief?
Offer me no tribute of tears, nor monuments of sorrow. Do not weep for me. Instead, live for me. Show your love by walking the Way, in devotion to commandment, faith and people. This is the only memorial that truly honors the departed.

The son rose from his father’s grave on hearing these words, and went to make his father’s memory a perpetual light to guide him and a blessing to the world.

Exalted, compassionate God, grant perfect peace in Your sheltering presence, among the holy and the pure, whose radiance is like the heavens, to the souls of all those we have recalled today. May their memory be a blessing, and may they rest in paradise. Master of mercy, may they find eternal shelter beneath Your sheltering wings, and may their souls be bound up in the bond of life. Adonai is their portion. May they rest in peace. And let us say: Amen.

PSALM 23

A PSALM OF DAVID.

Adonai is my shepherd, I shall not want.
God gives me repose in green meadows,
and guides me over calm waters.
God will revive my spirit and direct me on the right path—for that is God’s way.
Though I walk in the valley of the shadow of death, I fear no harm, for You are at my side.
Your staff and Your rod comfort me.
You prepare a banquet for me in the presence of my foes:
You anoint my head with oil, my cup overflows.
Surely goodness and kindness shall be my portion all the days of my life,
And I shall dwell in the house of Adonai in the fullness of time.
There will be a pause during the recitation of the “El Malai Rachamim” prayer so that each of us can privately insert the name of our beloved whom we recall at this time.

The Yizkor service was called seder matnat yad, the service of expressing generosity on behalf of those who have died. That name comes from the closing line of the Torah reading for the final day of the pilgrimage festivals (when Yizkor is recited):

"Every person giving a gift according to the blessing they have received from Adonai" (Deuteronomy 16:17). Offering charitable gifts and performing acts of justice, love, and care in memory of those who have died provide us with ways of honoring their memory and continuing their influence for good.
We Recall

Some of us recall parents who watched over us, nursed us, guided us, and sacrificed for us. Some of us lovingly call to mind a wife, husband, or partner with whom we were truly united—in our hopes and our pains, in our failures and our achievements, in our joys and our sorrows. Some of us remember brothers and sisters, who grew up together with us, sharing in the play of childhood, in the youthful adventure of discovering life’s possibilities, bound to us by a heritage of family tradition and by years of togetherness and love. Some of us call to mind children, entrusted to us too briefly, to whom we gave our loving care and from whom we received a trust that enriched our lives. So many of us recall beloved relatives and friends whose affection and devotion enhanced our lives, and whose visible presence will never return to cheer, encourage, or support us. Though they are gone, we are grateful for the blessings they brought to our lives. We are sustained and comforted by the thought that their presence in our lives remains an enduring blessing that we can bequeath to others. We can show our devotion to them by our devotion to those ideas that they cherished.

O God of love, make us worthy of the love we have received by teaching us to love You with all our heart and with all our soul and with all our might, and to spread the light of Your divine love on all whose lives touch ours. Give us strength to live faithfully, for we are cheered by our confidence that You will not permit our lives to be wasted, but will bring all our worthy strivings to live on, even as we may not see their fulfillment.

—MORDECAI M. KAPLAN, EUGENE KOHN, AND IRA EISENSTEIN
(adapted from Mahzor Hadash)
Yizkor – Memorial Service

ADORN, what are human beings that You take account of them, mortals that You care for them? Humans are as a breath, their days like a passing shadow. In the morning they flourish anew, in the evening they shrivel and die. Teach us to count each day, that we may acquire a heart of wisdom.

On this solemn day we each make judgments about the quality of our life. We re-examine our deeds and relationships with our community and with others. We express our yearnings for a new year, a new beginning, a year during which we commit ourselves to work toward bringing health and peace to all. We long for a year when individually and communally we shall strive to live in a way that is more reflective of the ideals that we cherish. Now, in the midst of looking at our life and assessing its quality, we pause to reflect and to remember, and to dedicate ourselves anew.

God is always before me, at my right hand, lest I fall. Therefore I am glad, made happy, though I know that my flesh will lie in the ground forever. The deaths of those we now remember left holes in our lives. But we are grateful for the gift of their lives and we are strengthened by the blessings that they left us and the precious memories that comfort and sustain us as we recall them this day.
We recall with fondness and sorrow the members of our congregation who were summoned to their eternal rest during the year 5783:

Elaine Corman
Julia Cushman
Elaine Drobnis
Joel Gopen
Jay Schwab
Barry Sherman
Vivian Tartak

May their memory endure as a blessing.
And let us say: Amen
The earth has covered only that which was mortal
   Of those to whom we have said our farewell.
We shall not see again
   The familiar glowing face, the warm, illuminated eye,
   Nor hear the beloved voice.
We shall not sit face to face,
   Across the family table, or side by side
   In the home of a friend or in worship.
We shall not feel the kiss
   That once evoked our deepest response.
Yet death has failed and must surrender.
For the beloved who is gone
   Lives and will always live through the years
   Not in some distant corner of our being,
   To be uncovered only in a rare moment
   Or by a sudden surge of recall.
The beloved has become a presence, - indwelling and inseparable, Rooted so deep that life cannot Carry us far from the cherished
   Now hallowed center of memory and love.
Your hand, O Death, has been stayed.
   You can no longer inflict oblivion,
   Or doom to full disappearance
   Those who were life of our life.
They live and move within us,
   In spheres beyond your dominion.
We thank you, O God of life and love,
   For the resurrecting gift of memory
   Which endows Your children fashioned in Your image
   With Godlike sovereign power
   To give immortality through love.
Blessed are You, O God,
   Who enables Your children to remember.
