RABBI'S MESSAGE

...חלום חלמתי... I Have A Dream...

חז"ל teach us that the twelve gem stones of the חושן correspond to the יבי חדשים of the year. This שבת we are מברכים the ninth month of the year, כסלו. The ninth stone on the חושן is the אחלמה. The root of this word implies dreams as in the word חלום. Interestingly, the פרשיות that will be read during this חודש deal with dreams and their realizations. The dreams of יעקב אבינו and his vision of the סולם and the dream relating to the לבן of צאן, the dream of לבן not to harm יעקב, the dreams of יוסף הצדיק and the פרעה שרים, and finally those of פרעה relating to the famine.

What does this represent for us?

Dreams are the tools by which we gain deeper understanding of our subconscious feelings and hopes. Dreams can prod us to action and greater self actualization. Dreams can help us understand our fears and assist us in dealing with them effectively. Dreams serve as השם's messenger instilling within us insight and direction and at times even speaking to us directly. Dreams are vital to our functioning as intelligent and elevated beings.

It is for this reason that חז"ל inform us that having no dreams in seven days is a sign of distance from השגחת השם.

Great accomplishments must start with ream and a vision, but we can only succeed by carrying through with determined action. The dreams reported in the תורה are all found exclusively in חומש בראשית, for only in the beginning is it appropriate to dream. The month of כסלו represents not only the dreams but their actualizations as well.

When the משכן was dedicated, אהרן הכהן was frustrated that he did not participate with the נשיאים and their contributions. He had dreamt of the day when he would be take part in the חנוכה המזבח. המזבח calmed him when He informed him that his dream would be realized in a much greater fashion in the times of his descendants, the חשמונאים, with the חנוכה המזבח that resulted from the חנוכה of נס in the month of כסלו.

It is remarkable that our חלום began exactly just four months ago on שבת מברכים חודש מנחם אב and here we are, בחסדי השם המרובים, experiencing such thrilling growth. Our success is due to the devoted efforts of the wonderful members of our קהילה.

May השם continue to bestow upon us סייעתא דשמיא in bringing about much שמים!

In that חודש טוב! may our families merit happiness, success and good health.

באהבה,
צבי טייכמן
