RABBI'S MESSAGE

ואנכי לא ידעתי; If Only I Would Have Realized...

The great צדיק of ירושלים, HaRav Aryeh Levin זצוק"ל, was once asked to inspire a group of young תלמידים. His deep love for them was evident in his eyes and in his very presence.

Simply being in his company would be inspiration enough. He began by describing יעקב אבינו's experience at הר המוריה. After fourteen years of intense uninterrupted learning in the בית מדרש of שם and עבר he falls into a deep sleep. He sees the vision of the סולם and its accompanying prophesies. Startled, יעקב אבינו awakens and in awe he expresses, "אכן יש ה' במקום הזה ואנכי"; "Indeed is there Hashem in this place and I wasn't aware?"

רש"י explains that יעקב אבינו was intimating that if he would have been aware he would surely not have gone to sleep in such a hallowed place.

Reb Aryeh addressed the children and told them that these years are the most beautiful times of their lives. Yet so often it is not appreciated until it is too late and the special opportunities for growth and inspiration are no longer available. Treasure these moments, he exhorted them, for time is so precious, don't wait for the time when you will bemoan the fact that the שכנה was awaiting our response and we allowed the chance to slip from our hands.

Aren't we all like the children in this poignant story?

Every moment of our lives is laden with opportunity to come closer to Hashem. In our behavior בין אדם לחבירו lies the character of man. In our actions בין אדם למקום we express the depths of our דביקות to Hashem. Yet, how often do we let these moments of greatness simply pass unnoticed?

Life can be wonderful if only we would grab the opportunities for growth that Hashem sends our way each and every moment and respond positively.

May we merit to rise to the challenges that face us. May we never be lulled into complacency and slumber through the special times and golden opportunities that await each one of us, and never shall we say, "if only I would have realized..."

באהבה,
צבי טייכמן
