Heads Up!

On Sukkos we left the intoxicating comforts of our homes to spend seven thoughtful days in a temporary and flimsy structure, the Sukkah, exposing ourselves to the raw elements of nature declaring ourselves solely under G-d's protection and direction. We now return to our permanent dwellings with our heads hopefully screwed on properly, realizing what our true priorities in life should be.

On the night of Hoshana Rabba there is a tradition that one who was not inscribed in the book of life for the ensuing year, will be unable to see his head shadowed in the light cast by the moon of that night.

Perhaps this echoes the sentiments expressed in the prayer we recite on Rosh Hashana eve; ... יהי רצון. May it be your will... that we be a Head and not a Tail.

We hope we will live our lives with our "head", contemplating and assessing our every action as a "head" that leads the body and not simply submit to our instinctive desires similar to the tail which is simply tagged on and lags behind.

We are promised a happy new lease on life only when our "heads" are placed atop all our endeavors.

In the ultimate battle against the crafty serpent, the evil inclination, we are told:

...הוא ישופך ראש ואתה תשופנו עקב (בראשית ג טו) He (Man) will pound your head, and you (the Snake) will bite his heel.

It has been revealed that the word ראש is a contraction of the sentiment רצון אבינו שבשמים, the will of our Father in Heaven. The letters of the word עקב comprise the phrase קדש עצמך במותר, sanctify yourself in those areas that are permitted to you.

The Satan seeks to seduce us into his arena by offering us all sorts of enticements that are "permitted" and have the best Hechsherim, eventually ensnaring us into the worst sins. Our only effective weapon in warding off his power lies in our measuring every activity by the yardstick of רצון ה', by asking ourselves in all honesty; is it in the spirit of the "will of G-d", not simply permitted.

The very first word of the Torah בראשית, is composed of the root word, ראש, housed within the letters בית, home! (בעל הטורים)

The only way we can successfully reenter our homes inculcating the lessons from the Tishrei experience, is by assuring that everything we do and all that we endeavor to measure up to the standard of רצון אבינו שבשמים, the will of our Father in Heaven!
