Daf Hashavua kicks off this week!

The Daf Hashavua program will be starting in Ohel Moshe this week with Maseches Moed Katan!

The kickoff for the program will be Sunday night at 9 PM with a shiur on the 1st Amud, as well as an open Bais Medrash for those preferring to learn the Daf individually or with a Chavrusa. The shiur for the 2nd Amud will be on Wednesday night. The shiurim will normally be Tuesday and Wednesday nights 9-9:45 followed by Maariv, allowing for the other nights to focus on review and increased clarity, if interested.

There will also be open Bais Medrash Sunday-Thursday nights for Chavrusa and individual learning. The plan is to finish the Masechta in November of this year with a celebratory siyum.

The Daf Hashavua is an exciting worldwide program that has spread everywhere from the US and Israel to Australia, England, Canada, and South Africa. It combines some of the best aspects of Daf Yomi and other learning programs, allowing you to make steady progress, while having the time to chazer and really know and remember what you learned.

For information about the shiur, please contact Dovid Barer or Yudi England. The website is attached below with more information. <https://www.dafaweek.org/about>
