I'd like to share with you a document that we are using to help us plan for the future that we are entering as an institution. I have done some modifications and editing of it to make it more reflective of the TBE experience.

"We have been reactive. How else can one be during a pandemic? The opinions of outside experts have guided our actions since this all began, and their positions change daily. When to close, how to take TBE online, protocols to follow before re-opening. Now, things are slowing down a bit and it is time to become more reflective—tapping into our own wisdom and exploring the potent learning opportunities at hand. The shift begins by asking better questions.

Our grasp on the past has loosened. The threshold invites us to let go of our fears and discomforts, along with some things that we hold dear. We are broken open to embrace new possibilities.

Moving from reactivity to reflection calls for three kinds of work: acknowledging our losses, exploring unstated assumptions, and noticing what wants to emerge. Good questions will create a holding space for this transformational work.

1. What were we on the verge of discovering or accomplishing before the onset of the pandemic? What needs to move forward in different ways now?
2. What was possible before that may not be possible for some time—if ever?
3. What seemed important before that feels superfluous now?

What Did We Assume?

Many of our old assumptions no longer hold true. If we do not acknowledge the truth of this, we will make decisions that are inappropriate for the next season. We need good questions to unfreeze some of our old assumptions and expand our consciousness.

4. What was undervalued before that may hold greater value now?
5. What mattered about geography before that no longer matters?
6. What new abundance (benefits, blessings) are we experiencing now? Where are we experiencing scarcity (challenges, weaknesses) now that was not evident before?

Needs and priorities are shifting. Values and assets are not the same as they were just a few months ago.

What Wants to Emerge?

Often, new structures arise in response to a changed environment. Organizations gravitate toward order over chaos. If we remain protective of the old status quo during the emergence process, our new order will look remarkably like the old normal—not much adaptation will occur that may not be bad or it may be.

When we ask better questions, we invite innovation into the new order. We ask:

What is our greatest asset now?

7. What relationships will we need to build on or strengthen in the months ahead? What new ones do we have to create?
8. What unique role might our congregation play in local, national, and even global recovery?
9. What long term changes in the bigger picture would we like to be part of bringing to fruition?

These questions are not meant to be magic bullets that solve problems. The questions are merely an invitation to pay exquisite attention—to notice why we are making the choices we make, and what wants to happen.

We look forward to hearing your comments. Please send any thoughts to bethemet@templebethemet.org.

Rabbi Bennett Greenspon

It is hard to believe that it has been about three months that our activities and engagement in society have been adjusted. There are many positive aspects of relating to one another over the phone, during a virtual class or meeting, via social media, zoom or email. However, there remains a strange feeling to all of these points of connection, lacking the in-person relationships. I use the word strange not in a necessarily negative sense; just in a sense of something being different.

We recently started conversations as to what the future will look like as we slowly move toward in-person gatherings. Alternative graduations took place and camp is beginning, both as modified in-person, physically distanced programs. Confirmation and other classes are continuing virtually, as are Shabbat services. Bar and Bat Mitzvah services are shifting to a blend of having the immediate family in-person (physically separated from the clergy) with everyone else logging in remotely. We are marking time slowly and deliberately as we figure out how to continue celebrating Judaism and community, while not necessarily being physically present with one another.

We have also started discussing what life will look like as we start the school year and prepare for the High Holy Days. I'm going to tell you that we are not sure what it will look like. We do know it will happen in some form. We do know it will most likely be a mixture of many different forms of celebration. We do know that we do not know exactly what will happen; just that we should all expect the unexpected, and that any possibility is possible.

Change is neither good nor bad. Change is just change. In Deuteronomy it reads, "Blessed be you when you come in and blessed be you when you go out." Comings and goings can relate to situations and events, in addition to places. Have a safe summer and may you be blessed as we experience Judaism and life in slightly different circumstances and always together.

President's Message

Howard Lipman

Dear TBE Family,

This will be my last article as the president of our Temple. It has been my distinct honor to serve each of you and your families as members of our Jewish community. I believe now more than ever that our Jewish community is truly a very special place and more vital than ever before.

As these are the people who almost daily conduct the governance business of our Temple, (In no particular order) I would especially like to thank the executive committee leadership of the board of directors; Mark Glater, Randy Paul, Mike Bernstein, Katherine Kessler, Laurie Levine, Elizabeth Jacobs, Lewis Nadel, Skip Straus, Maureen Winick, Lee Quittner, Mackie Feierstein, Vivian McCord, Stuart Slutsky, Mark Ginsberg, Steve Klein and Susan Kraizgrun. These are some of the most dedicated volunteer leaders who move our community forward daily! A special thank you to the full board of directors for the time, talent and philanthropy that you so readily provide.

We have two amazing women's and men's organizations made up of committed and involved members - Sisterhood and He'bros. They are expertly led by Beth Herzbrun, Deborah Salzman and Mackie Feierstein. A special thank you to these volunteers. I also want to thank our Past Presidents for always being there to provide guidance, support and philanthropy.

I want to take this opportunity to thank our Clergy and staff – Bennett, Frank, Jan, Noemi, Robin, Laura, Rayna, and the Temple and school staff. They all do an absolutely fantastic job of creating the environment in which our Temple Beth Emet culture continues and evolves to meet the needs of our ever-changing world.

I have had the distinct pleasure of speaking almost daily with our two outstanding rabbis. Each of these important religious leaders brings their own unique and complementary perspectives to our Temple. We are so fortunate to have two rabbis who work so well together.

We see so many temples around us having leadership challenges that greatly affect their congregations. Believe me, when I tell you, we are so lucky to have Bennett and Frank as our rabbis and Jan as our cantor! These fine people truly exemplify and maintain the cornerstone of our Jewish faith and life at the highest and in the most unpretentious ways.

Most important to me is my gratitude to my wonderful family—Sara, my always supportive, loving, and amazingly tolerant wife and girlfriend. And of course, our beautiful children, Claire, Evan and Jake, who got a lot more than they asked for and most always stepped up. I love you all dearly!

Thank you to FIU president, Dr. Mark Rosenberg, and my FIU family for always being supportive of me and the time necessary to serve our community.

We have accomplished much over the past three years and seen our Temple thrive and grow. Based upon our stakeholder's feedback, our strategic vision has been set, and now we must continue to implement. Maureen, you and your team did an amazing job gathering this data. Our Temple is so grateful for your leadership and expertise. I have had the great fortune to preside over good times, expansion, and recently one of the most difficult periods in our history. There is still much to be done. I remain committed, involved and excited about the leadership of our next president, Mark Glater. Mark, I wish you Godspeed, great blessings and amazing success as you take over the leadership of this special community for which we are all so fond!

Thank you all for the opportunity to serve.

Howard

LIFE & LEGACY, a signature program of the Harold Grinspoon Foundation, is a program to help ensure Jewish tomorrows. Temple Beth Emet was chosen, along with 13 other local Jewish organizations by the Jewish Federation of Broward County to participate in this program.

Everyone, regardless of age, wealth or affiliation has the ability to leave a legacy and the Life & Legacy process is very easy. It all starts with a conversation.

Through challenging times, we are emerging stronger!

To Our BEES Family: Normally, we write these words as we wrap up the school year, reflecting on our students' growth and success, and expressing gratitude to our school families, teachers and partners at our second home – Beth Emet. At this time; however, we address you following weeks of quarantine and on the brink of our county reopening in a new, uncharted capacity. Without a doubt, by the time you read this, the way we live our lives will be quite different than the manner in which we do so today. And while there is nothing normal about this “new normal,” our end of the year sentiments have remained steadfast. In fact, if anything, though we cannot wait to embrace one another physically, and hope and pray for our old way of life to resume safely soon, on so many levels, the past months have revealed just how strong our community can be, and just how bright all of our true colors shine, even behind our masks and Zoom screens. With that in mind, we would like to express our immense gratitude:

To our parents – thank you for continuing to entrust us with your children! You have risen to the challenge, turning your homes into schools and balancing the need for healthy boundaries, structure, and goals with flexibility, patience, and compassion, all the while juggling your own responsibilities and concerns. You have been instrumental in facilitating the transition to distance learning, and rapidly adapting to an unprecedented reality. Together-apart, we have examined the formula for providing just enough instruction to keep students engaged, learning, challenged, and occupied, without causing frustration or overwhelming them with screen time. As expected, we discovered that just like in the physical classroom, there is no one-size-fits-all solution. Thank you for working together with us to make this the best possible experience for our students. To our PTO, STEM Committee and parent volunteers - we extend our most sincere thanks for your partnership and initiative, not only throughout the regular school year, but also through this difficult period. Your support has been invaluable, and is much, much appreciated.

To our students – what an adjustment this has been for you! From learning the ropes of on-line instruction and the expectations that follow, to joining us on virtual field trips and Zoom celebrations of special milestones, you have transitioned remarkably. Yes, there may have been some bumps in your journey, and perhaps moments that were difficult or disappointing. It is through those times that you have grown the most; gaining independence and becoming more self-sufficient. You now know that you have the power within you to overcome challenges and adapt to new situations. We could not be more proud! Please know that seeing your beautiful faces on Zoom has brightened our lives daily and that we miss you so very much.

To our graduating BEES – Mazal tov on your successful completion of elementary school! We hope your drive-by graduation and surprises turned out as special as we planned for them to be! We are so very proud of the incredible skills that you have gained and resilience that you have shown. Hang on to these valuable lessons always – adaptability, perseverance, hard work, compassion, positivity and perspective - as they will serve you throughout your lives! Take pride in how far you have come and have faith in how far you can go...but don't forget to enjoy the journey. We look forward to seeing many of you in our inaugural 6th grade class in the fall and in our Merkaz Limud program.

To our teachers and staff – with so little warning and minimal time to prepare, you have stepped up to the challenge: adapting, evolving, and putting forth tremendous efforts to nurture your students academically, and foster the type of connectivity that helped them feel that they are still a part of our community. Despite your own personal hardships, you brought your “A” game to our students with your excitement, creativity, and positive energy. Your commitment to making this a successful experience provided our BEES with continued learning, and alongside it, a sense of belonging, routine, familiarity and comfort. We are so very thankful for you!

These weeks that have passed might not have been what any of us had wished for, and yet, it was still our story to write. We might not have been able to open the gates to our campus, but the doors to our hearts were still open wide. We might have temporarily lost the privilege of learning in our physical classrooms, but modern technology allowed us to proceed with virtual academics. We might not be able to physically connect – embrace, high-five, hold hands and run around – but our connection to one another, to our class, school and community has become more important than ever.

We thank you again for your partnership and support. These have been times that we will never forget, but hopefully, among the memories we created, the story that will unfold will be one of empathy and compassion, renewed connectivity to our community, and incredible generosity to one another. Please be safe and stay healthy.

Dina Milgram, Assistant Director

How do you thank so many amazing people?

To each staff member at our school: thank you for your compassion, your patience, your knowledge and your commitment. You have touched the lives of many families and they are all so grateful for what you have provided. Our staff goes above and beyond what is expected of teachers. They give so much of themselves. There are not enough words to say thank you, thank you! This year was a challenge; as we headed home in March we had no idea what was in store for us. We jumped into YouTube, Zoom and What's App chats with all the professionalism we could muster. We held on to our philosophy and tried to create virtual learning that was hands on, fun and involved critical thinking. We were able to maintain this for more weeks than we could have imagined. Beth Emet teachers, I am in awe of you!

In addition to everything you did for the students, you joined with Dina, Aimee and me in tremendous professional development. As we explored the theory and practice of Reggio we will continue to ponder, grow and learn from one of the founders Loris Malaguzzi who says "Creativity seems to emerge from multiple experiences, coupled with a well-supported development of personal resources, including a sense of freedom to venture beyond the known." Perhaps virtual learning is one of the multiple experiences!

As we approach the end of the year we have to stop and thank our amazing PTO. The work they put into planning special activities, fundraising and organizing events for our school is truly amazing! This year was not quite the same, but thank goodness for zoom and emails! We kept in touch and kept the love of our school alive! Thank you Sara DePass, our PTO president. Thank you Jennifer Simmons, our Room Parent Coordinator. Thank you Michelle Mazor, our Treasurer. Thank you Jaime Gazes, Fundraising. Thank you Jennifer Weinstock and Heather Rosenfeld, Special Events.

As we head into summer we are optimistic for the year ahead. Knowing that we completed this program to the best of our abilities, we are all so proud to be part of the Temple Beth Emet Early Childhood Center. We wish you all a wonderful, safe and happy summer. Thank you for the many "magical moments" that we shared with your child. We look forward to seeing you in camp or back at school in August. For those of you Pre-K students not returning, you have left your imprint on our hearts, and we wish you good luck in your new school!

As always, we hope you will stay part of our Beth Emet Family. We have an outstanding Elementary School, Religious School, Summer Program and Youth Group. Give your child the gift of being connected to a community that cares about them and where they can feel comfortable. Continue to walk through our gates and be greeted by familiar faces of children and adults.

Thank you to Aimee and Dina! Wow, as we work alone in the office, virtually and tirelessly you guys are truly amazing. You work so hard, you keep going, and then you keep thinking and then work some more. Thank you, thank you and thank you. Next year may I be writing this from the comfort of my desk with the sounds of children all around our campus!

Sincerely,
Robin

Camp Beth Emet opens for the community!

Deciding to open or not was not an easy choice. We wanted to support and take care of our community. After careful consideration, and with the support of the Temple Board, we have decided to open in June. We are not heroes and we are not villains. We are just Camp Directors trying to carefully support and plan for our community. Some parents need to work, children need their friends and life at Camp Beth Emet is ready to begin! Each of us, for our own reasons, may decide to join Camp Beth Emet this summer. We are a judgement free zone. We are following the CDC guidelines and any local and state suggestions to best keep our campers and staff safe.

Camp Dates:

Please note that there will not be a session 1 for Teen Travel. Kids up through 8th Grade may join day camp. Session 2 is undecided at this point.

Session 1: June 8-July 3

Session 2: July 6-Aug 7

Visit our website and you can register for the sessions online

HELLO
summer

Norah Adler

Norah Macy Adler was called to the Torah as a Bat-Mitzvah on Sunday, May 24, 2020. Norah is finishing 7th grade at Pioneer Middle School. Norah attended Beth Emet Elementary from kindergarten to fifth grade. She has spent every summer going to Camp Beth Emet and Teen Travel. Norah has grown up at Temple Beth Emet and considers it her second home.

For Norah's Mitzvah project she chose to support the Broward County Humane Society. From a very young age she has always had a love of animals, especially dogs. Norah volunteered as part of the Mitzvah Mutt program where she fed, bathed and took care of dogs and other animals. Norah also participated in the walk for the animals with her family, friends and her own dog, Samson.

Norah is a compassionate, independent, fun, energetic person who is always willing to help a friend in need. Norah loves spending time with her friends and cousins, traveling with her family, the beach and dogs.

The Adler family wants to thank Rabbi DeWoskin, Rabbi Greenspon and all of Norah's teachers for their guidance and teachings throughout the years and a special thank you to Cantor Jan for her countless hours of dedication, teaching and encouragement in order to prepare Norah for this milestone occasion.

Daniel Rom

Daniel Seth Rom will be called to the Torah as a Bar Mitzvah on Saturday, June 13, 2020.

Daniel is currently a 7th grade honors student at Indian Ridge Middle School. He is dedicated to his studies and always finds a way to have a good time, whether it be with himself or others. Daniel gives his all in everything he does and is kind and loving to all around him. He loves playing sports and video games.

Daniel first started to attend Beth Emet Elementary School when he was five years old. There is where he made lots of close friends that he keeps in touch with, he also attended summer camps and Merkaz Limud program. Beth Emet is where he found an atmosphere not only to practice Judaism but to live it.

Daniel has a warm heart and has always been compassionate, which led him to his Mitzvah Project, to help people in need. Due to the pandemic that's occurring right now, he realized that there are more people in need than before. He decided to look for an organization in order to help. Finally he found one, called Adopt a Box. This organization works together with farmers who provide veggies and fruits to distribute among people that need it the most. This industry not only helps people with less resources, it also saves farmers since they were out of business due to Covid19, and Adopt a Box was able to pay them for their work. Daniel was intrigued by this organization and started helping in this operation. Every Saturday he went to different locations to provide 800 cases of food for people in poverty. This has impacted him, and he still is going to these events to help.

We want to thank Rabbi DeWoskin, Rabbi Greenspon, Cantor Jan and Daniel's awesome teacher, Ms. Paula. They have all affected Daniel and helped him to grow into the fine and young man he is today. Thank you for all your assistance and tolerance. We can't wait to see what Daniel will do in the future; we love you so much Daniel!!!

Shalev Kent

Shalev Ethan Kent, son of Joshua and Ifat Kent, will be called to the Torah on June 20, 2020. Shalev began his Jewish education here at Temple Beth Emet in the Early Childhood Center

Shalev has many talents. When he was very young, he started drawing and many of his artistic masterpieces are on display at his Godmother's home's foyer entrance.

At 4, Shalev began piano lessons and today plays Beethoven's "Moonlight Sonata" by memory. Shalev is also a natural cook and baker, treating his family with delicious meals and desserts. In his free time Shalev likes to build and ride BMX.

Shalev is a caring and compassionate young man and a good example to his younger sister and brother. For his Mitzvah project Shalev has plans to volunteer at a local Dog Shelter as soon it is safe to do so.

The Kent family would like to thank Rabbi Greenspon, Rabbi DeWoskin and especially Cantor Jan who guided Shalev with patience and support.

With great pride and excitement, we look forward to this special milestone in Shalev's life.

Carter Weiss

Carter Dean Weiss will be called to the Torah as a Bar Mitzvah on Saturday, June 27, 2020. Carter is a 7th grade student at NSU University School.

Carter is a kind, funny and bright young man. He has a compassionate heart and stands up for what he believes in. He is a loyal friend and cares deeply about his family and those closest to him.

Outside of school, you can find Carter on the basketball courts practicing his game. If he could shoot 3 point shots and dribble the ball around all day, every day he would. His love for basketball exemplifies his drive and determination to always challenge himself to be the best he can be.

Carter began his education in preschool at Temple Beth Emet's Early Childhood Center at a very young age. Even though he did not spend all his years studying in religious school at TBE, he has been working his hardest over the last year studying for his Bar Mitzvah – and we couldn't be more proud of his dedication.

As the first born child and grandchild on both sides of his family, he is grateful to be surrounded by his parents, his sister, grandparents and many aunts, uncles and cousins. All are excited to honor Carter on his simcha.

Thank you to everyone at TBE for welcoming us back with open arms. Thank you to Rabbi DeWoskin and Rabbi Greenspon for their guidance and support. And a special thank you to Cantor Jan for mentoring Carter through this year of preparation. You guided him with patience, encouragement and confidence – we couldn't have done it without you.

Ari Sakuri

Ari Lev Sakuri will be called to the Torah and have his Zoom Bar Mitzvah on Saturday, July 4. Ari attended Beth Emet from the age of 3 in ECC through 5th grade at Beth Emet Elementary. The education and values he received at Beth Emet has been influential and helped shape the young man he has become. Ari just finished his 7th grade year virtually at Pioneer Middle School as an honor roll student.

In his spare time, Ari enjoys playing basketball, playing video games and spending time with his family. He has a passion for the NBA - the games, the players and the statistics. He is a kind, compassionate, caring young man. He leaves a lasting impression on everyone he meets, and finds happiness in making others happy. Family has always been at the top of Ari's list.

Therefore, he chose an organization for his mitzvah project that is near and dear to his heart.

Ari has lost close family members to cancer. Ari chose to support Larger Than Life, an Israeli organization that provides children with cancer a preschool which serves as a safe zone for the children to attend, and sends them on a trip of a lifetime to Disney World. Ari attended a Gala to hear firsthand the stories of the lives of these children and made a donation from the money he has saved up over the years.

Temple Beth Emet has always felt like home to Ari. The Sakuri Family would like to thank Rabbi Greenspon, Rabbi DeWoskin, and Cantor Jan for their leadership throughout his Jewish life. We would also like to send a huge thank you to Debra for her guidance and love through this Bar Mitzvah journey. Rayna, you have always been there for Ari and loved him like a grandson. We are endlessly grateful to Noemi, Michal, Nikki and every one of his teachers over the years; thank you for the love, support and educational foundation you provided to Ari. Temple Beth Emet is our home and our extended family.

Making a donation is a wonderful way to acknowledge a special occasion, important date, promotion or award; send get well wishes or condolences; express appreciation for an act of kindness; and honor or remember a special person in your life.

 THANK YOU FOR YOUR DONATION

Beth Herzbrun, Debra Salzman – Co-Presidents

TBE Sisterhood wishes you good health and safety, as we navigate our new environment. We designed a number of online activities that brought us together, while we stayed safe at home.

- * Our Bingo events, in which 100% of the money collected provide meals to local front line heroes. Sisterhood proudly doubled the donation of the participants.
- * Our Health and Wellness event, featuring Rebecca Baer and Randi Weinstein captivated the audience as they spoke about health, nutrition, increasing energy, meal planning, etc. in this challenging time.
- * Our Havdalah & Challah event was joined by our very own Cantor Jan who led us through a spiritual and melodious Havdalah service, followed by a Challah Bake!
- * At our Mah Jongg Event we joined each other to play online mah jongg while having fun and honing their skills with the new challenging mah jongg card.
- * Sisterhood Book Club met via Zoom to discuss This Tender Land by William Kent Krueger. We had a lively discussion and we were so pleased to get back to delving into a good read.
- * Perhaps you were able to join us for Randee Engelhard's "Talk About Posture." Learning how something as simple as posture can impact your health and immune system is so timely.

As new directives emerge for opening up segments of the community, we will be ever vigilant to plan safe and appropriate activities for our members, and support the Temple. Your Sisterhood Board will be working over the summer months to create an engaging and exciting agenda for next year. Please let one of our Board members, listed below, if you are interested in becoming an active participant, or chairing events.

HE*BROS HAPPENINGS

The mission of The HeBros is to build friendships and camaraderie while planning and participating in enjoyable social and educational activities which contributes to the success and well-being of Temple Beth Emet and the larger community. HeBros accommodates the varied interests of its members of all ages, the youngest, the middle and the seniors. We have events such as sports outings, event guest speakers, social and family events.

During this pandemic period The HeBros are continuing to be active. We had to cancel our semi-annual Family Bowling night and our annual Family Kickball Day. However, we are planning a Virtual Poker Tournament and a Scavenger Hunt. Both will take place soon via a Zoom link on your computer. Watch for the email blasts to announce the dates and how the games will be played.

Giving back. The HeBros are donating protective masks for the camping children with a replacement cartridge in them. Also, we will be donating masks for the adult counselors who will be working with these children.

Looking forward we are still planning to have our August Texas Hold-em Poker Tournament. Providing of course that social distancing will be lifted by August. We are also continuing with plans to hold our most popular event Steak and Bourbon night on October 7.

Finally, you are invited to join us most Thursdays for either our Happy Hour via Zoom or special programs.

June 4 at 5:30 for Happy Hour
June 11 at 7 PM for ADL Presentation
June 18 at 5:30 for Happy Hour
June 25 at 5:30 for Happy Hour
July 2 at 7 PM for Virtual Poker Tournament
July 9 at 5:30 for Happy Hour
July 23 at 5:30 for Happy Hour

Remember to bring your own drink for Happy Hour.

Wishing you good health, happiness, and success in the coming year and always.
