Psalm 23

The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want.

God makes me lie down in green pastures,
And leads me beside the still waters—

Reviving my spirit,
And guiding me in paths of righteousness
for the sake of the Divine Name.

Though I walk in the valley of the shadow of death,
I fear no evil; for You are with me.
Your rod and Your staff comfort me.

You prepare a table before me in the presence of my foes.
You anoint my head with oil; my cup overflows.

Surely goodness and kindness shall follow me all the days of my life.
And I shall dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

As We Remember Them

At the rising of the sun
and at its going down,
we remember them.

At the blowing of the wind
and in the chill of winter,
we remember them.

At the opening of buds
and in the rebirth of spring,
we remember them.

At the shining of the sun
and in the warmth of summer,
we remember them.

At the rustling of leaves
and in the beauty of autumn,
we remember them.

In the beginning of the year
and at its end,
we remember them.

When we are weary
and in need of strength,
we remember them.

When we are lost
and sick at heart,
we remember them.

When we have joys
we yearn to share,
we remember them.

When we have decisions
that are difficult to make,
we remember them.

When we have achievements
that are based on theirs,
we remember them.

As long as we live, they too will live;
for they are now a part of us,
as we remember them.
