

Rabbinically Yours By Rabbi Earl Kideckel

Theodore Herzl is often quoted: "Im tirzu, eyn zo aggadah," "If you truly want it, then it is not simply a dream." If there was one motto that truly represents Judy Engel and her presidency here at Congregation Beth El, then perhaps it might be Herzl's vision. For the past two years, and even before as vice-president, Judy has had a dream for our shul and she continually and tirelessly has worked to make it a reality. No matter where she is in the world, even on cruises in the Mediterranean or during intermission while attending a show on Broadway, her focus has been on our congregation.

I first got to know Judy (and Kirk) one on one, at a Saturday evening dinner during my interview weekend almost three and a half years ago. Lisa and I recognized how wonderful Judy (and Kirk) are as individuals. They are so personal, caring and thoughtful. We also realized that Judy would go the extra mile for our congregation. And similar to her predecessor, Kathleen, she truly has led and guided our congregation in a most unbelievable manner.

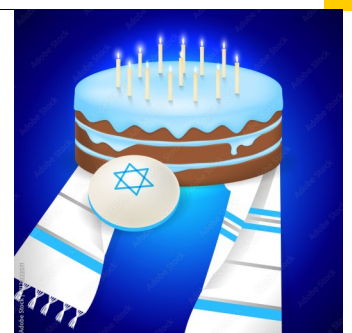

If you were to follow Judy around for twenty-four hours, you might be exhausted. First and foremost is her family. She is often visiting her mother in Amherst, MA, or her daughter and her family in Pittsburgh (with Kirk as her chauffeur). Her other children also have her undivided attention. Then there are all of the other volunteering efforts she and Kirk do to aid other individuals both in communal organizations or just as individuals. How often will I call Judy to find out that she is the middle of driving someone to a doctor's appointment, the grocery store or some other venue.

And then there is us, and we come a close first. Her calendar has been filled with meetings arranging for everything from programming and making sure that a congregant has a wonderful experience, to that of working on our future home and building with committees, the architect, the zoning department in Waterford and other areas. Often, we will talk about a program, and Judy is already making lists of food that she personally does the shopping for, or what the steps are that we need to all engage ourselves in to make the program a success. When just recently, the Holiday Inn erred and booked the room we had tentative reservations for the High Holy Days, Judy immediately put on her thinking cap and invited the High Holy Day Committee to join her at four different locations to check on their viability. And once a decision was made, she immediately secured the Hilton Garden Inn in Groton for Rosh Hashanah, as well as securing the Holiday Inn for Yom Kippur and for High Holy Day Services (if needed) for the following year. She spends countless hours on the phone or walking with our congregants just to get their opinion. And then there is Shabbat mornings, where she often arrives earlier than scheduled to help setup the audio equipment necessary to bring our services to those who are joining us via Zoom. Needless to say, when it was time to move from Crossroads, she quickly made arrangements with Temple Emanu-El to lease their facility for Shabbat morning services and for other events. Most of us do not realize the amount of time, effort and emotional stamina that Judy has put into our congregation. It goes far beyond the traditional shul presi-

Our Mission Statement: The mission of Congregation Beth El is to foster a welcoming, diverse, and egalitarian community within the framework of Conservative Judaism, and to enrich the lives of its members through worship, learning, fellowship, celebration and tikun olam—healing the world.

President's Message

Dear Congregants,

This past month has been an exciting one for Congregation Beth El! We have had parlor talks to share the plans for our new building and to discuss fundraising for this incredible milestone for our congregation. If you are interested in learning more about the new building, please feel free to contact me.

You should know that to get to this point there have been numerous in-person and Zoom meetings. I have sent out so many doodle polls to get the best dates for these meetings that everyone is more skilled at filling them out and have learned to scroll all the way to the right to see all the options. All kidding aside, there has been a lot of behind-the-scenes work to make this building a reality. Many of you have already donated and I hope that everyone donates what they can so that our congregation can last longer, our building can be more beautiful and that we can build it as designed vs. making any more modifications.

Please consider registering for the Stop the Bleed event on June 7th at Temple Emanu-El at 5:00 pm to learn lifesaving skills to stop someone from bleeding. If you are like me, you only know what you've seen on TV or in a movie. We are fortunate that staff from Lawrence and Memorial are willing to come to Temple Emanu-El to teach members of both congregations these skills. This event is co-sponsored by both synagogues, and we can have a total of 40 attendees. So far, we only have 12 registered. Please email me directly to be included in Stop the Bleed. (See all information on page 4.)

We have 3 Shabbat services on the beach scheduled this summer on June 23rd, July 7th, and August 11th. These dates were reserved in February since they book up quickly. Please mark your calendars so you don't miss them. Bring your dairy or pareve dinner to enjoy before services.

We have some incredible talent for the Cantor's Concert on Sunday, June 25th at Temple Emanu-El from 4:00-6:00 pm. Last year's concert was spectacular and this year's promises to be even better, if that is possible. Just search Talya Smilowitz on Google and you will know what I am referring to!

Our Annual Congregational Meeting will be on Thursday, June 29th on ZOOM from 6:30-7:30 pm. This year we will be at the Hilton Garden Inn in Groton for Rosh Hashanah (September 15th-17th) and the Holiday Inn in New London for Yom Kippur (September 24th-25th).

We hope to break ground in October of this year and will have as many events as possible between now and the time we are in our own building. I have chosen to focus on what is ahead to encourage you to mark your calendars vs. rejoicing over what the past month has been. Please help me continue the momentum as we approach this new milestone for our congregation. The anticipation is so exciting! Please come to services and join us at these various events to keep the momentum going!

Respectfully Yours,
Judy Engel
President, Congregation Beth El

dent, and for that we should all be grateful.

On Saturday morning June 10th, we will honor Judy at services for all that she has achieved and all that she has dreamed. I hope you will join us to celebrate Judy, for she truly understands the concept of Herzl, "If you will it, then it is not simply a dream."

Thank you, Judy, and your entire team, for all you have accomplished. And, as we read in the Ethics of the Fathers, Rabbi Tarfon taught what will be Judy's legacy: "It is not for you to complete the task, but you must work valiantly nonetheless," for that dream to become a reality.

Respectfully,
Rabbi K

New London NAACP awards Beth El Member

Jerry Fischer

2023 Champion of Courage Award for his program on "Encountering Differences"

This honor is bestowed annually during the Freedom Fund Dinner hosted by the New London, Connecticut, NAACP.

The Keynote speaker will be the Honorable Congressman Bennie Thompson of Mississippi.

TUESDAY, JUNE 27, 2023 - 6 P.M.

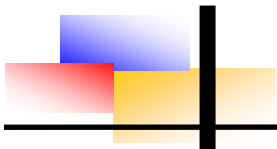

The Ocean Beach Port N Starboard

98 Neptune Avenue, New London, CT

This year's theme is "Our Collective Voices have Power." Greater New London County is a proud military community and the home of the U.S. Coast Guard Academy, the U.S. Navy, General Dynamics, Pfizer and more. Throughout the years, the New London Branch of the NAACP has partnered collectively in its advocacy of our men and women who serve. Inspired by the late Medgar Evers, Congressman Bennie Thompson has been instrumental in reforming the United States Military, making it a more diverse, equitable and inclusive branch of government.

Radical: My Journey Out of Islamist Extremism

by Majid Nawaz

Maajid Nawaz spent his teenage years listening to American hip-hop and learning about the radical Islamist movement spreading throughout Europe and Asia in the 1980s and 90s. At 16, he was already a ranking member in Hizb ut-Tahrir, a London-based Islamist group. He quickly rose through the ranks to become a top recruiter, a charismatic spokesman for the cause of uniting Islam's political power across the world. Nawaz was setting up satellite groups in Pakistan, Denmark, and Egypt when he was rounded up in the aftermath of 9/11 along with many other radical Muslims.

He was sent to an Egyptian prison where he was, fortuitously, jailed along with the assassins of Egyptian President Anwar Sadat. The 20 years in prison had changed the assassins' views on Islam and violence; Maajid went into prison preaching to them about the Islamist cause, but the lessons ended up going the other way. He came out of prison four years later completely changed, convinced that his entire belief system had been wrong, and determined to do something about it.

He met with activists and heads of state, built a network, and started a foundation, Quilliam, to combat the rising Islamist tide in Europe and elsewhere, using his intimate knowledge of recruitment tactics in order to reverse extremism and persuade Muslims that the 'narrative' used to recruit them (that the West is evil and the cause of all of Muslim suffering), is false. Radical, first published in the UK, is a fascinating and important look into one man's journey out of extremism and into something else entirely.

Copies are available at the Waterford Library. All are welcome. Please call or email the synagogue office for the Zoom link if you are not a member of Congregation Beth El, (860) 442-0418 or office@bethel-nl.org.

Next Simcha Shabbat - June 10th - In Person & via Zoom
