

Rabbinically Yours By Rabbi Earl Kideckel

July 2023

As the summer season is now upon us, we are all looking forward to spending time at the beach, time with our families who come to visit us or who we travel to see. It is with that in mind that I ask you to consider the reality of the needs of those who attend our services both on Shabbat and during the weekdays for community. It would be wonderful if you might consider attending services in person on Shabbat mornings and on Zoom the rest of the time.

We are quite fortunate to have Diane Maran as our ba'alat tefilah, who will be leading our services for the last three Shabbat morning services in the month of July. Diane spends a great deal of time preparing and she truly is amazing in how she teaches us and reads Torah during the year. She is actually taking time away from her family that is visiting her, each and every one of these Shabbatot, because our shul services are one of her great loves. So, I am asking you to consider joining her for the Saturday morning services, as well as Cantor Michele Rubenstein, Roz Etra and Faye Ringel, on those three Friday evening services at the end of July when I will be on vacation. Needless to say, Rena Linder always welcomes you with open arms if you join her on weekday evenings.

Once again, we would like to thank Judy Engel for a job truly well done as our outgoing President. Bruchim ha'ba'im, and welcome to our incoming president, Michael Cohen, and 1st VP, Jeffrey Dubins. I know that everyone is appreciative of all that you have done in your roles as 1st and 2nd VP, and that you will do as you take hold of the helm.

Please put on your calendar the many opportunities we have this summer to be together as a congregation for Friday and Saturday services at the beach or at the home of one of our congregants. I know that the community we create has that "unique" feeling of warmth at these in-person events.

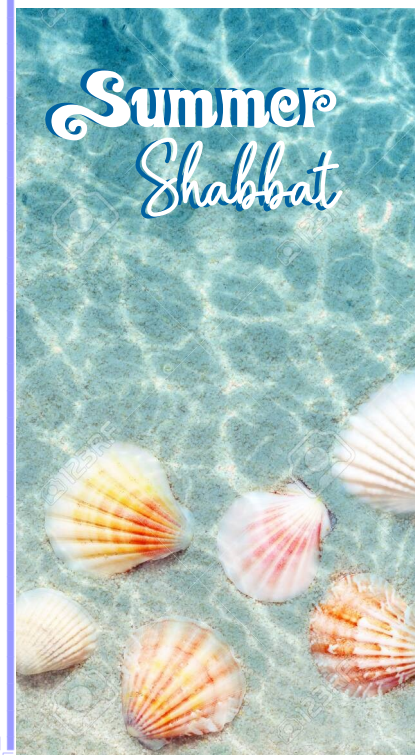

Wishing you a wonderful month of July.

Respectfully,

Rabbi K

Our Mission Statement: The mission of Congregation Beth El is to foster a welcoming, diverse, and egalitarian community within the framework of Conservative Judaism, and to enrich the lives of its members through worship, learning, fellowship, celebration and tikun olam—healing the world.

President's Message

Dear Congregants,

I have enjoyed my 2-year term as your president. My goals included increasing ruach at in-person and Zoom services, to become more comfortable on the bimah, and to move forward on our own spiritual home. I am happy to say that all of these goals have been achieved. We have lots of participation at services and we even get congregants moving to the music! I have become more confident on the bimah when given the honor of an Aliyah, especially with Rena at my side!

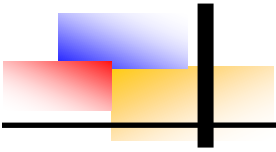

The construction drawings for our new home are being developed so we can submit them for bids and to the Town of Waterford for approval. We have kept the town informed of our plans and expect few or no issues in getting the needed permits. Our property is already zoned for a place of worship and we've had tests done to make sure we conform to the wetland's regulations. We plan to break ground later this year at 33 Kenyon Road in Waterford.

After leaving 660 Ocean Avenue 6 years ago, we looked at numerous properties and buildings, and now we can look forward to moving into our own personalized, spiritual home in 2025. There is still much work to be done, including sorting through the digital images of items that are in storage, continuing to create interesting programs, increasing service participation, and, of course, delicious food. It will be refreshing to be able to schedule programs, services, and food prep whenever we wish.

I have only been able to accomplish all of this with constant communication with Rabbi Kideckel, guidance from our previous presidents and, of course, our support staff of Merrill and Melanie. I also wish to thank all of the members of the board of directors and all of the volunteers who put in many hours to ensure that our services, programs, and other synagogue offerings run smoothly.

As Congregation Beth El moves forward towards this next exciting era, I know that we can look forward to excellent leadership from our next president, Michael Cohen. Michael will bring different skills than I to this position, including his ability to read Hebrew! Of course, just as I have been guided by previous presidents, I will always be ready to help whenever asked.

Respectfully yours,
Judy Engel

Radical: My Journey Out of Islamist Extremism

by Majid Nawaz

Majid Nawaz spent his teenage years listening to American hip-hop and learning about the radical Islamist movement spreading throughout Europe and Asia in the 1980s and 90s. At 16, he was already a ranking member in Hizb ut-Tahrir, a London-based Islamist group. He quickly rose through the ranks to become a top recruiter, a charismatic spokesman for the cause of uniting Islam's political power across the world. Nawaz was setting up satellite groups in Pakistan, Denmark, and Egypt when he was rounded up in the aftermath of 9/11 along with many other radical Muslims.

He was sent to an Egyptian prison where he was, fortuitously, jailed along with the assassins of Egyptian President Anwar Sadat. The 20 years in prison had changed the assassins' views on Islam and violence; Majid went into prison preaching to them about the Islamist cause, but the lessons ended up going the other way. He came out of prison four years later completely changed, convinced that his entire belief system had been wrong, and determined to do something about it.

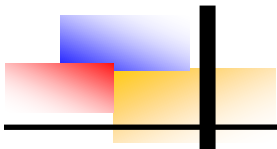

He met with activists and heads of state, built a network, and started a foundation, Quilliam, to combat the rising Islamist tide in Europe and elsewhere, using his intimate knowledge of recruitment tactics in order to reverse extremism and persuade Muslims that the 'narrative' used to recruit them (that the West is evil and the cause of all of Muslim suffering), is false. Radical, first published in the UK, is a fascinating and important look into one man's journey out of extremism and into something else entirely.

Copies are available at the Waterford Library. All are welcome. Please call or email the synagogue office for the Zoom link if you are not a member of Congregation Beth El, (860) 442-0418 or office@bethel-nl.org.
