blue pens he had in his shirt pocket and then said, I guess then I'm supporting Israel too.

I thought for a moment what was the best way to handle the person behind the counter. My first thought was that I don't need to shop here. But then I realized that by walking out of the locally owned store, I was making a different statement, one that might be taken somewhat differently than I intended. And this person was not the owner, just one of the staff. I decided to give her the benefit of the doubt, since I'd had pleasant dealings with her in the past. Perhaps she did agree with the statement, but didn't feel this was the place to even make such a statement. I could accept that fact.

Then again, Jewish history and the current reaction of too many tell me not to make that assumption. For example, in Boston, comedian Dave Chappelle, at the TD Garden criticized Israeli actions in Gaza, calling them "war crimes." More than two hundred of his "no longer" fans stood up and walked out of one of his sold-out shows. Chappelle is just one of the many who deserve to be criticized. As he denounced the roving truck outside of Harvard (and now outside of Columbia University) that lists the names of those at Harvard who have signed a letter deploring Israel, his name and other's now rightfully gain that same infamy.

Here locally, in Groton, one of our congregants just informed me that, in his neighborhood, "FBI, state and local police canvassed our neighborhood today looking for someone with outside cameras who might have recorded a vehicle that last night tossed messages on residential lawns and driveways near us." The message was from the Nationalist Social Club which in all caps described the group as a "PRO WHITE, STREET-ORIENTED FRATERNITY DEDICATED TO RAISING AUTHENTIC RESISTANCE TO THE ENEMIES OF OUR PEOPLE IN THE NEW ENGLAND AREA. THIS TAKES THE FORM OF NETWORKING, TRAINING, ACTIVISM, OUTREACH AND ALL ABOVE ALL, ACTION."

Just the other day I was asked: "How do you define Judaism? Is it a religion or a nationality?" I had to think on how to respond and decided to begin with the fact that I consider myself an American/Canadian Jew.

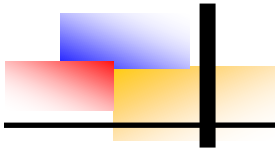

I waited to see how the person might respond, and while they were taking in what I answered, I continued that the noun is my identity. I am a Jew, part of a worldwide group of individuals and community that believe that being Jewish is more than being

Our Mission Statement: The mission of Congregation Beth El is to foster a welcoming, diverse, and egalitarian community within the framework of Conservative Judaism, and to enrich the lives of its members through worship, learning, fellowship, celebration and tikun olam—healing the world.

President's Message

Dear Beth El Congregants,

I have to say that I've been dreading writing this month's President's Message because I can't see how I could be saying "the right things" after such horrific news coming out of Israel following the brutal, genocidal, antisemitic, terror attack of Oct 7. Such platitudes as "my thoughts and prayers go out to all those impacted by this senseless violence" or "I stand with Israel" are just too weak and impersonal to really help. I have to say that I'm very much comforted by the outpouring of support, especially as was on display at the JFEC-organized intercommunity event at Beth Jacob on Oct. 15. Another show of support, for our community, was evident in the combined Beth El/Temple Emanu-El Saturday evening Havdalah solidarity programs. However, I am deeply disappointed and at the same time enraged by the level of support for Hamas, either actively, through protests in many cities around the world, or passively, by those who were quick to issue statements condemning the killing of George Floyd, Putin's war on Ukraine and recent decisions by the US Supreme Court, but who are nonetheless eerily silent about this tragedy. My first thoughts turn to the impassioned plea to Hashem that we invoke immediately following opening the door for Eliyahu during the Pesach seder: "Pour out thy wrath on the nations that know thee not, and upon the kingdoms who invoke not thy name; for they have devoured Jacob, and laid waste his beautiful dwelling."

My thoughts also turn to the response of Israel's allies, such as the historic trip that President Biden made to Israel, and even countries in western Europe who have stood up against supporters of Hamas by prohibiting pro-Palestinian protests, due to the inevitable violence. But I also have to say that I am sick of hearing about Israel's right to defend herself without any substance behind such sentiments. What do they mean? If you and your family are threatened by an armed mugger in a dark alley, are you allowed only to repulse the mugger's attacks, but restrained from taking sufficient action in order to eliminate his threat? And what about "proportionate response"? Have you noticed that this phrase is only used when Israel is involved. And what does this mean? Are we to tally up all the murders, rapes, beheadings, torture and kidnappings, and then inflict that exact amount on some innocent citizens of Gaza? Such absurdity galls me.

No, the actions of Hamas require a severe response from the State of Israel, and, in fact, the entire civilized world, to eliminate their capability to ever do this again. I'm certainly no expert in the geopolitics of the middle East and I can't claim any knowledge whatsoever of military strategy. For this, I rely on the words of our siddur in the Prayer for Israel, asking Hashem to "Guide its leaders and advisors with Your light and Your truth. Help them with Your good counsel. Strengthen the hands of those who defend our holy land. Deliver them; crown their efforts with triumph."

For our community, I sense that this is a time for us to come together. I have already heard several people express this sentiment. I have found this to be true. With all the pain and confusion, it's so important to be with other Jews and commune with our thoughts and feelings. I ask, therefore, for you to come to the various programs that we have going on, and call into the daily minyan and/or come to Shabbat services. You need this as much as the rest of the congregation does.

Respectfully yours,
Michael Cohen, President

a member of a religious entity. Being Jewish is being a part of an evolving religious civilization that has withstood time, all the way back to the time of Abraham and Moses. While other civilizations may have grown, they mostly have crumbled. Despite the fact that we have been exiled from the land of Israel, until the re-establishment of the State of Israel, we have remained intact, no matter what country we have lived in.

Being Jewish is both being part of a religion and a nationality. And, for that reason, the pain that we all feel deep within at this moment is a feeling that no other group can understand or feel. No one can understand how deeply committed we are both to the State of Israel and to the people of Israel. History tells us that being Jewish is an identity deep within our kishkas. No one can understand the important role Israel plays for the Jewish people throughout the world – not only as a homeland, but also as a place of safe haven. As anti-Semitism has now, once again, risen to a level of profound concern, as Jews in America, we need Israel, as much as those who live in Israel need Israel.

Needless to say, we must tell our story and not let others take away that story. Today we learn that fact not only from the Shoah, but also from the current situation in Israel.

Dear God, protect the State of Israel, our homeland, the people of Israel, the Israeli Defense Forces, Jewish people wherever we choose to call home, and please bring home the hostages from Gaza, safely and speedily. Please teach the world that Israel has the right not only to defend itself and provide secure borders, but to seek a reckoning from the Arab world and specifically from Hamas. As we read in the Torah, Hamas, like Amalek, must be thoroughly wiped off the face of this earth.

Dear God, the world must never permit such a heinous crime by a terrorist organization, any white supremacist, or any organization, religion or country, to murder in cold blood innocent Jews (or for that matter anyone else), to not provide us with the protection from hatred, bigotry and actions that may lead to the unspeakable.

And while our minds are so rightfully preoccupied with Israel at this moment, may we remember that we must not allow those who are our enemies to take away our soul. In that regard, please join us to honor our Military Veterans during services on November 11th. We are grateful for their service not only for our country, but for democracy everywhere. Lastly, let me wish you all a Happy Thanksgiving. May you find comfort and joy with the family and friends at that time.

Am Yisrael Chai,

Rabbi K
