Suicide Prevention: A Community Conversation for Saving Lives Sunday, March 27 • 2 pm

Suicide is a word that evokes fear and stigma. Sadly, it happens too often, making it all the more important that we know what to do to prevent it. In this presentation, Dr. Dan Reidenberg, an international mental health and suicide prevention expert, will talk about what we know about suicide, data on how frequently it occurs and in what age groups, which might surprise you. Dr. Reidenberg will share with us some basic tips on how to ask someone about a mental health challenge and suicide, what to listen for and how to respond. He will also give us recommendations on how to support someone who is grieving the loss of a loved one who died by suicide.

Dr. Reidenberg is the Executive Director of Suicide Awareness Voices of Education, Managing Director of the National Council for Suicide Prevention and is a Special Advisor to the International Association for Suicide Prevention.

This talk is made possible through generous support from Dr. Halina Podlipsky and Lynn Katz Danzig & Allen Danzig. Register for this free virtual talk at <https://cutt.ly/Reidenberg>.

This training will be in person at the synagogue and provide valuable information to handle emergency situations. Register at <https://cutt.ly/Run-Hide-Fight-Training>. Contact Jay Ross with questions. Future dates: Tuesday, April 26 and Thursday, May 12 at 7 pm.

May He who blessed our ancestors and is the source of all healing bless and heal those who are ill. May the Holy One Praised Be He mercifully restore them to vigor and lift the burden of anxiety from their loved ones and friends.

On this (Sabbath, Festival, Judgment or Penitence) day we pray that they be spared further pain. May God grant them health of body and health of spirit and mind. May we speedily be privileged to greet their return to good health by welcoming them once again into our midst. Let us say: Amen.

Anyone wanting to add a name to the list should contact Diane Dronzek (dianedronzek@bnaijeshurun.org or 216-831-6555 ext. 104) by Thursday afternoon at the latest for inclusion in that Shabbat's program. We will also pause during the prayer for people to recite additional names.

GCC: Battle for Democracy Action Thursday, April 7 • 7:30 pm • Zoom Only

The Action will also support the work of our Criminal Justice Bind-over Team, which is pushing for changes to the current practice of binding over Cuyahoga County youth to adult incarceration. Turnout for the Action is imperative to show the candidates our strength. Congregations have pledged 308 participants -- a great start!

Sundays: 8:00 am, 6:00 pm

PDF copies of the prayer book are available on our website.

We use the Sim Shalom prayer book for weekdays and Saturday afternoon and the Lev Shalem prayer book for Friday night and Shabbat Morning. The weekly Haftorah is also available. Visit <https://www.bnaijeshurun.org/pray-with-us-shabbat>.

The minyan will always have a minimum of ten participating by stream. Rabbi Weiss has ruled, based on rabbinic and halakhic sources, that – on a temporary, emergency basis, and not as a permanent change – a minyan may be comprised of ten Jews at different locations linked over the internet. Therefore, the services will still include those parts that require a minyan and will fulfill that obligation. This includes the mourner's kaddish.
