FEATURING RABBI MICHAEL COHEN & RABBI EFREM REIS

RABBI MICHAEL COHEN serves as School Rabbi at the Jewish Community Day School in New Orleans. He and his family had just moved to Charlottesville, Virginia in 2017 when the Unite the Right rally took place. He lived near the rally on the block where Heather Heyer was killed and dozens were injured. He witnessed firsthand the response of the Jewish community during and after the rally.

RABBI EFREM REIS is the Assistant Director of the Hebrew Free Burial Association. Efrem's father was a former rabbi of New Light Congregation, a synagogue that was residing at Tree of Life Congregation on October 27, 2018, when it was attacked. In the aftermath of the shooting, Rabbi Reis returned home to spend the days immediately following the attack supporting the Tree of Life community and Pittsburgh Jewish community at large.

From the Rabbi

The words of HaTikvah, Israel's National Anthem, have taken on new meaning in the last 18 days as I write this column as more than 200 Israelis are still held captive in Gaza following the horrific and brutal attacks from Hamas terrorists on Simchat Torah, October 7, killing more than 1,400 Israelis and the weeks following:

As long as the heart of the Jew beats,
And as long as the eyes of the Jew looks eastward,
Then our two-thousand year hope is not lost
To be a free nation in Zion, in Jerusalem.

Our congregation has children, grandchildren, brothers and sisters who are serving on the front lines, living in Israel and connected to those murdered and taken hostage. We are heartbroken, horrified and feel our connection to Israel stronger than ever. Through offering support groups, additional prayer services, hands-on projects, learning series and donation opportunities, we are finding ways here in Cleveland to support our Israeli brothers and sisters and to gather together here in solidarity in order to support one another. I will be restarting my Monday class now at noon virtual only and we will focus on texts, sources and stories from and about Israel. In addition to our programming and additional opportunities, please know that B'nai Jeshurun's clergy are here to support you in any way through this difficult time.

On Simchat Torah, the first day of the attack, we read from Parshat Beresheet and the opening of the Torah. There, the first words G-d said were, "Let there be light." In a world of darkness, G-d called for light and brought light. In our world of darkness, we search for light and help. We will be joining together as a congregation to bring more light to this world by lighting Shabbat candles together in solidarity with Israel. Look for more information, so you can join and add your light with an extra set of candlesticks dedicated to Israel.

Am Yisrael Chai!

President's Message

What words can I use to express the horror, the fury and the nausea I felt after the massacre of 1,400 of our Israeli brothers and sisters in the Simchat Torah attacks? What can I possibly say that hasn't already been said in so many different ways, by so many different journalists and writers far more articulate than I? The answer is, I cannot.

"it's ok not to be ok, and we should all recognize that"

But what I can do is acknowledge that even now, many weeks later, I am not ok. I'm sometimes distracted at work, unable to concentrate with my usual level of focus, as I flit between Israeli news sites, the BBC, CNN and others. How can I focus on quotidian things like what to feed the kids for dinner or who's going grocery shopping when all of Israel is grieving? But I've decided to embrace how I feel and be honest about it—it's ok not to be ok, and we should all recognize that.

And yet during this incredibly difficult time, there have been small, quiet moments that have uplifted my morale. The numerous spontaneous expressions of compassion for me, and of support for Israel, I have received from Gentile clients and business contacts who know I'm an observant Jew. The more than 3,000 views I received on LinkedIn from one particularly poignant re-post I made that humanized for readers what this conflict is all about. And, most of all, the hugs of support I've given and received to my friends in our shul.

This has been hard for all of us—and there is no end in sight. But if we are all there for one another, we will get through it together as a community.

Scott Matasar

Cantor's Corner

The Hebrew month we're currently in is referred to as 'Mar Cheshvan'. Mar means bitter, and this is because after coming through the spiritual high of six holidays all in one month, there is a holiday drought in the Hebrew calendar. Synagogue professionals look forward to this respite from holidays which allows us to refocus on long-term goals and make further plans for the year ahead. I was looking forward to this opportunity to decompress from the holidays until we had a true bitterness thrust upon us: the tragedy of unfolding war in Israel.

It is difficult to wrap my head around the devastation we've all been feeling in the wake of Hamas' terrorist attack that claimed 1,400 lives and the further pain caused by ignorant public responses that have made many Jews feel unsafe. Especially as a grandchild of Holocaust survivors, to see such disregard for human life in my own lifetime is incredibly difficult to bear.

Though there aren't currently any Jewish holidays, the American secular calendar gives us Thanksgiving, and this holiday is certainly in line with Jewish values. It is difficult to imagine holding space for thanks and joy in the midst of such sorrow. But the Sages teach us that even in times of sorrow, joy should not be postponed. We have celebrated many simchas between the tragedy on Simchat Torah and now—baby namings, weddings, b'nai mitzvah—which show us the true meaning of Am Yisrael Chai. So, we continue to keep Israel in our hearts and fervent prayers for peace on our lips. And we can still find things to be grateful for. The friend who made you smile. Watching children learn and grow. A hug from a family member. The security team who keeps us safe. The opportunity to come together in community.

I am teaching an Adult B'nai Mitzvah class starting this month, and if this is a joy that has been postponed in your life, I hope you will consider taking the opportunity to learn as part of a cohort and celebrate your Jewishness through this meaningful milestone. Thank you to the alumni who beautifully led our Sukkot Shabbat service!

Cantor Alyssa Rosenbaum

Adult B'nai Mitzvah Class

Starting this November

Cantor Rosenbaum begins a new adult B'nai Mitzvah class starting this November! The adult B'nai Mitzvah ceremony is scheduled for October 19, 2024 (Chol HaMoed Sukkot). If you have interest in joining this class, please contact Julie Berman by November 3, and we will schedule the class meeting time according to availability. We will cover Torah, Haftarah, Hebrew, prayers, holidays, history, and more in this class. If you haven't yet had the opportunity for B'nai Mitzvah, we hope you'll join!

Testimonial from alumna Judy Hersh: "I had no formal Jewish education. To me, a Bat Mitzvah meant that I could actually read from the Torah and chant, learn the b'rachot and where they go. Becoming a Bat Mitzvah was a wonderful experience that I'll never forget! I felt so good that I could actually accomplish what I set out to do...I never did anything like that where I stood in front of people and spoke, so I gained confidence."

Education & Youth

While the Torah devotes considerable time to telling the story of our ancestors Abraham and Jacob, Isaac's life seems to get short shrift. And yet, if Isaac had chosen a path other than the one his parents, Abraham and Sarah, laid out for him, there would be no Jewish people. Indeed, we know precious little about Isaac's life, but we do know that he felt strongly connected to his past. We read this month in Parashat Toldot that Isaac digs and re-establishes the wells that his father had dug, which had been blocked by the Philistines. He provided water, a symbol of giving life, aspiring to continue the legacy and heritage left to him by his parents.

Our hearts are all heavy with pain at this moment, our thoughts with the families of all those murdered or kidnapped by the Hamas terrorists who unleashed unspeakable evil, desecrating our joyous holiday of Simchat Torah and leaving us all devastated. We are further dismayed by calls for violence against the Jewish community and the increased threat we are all living under.

Sadly, as a people, we have been confronted far too often with enemies who wish to see us destroyed. There are far too many times when antisemitism and violence against us might have pushed our ancestors to disregard their roots and leave the Jewish community. And yet, the story of our forefather Isaac reminds us not to despair. Though there are certainly more prominent narratives in the Torah, it's critical we remember that without people like Isaac, committed to passing on our tradition, all would have been lost. In spite of all of the hardships they endured, our ancestors persevered. Isaac, through the actions in his life, serves as a wonderful model of this perseverance, passing down the traditions of his parents to the next generation in spite of the challenges he faced. May we all be privileged to learn from his example.

Cancelled until further notice.

Midrash: Stories to Live By with Rabbi Joshua Jacobs Thursdays • noon

Midrash is a form of rabbinic commentary that comes in two forms, halakhah (law) and aggadah (narrative). Both, in their own way, offer guidance as to how to live a meaningful Jewish life. In these sessions, we will explore aggadah - the rabbinic tales that have impacted me on a soul level. My hope is that through our learning and discussions together, we will discover stories to live by - stories that stir the soul, inspire growth, and help us find ourselves in our ancient texts. This is a hybrid class and participants are encouraged to come in person. Lunch will be provided; voluntary donations welcome to cover costs.

Havdalah at the Candle Studio

Saturday, November 11 • 7 pm

Havdalah is a beautiful, weekly ritual and feast for the senses as we bid farewell to Shabbat. Join Rabbi Alex and Cantor Rosenbaum for our monthly Havdalah programming beginning in November! Together, we'll bask in the glow of the Havdalah candle, breathe in the scents of the spices and engage our creative energies—through art, song, dance and more!

This month, through the Wellness Center, we will enjoy a musical Havdalah service and then make our own candles at The Candle Studio at Pinecrest! Please register at <https://cutt.ly/iwWAnd28> for a fee of $18, which will go towards aid in Israel. Desserts and beverages will be provided.

Tzedek Committee (formerly Social Justice/GCC)

I'm excited to announce a new name for the Social Justice/GCC Committee. Moving forward we will be known as the Tzedek Committee. This new name reflects the Jewish roots of our work and is easier to say and remember. Much thanks to Rabbi Jacobs for suggesting the name. I am also happy to report that all four of our teams are busy accomplishing important work under the Tzedek umbrella.

The Environmental Action Team is proud to be supporting B'nai Jeshurun in making the transition to composting, through Rust Belt Riders, a local company focused on keeping food waste out of landfills. We have already begun composting at the shul. A program where B'nai Jeshurun members will be able to sign up to bring their home compost to a bin here on site will also be launching very soon. In addition, the team is planning a Tu B'Shevat program, and looking at ways to support recycling and an energy audit. The Food Insecurity Team is hard at work researching the issue, and building connections to ensure our impact in this area is effective. The two teams working through Greater Cleveland Congregations (GCC) continue their important work on organizing and building momentum around criminal justice reform – pre-trial services and youth bind over. There are opportunities to get involved with GCC around non-partisan voter registration and education as well. Early in 2024 we will also host programming focused on exploring the Jewish connections to these issue areas and sharing ways to get involved.

Tzedek always welcomes new members who are interested in any of our team focus areas! We have plenty of hands-on opportunities. We are also happy to have anyone who wants to learn more attend our meetings to see if this is something that might be a good fit. If you'd like to learn more, or join our efforts just reach out to me at cabdab4@sbcglobal.net.

Giving Opportunities

Mahar

Make a Mahar donation today...It's more important than ever!

We recently launched our Mahar campaign to support the operating costs of the synagogue. This campaign continues to be critical to the health and vitality of our synagogue. Your Mahar support will defray the increased costs of maintaining our building, the continued updates to our technology and the virtual and in person programming that brings us spiritual support and community.

B'nai Jeshurun has always been a place where we come to be inspired, to experience the joy of simchas, and where we are comforted in our times of greatest need. Whether you give $18, $36, $50, $100, $1,000...any size donation goes a long way toward making B'nai Jeshurun the vibrant community that we have come to love. Please contact Lorna Siegal (lornasiegal@bnaijeshurun.org or 216-354-0743) to learn more about this special giving opportunity.

B'nai Jeshurun Eight Days of Giving

The 2023 Mahar Hanukkah Challenge
During 8 Days of Hanukkah (December 7 - 15)
100% Match for First 100 Donors!

If 100+ Mahar donations or pledges are made during Hanukkah between December 7 - 15, a group of members will match the first 100 donations dollar for dollar! Yes...a group of donors has made this challenge and the thermometer will track as we count to 100 pledges.

Let's finish strong and build our B'nai Jeshurun community together! Mahar funds go directly to the synagogue's operating budget so we can continue to achieve our goals and operate at full capacity. Contact Lorna Siegal (lornasiegal@bnaijeshurun.org or 216-354-0743) or Joscelyn Harris (joscelynharris@bnaijeshurun.org or 216-354-0745) with your Mahar pledge.

Donor
Match

*This year's Mahar match is sponsored by: Marcia & Alec Berezin, Norma Geller, Theresa & Lee Markowitz, Ellen Kowit-Potter & Steve Potter, Shira Rubinstein Schechtman & Eric Schechtman and Robert & Teresa Zimmerman.

Thank You for Your Thoughtfulness

I wanted to extend a special thank you to the many members who donated to the Lorna and Adam Siegal Synagogue Development Fund in memory of my husband, Adam Siegal. Your generosity and thoughtfulness will always be remembered. Thank you from the bottom of my heart!

Adopting a Ukrainian Jewish Family

The Chesed Committee wants to adopt a Ukrainian mother and her 10-year old daughter, who are of Jewish origin, through The Jewish Federation of Cleveland and Global Cleveland. They also have a small dog. They would love to join the Jewish community of Cleveland. We want to make that possible.

The mother is an interior designer and artist. She works in multiple media, but understands she may need to work outside her field. She speaks some English. In order to support the family's immigration to Cleveland, we need committed volunteers from our B'nai Jeshurun community. We can only do this with your dedicated support! We need volunteers in the following areas:

Housing: a two-bedroom apartment or a home at a subsidized/reduced rate for six months, preferably on a bus line and close to B'nai Jeshurun; help with move in and set up utilities, internet and other household needs; provide casual seating and some bedroom furniture; assist in communicating with landlord

Financial Support: financial support for 3-6 months (any contribution is welcome), please make checks payable to the Chesed Fund/Ukrainian; help set up banking accounts; assist with financial budgeting and planning; facilitate application for social security and other benefits

Food and Clothing: drive to grocery stores once a week; coordinate with local food banks and Kosher Food Pantry; assist in providing clothing (rides to shopping, thrift stores, donations, Chesed Center)

Transportation: get family acclimated to GCRTA and/or help her get Ohio driver's license, car insurance (a car may have already been donated); provide transportation for appointments

Cultural: volunteer as a Russian and/or Ukrainian language interpreter; coordinate with local immigrant support services and Global Cleveland; help integrate into BJC and deepen their Jewish identity

Employment: help find employment; help polish her CV to meet US standards

Educational/Social: enroll the daughter in school; provide emotional support and guidance; welcome the family into our homes for meals and socialization; connect with other Ukrainian immigrant families

Please fill out the online interest form at <https://cutt.ly/UkraineFamily>, or contact Rabbi Jacobs or Rachel Hersh Schwarz (216-470-1198 or rachelschwarz@sbcglobal.net) if you are interested in volunteering.
