Back-To-School BBQ & Shabbat Rocks!

Friday, August 16 • 5:45 pm

Come for dinner and stay for our last Shabbat Rocks! of the season. $10/adult; $6/child; $32/family max; children under two years old are free. Siblings, grandparents, aunts and uncles are all welcome to attend! Register on the synagogue website by August 12.

Shabbat Rocks!

Friday, August 16 • 7 pm

This season has been generously underwritten by
The Jan & Ron Moskowitz Family
Phyllis & Sidney Reisman and Jocelyn & Peter Saltz.

Bring your families to this wonderful evening, with a live band playing some of today's most upbeat Jewish music. You will find yourself tapping your toes, clapping your hands and dancing to these contemporary melodies. Multiple musical genres are woven through the service, highlighting text from each of the Psalms, which creates an energizing and engaging service. A special prayer book offers Hebrew, transliteration and English to make this service user friendly. Listen to and download tracks from our website. Services will be held in the Linden Family Courtyard, weather permitting.

The Zelwin & Freedman Families:

Return to Belarus

Saturday, August 17 • during morning services

Members of the Zelwin & Freedman families traveled to Belarus to trace the footsteps of their family who escaped the Nazis by living in the Naliboki Forest with the Bielski partisans. Robert Zelwin, Harry Zelwin, Ileen Boro and Judy Freedman will share their experiences.

Kosher Food Pantry

Sunday, August 18 • 9:30 am

Sort and pack food at the pantry that will go to families in need. Everyone volunteering should be over the age of 7. Located at 2004 S. Green Rd., South Euclid.

Sisterhood Kickoff Event: Wine Pairing & Food Tasting Sunday, August 25 • noon

Join the ladies of Sisterhood as we socialize with friends, enjoy appetizers and learn about wine pairings. The afternoon will be led by our very own Seth Bromberg, owner of Kantina. $18/2019-2020 Sisterhood member; $24/non-member. You may join Sisterhood the day of the event. RSVP deadline is August 19 at bnaijeshurun.formstack.com/forms/winepairing or send your check payable to B'nai Jeshurun Sisterhood to the synagogue office Attn: Sisterhood. Contact Cathy Randall to learn more (216-408-1926 or crandall218@gmail.com).

Herman Sculpture Dedication Sunday, August 25 • 10 am

Join the family of the late Rabbi Jack & Shoshana Herman(z"l) as we dedicate "Starting a Dialogue", the newest addition to the Berger Family Garden of Togetherness.

Rabbi Herman was the beloved rabbi of Beth Am for 22 years, until his untimely passing in 1969. Rabbi & Shoshana's children, Daniel, Joel and Tamar, will dedicate this beautiful sculpture in loving memory of their parents. The sculpture selection was inspired by one of Shoshana's favorite table-top pieces of art, which was an abstract shofar. "Starting a Dialogue" is a seven foot stainless steel sculpture by contemporary artist Kevin Robb.

Transplant House of Cleveland
Wednesday, August 28 • 5:30 pm

Provide a home-cooked meal for all of the residents. This involves preparing a meal for 20 people at home and bringing it to the Transplant House and then connecting with the residents as they enjoy a family meal together. Volunteers can prepare different parts of the meal so it does not fall on just one person. Located at 2007 E. 115th St., Cleveland. Contact Nikona Thomas to help (216-536-8311).

Security Training for Congregants
Thursday, August 29 • 7 pm

As a follow up to Security Shabbat, we will be holding quarterly security training for our congregation, led by the Pepper Pike Police Department. These sessions will be open to the entire congregation, but will be limited to 40 members per session. RSVP to the synagogue office; contact Jay Ross with questions.

Back by Popular Demand
Sisterhood "BEE J" Honey Sale

This raw, unfiltered honey is produced from the apiary at the home of our congregant, Bobbi Pincus. Her bees are not subjected to toxic chemicals; they forage on herbs, native flowers and tree blossoms. It is approved kosher for home use by Rabbi Weiss. The sale benefits BJC Sisterhood, and is ready in time for the fall holidays, for your table or as a hostess gift.

$8 per 8-oz. bear-shaped jar; limited supply. Orders are filled as paid orders are received with pick up at the synagogue office. Please make checks payable to BJC Sisterhood and mail to Harriet Rosenberg Mann, 23575 Shelburne Rd., Shaker Hts., 44122. Be sure to include your phone number and/or email when ordering. Questions? Contact Harriet (harrietrmann@gmail.com or 216-765-0824).

Office Volunteers Needed

Volunteers are needed to help at the front desk with lunchtime relief. Times can be arranged to conveniently fit your schedule. Both men and women are welcome. We guarantee a friendly, rewarding environment. Please contact Marilyn Greenwald (440-449-2449 or marilynandstuart@gmail.com).

D'var Torah: A Paradoxical Identity
Rabbi Shoshana Cohen, Conservative Yeshiva Faculty

Sefer Devarim (the Book of Deuteronomy) is filled with retellings of earlier stories, and Parashat Devarim begins by retelling one of the most famous and important episodes in Sefer Bereishit (the Book of Genesis): Brit Bein HeBetarim, the "Covenant Between the Parts," when God made this famous promise:

(13) Then the Lord said to Avram, "Know this for certain, that your offspring shall be gerim (strangers) in a land that is not theirs, and shall be slaves there, and they shall be oppressed for four hundred years; (14) but I will bring judgment on the nation that they serve, and afterward they shall come out with great possessions. . . (16) And they shall come back here in the fourth generation; for the iniquity of the Amorites is not yet complete.". . . "To your descendants I give this land, from the river of Egypt to the great river, the river Euphrates, (19) the land of the Kenites, the Kenizzites, the Kadmonites, (20) the Hittites, the Perizzites, the Rephaim, (21) the Amorites, the Canaanites, the Girgashites, and the Jebusites." (Bereishit 16)

In these few verses, we have an abridged version of the beginning of Jewish history, from Avraham through Egypt and into the Land of Israel. When Parashat Devarim nods to this text, we are meant to understand that now is the moment we have been waiting for:

(6) The Lord our God spoke to us at Horeb, saying, "You have stayed long enough at this mountain. (7) Resume your journey, and go into the hill country of the Amorites. . . the land of the Canaanites and the Lebanon, as far as the great river, the river Euphrates. (8) See, I have set the land before you; go in and take possession of the land that I swore to your ancestors, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, to give to them and to their descendants after them." (Devarim 1)

Here the mysterious "iniquity of Amorites" has apparently been resolved, and it is now time for the offspring of Avraham, Yitzhak, and Yaakov to claim the land of the Canaanites.

One of the key features of our story, as told here, in Bereishit, and elsewhere in the Torah, is that we are on the move. On the one hand, we are told that this is our land, the land of our ancestors. On the other hand, we are told that our forefathers came from elsewhere and that our inhabitation of the land will happen after a long period of time; we will first be slaves, wander in the desert, and only later will we enter and settle. Thus at the core of the Jewish narrative, and therefore Jewish identity, we find a paradox. We are native and conqueror, from here and from there, all at the same time.

Enough of the wandering says Moshe here, you have sat here at Horev too long, it is time to enter and settle the land. And yet our formative experiences as a people, in Aram, in Egypt, and at Sinai, all happened when we were wandering strangers.

What does it mean to live with this paradox of native and conqueror? Our dual identity can allow us to be honest about our own power while keeping it in check. Yes, we Jews, in Israel and in the United States, have a lot of power and a strong sense of belonging, but our other role as former slaves reminds us that this power must be balanced with a strong commitment to justice and looking out for those less powerful. As wanderers, we remember what it was like to be weak and on the outside of society, but part of our survival as a people was an ability to stay true to a textual tradition and narrative that never let us let go of a sense that we were one people bound together.

It is critical that we look deeply at these core elements of what it means to be Jewish. It means leveraging our power and sense of security for the sake of those less secure and it means doubling down on our commitment to our language and textual tradition that has kept us together, creative and thriving throughout our generations.

Parashat Devarim Self-Study

Vered Hollander-Goldfarb, Conservative Yeshiva Faculty

We are starting the book of Devarim (Deuteronomy), the fifth book of the Torah. It contains mostly Moshe's final words to the People of Israel including historic narratives, legal material, and Moshe's take on what might happen in the future.

1) The book opens with the statement that "these are the words that Moshe spoke... across the Jordan, in the wilderness...between Paran and Tofel... It was in the 40th year, in the eleventh month, on the first of the month..." (1:1-3). Why do you think the exact location and time of this speech are given?

2) Moshe starts his words with 'God told us to go and conquer the land that was promised to Abraham, Isaac and Jacob...' (1:6-8). At what other points in the story might he have started? Why does he start with this?

3) In recounting the travels on the east side of the Jordan, Moshe mentions the nations that lived there earlier and were conquered "just as Israel did to the land of their possession" (2:9-23). He does not mention events such as Balaam who tried cursing them and instigated the events at Baal Peor (Bemidbar 22-25). What might be his reason for telling the events with this focus?

On Saturday night and on Sunday we will be observing the fast of Tisha Be'Av, commemorating the destruction of Jerusalem and the First and Second Temples. The Book of Eicha, Lamentations, which is read on Tisha B'Av, grew out of the destruction of Jerusalem and the First Temple in 586 BCE.

1) In the opening verses of the first chapter Jerusalem is described as a woman who has been forsaken by those who had been her fans, her friends become her enemies (1:2). How does this image help us understand the trauma experienced by Jerusalem of the 6th century?

2) Chapter 3 is unlike the other 4 chapters. It is made up of short verses spoken in first person. It does not speak of the historic event but rather reads as a stream of consciousness full of (often theological) thoughts. Why do you think that this was placed in the middle of the book?

May He who blessed our ancestors and is the source of all healing bless and heal those who are ill. May the Holy One Praised Be He mercifully restore them to vigor and lift the burden of anxiety from their loved ones and friends.

On this (Sabbath, Festival, Judgment or Penitence) day we pray that they be spared further pain. May God grant them health of body and health of spirit and mind. May we speedily be privileged to greet their return to good health by welcoming them once again into our midst. Let us say: Amen.

Anyone wanting to add a name to the list should contact Diane Dronzek (216-831-6555 ext. 104 or dianedronzek@bnaijeshurun.org) by Thursday afternoon at the latest for inclusion in that Shabbat's program. We will also pause during the prayer for people to recite additional names from their seats.

Kiddush or Oneg Sponsorships

“May He who blessed our ancestors bless those who give funds for kiddush.” (excerpted from A Prayer for our Congregation)

The mitzvah of a donation for sponsorship of a kiddush or oneg is a beautiful way to share the happiness of your milestone or remember a loved one with the congregation. Sponsorships are acknowledged in the Shabbat handout and in Tidings. The cost of a kiddush is $500 and an oneg is $250; partial sponsorships are available and they are tax deductible. Please contact Paula Botkin.
