Guest Speaker Khalilah Worley
Yom Kippur • Nickman Chapel

11 am for teens; after yizkor (12:30 pm) for all

As a teen, Mrs. Worley took action to try and save her school, Martin Luther King, Jr. Law and Public Service, which was on the verge of being closed down while the city was in an uproar over the Cleveland Browns leaving. She left Cleveland because she felt her childhood neighborhood of Central in the late 80's had changed from a safe space into a war zone.

But, when she came back, she met with leaders and realized that GCC was bringing together people who truly wanted to fight for this city. They wanted to prevent other 14 year-olds like her who were already planning their exit route. She will share with us her incredible story of how she has been able to help youth and how her high school experience helped her become a powerful woman and a force to be reckoned with!

Greater Cleveland Congregations (GCC), of which B'nai Jeshurun is a member, is a non-partisan coalition of faith communities and partner organizations in Cuyahoga County working together to build power for social justice. Their areas of top priorities are: Education · Jobs · Health Care · Criminal Justice · Sustainable Food · Gun Violence

Mission Impossible? The Promise of Teshuvah

There is a paradox at the heart of teshuvah, for it promises the impossible: that the past can be undone, that what is broken can be made whole, even that our misdeeds can become our merits. Discover why changes that seem impossible on the intellectual level are entirely possible in the spiritual and moral realm.

Louis Newman has been thinking, teaching and writing about Jewish ideas for over 30 years. One of the country's leading scholars of Jewish ethics, his most recent book is Repentance: The Meaning and Practice of Teshuvah (Jewish Lights 2010).

8:45 pm Havdallah
9:00 pm Guest Speaker Louis Newman followed by Q&A
10:00 pm Dessert Reception and Book Signing
10:30 pm Selichot Service featuring Cantor Aaron Shifman and the B'nai Jeshurun Choir

This program is made possible through the generosity of the R. H. Mohrman Cultural Foundation.

Free and open to the community.
Reservations encouraged, but not required.

Sisterhood "BEE J" Honey Sale

This raw, unfiltered honey is produced from the apiary at the home of our congregant, Bobbi Pincus. Her bees are not subjected to toxic chemicals; they forage on herbs, native flowers and tree blossoms. This honey is approved kosher for home use by Rabbi Weiss, benefits BJC Sisterhood just in time for the hagim and is great for your table or as a hostess gift.

$8 per 8 oz bear-shaped jar. Supply is limited; orders will be filled in order received with pick up at the synagogue office. Please make checks payable to BJC Sisterhood and mail to Harriet Mann, 23575 Shelburne Rd., Shaker Heights, 44122. Make sure to include your phone number and/or email when ordering. Questions? Contact Harriet (harriermann@gmail.com or 216-765-0824).

We welcome your children in the Main Sanctuary!

High Holy Days Learning at B'nai Jeshurun
Monday, August 27 • 7 - 9 pm

Refreshments will be served. All classes are free and open to the community. Enjoy an open library with Dr. Rafi Simon. Presented through the generosity of the Weingold Family.

7 - 8 pm Offerings

The Jewish Art Studio with Marjorie Falk (until 8:30 pm)

Confronting Life's Little Dilemmas with Cheryl Gordon MAT, MSJS

This is a great time of year in which to review how useful Torah can be in helping deal with life's challenges. We'll examine every day dilemmas and the choices we make about things like shopping, disclosing information and even enjoying a Scotch. We will learn how looking through Jewish lenses can help us deal and act.

Laughing, Crying, and a Ray of Light with Rabbi Noah Bickart, PhD, Professor of Jewish & Interreligious Studies John Carroll University

A strange story in the Talmud depicts a famous rabbi having a dream which helps him to understand his place in the world. Through a close reading of this text, we'll begin to prepare for the season of repentance together.

8 - 9 pm Offerings

Genesis and Genes: Ethics, Genetic Engineering, and Jewish Tradition with Aaron Goldenberg, PhD, Associate Professor of Bioethics, CWRU

Should we use genetic engineering to cure diseases? Are GMO foods acceptable? Is it ethical to use genetics to try having "smarter" or more "athletic" children? These are some of the toughest questions facing biomedical ethics today. To answer these modern questions in a Jewish context, we need to go back to "the beginning". This lecture will explore how Torah, and more specifically Beresheet, has helped shape Jewish Bioethics and our responses to new genetic technologies.

Teshuvah without Guilt? with Rabbi Jonathan Berger, Associate Head of School for Judaic Studies and Programs, Gross Schechter Day School

Emotions like guilt can be powerful motivations for teshuvah—they can spur us to repair our relationships, fix our mistakes and become better people. But, what if we look at our lives and don't really feel guilty about our actions? Can there be teshuvah without guilt? We will see what Rambam has to say about the question and discuss how his ideas can help us shape our lives.

Teen Programming

(6th - 12th Grades)

Rosh Hashanah is an opportunity we have each year for teshuvah and a fresh start. Come hear the fascinating stories from immigrants who made their way to Cleveland from Central America in search of a better life for themselves and their families. We will hear about their struggles living as undocumented immigrants.

Our member, Abraham Kay, is the immigration attorney who worked with them to secure their status in the U.S. He will tell us about the court cases and legal challenges they faced.

(9th – 12th Grades)

2nd Day Rosh Hashanah • 10:30 am • Youth Lounge

An informal opportunity for holiday-themed discussion.

Atid Bike Aboard

Sunday, August 26 • 10:30 am

Meet at Century Cycles (1621 Main St., Peninsula 44264) and either rent a bike or bring your own. Board the Cuyahoga Valley Scenic Train and enjoy the ride to the Brecksville Station (approximately 30 minutes) and then ride the seven miles back together.

When our adventure is done, we'll relax at the Winking Lizard. Bike rental is $10 per hour and the train ride is $5. Pay at the event.

Atid Coffee Talk featuring Raymond Towler

1st day of Rosh Hashanah • 11 am

After nearly three decades in prison for a crime he did not commit, Mr. Towler was exonerated on May 5, 2010 with the assistance of the Ohio Innocence Project (OIP).

Come and hear his story. A light nosh will be available. Atid-age non-members will be provided with complimentary tickets.

The goal of the Ohio Innocence Project is to free every innocent person in Ohio who has been convicted of a crime they didn't commit. Their work has led to the exoneration of 27 wrongfully convicted citizens who served a total of more than 450 years behind bars. Their work includes helping develop and advocate for lasting criminal justice reform through legislation as well as launching Ohio Innocence Project University, an active network of student groups at colleges across the state.

Atid is open to all Jewish young adults in their 20s & 30s. RSVP for these events through our Facebook page or contact Shani Kadis.

Family Programming for the Hagim

Family High Holy Day Service

1st Day Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur • 11 am • Halpern Hall

The power of a family experience can add incredible depth of meaning, particularly at a time that holds so much sanctity. These services, led by Rabbi Josh and Alan Goldweber, will allow adults and children to sit together, pray together, and experience the High Holy Days together.

These family services follow the familiar liturgy with a creative approach, opportunities for participation, and most importantly, many special moments that revolve around the family unit. For this reason, we ask that children who attend these services be accompanied by at least one related adult (or have their child join with a friend's family).

Young Children's Holiday Experience

1st Day Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur • 11 am • Gottlieb Auditorium

This holiday experience combines singing, storytelling, movement, unique project stations and the sounds of the shofar to create an enjoyable holiday experience for families with young children.

Young Family Service

2nd Day Rosh Hashanah • 10:30 am • Halpern Hall

Join Rabbi Hal for a special program based on the holiday and full of wonderful surprises for newborns - 1st graders.

2nd - 8th Grade Service

2nd Day Rosh Hashanah • 10:30 am • Gottlieb Auditorium

Join Rabbi Josh for an engaging and informative family service.

At The Crossroads: Jewish Law for Our Time

May He who blessed our ancestors and is the source of all healing bless and heal those who are ill. May the Holy One Praised Be He mercifully restore them to vigor and lift the burden of anxiety from their loved ones and friends.

On this (Sabbath, Festival, Judgment or Penitence) day we pray that they be spared further pain. May God grant them health of body and health of spirit and mind. May we speedily be privileged to greet their return to good health by welcoming them once again into our midst. Let us say: Amen.

Anyone wanting to add a name to the list should contact Diane Shalom (216-831-6555 ext. 104 or dianeshalom@bnaijeshurun.org) by Thursday afternoon at the latest for inclusion in that Shabbat's program. We will also pause during the prayer for people to recite additional names from their seats.

Men's Club Book Group: Gateway to the Moon by Mary Morris
Tuesday, August 28 • 7 pm

This highly acclaimed novel follows the stories of Miquel Torres, a Christian teenager from a small town in New Mexico and his ancestor from Spain, Luis de Torres. Miquel takes a babysitting job for a woman from New York only to discover that many of her Jewish customs and rituals are similar to his family's. Five centuries earlier, we follow Luis' escape during the Spanish Inquisition. Free and open to all. RSVP to Harvey Wasserman (hpwasserman@sbcglobal.net).

Our next selection will be Master of Ceremonies, A Memoir by Joel Grey.

Between Selichot and Simhat Torah, we ask each family to donate non-perishable food for the JFSA Food Pantry. Please do not bring in expired food. Bins are located in Gross Atrium and the school entrance.
