Bring your families to this wonderful evening, with a live band playing some of today's most upbeat Jewish music. You will find yourself tapping your toes, clapping your hands and dancing to these contemporary melodies. Multiple musical genres are woven through the service, highlighting text from each of the Psalms, which creates an energizing and engaging service. A special prayer book offers Hebrew, transliteration and English to make this service user friendly. Listen to and download tracks from our website. Services will be held in the Linden Family Courtyard, weather permitting.

May He who blessed our ancestors and is the source of all healing bless and heal those who are ill. May the Holy One Praised Be He mercifully restore them to vigor and lift the burden of anxiety from their loved ones and friends.

On this (Sabbath, Festival, Judgment or Penitence) day we pray that they be spared further pain. May God grant them health of body and health of spirit and mind. May we speedily be privileged to greet their return to good health by welcoming them once again into our midst. Let us say: Amen.

Anyone wanting to add a name to the list should contact Diane Shalom (216-831-6555 ext. 104 or dianeshalom@bnaijeshurun.org) by Thursday afternoon at the latest for inclusion in that Shabbat's program. We will also pause during the prayer for people to recite additional names from their seats.

Men's Club Book Group: Gateway to the Moon by Mary Morris
Tuesday, August 28 • 7 pm

This highly acclaimed novel follows the stories of Miquel Torres, a Christian teenager from a small town in New Mexico and his ancestor from Spain, Luis de Torres. Miquel takes a babysitting job for a woman from New York only to discover that many of her Jewish customs and rituals are similar to his family's. Five centuries earlier, we follow Luis' escape during the Spanish Inquisition. Free and open to all. RSVP to Harvey Wasserman (hpwasserman@sbcglobal.net).

Our next selection will be Master of Ceremonies, A Memoir by Joel Grey.
