Women of Reform Judaism

Our Sisterhood is an affiliate of the Women of Reform Judaism. Women of Reform Judaism strengthens the voice of women worldwide and empowers them to create caring communities, nurture congregations, cultivate personal and spiritual growth, and advocate for and promote progressive Jewish values.

Women of Reform Judaism, an affiliate of the Union for Reform Judaism, has been the collective voice and presence of women in congregational life since 1913. Comprised of 65,000 women in over 500 sisterhoods, WRJ is dedicated to supporting the ideals and enhancing the quality of Jewish living to ensure the future of progressive Judaism in North America, Israel, and around the world.

What does the Women of Reform Judaism do?

- provides scholarships to rabbinic, cantorial and education students.
- is the founder of the North American Federation of Temple Youth (NFTY)
- produced the groundbreaking book, The Torah: A Women's Commentary, bringing it from vision to reality in partnership with URJ Books and Music.

Sisterhood Membership

Why join Sisterhood?

Whether you're interested in service to the Temple, social action projects, prayer and ritual programs to strengthen Jewish identity for you and your family, or just want to bond with women...Sisterhood is for you! The only requirement is that you are a woman who is a member of the Temple of Israel.

We are the Women of Reform Judaism. Through our efforts, we support our future clergy and our children. Help us reach our membership goal of 100 members this year!
