

High Holiday Service Descriptions

DWECK/BIMBLICH/GUDES�KY SERVICE

This service is conducted from the bima in Dweck Sanctuary, with expanded seating in Bimblich and Gudelsky Halls. This service is led primarily by Rabbi Safra and Cantor Perlman, with Rabbi Berkowitz and Cantor Bolts taking leadership roles on the second day of Rosh Hashanah and at certain points on Yom Kippur. All services from Dweck Sanctuary will be broadcast via enhanced livestream.

GOODMAN ASSEMBLY HALL SERVICE

This service takes place in the large multi-purpose room in the rear of the Lenkin Education and Activities Center and is led primarily by Rabbi Berkowitz and Cantor Bolts, with Rabbi Safra and Cantor Perlman taking leadership roles on the second day of Rosh Hashanah. This service will not be broadcast via livestream.

OUTDOOR EVENING SERVICE IN PARKING LOT

- 8:00 PM on the First Evening of Rosh Hashanah

Service conducted from Lot A with parking available in Lots B and C. While tickets are not required and seats will not be assigned, advance registration will help us prepare appropriately. This traditional service will follow a similar format to the service conducted in Dweck Sanctuary. In the event of rain, this service will be cancelled with an announcement posted at www.bnaisraelcong.org.

Family, Babysitting, and Youth and Teen Opportunities

More details and registration information for the opportunities below will be distributed via email to our families. Advance registration will be required for these services.

FAMILY TOTS EXPERIENCE

- 9:15 AM on the First and Second days of Rosh Hashanah
- 9:30 AM on Yom Kippur

This special experience is designed for children younger than age 5. The one-hour program includes a short service, holiday-appropriate craft activities, and storytime.

BABYSITTING (Ages 2-5)
