Service Locations

Fill out the enclosed seat form to reserve your space in one of the following three ticketed services. Seating is open in any location for the second day of Rosh Hashanah (Sunday, September 17).

DWECK/BIMBLICH/GUDELSKY

Rosh Hashanah (Friday, Saturday, Sunday) and Yom Kippur (Sunday, Monday)

This service is conducted from the bima in Dweck Sanctuary. This service is led by Rabbi Safra and Cantor Perlman, except for the second day of Rosh Hashanah, which is led by Rabbi Berkowitz and Cantor Bolts.

GOODMAN ASSEMBLY HALL SERVICE

Rosh Hashanah Morning (Saturday, Sunday) and Yom Kippur (Sunday, Monday)

This service takes place in the large multi-purpose room in the rear of the Lenkin Education and Activities Center. This service is led by Rabbi Berkowitz and Cantor Bolts, except for the second day of Rosh Hashanah, which is led by Rabbi Safra and Cantor Perlman.

FAMILY SERVICE IN HAYMAN CHAPEL

Rosh Hashanah (Saturday only) and Yom Kippur (Sunday & Monday)

This approximately two-hour service (one hour on Kol Nidre) service will be led by Rabbi Stone and is intended for families with children in elementary school. The service is specifically designed for parents and children to celebrate and experience the holiday together. Content will be age-appropriate, relevant, engaging, and participatory. The format promises to deepen connections to our faith and traditions, while fostering a sense of community among our families.
