MEMORIAL BOOK

2020-2021 | 5781

THANK YOU

to all those who contributed to the production of this booklet by memorializing their loved ones in its pages.

Please feel free to take a copy with you as a memento or to use when reciting personal prayers at the gravesite.

MEMORIAL SERVICE FOR THE DEPARTED

At Yizkor, we pause to remember our loved ones and the legacy that is ours, individually and collectively, through them.

One of the great moral imperatives of Judaism is the responsibility to see ourselves as a continuum of the past. Those who came before us influenced us deeply. Their personalities and their values shaped ours.

But remembering alone is not enough. The act of reciting the Yizkor prayers should be a springboard for our own inner renewal. Through these precious moments of reflection, we realize once again that we, too, are part of an ongoing, powerful heritage that has guided the destiny of many generations.

The challenge inherent in Yizkor is to affirm and utilize the teachings of Judaism as a resource for ourselves, our family, our Synagogue, our community and our society. By such actions, we enhance our own lives most meaningfully. We are also then echoing within ourselves the spirit of all those whose memories remain—at Yizkor and always—as a blessing.

— RABBI JONATHAN A. SCHNITZER

יְיָ מִה־אָדָם וּמִדָּעָהוּ. בְּרִאֲנוֹשׁ וּתְחַשְׁבֶּהוּ:
אָדָם לְהִבָּל דָּמָה. יָמָיו כְּצֶלַע עוֹבֵר:
לְמִנּוֹת יָמֵינוּ בֶּן הַדּוֹעַ. וְנִבְאָ לִבֵּב הַקְּמָה:
פּוֹדֶה יְיָ נַפְשׁ עַבְדָּיו. וְלֹא יֵאָשְׁמוּ כָּל־הַחַסִּים בּוֹ:

Lord, what are we humans, that You have regard for us, Mere mortals, that You take account of us?

We are like a breath,

Our days are like a fleeting shadow.

Teach us to number our days,

That we may attain a heart of wisdom.

The Lord redeems the lives of God's servants;

And those who trust in God shall not feel forsaken.

Biblical verses

Eternal God, in whose eyes a thousand years are but as yesterday, in whose hands are the souls of the living and the dead, in Your sight every soul is precious.

O Lord, from whom we come and to whom we return, strengthen us as we now remember our loved ones who have been reunited with You. Be with us as we consecrate this hour to the memory of our departed.

שִׁי־וִי יְיָ לְנִגְדֵי תָמִיד. כִּי מִי־מִי־נִי בַל־אֲמוֹט:
לְכֹן שָׁמַח לִבִּי וַיִּגַּל כְּבוֹדִי. אֶף־בְּשָׂרִי יִשְׁכֹּן לְבֶטַח:

Shi-viti Adonai l'negdi tamid, ki mi-mi-ni bal emot.

Laheyen somah libi va-yagel k'vodi, af b'sari yish-kon la-vetah.

I have set the Lord before me always,

God is at my right hand; I shall not fail.

Therefore my heart rejoices, my whole being exults,

And my body rests secure. Psalms 16:8-9

WE REMEMBER THEM

At the rising of the sun and at its going down,
we remember them.

*At the blowing of the wind and in the chill of winter,
we remember them.*

At the opening of the buds and in the rebirth of spring,
we remember them.

*At the shining of the sun and in the warmth of summer,
we remember them.*

At the rustling of the leaves and in the beauty of autumn,
we remember them.

*At the beginning of the year and at its end,
we remember them.*

As long as we live, they too will live; for they are now a part of us,
as we remember them.

*When we are weary and in need of strength,
we remember them.*

When we are lost and sick at heart,
we remember them.

*When we have joy we crave to share,
we remember them.*

When we have decisions that are difficult to make,
we remember them.

*When we have achievements that are based on theirs,
we remember them.*

As long as we live, they too will live: for they are now a part of us,
as we remember them.

A Psalm of David

Adonai is my shepherd, I shall not want.

God gives me repose in green meadows, and guides me over calm waters.

God will revive my spirit and direct me on the right path—for that is God's way.

Though I walk in the valley of the shadow of death, I fear no harm, for You are at my side.

Your staff and Your rod comfort me.

You prepare a banquet for me in the presence of my foes: You anoint my head with oil, my cup overflows.

Surely goodness and kindness shall be my portion all the days of my life, and I shall dwell in the house of Adonai forever.

May the memories of our loved ones inspire us
To seek in our lives those qualities of mind and heart
Which we recall with special gratitude.

May we help to bring closer to fulfillment
Their highest ideals and noblest strivings.

May the memories of our loved ones deepen our loyalty
To that which cannot die—
Our faith, our love, and devotion to our heritage.
As we ponder life's transience and frailty,
Help us, O God, to use each precious moment wisely,
To fill each day with all the compassion and kindness
Which You have placed within our reach.
Thus will the memories of our loved ones abide among us
As a source of undying inspiration and enduring blessing.

THE GIFT OF MEMORY

We thank You, O God of life and love,
For the resurrecting gift of memory
Which endows Your children, fashioned in Your image,
With the Godlike sovereign power
To give immortality through love,
Praised be You, O God,
Who enables Your children to remember.
