
TORAH IN A BOX - LEVELS OF CHARITY ANSWER KEY BASED ON RAMBAM

(C) You give someone a loan or find work for him/her so that he/she will not need to ask for help in the future.

(E) You give charity without knowing who you're giving to and without the recipient knowing who the giver is.

(A) You know who you are giving to, but the recipient doesn't know who the giver is.

(D) The recipient knows you gave to him/her, but you do not know the recipient's identity.

(G) You give charity without being asked, but you give it directly to the poor person, potentially embarrassing him/her.

(B) You give directly to the recipient, as much as you can, but only after being asked.

(H) You give with a smile even though it is not enough.

(F) You give charity, but only because you are forced to do so.
