Temple Emanu-El Library Presents a Special Zoom Program Open to All!

Monday, July 18th, at 7:00 pm

Mindfulness has become an important tool in education. Starting at a young age, children can learn to benefit from a mindfulness practice both in the classroom and in their daily lives. Gratitude is an integral part of this practice, and it helps children to learn how to be thankful for all they have in their lives.

Grateful Kids is a book that shares reflections from students and teachers who have incorporated a mindfulness practice in their lives. Co-authored by Russ Terry and Peter Franklin, contributors have written a chapter to share their discoveries through mindfulness and gratitude.

Temple member, Rachel Perrella, second grade teacher at Tower school, is a contributing author to this book. She has worked closely with Peter Franklin, Mindfulness Educator and Swampscott High School English teacher, to introduce and establish a culture of mindfulness at Tower. Her chapter talks about her work with second graders with mindfulness and gratitude, and how it affected the kids and the atmosphere in her classroom. She continues to practice mindfulness and gratitude with her students, and she is the Mindfulness Coordinator at Tower School.

Please join Rachel Perrella and Peter Franklin on Zoom, as they share their experiences with mindfulness in an educational setting and discuss the positive outcomes observed in their students and in their schools.

Temple Emanu-El Library & Book Group present a special Zoom program open to all!

Monday, August 1st, at 7:00pm

Join author and Temple member, Robert Cocuzzo, as he leads a discussion with Rabbi Meyer about his new book:

THE ROAD TO SAN DONATO: Fathers, Sons, and Cycling Across Italy.

This adventurous travel memoir of an American father and son tracing their Italian heritage by bicycle leads them to the village from which their family emigrated. The Fascist regime had interned dozens of Jews in San Donato. Some in the village sought to protect the Jews, while others sided with the Fascists. Rob had to know: to which camp did the Cocuzzo family belong?

We extend our gratitude to Rob Coucuzzo and Rabbi Meyer for offering to share this captivating chronicle. Everyone is welcome!

Ways to Remember

At Temple Emanu-El, there are many ways to honor, celebrate, and remember dear friends, family, and past loved ones.

Memorial/Yahrzeit Wall

It is a widely observed Jewish tradition to commemorate the passing of a loved one by remembering them on a dedicated Memorial Wall. The Temple Emanu-El Memorial Wall contains a plaque with the name and date of passing. Additionally, and in keeping with the ancient Jewish custom of honoring departed ones with a stone on a marker, each plaque also has a carrier where you can place a tumbled stone on anniversary dates, or anytime at all! Your loved one's name is read at time of yahrzeit in perpetuity.

Memorial plaques ask for a donation of $750.

Tree of Life

1

Located in our lobby, the Temple's welcoming Tree of Life gives all who wish an opportunity to celebrate life's joyful blessings in perpetuity by inscribing them on one of its beautiful leaves or rocks. Celebrate your simcha - weddings, births, B'nei Mitzvah, anniversaries, graduations, milestones.

Honor someone you love - children, parents, family, friends, teacher.

Tree of Life leaves and rocks ask for a donation of: $500 - $10,000.

Bookplates

Temple Emanu-El also offers several opportunities to remember your loved ones with the dedication of a book to the Temple Library or prayer book used at our weekly Shabbat service, a High Holyday machzor or Torah commentary. All books contain a tribute bookplate honoring and celebrating your loved one's name.

Bookplates ask for a donation of: $36 - $100.

To learn more about any of these forms of remembrance, please contact Temple Director Jaime Meyers at 781-631-9300 or jmeyers@emanu-el.org.
