"Two are better than one..." teaches the Biblical Book of Ecclesiastes, "for if they fall, one will lift up the other."

In our Jewish traditional wisdom, as in the writings of other ancient cultures and contemporary philosophies, the value, nature and meanings of "friendship" occupies an important place. From the Bible we read of the friendship between David and Jonathan, who's souls were "knit together" as one, reflecting the wisdom from the Book of Proverbs, "There are friends that one has to his own hurt; but there is also a friend that sticks closer than a brother."

Our traditional sources speak frequently of the extreme importance of friendship in our lives. The Talmud reflects that "I have learned much from my teachers, but from my friends I have learned more than from my teachers." Likewise, from the Talmud we receive the poetic dictum, "O havruta o mituta", translating as "Either friendship or death"! And finally, we learn, "If your friend calls you a [donkey], put a saddle on your back!"

The medieval giant of Jewish thought, Maimonides, considered that there are three types of friends: a friend who is useful for our needs, such as in business or social life; a pleasant friend, one whose company we enjoy and who shares our interests; and finally that more rare sort of friend who ethically inspires and instructs; that is, who helps us develop our finest moral qualities and helps us become better men and women.

When discussing study and learning, our sages recognized that "Two scholars sharpen one another." And so, over the generations there has developed an approach to study known by the Aramaic term for friendship, "Havruta". Havruta technically means studying lessons in pairs, or more precisely, with a friend, and it is the most common approach to classroom study in yeshivot and other halls of learning around the world.

Even beyond the study halls and classrooms, havruta as an approach for experiencing and enriching our Jewish lives – spiritually, socially or intellectually – continues to be a valuable strategy. That is why (as you can read elsewhere in this month's Temple Bulletin) we're planning on having something of a Havruta Week, encouraging our Temple members to broaden their experiences by inviting a friend to join them – especially friends who may not already be Temple members. The activities during the week cover a wide range of Temple programs and activities, including worship services, social gatherings, Torah learning, community service, and even our famous annual "Chocolate Seder" (sorry – just for our Religious School students, families and their havruta!).

Perhaps one final text might offer the most meaningful justification for our reaching out in havruta. We read in Pirke Avot: "Whenever two sit together in study, the Shechina (God's indwelling presence) abides among them." So, it is our hope that bringing our friends to join us in our study, worship, and good deeds will also bring the awareness of God's Presence dwelling among us.

WORLD ZIONIST CONGRESS VOTE

The 38th World Zionist Congress is scheduled to meet in Jerusalem from October 20-23, 2020. In advance of that meeting, elections will be held between January 21 to March 11, 2020 IN ORDER to determine the size of the various delegations to the Congress. Those elected from the United States will join delegates from Israel and around the world at the 38th World Zionist Congress in October to make decisions regarding key institutions which allocate nearly $1 Billion annually to support Israel and World Jewry (including the World Zionist Organization, Jewish National Fund and the Jewish Agency for Israel).

OUR REFORM MOVEMENT BOTH HERE AND ABROAD HAVE LAUNCHED A VOTER REGISTRATION EFFORT TO ENCOURAGE OUR MEMBERS TO "VOTE REFORM", IN ORDER TO ASSURE THAT THE VOICE OF PROGRESSIVE, PLURALIST CAUSES IN ISRAEL RECEIVE ADEQUATE AND PROPER FUNDING GOING FORWARD.

Registration and voting will open on January 21, 2020. The fee to register and vote is $7.50, which covers the administrative costs of running the election (anyone age 25 and under pays $5.00). During this voting period, Temple Emanu-El is hoping to have a voter registration table available at all congregational events. We are soliciting volunteers to serve, guide and facilitate this effort. please speak with Rabbi Meyer, Jaime or Claudia if you are interested in helping.

FROM OUR TEMPLE EDUCATOR

RABBI ALLISON PEISER

Dear Families,

March is an incredibly exciting month for the religious school! Not only are there five Sundays in March, each day of this thirty-one day month is an opportunity to win a prize from our calendar raffle! Don't forget that you can still sell and purchase entries for the raffle. We will begin the raffle with the first drawing at Sunday School on March 1st. We hope that this will be a fun way to return to school after February break. Then on March 8th we have our Purim Carnival. Please encourage your friends and families to come! The carnival will be from 11am-1pm instead of our usual 9am-11:30am meeting time. Don't forget that our clocks spring forward an hour that day.

Our fourth grade students will be leading the Shabbat morning service on March 14th. Then on March 15th, our Confirmation and Post-Confirmation students will be taught by the "Journey to Safety" of JF&CS. Parents of students in these programs should look out for more information.

Finally, on March 29th, all parents of children in the religious school programs at Temple Emanu-El are invited to an open forum. We are going to focus on "what needs Temple Emanu-El serves in your life." While part of the conversation will be listening to your perspectives on content and formatting of the religious school programs at TEE, we also want to hear about your interests as parents. Are there learning/socializing/other opportunities you would like TEE to provide for you? The conversation will be facilitated by our Education Team, which includes Jodi Kerble, Kate Aikman, Luisa Boverini, and Melanie Kaplan. Your input will help us plan for the 2020-2021 academic year.

After March, the school year will begin to wind down. We have a Family Education program on April 5th. Students are encouraged to bring their friends to learn more about Passover and participate in a Chocolate Seder! Then on April 12th we will have another fun Passover-themed day. Our final day of Sunday School will be on May 3rd and will include classes in the morning and a closing assembly at 11am.

Our students will be introduced to the following letters and Jewish Life Vocabulary words in the month of March:

March 1 st	Letter is "Vav" ו	Word: "V'tzivanu" וְצִוָּנוּ	Commanded us (used in blessings related to "mitzvot" or commandments like candle lighting)
March 8 th	Letter is "Pay" or פ	Words: "Purim" "Pesach" פֶּסַח וּפִּרְיָם	Holidays
March 15 th	Letter is "Zayin" or ז	Words: "Z'ro-a" and "Oznei Haman" אָזְנֵי הָמָן וְזֵרוּעַ	Shankbone (for Passover) and Hamantaschen in Hebrew (literally Haman's ears)
March 22 nd	Letter is "Tzadee" or צ	Words: Matzah and Hametz חֻמֶּץ וּמַצָּה	Passover terms. Hametz is bread or other items forbidden for eating on Passover. Instead we eat Matzah.
March 29 th	Letter is "Dalet" or ד	Dayeinu and Haggadah הַגְּדָה וְדֵינוּ	Dayeinu: a song included in the Passover seder meaning "it would be enough." Haggadah is the book we use on Passover which also means "telling"

I look forward to seeing you several times in the month of March!

ANTISEMITISM: HERE AND NOW

Dear Temple Members,

In response to a Community Call-to-Action against Antisemitism, Temple Emanu-El is participating in the Community Read of Deborah E. Lipstadt's new book Antisemitism: Here and Now. (Rabbi Meyer referenced Dr. Lipstadt's book during the recent High Holydays.) Facilitated discussions will take place in March at a number of North Shore locations. In addition, a live presentation by the author will take place on Tuesday, May 19, 7:30 pm at a North Shore location to be announced.

I invite you to read this important and timely book about antisemitism and attend a facilitated discussion about the book here at the Temple on Monday, March 16th at 7:00pm. The first 25 people to register for the facilitated book discussion will receive a complimentary copy of the book, while supplies last, thanks to the Holocaust Legacy Foundation and co-directors Jody Kipnis and Todd Ruderman. There is a one-book limit per family.

Please RSVP to the Temple Office (781-631-9300) to register for the book discussion. If you are one of the first 25 to RSVP, you will be notified about the free copy of the book and where you can pick it up.

If you are a member of a private book group, please suggest this book for one of your meetings. To find out if your book group is eligible to receive free copies of the book, contact dcoltin@lappinfoundation.org or call Debbie Coltin at 978-740-4428.

INTRODUCTION TO “L’CHAYYIM” (To Life) – A Holocaust Memorial Project of Temple Emanu-El

“L’Chayyim” is a project to help us remember and honor those six million lives lost in the Holocaust, and to ask the community of Temple Emanu-El to turn this tragedy into help for the living. The project is based on the book conceived by P. Chernofsky (Jerusalem, 2013/5773), And Every Single One Was Someone.

The project is housed in our Temple Library, where instructions on how to participate are also located. Thanks to our member, Laurel Dolan, for organizing and maintaining this lovely and meaningful program.
