Memorial Park

Our Holy Ground

MYTHS AND FACTS:

May someone with a tattoo be buried in our Memorial Park?

What do the Jewish sources teach?

A study of our sources, from the Torah through the Talmud, Commentaries and Codes, makes it rather clear that Jewish tradition opposes tattooing, the making of elective and permanent alterations on the skin. The earliest reference to such opposition comes from Leviticus 19:28, where we are told that one should not slash the body as a mark of mourning for the dead, and one shall not make tattoos on one's skin (the term used for tattoo is וְכַתְּבָתָּ קֶעֱקֶעַת ketovet ka'akah). Later sages maintain the principle, even though its origins may have been part of the Bible's ongoing opposition to idolatry, as such markings and gashes were often associated with allegiance to a god or idol.

But even an in-depth exploration of the customs (Minhagim) of Jewish practice shows no evidence that the transgression of tattooing would disqualify one from burial in a Jewish cemetery. As Rabbi Solomon Freehof wrote in Today's Reform Responsa (1990) "[T]he idea seems so absurd that I doubt if it can be seriously meant even by those who say it. What if a person does tattoo his skin? He has committed a sin, one sin among the 365 negative commandments. Is there any rule that a man who commits a sin may not be buried in the Jewish cemetery? If that were a rule, the cemeteries would be virtually empty."

Taking it a step further, were such a prohibition in force, what would that mean for Holocaust survivors, whose numbers were inscribed in the flesh of their arms by the Nazis upon arriving to the camps? And likewise, what would be the sense in prohibiting burial in our Jewish cemeteries for those who have had tattoos as part of certain reconstructive surgeries?

In conclusion, the idea (or "urban legend") that having tattoos disqualifies one from burial in Jewish cemeteries, including our Memorial Park, may be dismissed as one of those myths that seem to find their way into the popular imagination.

Movie Night:

Movie Night meets on the first Wednesday of every month. Watch the movie on Netflix or Amazon Prime, and then join us on Zoom for a discussion.

On Wednesday, April 6th, at 7:00 pm, the Jewish Music Neighborhood will join Movie Night! There's nothing to watch in advance. Jon Nelson will provide accompanying clips and lead a discussion of the Beatles Let It Be recording sessions and their rooftop concert. Jon's enthusiasm is a gift to cherish.

For Wednesday, May 4th, at 7:00 pm, we'll discuss the Netflix film, The Unforgivable.

Released from prison into a society that won't forgive her, a woman convicted of murder searches for the little sister she was forced to leave behind.

Mah Jongg:

Tuesday nights at 7pm via Zoom

For all ages and levels of experience!

We will use Real Mah Jongg, either the app or website: realmahjongg.com and be together via Zoom.

2022 Mah Jongg cards should arrive in early April. Feel free to contact Amy Saltz at 781-718-0477 if you need help getting one or have any questions about the new hands.

The Rent Collector by Camron Wright

The Rent Collector is a story of hope, of one woman's journey to save her son and another woman's chance at redemption. It demonstrates that even in a dump in Cambodia--perhaps especially in a dump in Cambodia--everyone deserves a second chance.

PAPA's NUT GAME

A Fundraiser for Temple Emanu-El

Did you know that playing with walnuts at Passover has been a common practice for centuries? The walnut after all, is a traditional part of the Seder plate, used in making the charoset. The Talmud mentions that Rabbi Akiva handed out nuts to the children at Pesach so that they would play with them and not fall asleep during the Seder. In an essay by Yiddish scholar Itzik Gottesman, titled Nut Games for Passover, he described 8 different traditional nut games that were played at Passover in Eastern Europe. A well known song by contemporary Israeli children opens with the line, "We will play with walnuts, Pesach is here." Larry Block's family grew up with the tradition of playing the "bret" nut game that his Papa played as a child in Dvinsk, now part of Latvia. In this game, walnuts are rolled down a board and onto the floor, with the goal of hitting one of the nuts previously rolled. A fun, "good old fashioned" family game, toddlers can play against grandparents, and win!

Larry has hand-crafted, and for $35 is selling "Papa's Nut Game," complete with a folding wooden box that becomes the board, rules and terminology, and of course, bags full of walnuts. Between now and Passover, all proceeds from the sale to Temple Emanu-El members will be donated to the Temple. If interested in purchasing "Papa's Nut Game" for your family's enjoyment and to rekindle an old tradition at Passover, contact Larry at larryblock55@gmail.com. Check out more details at www.facebook.com/papasnutgame.

Welcome the Stranger

We have welcomed a new family of four from Afghanistan to our community and they need our assistance.

Do a Mitzvah by:

- Making a donation through Venmo: @WelcometheStranger
- Donating Target gift cards for household items and clothes
- Helping the father get started in the plumbing or HVAC field (He's fluent in English. We're looking for a plumber who knows the process, or can hire an apprentice, and recommend what classes he will need to take)
- Volunteering to drive the family to the grocery store and the mosque once a week
- Helping with English tutoring
- Showing the family the public transportation system in the area, as well as take them on errands, since they don't have a vehicle
- Translating and tutoring are needed, if anyone speaks Farsi.
- If you can assist in any of these areas, please email Deahn Leblang at deahnlee@gmail.com.

Ways to Remember

At Temple Emanu-El, there are many ways to honor, celebrate, and remember dear friends, family, and past loved ones.

Memorial/Yahrzeit Wall

It is a widely observed Jewish tradition to commemorate the passing of a loved one by remembering them on a dedicated Memorial Wall. The Temple Emanu-El Memorial Wall contains a plaque with the name and date of passing. Additionally, and in keeping with the ancient Jewish custom of honoring departed ones with a stone on a marker, each plaque also has a carrier where you can place a tumbled stone on anniversary dates, or anytime at all! Your loved one's name is read at time of yahrzeit in perpetuity.

Memorial plaques ask for a donation of $750.

Tree of Life

Located in our lobby, the Temple's welcoming Tree of Life gives all who wish an opportunity to celebrate life's joyful blessings in perpetuity by inscribing them on one of its beautiful leaves or rocks. Celebrate your simcha - weddings, births, B'nei Mitzvah, anniversaries, graduations, milestones.

Honor someone you love - children, parents, family, friends, teacher.

Tree of Life leaves and rocks ask for a donation of: $500 - $10,000.

Bookplates

Temple Emanu-El also offers several opportunities to remember your loved ones with the dedication of a book to the Temple Library or prayer book used at our weekly Shabbat service, a High Holyday machzor or Torah commentary. All books contain a tribute bookplate honoring and celebrating your loved one's name.

Bookplates ask for a donation of: $36 - $100.

To learn more about any of these forms of remembrance, please contact Temple Director Jaime Meyers at 781-631-9300 or jmeyers@emanu-el.org.
