What's new in our Temple Library:

Feel free to contact Amy Saltz at 781-718-0477 to make arrangements to borrow or return items.

Our Librarian and Temple member, Amy Saltz, has written and published a third book entitled: THE SONG ENDURES: Drumming With a Different Beat.

Amy R. Saltz is the author of two award-winning books written before the pandemic. An Essential Song is an illustrated metaphorical story about love, loss, reclamation, and healing.

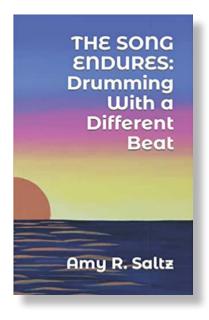

FINDING THE SONG: Living After Attempting Suicide shares how the author worked towards living a full and meaningful life after being maimed by a suicide attempt.

Amy has written a third book during the pandemic. THE SONG ENDURES: Drumming With a Different Beat deals with trauma in an effort to move from hopelessness to wholeness. Each chapter of the book is the name of a type of drum that represents the content being recounted. The author seeks to find rhythm with the reader so that it might be possible to drum with the beat of life.

All three of Amy's books are available on Amazon in paperback and Kindle.

Click on the book covers to view them on Amazon.

An Essential Song

Darkness and light in the forest and at the sea

FINDING THE SONG: Living After Attempted Suicide

This book is the comprehensive nonfiction version of the author's award-winning metaphorical story, An Essential Song.

THE SONG ENDURES: Drumming With a Different Beat

Dedicated to Healers: Trauma Specialist Sandra Phinney (of blessed memory), Bereavement Counselor Judy Seifert (of blessed memory), Physician Harvey Zarren

Infants to Young Children: Language & Literacy Development Workshop (via Zoom)

December 15th at 1pm, led by Emmie Foster

We are delighted to have Emmie Foster, a member of our extended community, present a workshop to teach caregivers of babies and young children simple strategies that they can use to help their child(ren) begin to acquire language and early literacy concepts. This workshop will be great for anyone who cares for infants, toddlers, and young children. Parents, grandparents, nannies, and babysitters are all welcome. Please RSVP!

Emmie Foster has been an elementary school teacher (most recently first grade in Brookline Public Schools) for the past 8 years. While caring for baby Maya, she is currently studying to become a literacy specialist and is enrolled in a graduate program through MGH Institute of Health Professions.

Movie Night:

First Wednesday of every month. Watch the movie on Netflix or Amazon Prime, and then join us on Zoom for a discussion.

Mango Dreams (on Amazon Prime) Wednesday, December 1st, at 7pm via Zoom

A Hindu doctor with dementia and a Muslim auto rickshaw driver form an unlikely friendship as they cross India in search of the doctor's childhood home.

For Wednesday, January 5th, we'll discuss the Netflix film Worth.

In Washington, DC, lawyer Kenneth Feinberg battles cynicism, bureaucracy, and politics to help the victims of 9/11. The movie tells the true story of the events after September 11, 2001, when a man was tasked with setting a dollar value on the lives lost.

Mah Jongg:

Tuesday nights at 7pm via Zoom

Fun for all ages and levels of experience!

We will use RealMahJongg, either the app or the website: realmahjongg.com and be together via Zoom! Players can either play in groups of 4, 3, 2 or 1 and the computer can fill in. Click below to visit realmahjongg.com.

Play Mah Jongg!

Be on the lookout for Amy Saltz's email reminding you to order your 2022 card.

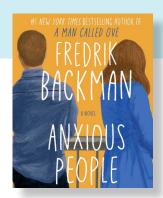

Please note that we will not be playing Mah Jongg on the second Tuesday of the months of December through March so there won't be a conflict with Rabbi's classes. This means that for December we won't be playing on December 14th.

Temple Book Club:

December 6th at 7:00pm via Zoom

Did you know Temple Emanu-El has a book club? Join us Monday, December 6th at 7pm on Zoom. All are welcome to join!

Ways to Remember

At Temple Emanu-El, there are many ways to honor, celebrate, and remember dear friends, family, and past loved ones.

Memorial/Yahrzeit Wall

It is a widely observed Jewish tradition to commemorate the passing of a loved one by remembering them on a dedicated Memorial Wall. The Temple Emanu-El Memorial Wall contains a plaque with the name and date of passing. Additionally, and in keeping with the ancient Jewish custom of honoring departed ones with a stone on a marker, each plaque also has a carrier where you can place a tumbled stone on anniversary dates, or anytime at all! Your loved one's name is read at time of yahrzeit in perpetuity.

Memorial plaques ask for a donation of $750.

Tree of Life

ELEN

THE REAL PROPERTY.

Located in our lobby, the Temple's welcoming Tree of Life gives all who wish an opportunity to celebrate life's joyful blessings in perpetuity by inscribing them on one of its beautiful leaves or rocks. Celebrate your simcha - weddings, births, B'nei Mitzvah, anniversaries, graduations, milestones.

Honor someone you love - children, parents, family, friends, teacher.

Tree of Life leaves and rocks ask for a donation of: $500 - $10,000.

Bookplates

Temple Emanu-El also offers several opportunities to remember your loved ones with the dedication of a book to the Temple library or prayer book used at our weekly Shabbat service, a High Holyday machzor or Torah commentary. All books contain a tribute bookplate honoring and celebrating your loved one's name.

Bookplates ask for a donation of: $36 - $100.

To learn more about any of these forms of remembrance, please contact Temple Director Jaime Meyers at 781-631-9300 or jmeyers@emanu-el.org.
