Reasons Not to Miss the Temple Emanu-El Telethon

Sunday, January 31, 2021
Starting at 5pm

1. It's an absolutely GREAT way to show Temple Emanu-El your love and support!

2. It's a Sunday in January, are you really that busy?

3. Discover your neighbor has a hidden talent you never knew about!

4. It's our first-ever Telethon - you know you need to watch.

5. Chance to bid on some one-of-a-kind auction items!

6. Where else can you see your Rabbi in a Tux?

7. Fun entertainment for all age groups.

8. No need to sanitize or quarantine before or after!

9. No mask is required; enjoy viewing from the comfort of your home!

10. Attendance is free, just click in!

What’s new in the Library:

Hello Darkness, My Old Friend
by Sanford D. Greenberg

How daring dreams and unyielding friendship turned one man’s blindness into an extraordinary vision for life.

Let Love Rule
by Lenny Kravitz

The new memoir by Grammy Award-winning artist, Lenny Kravitz, shares his life of opposites—including black and white, Jewish and Christian.

Is This Anything?
by Jerry Seinfeld

Jerry features his best work across five decades in comedy.

Books added in December...

My Wife Said You May Want To Marry Me
by Jason B. Rosenthal

On My Watch
by our Temple Emanu-El member Virginia Buckingham

The Wartime Sisters
by Linda Cohen Loigman
Congratulations to temple member Johanna Reilly for her appointment as President of The Board of Overseers of the Jewish Journal! She was welcomed in as their new president during their annual meeting on November 17th.

Achieving the rank of Eagle Scout takes years of commitment and service. Many recipients have gone on to become President, astronauts, and Nobel Laureates. We are so proud that half of this year’s Boy Scout Troop 79 recipients are members of our Temple Emanu-El Family! As a Congregation, we look forward to the bright futures of Jason, Mitchell and Joe. Mazal tov!
Neighborhoods

Jewish Music Neighborhood

Wednesday, January 20th, at 7:00 pm.
“Uke Can Do It, Too!”

Join us for another Zoom Music Neighborhood celebration with our dedicated member, Brenda Cohen. She’ll share interesting information about the ukulele—a small instrument that provides lots of fun. Although a beginner, Brenda will also play and sing a few tunes for us! Everyone is welcome!

---

LGBTQIA Neighborhood

Thursday, January 21st, at 7:00 pm featuring special guest, Rabbi Meyer

All are welcome for a discussion with Rabbi Meyer and our LGBTQIA Neighborhood on the current position of the Reform Movement and our Temple on contemporary LGBTQIA issues.

This gathering will be on Rabbi Meyer’s Zoom link because Sisterhood will be using the usual one at the same time.

Click here to join this Zoom meeting!

If you have any questions or ideas for the LGBTQIA Neighborhood, feel free to contact Bob Goldman at: 617-378-1776.
Join Temple Emanu-El's Sisterhood

The Sisterhood is an organization of women of all ages, backgrounds, and interests, who find joy in one another as we come together to celebrate our heritage, socialize, and learn together.

We work to promote the interests of Judaism, serving the needs of our Temple and the community, while building bonds of friendship among women.

Temple Emanu-El Sisterhood wants and needs the support of all the women in the congregation. Membership comes with a donation of $36.00.

Should you have any questions, comments or ideas, please contact Sisterhood Chair Heidi Greenbaum at hrgg58@comcast.net, or call 978-502-2256.

Your Membership Supports:

- Purchasing trees in Israel for our B’nei Mitzvah children
- Food for meals that are delivered to members in our community
- Supplementing costs of programming

Upcoming Events:

January 21st:

Paint Night!
With Claudia Kaufman
Thursday, January 21st at 6:30pm

Mark your calendars now for this fun Sisterhood event with Temple past president, Claudia Kaufman!

If painting is not your thing, you can simply pour yourself a glass of wine and watch as a blank canvas transforms into a painting.

Or, you can bring out your hidden Picasso and paint along, with step-by-step instructions, as we paint this avocado study.

If you have painting materials at home, that's great. If you don't have supplies or need additional materials, a limited number of low-cost paint kits are available (includes a canvas, some acrylic paints, and 2 brushes.)

[Click HERE to register for this fun event!]

March 14th at 10am:

Brunch to-go with guest speaker Jo Ann Simons, Chief Executive Officer of Northeast Arc
Neighborhoods

Families with Children Neighborhood

Pizza Making Workshop
January 8-9th
On Zoom with Neighborhood Chairs Sarah Waelchi and Erin Cullen.

January 8th: pick up your 100% organic ingredients to make a pizza with your family (dough, sauce and cheese)! The ingredients can be picked up at the Temple office between 10am-12pm.

January 9th at 5:30pm: gather together and create pizza with us on Zoom!

PLEASE RSVP for this event. All sign ups for this event need to be in by January 4th.

Programs

Movie Night:
1st Wednesday of every month. Watch the movie on Netflix or Amazon Prime, and then join us on Zoom for a discussion.

“Doing Jewish: A Story From Ghana ” (free on Amazon Prime)
Wednesday, January 6th, at 7:00 pm via Zoom
A tiny community in rural Ghana recently discovered that the religion they have been practicing for centuries is Judaism. Filmmaker Gabrielle Zilkha explores their story from isolation to global connection.

Our movie to discuss for February (Jewish Disabilities Awareness, Acceptance, and Inclusion Month) is the Netflix film Crip Camp: A Disability Revolution on Wednesday, February 3rd, at 7:00 pm. A groundbreaking summer camp galvanizes a group of teens with disabilities to help build a movement, forging a new path toward greater equality.

Mah Jongg:
Every Tuesday night at 7pm via Zoom
Fun for all ages and levels of experience! We will use RealMahJongg, either the app or the website: realmahjongg.com. Then, join us via Zoom! Players can either play in groups of 4, 3, 2 or 1 and the computer can fill in.

Book Club: A Woman Is No Man by Etaf Rum
Monday, January 25 at 7:00pm
This debut novel by an Arab-American voice takes us inside the lives of conservative Arab women living in America.

In Brooklyn, eighteen-year-old Deya is starting to meet with suitors. Though Deya was raised to believe her parents died in a car accident, a secret note from a mysterious, yet familiar-looking woman makes Deya question everything she was told about her past.

Meeting ID: 235 688 2603
Password: 378322

Note: the Tot Shabbat event conflicts with Dec. 12th’s Torah Study; use the button in the Tot Shabbat section to attend the event.
The virtual painting exhibition has a different link (provided on page 9 with the rest of the details for the event.)

Join your Temple Emanu-El family for a fun-filled evening of music, entertainment, and online community!

During these challenging times, we would love to gather in person. But until then, we are going old-school with an online Telethon!

Sunday, January 31st
There will be all kinds of talent to keep you entertained: local talent, Temple talent, national talent — there could even be a few surprises!

Mark your calendar and plan to join us!
Keep an eye on our website, bulletin, and emails for Telethon news.
