Old North Church Pulpit Exchange

Rabbi David Meyer, together with the Rev. Dennis Calhoun and members of Temple Emanu-El and Old North Church, are delighted to renew our tradition of sharing in a Pulpit Exchange weekend. Welcoming one another to address our congregations is a practice going back nearly sixty years between Temple Emanu-El and Old North.

Although circumstances during the pandemic prevented us from taking part in the exchange last year, we plan on continuing the beloved tradition in January of 2022. So on Friday evening, January 28, 2022, Rev. Calhoun will be the guest speaker during our Friday evening Shabbat service. Then, on Sunday, January 30th, Rabbi Meyer will address the congregation of Old North during their Sunday morning worship.

For clarity's sake, these are not "interfaith services." Rather, each congregation will worship according to its own customs. But having the opportunity to welcome one another into our communal "homes" will expand and amplify the ongoing, special relationship of Covenant between our two communities of faith; a relationship that dates to the earliest years of Temple Emanu-El here in Marblehead.

Services on Friday evening will still be held both in person and streamed on Facebook Live.

Services on Sunday morning will also be held in person, and will be streamed later in the afternoon on two sites:

- Facebook: Friends of Old North Church Marblehead (you must join the group to access the stream.)
- YouTube: Old North Church Marblehead

Jewish Music Neighborhood

Wednesday, January 12th, at 7:00 pm via Zoom

Jon and the Fab Four—Part 2: Ringo

For our next Zoom gatherings, Jon Nelson will share his enthusiasm and wealth of information about the Beatles.

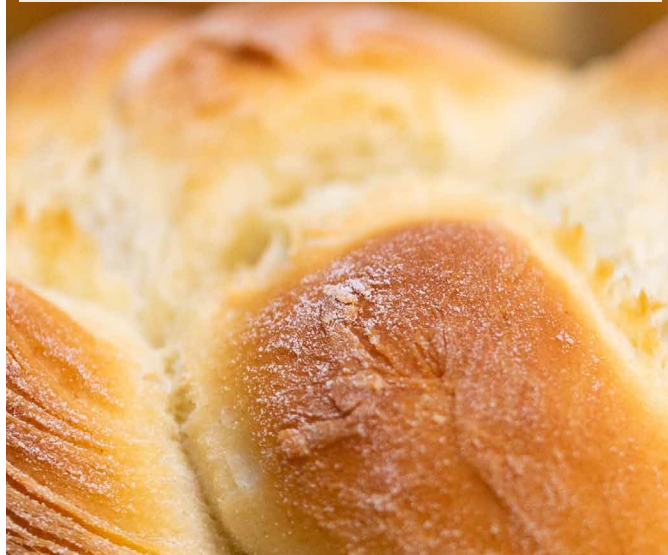

Of course, he'll play some of their hits as well! George Harrison was highlighted last month.

Now it's Ringo Starr's turn.

Sisterhood Neighborhood

Challah Baking with Marla Meyer:
Monday, January 10th at 6:30pm via Zoom

Tikkun Olam

Neighborhood

JANUARY:

January 13, 2022 at 10am:

Please join the Tikkun Olam neighborhood as we help to organize the foster closet for DCF in Salem.

The foster closet is a storage of items that DCFS in Salem has access to for emergency placements. This is used when a foster home gets a new child so they can receive a supply of clothes, diapers etc. to get them through the first few nights.

Location: All Saints Church

Corner of Holten St. and Cherry St. in Salem (entrance is on Cherry St.)

The Temple has had a wonderful relationship with Carla King and DCFS for the past 5 years and we are looking to expand our involvement past the annual Holiday gift drive. Hope to see you on Thursday Jan 13th!!

Questions? Please email Jackie Robbio, Tikkun Olam Neighborhood chair, at Jlrobbio@comcast.net.

FEBRUARY:

February 6, 2022 at 10am please join our Tikkun Olam Neighborhood at the Mass Coalition for the Homeless.

Location: 73 Buffum St, Lynn Ma

We will be assembling "stitch fix bags" for homeless men and women.

The goal is to coordinate 4 to 5 outfits in approximately the same size that look well together. Then the bags are sealed and ready for distribution.

Clothing is new and has been donated by various retail stores.

Look forward to seeing you on February 6th to help this great organization and the much needed work they do to support our local homeless community.

If you have any questions you can email Jackie Robbio at Jlrobbio@comcast.net.

Memorial Park

Where it all began – How we got here today

“For the past several years, we’ve identified three fundamental elements to our Temple’s mission, summarized in the words: “Connect. Create. Belong!” Going well beyond even the accomplishments of being the founder of the first Reform congregation on the North Shore, Alfred Gross, Jr., our Temple’s first president, already understood the value of belonging, of creating, and of relationships.

Throughout his life, he continued to take such pride in the vibrancy of this congregation, and stood always at the ready – even in his later years -- to be of help and support to the Temple.”

-Rabbi Meyer

The following is an edited version of Alfred Gross’ Oral History on the origins of the Temple and the Memorial Park:

This was 1964. The cohesive committed group who started the Temple in 1954 said they wanted to have a cemetery. I wanted a cemetery too because there was a need, unfortunately.

We started to work on establishing a Cemetery Committee and getting the thing started. We thought it would be a simple thing, that you just go and buy a piece of land and there it is. Well it wasn’t that simple. We went after a piece of land and finally, after months, we were to be sold a piece of property up in Hamilton, Mass. But it had to be approved by the Board of the Town. So the time came that we had to make presentation to the Town which we did, to the Town Board.

There was a mob there for this meeting. One man got up and he said I am not going to see that land sold to Jews. And it started a real brouhaha up there. So finally I stood up and I said ladies and gentlemen, we withdraw our request. And we got out. It really was the first experience that we had had (since the formation of the congregation) of Anti-Semitism and it was very tough.

Finally we found a place over in Danvers...

Stay tuned – more to come!

Worth (on Netflix)

Wednesday, January 5th, at 7pm via Zoom

In Washington, DC, lawyer Kenneth Feinberg battles cynicism, bureaucracy, and politics to help the victims of 9/11. The movie tells the true story of the events after September 11, 2001, when a man was tasked with setting a dollar value on the lives lost.

For Wednesday, February 2nd, at 7:00 pm, we'll discuss the limited Netflix series Maid (one season, 10 episodes).

After fleeing an abusive relationship, a young mother finds a job cleaning houses as she fights to provide for her child and build a better future.

Mah Jongg:

Tuesday nights at 7pm via Zoom

Fun for all ages and levels of experience!

We will use RealMahJongg, either the app or the website: realmahjongg.com and be together via Zoom! Players can either play in groups of 4, 3, 2 or 1 and the computer can fill in. Click below to visit realmahjongg.com.

Ways to Remember

At Temple Emanu-El, there are many ways to honor, celebrate, and remember dear friends, family, and past loved ones.

Memorial/Yahrzeit Wall

It is a widely observed Jewish tradition to commemorate the passing of a loved one by remembering them on a dedicated Memorial Wall. The Temple Emanu-El Memorial Wall contains a plaque with the name and date of passing. Additionally, and in keeping with the ancient Jewish custom of honoring departed ones with a stone on a marker, each plaque also has a carrier where you can place a tumbled stone on anniversary dates, or anytime at all! Your loved one's name is read at time of yahrzeit in perpetuity.

Memorial plaques ask for a donation of $750.

Tree of Life

Located in our lobby, the Temple's welcoming Tree of Life gives all who wish an opportunity to celebrate life's joyful blessings in perpetuity by inscribing them on one of its beautiful leaves or rocks. Celebrate your simcha - weddings, births, B'nei Mitzvah, anniversaries, graduations, milestones.

Honor someone you love - children, parents, family, friends, teacher.

Tree of Life leaves and rocks ask for a donation of: $500 - $10,000.

Bookplates

Temple Emanu-El also offers several opportunities to remember your loved ones with the dedication of a book to the Temple library or prayer book used at our weekly Shabbat service, a High Holyday machzor or Torah commentary. All books contain a tribute bookplate honoring and celebrating your loved one's name.

Bookplates ask for a donation of: $36 - $100.

To learn more about any of these forms of remembrance, please contact Temple Director Jaime Meyers at 781-631-9300 or jmeyers@emanu-el.org.
