Sisterhood

Sisterhood Brunch with Jo Ann Simons

Sunday, March 14th at 10:30am

Pick up your brunch-to-go on Saturday, March 13th between 1pm and 2pm, or on the 14th from 9am to 10am at the rear of the Temple by the kitchen door. Then, join us for a Zoom brunch with our speaker Jo Ann Simons, CEO of Northeast Arc!

About Northeast Arc

Northeast Arc is a nonprofit organization dedicated to empowering people of all abilities to reach their full potential. The company was founded in 1954 by parents of children with developmental disabilities who wanted to raise their sons and daughters as full members of the community. By having the courage to challenge professionals who told them their children could not be educated and would not live to become adults, these parents created the systems that enabled them to attend public schools, develop friendships, reside in the neighborhoods of their choice and to earn a paycheck.

About our speaker

Jo Ann Simons is a health and human services executive with 30+ years of experience transforming organizations. Her progressive initiatives have included the creation of The ArcTank, which changes lives through positive disruption, transitioning outdated program models, developing innovative programs, diversifying funding sources, and increasing donations by 150%. She was named the CEO of the Northeast Arc in January 2016. The agency has an operating budget of $300 million and supports over 15,000 individuals through a team of over 1100 staff. The team delivers high-quality services in 280 cities and towns in Massachusetts with revenue coming from state, federal and third-party sources. She has led financial and program turnarounds in two previous CEO roles and increased revenues in each position she has held. Jo Ann has been recognized by the Commonwealth Institute and the Boston Globe Magazine as #2 in its Top 100 Women Led Business rankings in Massachusetts. She was named, in 2016, as one of Boston's Power 50 by the BostonBusiness Journal. The author of a book, several book chapters and numerous publications, she is an industry leader.

She currently serves on the Board of Century Bank (and its Audit and Asset Liability Committees) and on the Board of the Tufts Health Plan Foundation. Tapped by Governor Charlie Baker to be on his Transition Committee on Health Care, she serves on the Governor's Commission on Persons with Intellectual Disabilities and on his Autism Commission. Known for her innovation in the disability, health and human services sectors, she created the national competition, The ArcTank, and raised and awarded $650,000 dollars to positive and disruptive ideas in disability around the country. Under her leadership, the Northeast Arc was a driving force in the revitalization of downtown Peabody by opening a coffee shop and raising $500,000 to build a city-requested Black Box Theater. Her latest innovation is transforming 26,000 sq. ft. of retail space in an 850,000 sq. ft. mall into a vibrant office and program space. This transformational and regional project is replicable and will demonstrate how to preserve our vital retail industry, support greener communities, and be a model for disability services.

Jo Ann has been recognized for her leadership during the COVID-19 pandemic by foreseeing the PPE shortage and organizing her industry to bulk purchase millions of dollars of supplies to protect employees and their high-risk clients.

She also identified the need for low-wage workers who were tested positive to have a safe quarantine environment and converted space into a temporary "hotel." She is the author of the Down Syndrome Transition Handbook (Woodbine House, 2010). She is also the chapter author of "Legal Issues" in Babies with Down Syndrome, an essay in You Will Dream New Dreams, and the author of the chapter on "Long Term Impact" in a textbook for dental students, Treating the Dental Patient with a Developmental Disorder. In addition, she created "Footprints for the Future", a personal planning tool that provides a place for families and professionals to record specific and personal information as part of their future and estate planning.

Jo Ann has a Master's Degree in Social Work in Policy from the University of Connecticut and a B.A. from Wheaton College of Massachusetts. She lives in Swampscott, Massachusetts with her husband, Chet Derr. They have two children. Emily is an attorney and Jonathan is a man with Down syndrome who lives independently. They are the inspiration for her life's work.

TIKKUN OLAM/SOCIAL ACTION NEIGHBORHOOD

WELCOME THE STRANGER

Refugee Resettlement

The Welcome the Stranger interfaith partnership of Old North Church, Temple Emanu-El and St. Andrew's Episcopal Church is poised to continue our work resettling refugee families in conjunction with Catholic Charities. Although we have not had any recent arrivals, in 2020 we helped to settle 11 families.

We are using a portion of the Kraus family's mini-grant through the Union of Reform Judaism to pay for recent court filing fees to bring Danie's daughter, Djahimara, to Marblehead. We are hopeful that the family will be reunited soon.

Meal Deliveries

We are helping to deliver food to low-income families. Christopher's Cafe in Lynn, in conjunction with the Mass Coalition for the Homeless, has been preparing and delivering meals to food insecure, low-income families throughout the pandemic. Funding from the City has been terminated, and in order to continue providing meals, they need volunteers to deliver the meals. So far we have delivered over 300 meals.

WE NEED HELP.

Questions? Please contact Marcy Bernstein at: auntmarcyb@gmail.com or Deahn Leblang at: deahnlee@gmail.com

DONATIONS

In conjunction with Old North Church we have collected new or gently-used hats, gloves, scarves, and individual-sized toiletries, for the homeless served by Lifebridge in Salem.

Due to Covid-19, our volunteer assistance for My Brother's Table and the MA Coalition for the Homeless (A Bed for Every Child Program) is on hold.

LASAGNA LOVE

Whether you need help or are looking for a way to help, Lasagna Love is right for you.

Lasagna Love matches volunteers willing to make a lasagna with families or individuals who could use the gift of a home-cooked meal. Everything is managed through their online portal. You cook in your own home, your own recipe as often as you like, and then deliver in a Covid-safe manner. Those in need use the portal to request their lasagna including all dietary or other unique needs. It works because it is so simple.

So if you would like to make an extra dinner one night, or you could really use the gift of one, consider Lasagna Love.

EVERYDAY LEADERSHIP

Engagement with Gratitude

If your actions inspire others to dream more, learn more, do more, and become more, you are a leader.
~ John Quincy Adams

Our world and communities have been forever transformed by the year 2020. Certainly, each of us experienced challenges. And with these challenges, there are opportunities for growth, learning, and exploration. How is this moment in time changing you and the way you engage with the world?

Please join Combined Jewish Philanthropies (CJP) for an inspiring intergenerational program, Everyday Leadership: Engagement with Gratitude, where we'll explore how you can transform everyday moments with family, friends, colleagues, and community into leadership opportunities.

Our learning will happen over two virtual sessions on Wednesday, March 3, and Thursday, March 18, from 7:00–8:00 p.m. ET.

We invite you to join us as an individual, a family, or with a group of friends. The sessions are open to anyone 13 and older. (We do encourage those not yet in high school to participate with a parent or other adult.)

Wednesday, March 3 — Nanette Fridman, MPP, J.D., will lead us in learning the concepts of everyday leadership, gratitude, and creating change. A North Shore native, Nanette is President of Fridman Strategies, Inc., and has more than 25 years of experience with nonprofits as a professional, lay leader, consultant, and coach, and is a national speaker, trainer, facilitator, and author of two books, On Board: What Current and Aspiring Board Members Must Know About Nonprofits & Board Service and Holding the Gavel: What Nonprofit Board Leaders Need to Know. We will discuss our stars of gratitude activity and give you an everyday leadership opportunity.

Thursday, March 18 — After sharing our stars of gratitude stories, we will apply everyday leadership concepts to community volunteer opportunities focusing on food insecurity. CJP will provide an overview on how we're addressing increased community needs through our Anti-Poverty Initiative. My Brother's Table Executive Director Dianne Kuzia Hills will discuss food insecurity and engagement opportunities, and leaders from Jewish Family & Children's Service will share information about Family Table on the North Shore and how to make a difference locally.

Make sure to RSVP early, as space is limited. We will be mailing you a leadership kit as part of this virtual experience; RSVP by Wednesday, February 17 to guarantee you will receive your kit before the first event date.

The final deadline to register is Thursday, February 25.

This program is made possible by a generous grant from The Michael Steinberg Leadership Endowment Fund. Michael Steinberg, z"l, was a beloved and respected leader on the North Shore. He believed deeply in developing leadership skills in individuals of all ages and recognized the importance of cultivating and stewarding the next generation of leaders for the Jewish community.
