Community Book

As an added way to connect this year, Temple Emanu-El asked congregants to submit memories, pictures, recipes, reflections and greetings. Next year, may we be together in person to greet each other and give wishes of a healthy, happy New Year.
One of my favorite quotes is from Winston Churchill: "We make a living by what we get, but we make a life by what we give." This quote resonates with me as I reflect on the myriad ways in which the Temple affects the lives of its members - past, present, and future - as well as our local and global community. We come together through our Temple to share our common bonds and our unique stories. Temple Emanu-El is our home for spiritual connection, celebrations, learning, and a huge variety of activities. Our lives are immeasurably enriched as the Temple’s mission is to inspire us to follow and advocate for its core values.

The high holidays are especially special for us because last year we found out we were expecting our first child and this year she is now 3 months old. Here is a picture of us!

- Carrie McNamara and family

When I think of previous High Holiday services, I recall various times when I have found prayers within the holiday prayer books that resonate far beyond the actual service, so I write them down to remember throughout the year. Here's one of my favorite ones. I keep a copy handy and appreciate re-reading it from time to time because it makes me feel better.

"O source of peace, lead us to peace, a peace profound and true; lead us to a healing, to mastery of all that drives us to war within ourselves and with others."

The Love I Have To Give

by Robin Stairman

For me, the Jewish High Holidays is a time for love, memories, and giving. I am blessed to have a wonderful family, friends, and my health.

I have a unique tradition I like to do before the holidays, it’s running races. Leading up to the holidays, I like to raise funds for various charities by using my running talents and abilities to help bring change to the world. Since running is my passion, I choose various races that support a charity and then I just go for it. I love that I can combine my passion for running with giving to my community.

Throughout the years, I am incredibly blessed to help support charities such as American Cancer Society, Liver Foundation, Dana-Farber, MR8 Foundation and many more.

The Jewish Holidays also remind me of my beloved grandparents. I miss the days when my grandparents would go to the synagogue with me followed by a delicious meal at their home. I also miss the days when they would watch me run, even if my longest run back then was a 100-yard dash or a lap around the track. I wonder if my grandparents know that I have run The Boston Marathon twenty times in their memory?

My goal for the New Year is to live as healthy as possible.

Time to go for a run!

Shana Tova,

Love,

Robin

Far and near- past and present

Rosh Hashanah, early 1950s, Queens, New York: I’m dressed in my best new fall clothing, standing and talking with friends – all male- in front of the conservative synagogue on Main Street, in actuality, I am far from the Holyday: I never enter the temple because my parents are not there, are not members. We are a resolutely secular family. Yet, the residual hold of the Holydays dictate that I be sent to make an appearance at that place-- near, but so far. Rosh Hashanah, 2020, Temple Emanu-El: the sanctuary, the ark, our Rabbi, Jon, and Cantor Torgove are far, far off- only available on a screen-- for everyone’s safety. Yet, I am near my temple: in spirit, in the awareness of my community, in the majestic words of the machzor, in the majesty of prayer and hymn. How eternally Judaic: far and near, near and far. L’shanah tovah to all the congregation.

- Bruce Bank

(with thanks to Rabbi Meyer’s quotation of Isaiah which inspired this meditation)

Rosh Hashanah means apples and for as long as I can remember Ken and I made a date to pick our own apples in New Hampshire. Of course we used to make a big family outing of it when our children were little, picking apples, selecting just the right pumpkins and gourds too. Now just the two of us go together and get a couple of bags of apples, usually Paula reds. We try to pick enough to share with neighbors and friends. I make my special applesauce only during this time to welcome in the new year. Many years ago my kids bought me an “applesauce bowl” and I still use it to serve my Rosh Hashanah applesauce. Sweet and happy new year everyone.

Pollack Family Apple Cake

Ingredients:

- 2 cups diced apples
- 1 cup sugar
- 1 tsp cinnamon
- 1 egg
- ½ cup oil
- 1 ½ cup flour (can use ¾ cup white flour, ¾ cup wheat flour)
- 1 tsp baking powder
- 1 tsp baking soda
- ½ tsp salt
- ½ cup raisins

Instructions:

1. Preheat oven to 350
2. Add together diced apple, sugar and cinnamon and let stand for 10 minutes
3. Add raisins to apple and cinnamon mixture
4. In a separate bowl combine egg and oil
5. Mix together dry ingredients (flour, baking powder, baking soda, salt)
6. Add wet ingredients (egg and oil) and dry ingredients to apple, raisin and cinnamon mixture
7. Grease and flour 9x9 baking pan
8. Pour batter into baking pan and spread evenly
9. Bake for 30-40 minutes
10. Sprinkle with confectioner’s sugar and ENJOY!
Israeli Rice & Dairy Kugel

Here are two recipes that are easy and I use the Israeli Rice recipe at Rosh Hashanah… and the ‘dairy’ kugel usually for lunch.

Dairy Kugel
Cook package of ‘fine’ noodles for 3 minutes and set aside. These noodles are hard to find, but Stop and Shop has them in the Jewish section. Mix in large bowl. Ingredients should be at room temperature as it is easier to mix.

1/4 pound cream cheese
1/2 pound cottage cheese
2 cups milk
1/2 cup sugar/1 tsp. cinnamon
3 beaten eggs
1 tsp. Vanilla

Add the above mixture to the cooked noodles. Melt 1/4 pound margarine or butter in a 9x13 pan. Pour in ingredients. Top with mixture of chopped graham cracker crumbs, cinnamon, brown sugar. Bake at 350° for 45-55 minutes.

Israeli Rice

Ingredients:
1/4 cup oil
1 1/2 cups finely grated carrots
1 onion (diced)
1 cup (raw) rice
2 cups water
Salt and pepper to taste
Sautéé and brown the diced onion. Add grated carrots, cover and cook 5 minutes.
Wash rice and add to the above. Add water, salt and pepper, and simmer in covered pot until tender and water is absorbed.

If you like sautéed onions then use more than 1 onion.

“Freedom is sustained only when a nation becomes a moral community. And any moral community achieves a greatness far beyond its numbers, as we lift others and they lift us.”
-Jonathan Sacks

Variation:
Golden raisins can be added to mixture. Canned pineapple or fruit cocktail (without juice) or sliced apples can also be added to mixture.

Meyer Family Gefilte Fish

In this variation, the mixture of ground fish, vegetables and spices are mixed and then baked. We use a food processor and bake our fish in a 13 x 9 x 2 Pyrex pan. When cut into squares, this recipe will serve 12 or more.

Ingredients:
2 lbs of ground fish – we have used striper (frozen from the summer “harvest”) and salmon. You could also use cod or halibut, or to be more “traditional” – fresh-water fish such as pike, carp & whitefish.

Oil to grease the pan
3 eggs, slightly beaten
1 and 1/2 large onions chopped
1 large carrot chopped
1 celery stalk chopped
2 1/2 teaspoons salt
2 teaspoons sugar
3 tablespoons matza meal
1 tsp white pepper
1/4 cup plain seltzer water
Paprika
Onion slices (optional)
Cooked carrots cut into dimes

Using the food processor fitted with the blade, process the fish and eggs together and pour out into a large bowl. Chop the onions, carrot and celery together, then fold this mixture into the fish mixture, add the seasonings, and then re-process, adding the seltzer. This will be done in batches. Grease the rectangular Pyrex dish and spread the mixture throughout. Top with thinly sliced onion and sprinkle with paprika. Bake at 350 for an hour, until the fish browns a bit & pulls away at the sides. Cool to room temp, cover & refrigerate. Slice into squares, top with a slice of cooked carrot (from your soup!). Serve with horseradish.

Delicious “Healthy” Apple Crisp Recipe

I like to use a few different kinds of apples to add depth. You can sub honey for maple syrup. Some people like to add pecans.

Ingredients:
4 cups apples peeled + sliced in 1/4 inch thick pieces - about 1 lb
1 tablespoon coconut oil melted
1/2 teaspoon cinnamon

Crisp Topping
1/2 teaspoon cinnamon
1/4 teaspoon nutmeg
1 cup old fashioned oats
2 tablespoons coconut oil
1 tablespoon maple syrup or honey

Instructions:
Preheat oven to 350 and prepare a greased 8x8 baking dish
Peel + cut apple slices into ¼ inch thick slices.
Melt coconut oil. Toss apples with coconut oil, cinnamon + ginger. Set aside.
Mix together crisp topping.
Pour apples into bottom of the baking dish. Layer crisp topping evenly on top of apples.
Cover apple crisp with aluminum foil and bake at 350 for 20 mins. After 20 minutes, remove cover and bake for another 10-20 minutes until apples are fork tender and crisp topping is golden brown.

YUM!!!

Sauerkraut Knishes

1/2 pkg. (1 sheet) frozen puff pastry packet, thawed in refrigerator overnight
(1) 14 oz. can saurkraut- drain in colander, squeeze extra liquid with paper towel
1 6-8 oz. pkg. Farmers cheese
1 egg- slightly beaten
3 oz grated Gruyere cheese
1/2 tsp. Kosher salt
1/2 tsp pepper
1 egg plus 1 tbsp water, beaten together (for egg wash)
optional toppings: sea salt crystals, poppy seeds, sesame seeds, cracked caraway seed

Directions:
Mix drained sauerkraut, farmers cheese, 1 egg, grated Gruyere, salt and pepper together in a bowl. Set aside.

Use a rolling pin, roll the puff pastry sheets with a little flour to approx. 16 x 12”. Cut each sheet into 3 long strips (follow the original fold lines if they are still visible).

Spread 1/3 of the sauerkraut mixture in a long row on each dough strip, forming an even, slightly flattened log shape. Apply a little of the egg wash with a pastry brush to the edges. Fold/stretch the dough over the saurkraut log, overlapping the edges and press to seal.

Put these logs seam side down, in the freezer for around 1 hour or until firm but not frozen solid. Cut the logs into 1” slices and return to the freezer. When frozen, store in a zip lock bag in the freezer until ready to use.

Pre-heat oven to 400 degrees and spray large cookie sheet with PAM. Place knishes 3” apart onto cookie sheets (seam-side down). With a small sharp knife, cut 2-3 slits across the tops of each piece. Use a pastry brush to lightly brush the top of the dough with the egg wash. Sprinkle optional garnish, if using.

Bake in pre-heated 400-degree oven for 25-30 minutes or until golden brown. Makes 36-40 appetizer-size knishes. Serve warm.

A High Holiday tradition in our family for many years.
Brisket Recipe

A tried and true Brisket recipe I've used for over half a century! Best of all, it can be prepared and sliced the day before, refrigerated and heated on the day of serving. (over the years I've received many an invitation to come for dinner and of course, with the suggestion—Bring your Brisket!

Set oven at 350 degrees

Place approximately a 3 1/2 lb. brisket in an aluminum baking pan. (I usually make two briskets in separate pans)

For each brisket, in bowl, mix together approximately:
1 1/2 liter ginger ale
1 small bottle ketchup
1 package of Lipton onion soup mix

(Mixture should be a little thick. Pour over brisket to almost cover brisket.)

Add lots of raisons and raw sliced carrots to sauce. Cover with foil (poke holes in foil).

Bake approximately 1 hour at 350 degrees and then reduce to 300 degrees. Cook for approximately another 3 hours.

Let cool, then slice (my electric knife works perfectly). Place in serving dish with lots of gravy. Refrigerate overnight. Reheat to serve. Skim gravy if needed.

Lots of sauce. Great with Kasha and Varniskas!

Honey Cake Recipe

Ingredients:
3 eggs
1 and 1/2 cups sugar
1 and 1/2 teaspoon baking powder
1/2 teaspoon baking soda
3/4 teaspoon cinnamon
3/4 teaspoon allspice
3/4 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon vanilla
1/2 cup liquid coffee
3/4 cup veg. oil
3/4 cup honey
1/4 cup creme de cacao (optional)
1/2 cup nuts (optional)

Beat eggs: add sugar and continue beating. Sift together flour, baking powder, baking soda, cinnamon, allspice and salt. Add this to the egg mixture - it will be dry. Then add liquids. Add nuts last, if using. Bake in large, greased loaf pan at 325 degrees (can use smaller pans; do not fill more than 3/4 to the top). Large loaf pan takes about an hour, smaller loaf pans less. Will be brown and firm on top.

Enjoy, Sue Weiss

This is the recipe we use for our honey cakes each year to give out to our Temple Family.

Macaroni Pudding for Breakfast

16 oz fettuccine
1/2 cup cheddar cheese
3/4 cup sour cream
1/8 cup butter, melted
salt & pepper
Pour into pyrex dish (kugel dish) and bake 30-45 minutes at 350 degrees

The Sisterhood is an organization of women of all ages, backgrounds and interests, who find joy in one another as we come together to celebrate our heritage, socialize, and learn together.

We work to promote the interests of Judaism, serving the needs of our Temple and the community, while building bonds of friendship among women.

Temple Emanu-El Sisterhood wants and needs the support of all the women in the congregation.

Membership comes with a donation of $36.00.

Your membership supports:

• Purchasing trees in Israel for our Bar/Bat Mitzvah children
• Food for meals that are delivered to members in our community
• Supplementing costs of programming

Upcoming Events:

October 28th at 7PM:
Sisterhood “Paid Up” Sweet & Savory Zoom Event

Since we cannot have our annual “Paid Up Supper”, become a member of Sisterhood and pick up your “Paid Up” Sweet, Savory and Bubbly package to go and join our event with guest speaker, Nancy Torgove Clasby, Holistic Healing and Meditation.

Don’t miss this fascinating event and learn all about her journey.

Tikkun Olam
NEIGHBORHOOD

This year we have had to curtail our monthly visits to My Brothers’ Table and the MA Coalition for the Homeless (A Bed for Every Child program). We have collected food, gift cards and books for those in need during the pandemic for our partners organizations.

WELCOME THE STRANGER

Welcome the Stranger is a coalition of the Tikkun Olam/Social Action arms of three congregations: Temple Emanu-El, Old North Church and The Church of St. Andrews, located in Marblehead and serving the north shore area. We formed 4 years ago in response to the growing world refugee crisis. During that time, working with RIM (Refugee Immigration), we fully supported an asylum seeker from Haiti, her toddler daughter, and eventually her husband, organizing and funding all of their needs, including rent, until they were on their feet and financially independent. The couple was granted asylum at the end of June.

WTS works in tandem with Catholic Charities, which is a federally designated refugee resettlement organization, to help set up new homes and apartments. We are given the number of refugees and a move-in date, and WTS finds everything needed to set up an apartment: furniture, bedding and linens, kitchen and bath items, a stocked pantry and refrigerator with items that reflect the dietary needs of the future family. We then coordinate the move and set up the apartment.

Through this partnership, over the last 11 months we have helped families from 9 different countries start their lives in freedom in the US. The countries are Moldova, El Salvador, Honduras, the Congo, Bangladesh, Iraq, Burma, Guatemala and Pakistan.

Anyone who wants to be on our volunteer list please email: auntmarcyb@gmail.com

Programs :

Movie Night:
“Little White Lie” (on Amazon Prime)
Wednesday, October 7th, at 7:00 pm.
Watch the movie beforehand, and then join us on zoom for a discussion!

Lacey Schwartz grew up convinced she was white, even though her features distinguish her instantly from her Jewish parents. It wasn’t until she was 18 that she learned her biological father was black. She then begins a journey to reconcile her past and embrace her African-American heritage.

Our movie for November is “Ride Like A Girl” (free on Netflix) on Wednesday, November 4th, at 7:00 pm. The daughter of a horse trainer sets her sights on becoming the first female jockey to win the Melbourne Cup. Based on a true story.

Mah Jongg:
Every Tuesday night at 7pm
Fun for all ages and levels of experience! We will use RealMahJongg, either the app or the website: realmahjongg.com. Then, join us via Zoom! Players can either play in groups of 4, 3, 2 or 1 and the computer can fill in.

Book Discussion with the Jewish Book Group of the North Shore
The Temple Emanu-El Library is pleased to be co-sponsoring the Jewish Book Group of the North Shore as it hosts author Helen Fremont’s discussion of her recently published book, The Escape Artist. This Zoom event will take place on Tuesday, September 29th, at 7:30 pm. The Escape Artist is a powerful memoir of growing up in a world of secrets.
Tot Shabbat:

Events: December 12th, January 9th, February 6th

Tot Shabbat is a Shabbat morning service geared to families of toddlers. This service is scheduled 3 times during the calendar year at 10am.

JCCNS Jewish Book Month Speaker Series features...

Virginia Buckingham, author of On My Watch: A Memoir

As the nation came together to mourn, support each other, and rebuild in the aftermath of 9/11, Virginia Buckingham, the head of Boston’s Logan International Airport, was singled out for blame and forced to resign. She was also sued for wrongful death by the family of a 9/11 victim, who held her personally responsible for the terrorist attack. A rising star at thirty-five, Buckingham had served as chief of staff to two consecutive Massachusetts governors before becoming the first woman to head the state's Port Authority. This unique memoir shares her struggles to rebuild her life and come to terms with being blamed for an unimaginable tragedy that occurred on her watch.

Date: Tuesday, October 13
Time: 7:00 PM
Cost: $6 JCCNS or Temple Emanu-El members, $9 community members

Co-sponsored with Temple Emanu-El, Marblehead and in conversation with Rabbi David Meyer.
