Liberation Today and Everyday

On the eve of Passover, adjacent to *minḥa time, a person may not eat until dark, so that he will be able to eat matza that night with a hearty appetite. Even the poorest of Jews should not eat the meal on Passover night until he reclines on his left side, as free and wealthy people recline when they eat. And the distributors of tzedakah should not give a poor person less than four cups of wine for the Festival meal of Passover night. And this halakha applies even if the poor person is one of the poorest members of society and receives his food from the tzedakah plate. Pesachim 10:1[1]

The underlying premise of the Mishnah reflects the Torah's narrative of the Exodus from Egypt which emphasizes the total inclusion of the entire nation as Moshe framed it in answering Pharaoh, "We will go with our young and with our old, with our sons and with our daughters, with our flocks and with our herds will we go; for we must hold a feast for the Lord." Everyone is an equal and full-fledged participant in the redemption and similarly in the annual commemoration. We were all freed together without any socio-economic distinctions and therefore the Mishnah asserts that no one's celebration should be diminished or limited regardless of provenance of the funds for the festive meal. For at least that moment everyone is elevated.

While this model of providing monies for the purchase of Seder necessities continues through the ages into modernity, it ignores more basic questions, "Why do we still have poor people? Why do we allow poverty to persist?" Rabbi Abraham Joshua Heschel writes that the Tanach regards poverty as a misfortune,[2] that to be poor in an affluent society is to bear a crushing load, and that poverty is degrading and there is a great danger in the societal power that allows poverty to exist.[3] Writing in a different context Heschel makes a powerful point regarding our society, "In a free society, some are guilty, all are responsible."[4]

From this perspective, even the Mishnah's suggestion of providing funds from the community's tzedakah plate is inherently degrading. Heschel raised the issue of poverty in America in a 1964 speech entitled The White Man on Trial in which he decried the impatience of people he encountered of the demands being made to address the ravages of poverty by guaranteeing that basic necessities be provided to all. The missed opportunity was for him a societal catastrophe. Heschel connects it to the Israelites' ultimate moment of salvation from servitude.

> The tragedy of Pharaoh was the failure to realize that the exodus from slavery could have spelled redemption for both Israel and Egypt. Would that Pharaoh and the Egyptians had joined the Israelites in the desert and together stood at the foot of Sinai!

> …The prophet reminds his listeners of their moral obligation to respond, not simply to the prophet, but to those who suffer as a consequence of our immoral society.

Our redemption, our liberation, our elevation as equals can only be celebrated properly when we erase the daily degradations that persist in our society.

Jodi, Sarah, Yonatan, and Miriam, join me in wishing you all a happy, healthy, sweet, and kosher Pesach.

Passover, the holiday most rich with traditions and family memories, is one of the four occasions when we recite Yizkor. While recalling those who have passed, it should bring comfort that a Yahrzeit plaque, placed in our small sanctuary, memorializes the loved one. Those who have plaques are remembered annually on their Yahrzeit as Kaddish is said in their memory. It is an opportune time to order a Yahzeit plaque for a family member so that it can be dedicated this coming Yom Kippur.

A Yahrzeit plaque serves as a tribute to the memory of your loved one and helps support the congregation.

CANTOR'S ARTICLE

Cantor Rogerio Marx

Passover is a time for families to come together and ask “when are we eating”? The Seder is filled with traditions and rituals, from the retelling of the story of the Exodus to the traditional foods eaten during the meal. For many families, Passover is the most important holiday of the year, and it is a time to reconnect with family members and pass down traditions from one generation to the next. However, as families grow and change, the celebration of Passover can also evolve and take on new meanings.

For many families, the Seder is a tradition with each generation playing a role in the celebration. Children may take on roles during the Seder, such as asking the Four Questions, singing new songs, or searching for the afikomen. As families grow and change, the celebration of Passover will also evolve. For some families, this may mean incorporating new traditions or rituals, such as including readings or songs from different sources, outside the Haggadah, as well as perhaps different languages, or adding new dishes to reflect different cultural or regional backgrounds (banana charoset comes to mind).

However, the transition from one generation to the next can also bring challenges. As older family members pass away, younger generations may struggle to maintain the traditions and rituals that were so important to their families. They may also face the challenge of incorporating new family members into their celebrations, such as through interfaith or intercultural marriages. One way to address these challenges is to have open and honest conversations about the importance of the Seder and what it means to each family member. This can help to ensure that the traditions and rituals of the holiday are passed down from one generation to the next, while also allowing for new interpretations and adaptations.

Ultimately, Passover is a time for our families to come together and celebrate their shared history and traditions. By embracing the past and looking toward the future, families can ensure that the celebration of Passover remains a meaningful and vibrant part of their lives for generations to come. I am not ready to change the matza ball soup my grandmother used to make, and I hope Joshua and his grandchildren will still be partaking it in many years to come.

Wishing you all a Sissen Pessach.

Happy Aviv (Spring!),

It is so great to be able to say that as I don't know about you but this winter has been a long one for us. With that being said we've had a lot happening and even more to come. It was so great seeing so many of you for purim either in-person or virtual and at our various learning/traveling programs. Just last week we joined together in honor of Iftar with our Turkish community and then with our entire Jewish community for our first ever communitywide Shabbat.

While I know some of you are still uncomfortable coming out in person I encourage you to stay connected with us and get involved even from home. We have so many different committees doing wonderful things. Our JDAIM (Jewish Disability Awareness and Inclusion Month) program in February put on by our Social Action and Inclusion committee is just one example of the great work that is being done. Later this month we'll bring back Mitzvah Day bigger and better yet and we hope you get involved as much as you comfortable.

Last but not least please reach out , I love coffee and we have our new Café BeVakasha (Coffee Please) program for that reason. I am here to work with you not just for you and want to make this a community we are all proud to be a part of!

Chag Pesach Sameach!

FROM THE BOARD

Rick Schwartz, President

Dear Friends:

In February, Ellie and I joined the flock of snowbirds and we migrated south for a month to avoid the winter cold and enjoy the Florida warmth. We stayed in Melbourne, an east coast seaside town just 2 hours north of Boynton Beach where many of our congregants live. So, we took the opportunity and made a date to go and visit with them.

Many thanks to Nancy Bell who played hostess and made all of the arrangements, providing the place, food, and invitations. We had a lovely afternoon schmoozing with her, Herb and Marilyn Cohen, Stan Isser, and Lorraine Arcus. Unfortunately a few others could not make it. It was a great opportunity to catch up with everyone, share some news about what is happening here in Albany, and hear about the active and Jewishly engaged lives everyone is living in Florida. They all send their regards.

Temple Israel's Mitzvah Day is coming up on April 30th. It's the first time in a long time since we've been out in the community doing activities and performing mitzvoth. The SATO committee has worked long and hard in putting together a special program filled with wonderful mitzvoth opportunities that will benefit our wider community. Kudos to Manya Monson and her SATO team for all the hard work they do on the programs that they pursue such as fighting food insecurity in our community. Please join them and help make this year's Mitzvah Day one to be proud of.

I look forward to seeing many of you at future events and wish everyone a zissen Pesach (a sweet Passover).

All the best,
Rick Schwartz

Reminder!

KIDDUSH COMMITTEE

Marcia Rosenberg & Ellen Schwartz, Co-Chairs

March 4th Shabbat services and Kiddush didn't work out as planned due to the snow storm. However, those that made it to Shul enjoyed the Kiddush. It's great to be able to sit, relax, schmooze and eat together again! We're currently planning on doing Kiddushes in house once a month to coordinate with the TIY programs.

Please note: The cost to sponsor a Kiddush has been changed to $218.00 due to rising food costs.

Not all the kiddush committee members can help out each month so we are looking to add committee members so we can rotate helpers each time. If you are interested in joining the kiddush committee, please contact Marcia at 518-469-7883 or contact the office and they will pass along the message.

When not hosting an in-house kiddush, we'll still be offering the grab & go! We hope you'll enjoy a quick nosh after services and take the opportunity to schmooze with your friends like the good old days.

CAMP GIVAH

For Machaneh Givah's 2023 season, we are fortunate to have two All-Stars from the Jewish Federation of Northeastern New York as our Director and Assistant Director combo! We want to express our gratitude to JFEDNENY for helping ensure the 2023 season of Camp Givah will have such an incredible team leading the way! Registration is open and Temple Israel wants to ensure Machaneh Givah is available to everyone. Please contact campgivahdirector@gmail.com or Rachael Schertzer at 518-438-7858 with any questions.

Meet the Leadership Team:

KB GOODKIN - INTERIM DIRECTOR—KB Goodkin is the Director of Community Engagement and Advancement at the Jewish Federation of Northeastern New York and is launching our community's first Center for Learning and Belonging. She is widely seen as an expert in Jewish engagement methodology, speaking and consulting with many Jewish organizations across the country regularly. Prior to her move to Northeastern NY, KB worked as a Hillel Director and Adult Education Coordinator in Richmond VA, Jewish Family Educator in Detroit, and Early Childhood Educator in Los Angeles. KB spent summers in VA as AD helping to run the Camp Hilbert, working as family camp counselor and Gan coordinator at the Grand Resort family camp in MI, family camp leader for synagogues as part of the JEFF program in MI, counselor/CIT/camper at YMCA camps and camp Shalom/Alonim in Los Angeles CA. On a Global level, KB has spoken at the Jewish Federation of North America General Assembly several times, facilitated multiple workshops and sessions at Tribefest, National Young Leadership Cabinet Retreat, Leadership Conference Dallas, among young leadership professionals nationally, and spearheaded efforts to create long term strategic plans for organizations seeking to engage Millennials and marginalized populations. KB is the very grateful mother of three rambunctious Givah campers and the very proud wife of the most patient man in the world Lenny Goodkin.

SHOSHIE BRICKMAN - ASSISTANT DIRECTOR—Shoshie Brickman moved to Albany in 2017 as a Freshman attending the University At Albany. After college, she started working at the Jewish Federation as their Special Projects Coordinator. In addition to her Jewish Federation role, Shoshie has been leading Temple Israel's Junior Congregation for the past year. Growing up, Shoshie enjoyed many summers at both day camps and Ramah Palmer. She was a camp counselor and division head for the inclusion program at a day camp in NYC. From shira to sports, camp has always been her happy place. With sunscreen in hand, Shoshie is so excited to be at Machaneh Givah for summer 2023!

We're looking to round out our team, and have positions available for full-time and seasonal staff. We are also looking for the right person to add to our leadership team for the summer.

Contact Rachael (518) 438-7858 if you are interested or know someone who may be a good fit.

NURSERY SCHOOL

Amie Bloom, Director

When I arrived at temple Israel Nursery School it was November 2013. I was coming into an incredible staff of expert preschool teachers. I was beyond excited and a little nervous to be joining a new school. At the time I had heard of and been at trainings with a majority of the Temple Israel staff but the toddler teachers were new to me. Among the toddler teachers was Jodi Eligberg, the lead toddler teacher.

I am a silly teacher but I was entering a school with structure and different expectations than I was used to. Upon entering Temple Israel I was immediately taken with the impressive toddler classroom. The children were engaged and happy and played so nicely. In addition, there was singing at all times. There was a great song to transition from one activity to the other. A different song that cued the children that it was time to be leaving the playground and heading inside. A third song which told the children it was time to sit down and get ready for lunch. For each song the children knew exactly what was expected of them. For each song there was fun intermixed with excitement for the upcoming activity. What I noticed was that every single day I could walk into the classroom and the kids would be on schedule. If you know toddlers at all you know that they are reliant on a schedule. They definitely do best when their day is predictable and the adults are consistent. In so many ways Jodi Eligberg is the ultimate toddler teacher.

In her time at Temple Israel Nursery School Jodi has taught more than 100 toddlers. She has guided so many teachers and helped them to learn how to be consistent and kind, she is loving yet sets clear boundaries, she has taught all of us how to create a strong welcoming classroom environment that is simply perfect for preschoolers.

For the past 10 years I have been so lucky to share an office, a school and a team with Jodi Eligberg. In July of 2023 Temple Israel's toddler program will be forever changed. We will keep so much of what Jodi has taught us about creating an incredible toddler preschool program and we will move forward with the knowledge she has shared. We will remember that Jodi taught us that toddlers can do so much more than many believe they can do and that Jodi is right, toddlers will always rise to the challenge and love to show their independence.

Jodi, thank you for teaching me so much about toddlers, teaching and even reluctantly I have learned to be slightly more organized. Thank you for all that you have given to me and all of our students. Essentially thank you for being.....you!

SOCIAL ACTION/TIKKUN OLAM

Manya Monson, SATO Committee Chair

Karen B. Shulman, SATO Committee Secretary

Shalom Temple Israel Community! I hope everyone is excited as winter is ending. I know I sure am!

Our February Jewish Disabilities Awareness, Acceptance, and Inclusion Month (JDAIM) event on Tuesday, February 28th was amazing. Thank you so much to our two amazing speakers Glenn Liebman, CEO at Mental Health Association of New York State and Christopher Lyons, CEO at AIM Services, INC. This program was sponsored by Peter Ramsey and Dr. Isabel Phillips in memory of their brother Chris Ramsey and we thank them for being in attendance.

We welcome you all members age 6 and over to join us on Sunday, April 23rd and Sunday, May 21st from 1:00pm-3:00pm at the Regional Food Pantry!! We try to bring about 10 people to volunteer each month. Register at https://tinyurl.com/TIFoodBankVolunteer. The more the merrier!!

On Sunday, March 12th, our Mitzvah Sundae team started a new venture and made Mitzvah Meals!!! We made meals to freeze that will be available to families with covid or other serious illnesses/injuries, a meal for a family in need, and other occasions of need. We had a wonderful team of Mitzvah Doers starting as young as age 5! We are really proud of our Mitzvah Sundae teams for all of the good they have done. Stay tuned, as we are working on a Mitzvah Sundae for June, and you could be a part of the team!!!

We want to thank all of those who brought non-perishable items to our Purim celebration and those stop by to donate non-perishable items when they can. Temple Israel has a Little Food Pantry at the back of their parking lot. This pantry is constantly being accessed by those in our community that are in need. It is difficult to keep it stocked. If you are able, please help us help those who are hungry in our community. On Passover we say, "ha lahma anya," "Let those who are hungry come and eat…." Our community is in great need right now and we are called, especially at Passover time, to help feed those who cannot feed themselves. The need is continuous, it is not seasonal. Don't think because it is getting warmer, the need will change. They need our help. When you are shopping, if you can, please grab a few extra items and drop them directly into our pantry or drop them by the main office and we will be sure that the food gets to the pantry for those in need. One can or box can make the difference for a family. Every donation helps!

A JEWISH SCAVENGER HUNT:

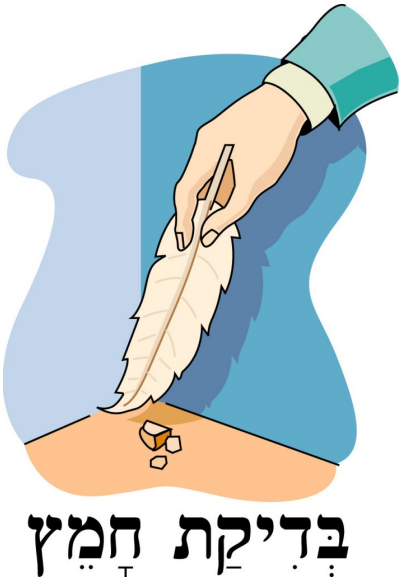
The Search for Chametz (Leaven)

The search is to be conducted Tuesday, April 4, 2022. The search is conducted as early as possible following sundown. For those who cannot conduct the search at that time, the entire night is available. However, the search must be concluded by sunrise of the following morning.

The search is done at night, traditionally using the light of a candle. You may want to consider a small flashlight. Ten (10) pieces of bread, or other chametz products, are placed in different areas of the house, areas in which it would be customary and usual to find chametz during the course of the year (thus excluding bathrooms from being "searched.")

Immediately before the search, after the candle has been lit, the blessing on the next page is recited. After the search has been concluded, a Declaration of Nullification is recited. Ideally, there should be no talking between the time we recite the opening blessing and the time we conclude the Declaration of Nullification.

As the "search" proceeds, the "found" pieces are scooped up with a feather and wooden spoon into a receptacle (usually a napkin or paper plate). The receptacle and the implement used to scoop the chametz into the receptacle are all wrapped together carefully and placed in a section of the house where it will not come in contact with the Pesach products which have already been set up.



Both the blessing and Declaration can be found on the next page and are generally located at the front of the Haggadah. Both are also posted on our website in the holiday resources section. There are two Declarations, a nighttime version and a daytime version. Both are to be recited at the appropriate time.

B'deekat Chametz kits are available from the synagogue office.

Be-your Chametz: Burning the Chametz

Chametz should be burned on Wednesday, April 5, by 11:51 AM.

No chametz may be eaten after 10:41 AM on Wednesday, April 5.

The Declaration of Nullification (daytime version) should be recited on Wednesday, April 5 at 11:51 AM

B'DEEKAT CHAMETZ:
SEARCHING FOR LEAVEN

Before the search, recite:

בָּרוּךְ אַתָּה ד' אֱלֹקֵינוּ מֶלֶךְ הָעוֹלָם, אֲשֶׁר קִדְּשָׁנוּ בְּמִצְוֹתָיו, וְצִוָּנוּ עַל בִּעוּר חָמֵץ

Ba-ruch atta Adonai, Eh-lo-hey-noo Me-lech ha-o-lam, a-sher keed-sha-noo b'mits-vo-tav v'tsee-va-noo al be-oor cha-metz.

Praised are You, Adonai our God, King of the universe who has sanctified us through His commandments, commanding us to remove all chametz.

After the search, recite:

כָּל חֲמִירָא וַחֲמִיעָה דְּאִכָּא בִרְשׁוּתִי דְּלָא חֲמִתֵּהּ וּדְלָא בַעַרְתֵּהּ וּדְלָא יְדַעְנָא לֵהּ לִבְטִיל וְלֶהֱוֵי הֶפְקֵר כְּעַפְרָא דְאַרְעָא

Kol cha-me-rah va-cha-me-ah d'-ee-ka veer-shoo-tay, d'-la cha-me-tay ood-la va-ah-ree-tay, ood-la ya-da-na lay, leev-teel v'-leh-heh-vay hef-kare k'-af-ra d'-ah-ra.

All chametz in my possession which I have not seen or removed, or of which I am unaware, is hereby nullified and ownerless as the dust of the earth.

Recitation of this declaration, and a similar one the following day, prevents us from violating the prohibition against chametz (Exodus 13: 7). In the morning, after the last meal of chametz, leftovers are added to the crumbs gathered the previous night. These are burned or thrown out. This concludes the ritual of banishing chametz from our dwellings.

In the morning, recite:

כָּל חֲמִירָא וַחֲמִיעָה דְּאִכָּא בִרְשׁוּתִי דַּחֲזִתֵּהּ וּדְלָא חֲזִתֵּהּ, דַּחֲמִתֵּהּ וּדְלָא חֲמִתֵּהּ,דְּבַעַרִיתֵּהּ וּדְלָא בַעַרִיתֵּהּ דְּיַדַּעְנָא לֵהּ וּדְלָא יַדַּעְנָא לֵהּ לִבְטִיל וְלֶהֱוֵי הֶפְקֵר כְּעַפְרָא דְאַרְעָא

Kol cha-me-rah va-cha-me-ah d'-ee-ka veer-shoo-tay, da-cha-ze-tay ood'-la cha-ze-tay, da-cha-me-tay ood'-la cha-me-tay, d'-va-ah-ree-tay ood-la va-ah-ree-tay, d'ya-da-na lay, ood-la ya-da-na lay, leev-teel v'-leh-heh-vay hef-kare k'-af-ra d'-ah-ra.

All chametz in my possession, whether I have seen it or not, whether I have removed it or not, is hereby nullified and ownerless as the dust of the earth.

Reflection:
Adonai, our God and God of our ancestors, just as I have removed all chametz from my home and from my ownership, so may I evict the evil inclination from my heart, and may You dislodge the evil from the earth.

LIVING THE WORDS OF THE HAGGADAH

"All who are hungry, let them come and eat. All who are in need, let them come to celebrate Passover."

(The Passover Haggadah)

There are many Families within our Jewish community who cannot prepare for the Seder and the Passover celebration. They are families on limited incomes without the means to buy the foods and other items necessary for a proper Passover observance.

It is customary at Passover time to contribute to a "MAOT CHITTIM" fund. The meaning of these Hebrew words is "wheat money" and the funds are used to provide the basic needs of Jewish families for Passover. In the Passover spirit of sharing and caring, we ask you to fulfill this mitzvah by contributing to the Passover fund.

FEAST OR FAST?

Siyyum B'chorim – Fast of the First Born

Wednesday, April 5, 8:00 – 9:00 AM (In-person and Zoom)

Adonai passed over the houses of the children of Israel," (Exodus 12, Verse 12) and spared the first-born male Israelites when the first-born male Egyptians died during the last of the ten plagues. As a reminder of this event, the day before Pesach is observed as a fast day. Jewish law requires that all adults and children who are the first-born child in their family fast from dawn until the first Seder.

The Rabbis permitted all first born to be exempt from fasting by participating in a special ceremony, a siyyum. A Siyyum marks the completion of the study of a unit of Jewish text, such as a tractate of the Talmud. The completion of a book of the Talmud is a joyous occasion and is followed by a Seudat Mitzvah, a religious feast. In this way, they are exempt from fasting and may eat with the rest of us.

Join Rabbi Eligberg as he completes his study of The Apocryphal Book of Jubilees following services and celebrate with breakfast. If you have never participated in this mitzvah before, make this the year to experience something new. Parents, bring your first-born with you. Remember to bring your Tallit and T'fillin.

Please contact the synagogue office to let us know you will join us. We will conclude around 9:00AM.

SUPPORTERS

Temple Israel's sponsorship opportunity, Sponsor a Stream, has been going incredibly well.
Since we are unable to gather for Kiddush or Seudah, this allows us to honor a loved one or acknowledge a simcha.
