Smachot & Sponsorships

- Main Kiddush is sponsored this week by Emily & Moshe Zaghi in honor of Emily's parents, Laura and Scott Danoff, who are visiting Atlanta this Shabbat.

YITH Upcoming Events

- Cholent Cook Off Returns! You are invited to judge the tastiest cholents in town at the Annual YITH Cholent Cook-off during Kiddush next Shabbat, February 23rd! Many have entered, only one will win the coveted Cholent Cook-off Champion Belt. The cholents will be judged anonymously and each cholent will be identified with its creator when the results are announced. Do you think your cholent has what it takes to win? Enter at www.yith.org/cholent.
- Southern Soiree at YITH Enjoy an evening out, Sunday, March 3rd at 7:30pm. Get in the pre-Purim spirit with some Southern fun! Enjoy improv with the talented troupe from Dad's Garage, a chicken & waffles dinner, craft bar with signature bourbon cocktails and more! $54 per person. 21+ only, please. RSVP at www.yith.org/soiree
- Family Kabbalat Shabbat Another of our very popular Family Kabbalat Shabbat evenings will be held next Friday night, February 22nd, beginning with Mincha at 6:10pm. We invite everyone for a festive family-friendly, ruach filled Tefillah in the Main Sanctuary, followed by a light kid-friendly kiddush for our younger daveners. Thank you to this month's sponsors Eliana Leader & Yoni Kaplan, Tamir & Doni Fogel, and Becca & Josh Guttman. Future sponsorships are welcome!
- Scholar in Residence Rabbi Shmuel Hain YITH is honored to welcome Rabbi Shmuel Hain over Shabbat Pekude, March 8-9. Rabbi Hain is Rabbi of Young Israel Ohab Zedek of North Riverdale/Yonkers. As Rosh Beit Midrash at SAR High School, he directs the graduate Beit Midrash Fellowship, teaches advanced Judaic Studies classes, and oversees after-school and Alumni learning programs. He is also Director of Machon Siach at SAR High School. Rabbi Hain has co-authored and edited several volumes of Torah and academic scholarship, including a volume in The Orthodox Forum series entitled The Next Generation of Modern Orthodoxy (Ktav: 2012), and currently serves as Series Editor of The Orthodox Forum. Look for more information about Rabbi Hain's talk and a community Shabbat dinner soon.
