As noted in our latest email to the congregation (download a copy here), we plan to offer High Holy Day services in person, with requirements for wearing masks, physically distancing between households, and proof of vaccination. There will also be the option to attend services remotely through live streaming.

Saturday, August 28
9:30 PM - Midnight

9:30-10:30 PM: Program
10:30-11:00 PM: Dessert and coffee
11:00 PM-Midnight: Selichot service ending with a midnight blast of the shofar

In two volumes entitled, When We Turned Within, Rabbi Menachem Creditor and Sarah Tuttle-Singer collected stories, articles, and poems composed by Jewish writers during the past 15 months.

For Selichot at Temple Sinai this year, we will hold a “Moth”-like program sharing some of these readings. What connects them is that they are actually all prayers, seeking transcendence during a difficult time.

You may also join us for the service on Facebook Live
