Temple Beth El's Mission Statement

Temple Beth El is a Reform Jewish congregation that continually renews itself by embracing these eternal values:

Prayer, Avodah

We view prayer as a regular practice of seeking connection with the divine, found both throughout the world around us and in one another. We gather to provide comfort, inspiration, uplift and guidance and believe that our prayer and study must ultimately prompt us into action. Through regular worship, holiday observances and lifecycle events, we root ourselves in the wisdom of Jewish tradition while constantly seeking to renew and reinterpret its lasting message.

Torah Study, Talmud Torah

As Rabbi Louis Finkelstein once taught, "When I pray, I speak to God. When I study, God speaks to me." We view the Torah and the later works of Jewish wisdom as our tradition's attempt to discern the sacred in each moment of our lives. We cherish the opportunity to participate in a 3,000 year old discussion of morality and ethics and eagerly participate in the wrestling first exemplified by our patriarch Jacob, when he was renamed Israel - the one who wrestles with God. Through the study of our sacred texts, we discover how to fashion lives of Jewish meaning in an ever-changing world and root our lives in the wisdom of our ancestors.

Social Justice, Tzedek

Our congregation pursues social justice, striving toward tikkun olam, repair of the world, through deeds of righteousness and loving-kindness. We provide opportunities for our members to act upon our Jewish values, inspiring engagement in social action and social advocacy. We accept as our mission the prophetic challenge to serve as a "light unto the nations", calling for justice and committing ourselves to act as God's hands. Ultimately, we understand that the more we contribute, the more meaning we receive in our lives. Finally, the sacred responsibility to act as stewards of creation compels us to practice Judaism and operate our congregation under sustainable and environmentally friendly standards.

Community, Kehilah

We offer comfort, joy, friendship and support to our members. We appreciate the rich diversity of the Jewish community and welcome all who seek a connection to Jewish Life. We encourage participation of interfaith couples and families as well as people of all backgrounds, ages, financial means, sexual orientations and gender identities. We welcome children and adults with disabilities and their families. We strive to ensure that our programs and facilities are accessible to all and to accommodate special needs. Equally important is our strong commitment to the larger community, both Jewish and non-Jewish, locally, nationally, around the world, and in Israel, which is linked to us through history and faith.

At Beth El we are a community of families and individuals who seek to utilize Jewish tradition to gain meaning, comfort and mission in our lives. As God commands the Israelites in Exodus 25:8:

וַעֲשׂוּ לִי, מִקְדָּשׁ; וְשָׁכַנְתִּי, בְּתוֹכָם

And let them make Me a sanctuary, that I may dwell within them

We seek to offer sacred space in which God may be found within and between each and every one of us.

Dear Potential Member,

Welcome to Temple Beth El of Northern Westchester. As the Senior Rabbi, I am proud to serve this historic and vibrant congregation. Thank you for considering joining me and the many families and congregants who have elected to call Beth El our home.

We are taught that the Torah scroll is unusable if even a single letter is missing. So too, we believe that each and every individual possesses infinite value to the Jewish community. As each of us is created betselem elohim – in the image of God, each member of our congregation adds to the sacred nature of our family.

I invite you to contact me at your convenience to meet in person and discuss in further depth how we at Temple Beth El may best support you and your family. Feel free to email me at jjaffe@bethelnw.org in order to set up an appointment, or call me anytime at 914-238-3928 x1310. Otherwise, I welcome you to get to know us through our various worship, study or community engagement opportunities. You can learn more about who we are and what we do via our website or monthly bulletin.

Thank you for exploring Temple Beth El and for considering how our family may best fit yours. Should you have any further questions or comments, please do not hesitate to contact me directly.

L'Shalom,

Rabbi Jonathan Jaffe

Temple Beth El Religious School's Mission Statement:

(Adopted June 8, 2017)

Temple Beth El's Religious School stands as an inclusive and welcoming environment that represents the heart of our synagogue. We strive to help our students build a strong Jewish identity and to foster a connection to God, the Temple Beth El community and to Am Yisrael, the Jewish people.

We view Jewish education as a life-long journey. To that end, our curriculum encompasses Jewish history and culture, Torah, appreciation for Israel and Jewish values. We teach prayer Hebrew and liturgy with the goal of enabling our students to participate in religious services anywhere in the world and to prepare them for all their life cycle events, from consecration through their bar/bat mitzvah and later, confirmation.

We utilize traditional and innovative teaching methods including text-based learning, music, art, small group projects, guest speakers, field trips and experiential education. We view our parents as our students' primary educators and therefore seek to engage them as active participants through family education, Shabbat and holiday observances, as well as volunteer opportunities.

Our goal is to help our students cultivate a love of Jewish learning, an understanding of our shared heritage and to become the next generation of Jewish leaders.

Youth Programs

The Temple Beth El Youth Program strives to create a warm and inspiring atmosphere that will help the participants foster a sense of Jewish community and identity.

Junior Youth – Kindergarten through 7th Graders

Temple Beth El's Junior Youth Committee is designed to promote a strong sense of community within Temple Beth El for our kindergartners through 7th graders. The Committee's primary objective is to encourage our children to want to be involved in their Jewish community at a young age. We are achieving this goal by offering a wide variety of social and community-based activities for children within this age group. The activities offered to our kindergartners through 7th graders include art, athletic programs, cooking, and so much more. Through these activities, the Junior Youth Committee provides Beth El's younger students an opportunity to gain team-building skills, build friendships, and fully understand and appreciate the value of being part of a Jewish community.

BESTY – Friendship, Leadership & More – 9th through 12th Graders

BESTY (Beth El Senior Teen Youth) offers an opportunity for Beth El teens to build friendships, develop lifelong Reform Jewish identities, and leadership skills through community building, worship, social action, and experiential youth-lead Jewish educational programming. The group is led by its board and president. They receive help and guidance from our Youth Coordinator, Joni Kellogg and are under the supervision of Rabbi Maura Linzer. Activities include dinner outings, a variety of social justice activities, events in New York City, the annual Purim Carnival, as well as regional and national NFTY (North American Federation of Temple Youth) events with other students from around the New York metro region.

Parent Power

While these programs cater to the youth of our congregation, the Youth Program relies upon support of adult members to sustain its infrastructure and help continue its development. Our Junior Youth Committee members enable youth programming to thrive in the synagogue by advocating for youth issues, chaperoning youth events, and shaping the vision and policies of the Youth Program. Members of the Junior Youth Committee bring with them their previous experiences with youth group activities, connections with outside organizations, programs which can benefit our youth, and a strong desire to develop a successful program for the next generation.

Building Fund

Temple membership is the right of every Jewish family, regardless of ability to pay. And, temple membership is also a responsibility of every Jewish family. As you are aware, you are making a commitment when you join a congregation. One of your obligations is financial. In addition to annual dues and any applicable Religious School fees, each member makes a pledge to our Building Fund.

Our temple was built to accommodate existing and future members, with the cost to be shared by present and future participants. In order to provide for our future, the congregation has established a Building Fund requirement for each new family. This commitment is $7,000, payable over seven years at $1,000 per year (should the member decide to pay the Building Fund requirement in a lump sum, payment of $6,500 will satisfy the obligation). It is also provided that no one will be excluded from membership because of inability to pay. The principle remains: "From each according to his or her ability."

For families whose head of household is under age 28, payment of the Building Fund is deferred until after three (3) years of membership or age 30, whichever is sooner.

For those families that qualify for our one-year membership incentive program (whose children are not in the B'nei Mitzvah prep. years) the building fund can be deferred until either their child reaches the 3rd Grade or after three (3) years of membership, whichever is sooner.
