L'ma'an tizk'ru va'asitem et-kol-mitzvotai, vihyitem k'doshim leiloheichem.

Remember all my mitzvot and do them, and you will be holy before your God.

Ani Adonai Eloheichem, asher hotzeiti etchem mei'eretz mitzrayim lihyot lachem leilohim. I am Adonai your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt to be your God.

אַנִי יִיָּ אֱלֹהַיכֶם.

Ani Adonai Eloheichem. I am Adonai your God.

Helpful Hints

God's name is spelled with these four Hebrew letters: הודי. But is often written as יוֹל. In either case, we do not try to pronounce the name, but instead say Adonai, which literally means "My Lord," or Hashem, which means "the Name."

Discuss as a Family

The Haggadah tells us that during Passover each of us should imagine that we were among the slaves who were set free from Egypt. With your family, discuss how it might have felt to experience freedom after a lifetime of slavery.
