We Remember Them

Sylvan Kamens & Rabbi Jack Riemer

At the rising sun and its going down;

We remember them.

At the blowing of the wind and in the chill of awinter;

We remember them.

At the opening of the buds and in the rebirth of spring;

We remember them.

At the blueness of the skies and in the warmth of summer;

We remember them.

At the rustling of the leaves and in the beauty of autumn;

We remember them.

At the beginning of the year and when it ends;

We remember them.

As long as we live, they too will live,

for they are now a part of us as

We remember them.

When we are weary and in need of strength;

We remember them.

When we are lost and sick at heart;

We remember them.

When we have decisions that are difficult to make;

We remember them.

When we have joy we crave to share;

We remember them.

When we have achievements that are based on theirs;

We remember them.

As long as we live, they too will live,

for they are now a part of us as

We remember them.

Shall I Cry Out in Anger?

Shall I cry out in anger, O God,
Because Your gifts are mine but for a while?

*Shall I forget the blessing of health
The moment it gives way to illness and pain?*

Shall I be ungrateful for the moments of laughter,
The seasons of joy, the days of gladness and festivity?

*When a fate beyond my understanding takes from me
Friends and kin whom I have cherished, and leaves me
Bereft of shining presences that have lit my way
Through years of companionship and affection,*

When tears cloud my eyes and darken the world,
And my heart is heavy within me,
Shall I blot from the mind the love
I have known and in which I have rejoiced?

*Shall I grieve for a youth that has gone
Once my hair is gray and my shoulders bent,
And forget days of vibrancy and power?*

Shall I, in days of adversity, fail to recall
The hours of joy and glory You once granted me?

*Shall the time of darkness put out forever
The glow of the light in which I once walked?*

Give me the vision, O God, to see and feel
That imbedded deep in each of Your gifts
Is a core of eternity, undiminished and bright,
An eternity that survives the dread hours of affliction and misery.

*Those I have loved, though now beyond my view,
Have given form and quality to my life,
And they live on, unfailingly feeding
My heart and mind and imagination.*

They have led me into the wide universe
I continue to inhabit, and their presence
Is more vital to me than their absence.

*What You give, O Lord, You do not take away,
And bounties once granted
Shed their radiance evermore.*

Within me Your love and vision,
Now woven deep into the texture of my being,
Live and Will be mine forever.

REMEMBERING MEMBERS OF OUR CONGREGATION

We lovingly recall the members of our congregation who have passed away since we gathered in our sanctuary on last Yom Kippur. They have a special place in our hearts. We pray this day that all who have sustained the loss of loved ones in the year gone by be granted comfort and strength.

Exalted, compassionate God, comfort the bereaved families of this congregation. Help all of us to perpetuate the worthy values in the lives of those no longer with us, whose names we respectfully recall:

This Book of Remembrance is dedicated in love and devotion to the fond and sacred memories of those whom even the power of death could not take from us.

Its publication is made possible through the contributions of those in whose hearts they continue to live.

An Eternal Treasure

When my loved one is taken from me, shall I mourn?
When my dear one departs forever,
shall I wail and rend my flesh as I do my garment?
No! That is not the way.

I may find the road ahead lonely.
I may dread tomorrow without that voice, without that smile.
I may not know whence will come the courage to continue.
Yet I shall not despair!

I shall praise God who gave me my beloved.
I shall sing unto God, who enables us to love.
I shall voice thanks for what I have had.
I refuse to become bitter over what I shall lack.

When my loved one leaves me, I shall indeed shed tears.
Yet, even then, I shall utter a hymn —
A song of joy for what has been.

BARUKH ATAH ADONAI!
Praised are You, O God!
You have allowed me to know love;
You have granted me an eternal treasure.

— Simcha King
