CONSENTS & RELEASES (Continued)

Unless otherwise indicated by you in writing, you hereby give permission to the Temple Sinai to publish and/or distribute in print, electronic, digital or video format, including but not limited to photographs, videotape images and digital images, the likeness or image of you and members of your family, including any minor children. You understand that if my minor child's likeness or image is published or distributed by Temple Sinai, your child will not be identified by name unless you give express permission. You release all claims against Temple Sinai with respect to copyright, ownership, intellectual property rights, publication rights, privacy rights, and all such similar rights, including any claims for compensation, related to the use of said likenesses or images. All negatives, prints and digital reproductions shall be and shall remain the exclusive property of the Temple Sinai.       Yes    No

Temple Sinai is committed to being accessible to all families regardless of financial circumstances.

Check here if you would like to speak with someone about financial assistance. Please note that documentation of need will be required.

FINANCIAL POLICIES & ACKNOWLEDGMENT

The fiscal year at Temple Sinai runs from July 1 to June 30. Membership commitment fees are billed on an annual basis before the start of the fiscal year.

Membership is automatically renewed each year, unless the Temple Administrator is notified in writing to the contrary.

Tickets for High Holiday Services will be sent only to those members whose financial obligations are current.

I/We hereby apply for membership to Temple Sinai. If I/we become a member, I/we agree to abide by the Bylaws and Standing Rules of the congregation, including the timely payment of my/our annual commitment and any associated fees. I/We understand that failure to do so may result in suspension or termination of my/our membership. I/We also understand that if I/we resign my membership, I/we remain responsible for any outstanding debts to Temple Sinai, including membership commitment fees incurred until the date that Temple Sinai receives written notice of the resignation. All outstanding financial obligations survive termination of membership until paid.       Yes    No
